Act No. 28, 1916

(a) by inserting in section thirty-four after subsection one the following new subsection :—

Sec. 34.

(1A) Any employee of the Sydney Harbour Trust Commissioners who—

(Sydney
Harbour
Trust employees.)

(a) has served for at least ten years before the date of the commencement of the Superannuation (Amendment) Act, 1928; and

(b) was of or over the age of sixty years at such commencement, may be retired at any time after the said commencement at a pension in accordance with salary as set out in section twelve, but not exceeding one hundred and four pounds per annum, without paying any contribution to the fund.

Any such pension shall be payable from the date of retirement and shall carry widows' and children's benefits as elsewhere in this Act provided.

The provisions of this subsection conferring benefits on the widow and children of an employee of the Sydney Harbour Trust Commissioners shall extend to the widow and children of a person employed by the Commissioners who before the said commencement had died while in the service of the Commissioners as if he had been retired on a pension under this section on account of his age on the day immediately preceding the day of his death: Provided that each such person was of a class similar to that which the Commissioners certify under the provisions of the said Act as being paid in the Public Service by salary fixed at an annual rate.

Superannuation (Amendment).

A pension or benefit under this subsection shall be paid out of the funds of the employer but no pension or benefit shall be payable in respect of any period prior to the said commencement.
