

No. , 1932.

A BILL

To make further provision relating to officers and servants of the Australian Museum; to amend the Australian Museum (Amendment) Act, 1931, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

[MR. WILLIAM DAVIES;—10 May, 1932.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of 5 the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Australian Museum Short title. (Amendment) Act, 1932."

Citation of Act No. 61,
1902.

2. The Australian Museum Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts and this Act, may be cited as the Australian Museum Act, 1902-1932.

Amendment
of Act No. 39,
1931, s. 2.

3. (1) The Australian Museum (Amendment) Act, 1931, is amended by inserting next after subsection two of section two the following new subsections:—

(3) Any such officer or servant shall have and enjoy the same rights and privileges, if any, with regard to annual, sick, deferred, and extended leave, and with regard to superannuation contributions and payments, as if he had continued an officer or servant of the Museum, and for this purpose service as an officer or servant of the Museum shall count as continuous service under the Public Service Act, 1902.

(4) No such officer or servant shall be entitled to claim benefits under the Public Service Act, 1902, as well as under any other Act in respect of the same period of service.

(2) The amendment made by subsection one of this section shall be deemed to have commenced upon the second day of November, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one.
