8. The Principal Act is further amended by inserting the following new section next after section forty-nine:—

Promotions committee.

49A. (1) When a recommendation is made to the Board for the promotion to a permanent position in a department of an officer other than the officer of that department who is next in order of seniority for such promotion, the Board shall refer such recommendation to a promotions committee which shall be constituted for the purpose by the Board.

Public Service (Amendment).

(2) Unless the Board considers it desirable a reference to a promotions committee shall not be made when the salary attached to the position to be filled exceeds seven hundred and fifty pounds per annum.

(3) A promotions committee shall consist of—

- (a) The permanent head of the department in which the proposed promotion is to be made, or an officer nominated by him ;
- (b) an officers' representative who shall be an officer of the division in which the position to be filled is classified, and who shall be selected by or on behalf of the employees of that division in the manner prescribed ;
- (c) an officer to be nominated by the other members of the committee or (failing agreement by them) by the Board.

(4) The committee shall inquire into the claims to the promotion in question of all officers proposed to be passed over, and shall report to the Board their opinion or opinions thereon.

(5) The Board shall take such report into consideration before arriving at its decision, and, if so desired by the officers' representative, shall hear him in support of the claims of any officer whose seniority may be adversely affected by the promotion recommended.

(6) The Board may make regulations to give effect to the provisions of this section.

9. (1) The Principal Act is further amended—

Public Service (Amendment).

- (iii) by inserting in paragraph (c) of subsection two of the same section after the words "charges made against him, the Board" the words "shall summon the officer concerned before it and";
  - (iv) by omitting from the same paragraph the words "it may communicate its opinion to the Governor, who may thereupon appoint one or more persons" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "it may appoint an officer of the Public Service, or, with the approval of the Governor, some other person or persons";
  - (v) by inserting in paragraph (d) of the same subsection after the words "according to the nature of the offence" the words "impose one or more of the following punishments, namely";
- (b) by inserting the following new section next after section fifty-six:—

Enforcement
of judgments.

56A. (1) Where judgment has been given by any court against any officer or employee of the Public Service for the payment of any sum of money, the person in whose favour the judgment is given may serve on the permanent head of the department in which the officer or employee is employed a copy of the judgment certified under the hand of the registrar or other proper officer of the court by which the judgment was delivered, and a statutory declaration stating that the judgment has not been satisfied by the judgment debtor, and setting out the amount due by the judgment debtor under the judgment.

(2) Upon the service upon him of a copy of a judgment and a statutory declaration in pursuance of this section the permanent head shall, as soon as practicable, notify the judgment debtor in writing of the service of the copy judgment and statutory declaration,

Public Service (Amendment).

and require him to state in writing within a time to be specified by the permanent head whether the judgment has been satisfied, and, if so, to furnish evidence in support thereof, and if the judgment has not been satisfied, to state the amount then due under the judgment.

(3) If the officer or employee fails to prove to the satisfaction of the permanent head that the judgment has been satisfied, the permanent head may, from time to time, deduct from any moneys due to the officer or employee such sums as are, in his opinion, necessary to enable the judgment to be satisfied, and shall pay those sums to the judgment creditor :

Provided that in no case shall a deduction be made which will reduce the amount to be received by the officer or employee to less than four pounds per week, or to less than one-third of the amount which would, but for the provisions of this section, be payable to the officer or employee, whichever is the greater.

(4) Where more than one judgment and statutory declaration are served upon the permanent head in respect of one judgment debtor, the judgments shall be dealt with under this section in the order in which copies of the judgments are served upon the permanent head.

(5) A payment made to a judgment creditor in pursuance of this section shall, as between the State and the officer or employee, be deemed to be a payment by the State to the officer or employee.

(6) Any person to whom a payment has been made in pursuance of this section who fails to notify the permanent head immediately a judgment debt in respect of which the payment was made is satisfied shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

Public Service (Amendment).

(7) If any payment made in pursuance of this section exceeds the amount due under the judgment, the excess shall be repayable by the department to the judgment debtor, and in default of payment may be recovered by the judgment debtor from the department in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply in relation to any officer or employee whose estate has been sequestrated either voluntarily or compulsorily for the benefit of his creditors and who has not yet obtained a certificate of discharge.

