these and other purposes to amend the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913; the Returned Soldiers Settlement Act, 1916; the Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1927, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 2nd October, 1931.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931," and shall be read and construed with the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, as amended by subsequent Acts.

Repeals.

2. The Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are, to the extent therein indicated, hereby repealed.

Amendment of Act No. 7, 1913.

3. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is amended as follows:—

Sec. 166.

(Appraisements by local land boards.)

(a) by inserting in section one hundred and sixty-six after the words "provided by the Minister" the following words:—

Where the rent, license fee, price, or capital value of any holding is to be determined, the local land board in making the determination shall have regard to the productive capacity of the land under fair average seasons, prices, and conditions.

Evidence of sales or leases of land similar in quality, locality, and other respects to the land in respect of which the determination is to be made shall not be deemed to be relevant unless the local land board is satisfied that the value reflected by any such sale or lease is fair and reasonable, having regard to the productive capacity of the land under fair average seasons, prices, and conditions.

- (b) (i) by omitting subsection three of section one hundred and sixty-seven and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsection:—

Sec. 167.
(Appraisal of capital values.)

(3) The application may be lodged at any time within five years after the confirmation or approval of the application for the holding, or at any time within two years after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

- (ii) by omitting subsection four of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsection:—

(4) Where, after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, an application for appraisal of the capital value of a holding has been made under the provisions of this section no further application thereunder to have the capital value of the holding determined shall be entertained, notwithstanding that the tenure of the holding has been converted into some other form of tenure.

- (iii) by omitting subsection six of the same section;

(See Act No. 4, 1930, s. 4

- (iv) by omitting subsection (6A) of the same section;

- (v) by omitting from subsection seven of the same section the words and figures "Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1927" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures "Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931";

- (vi) by inserting in subsection eight of the same section before the words "The capital value of the land" the words "Subject to the provisions of section one hundred and sixty-six";

- (vii) by omitting from subsection eleven of the same section the words and figures "Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1927" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures "Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931";

(viii)

- (viii) by inserting next after subsection thirteen of the same section the following new subsection:—

(14) For the purpose of making application for determination of the capital value of any holding which is abandoned by the holder or forfeited under this Act and of which at the time of abandonment or forfeiture the Commissioners of the Government Savings Bank of New South Wales are mortgagees, the said Commissioners shall be entitled to exercise the rights of a holder under this section.

Subsection seven of this section shall not apply to any such application of the said Commissioners.

For the purposes of this subsection a holding shall be deemed to have been abandoned if the said Commissioners furnish to the local land board a certificate to that effect.

Sec. 167A.
(Appraisement of rents.)

- (c) (i) by omitting subsection two of section 167A and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsection:—

(2) The application in the prescribed form shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee, and shall be made within five years after the confirmation or approval of the application for the holding, or within two years after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

- (ii) by inserting in subsection four of the same section before the words "The local land board" the words "Subject to the provisions of section one hundred and sixty-six";

(See Act No.
4, 1930, s.
16 (j).)

- (iii) by omitting from subsection six of the same section the words "Where an appraisal of the annual rent of a holding" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures "Where after the commencement of

- (iv) by inserting next after subsection seven of the same section the following new subsection:—

(8) For the purpose of making application for determination of the annual rent of any holding which is abandoned by the holder or forfeited under this Act, and of which at the time of abandonment or forfeiture the Commissioners of the Government Savings Bank of New South Wales are mortgagees, the said Commissioners shall be entitled to exercise the rights of a holder under this section.

Subsection three of this section shall not apply to any such application of the said Commissioners.

For the purposes of this subsection a holding shall be deemed to have been abandoned if the said Commissioners furnish to the local land board a certificate to that effect.

4. (1) The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended by inserting next after section two hundred and thirty-five the following short heading and new section:—

Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913.
New s. 235A.

Lands measured with boundaries to lakes, roads, &c.

- 235A. (1) In this section—

“Bank” means the limit of the bed of any lake or river.

Lands alienated with boundaries to lakes, roads, &c.

“Bed” means the whole of the soil of any lake or river including that portion thereof which is alternately covered and left bare as there may be an increase or diminution in the supply of water and which is adequate to contain it at its average cf. Thames Conservators v. Smeed, 1897, 2 Q.B. at p. 338.

average or mean stage without reference to extraordinary freshets in time of flood or to extreme droughts.

cf. Water
Act, 1912-
1930, s. 5.