- (c) by omitting section fifty-eight and by inserting in lieu thereof the following section :—

58. (1) If it comes to the knowledge of the Board that any officer is alleged to have been guilty of any of the offences specified in section fifty-six, the Board may deal with the matter in one of the modes following :—

(a) The Board may initiate an inquiry into the case and for that purpose shall inform the officer of the charge against him, and receive evidence thereon, and in all other respects deal with the charge as though it had arisen under the provisions of either section fifty-six or section fifty-seven ; or

(b) The Board may suspend such officer, and in all other respects deal with the charge as though the officer concerned had been suspended by the permanent head or the Minister under the provisions of section fifty-six or section fifty-seven.

- (d) by omitting section sixty-nine and by inserting the following new section :—

69. All notices of appointments, promotions, transfers, retirements, and removals of officers made under this Act with the approval of the Governor

Initiation by
Board of Inquiry.

Enforcement
of judgments.

56A. (1) Where judgment has been given by any court against any officer or employee of the Public Service for the payment of any sum of money, the person in whose favour the judgment is given may serve on the permanent head of the department in which the officer or employee is employed a copy of the judgment certified under the hand of the registrar or other proper officer of the court by which the judgment was delivered, and a statutory declaration stating that the judgment has not been satisfied by the judgment debtor, and setting out the amount due by the judgment debtor under the judgment.

(2) Upon the service upon him of a copy of a judgment and a statutory declaration in pursuance of this section the permanent head shall, as soon as practicable, notify the judgment debtor in writing of the service of the copy judgment and statutory declaration,

Public Service (Amendment).

and require him to state in writing within a time to be specified by the permanent head whether the judgment has been satisfied, and, if so, to furnish evidence in support thereof, and if the judgment has not been satisfied, to state the amount then due under the judgment.

(3) If the officer or employee fails to prove to the satisfaction of the permanent head that the judgment has been satisfied, the permanent head may, from time to time, deduct from any moneys due to the officer or employee such sums as are, in his opinion, necessary to enable the judgment to be satisfied, and shall pay those sums to the judgment creditor :

Provided that in no case shall a deduction be made which will reduce the amount to be received by the officer or employee to less than four pounds per week, or to less than one-third of the amount which would, but for the provisions of this section, be payable to the officer or employee, whichever is the greater.

(4) Where more than one judgment and statutory declaration are served upon the permanent head in respect of one judgment debtor, the judgments shall be dealt with under this section in the order in which copies of the judgments are served upon the permanent head.

(5) A payment made to a judgment creditor in pursuance of this section shall, as between the State and the officer or employee, be deemed to be a payment by the State to the officer or employee.

(6) Any person to whom a payment has been made in pursuance of this section who fails to notify the permanent head immediately a judgment debt in respect of which the payment was made is satisfied shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

Public Service (Amendment).

(7) If any payment made in pursuance of this section exceeds the amount due under the judgment, the excess shall be repayable by the department to the judgment debtor, and in default of payment may be recovered by the judgment debtor from the department in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply in relation to any officer or employee whose estate has been sequestrated either voluntarily or compulsorily for the benefit of his creditors and who has not yet obtained a certificate of discharge.

(c) by omitting section fifty-eight and by inserting in lieu thereof the following section :—

Initiation by
Board of Inquiry.

58. (1) If it comes to the knowledge of the Board that any officer is alleged to have been guilty of any of the offences specified in section fifty-six, the Board may deal with the matter in one of the modes following :—

(a) The Board may initiate an inquiry into the case and for that purpose shall inform the officer of the charge against him, and receive evidence thereon, and in all other respects deal with the charge as though it had arisen under the provisions of either section fifty-six or section fifty-seven ; or

(b) The Board may suspend such officer, and in all other respects deal with the charge as though the officer concerned had been suspended by the permanent head or the Minister under the provisions of section fifty-six or section fifty-seven.

(d) by omitting section sixty-nine and by inserting the following new section :—