“Lake” includes a lagoon or other like collection of water, whether permanent or temporary, not being water contained in an artificial work.

Ibid.

“River” includes any stream of water whether perennial or intermittent, flowing in a natural channel, and any affluent, confluent, branch, or other stream into or from which the river flows.

(2) The boundary of any land which is granted or otherwise alienated by the Crown and which is described or alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of any non-tidal lake or by metes which are expressed or shown to run to the lake or to the bank of the lake shall be deemed to be the bank of the lake at the time of the Crown survey for the purposes of the alienation.

(3) No title to the land comprising the bed of any non-tidal lake shall pass or be deemed ever to have passed by any Crown grant of land adjoining the lake by reason of the land granted being described as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the lake or by metes expressed to run to the lake or to the margin or bank of the lake.

(4) No title to the land comprising the bed of any non-tidal lake shall pass or be deemed ever to have passed by any other alienation of land adjoining the lake by reason of the land being alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the lake or by metes expressed or shown to run to the lake or to the margin or bank of the lake.

(5) (a) No person shall by reason of his being the owner of any land so described or alienated be entitled to any rights of access over or to the user of any part of such bed.

---

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect any license or authority acquired either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, under or pursuant to the Water Act, 1912-1930.

(6) The doctrine of accretion shall not apply and shall be deemed never to have applied to a non-tidal lake.

(7) Nothing in this section shall operate to divest any land included in a certificate of title under the Real Property Act, 1900, issued before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

(8) Where under the Crown Lands Acts the bed of any river has been reserved from sale or lease no person shall by reason of his being the owner of any land adjoining the river which has been subsequently alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the river or by metes expressed or shown to run to the river or to the margin or bank of the river be entitled to any rights of access over or to the user of any part of the bed of the river other than to such rights as are or have been acquired either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, under or pursuant to the Water Act, 1912-1930.

(9) Where, either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, any land which has been or is granted or alienated by the Crown with a boundary adjoining or as bounded by a road which has been or is created by the Crown, no part of such road shall be deemed to have passed or to pass with the land so granted or alienated.

(10) This section shall extend to all lands comprised in any grant or other alienation whether made before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

(11) In this section "alienation" includes any form of tenure under the Crown Lands Acts, the Closer Settlement Acts, or any other Act relating to the alienation of lands of the Crown, and "alienated" has a corresponding meaning.

(12) Nothing in this section shall apply to Lake Victoria or to any other lake to which the River Murray Waters Act, 1915, as amended by subsequent Acts, or any agreement thereby ratified, applies.

Amendment of
Act No. 44, 1912.

Sec. 7.

(Rights of occupiers of
land.)

(2) The Water Act, 1912-1931, is amended by inserting at the end of subsection six of section seven the words "or, with respect to a lake, to give to an occupier any right of access over or to the user of land not lawfully occupied by him."

Further
amendment of
Act No. 7, 1913.
New s. 235B.

5. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended by inserting next after section 235A the following new short heading and section:—

Limitation on acquisition of title by possession against the Crown.

Limitation of acquisition of title by possession.

235B. No title to any land of the Crown which has been either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931—

- (a) set out as a road under any Act or in connection with the alienation of lands of the Crown; or
  - (b) left between Crown grants for use as a road or driftway; or
  - (c) dedicated under the Crown Lands Acts or any other Act for a public purpose; or
  - (d) reserved in any Crown Grant,
- shall by reason of adverse possession be allowed to be asserted or established as against—
- (i) the Crown; or
  - (ii) persons holding such lands in trust for any public purpose.

Nothing

Crown Lands (Amendment).

Nothing in this section shall affect the operation of section thirteen of the Real Property (Amendment) Act, 1921, or the title to any land which has in any proceedings to which the Crown has been a party been adjudged not to be lands of the Crown or the title to any land which the Crown is at the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, debarred from recovering by reason of the operation of the Crown Suits Act, 1769.

6. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913.

- (a) (i) by omitting from section seventy-five the words "three hundred and twenty" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "one thousand nine hundred and twenty";
- (ii) by omitting from the same section the words "shells—limestone—loam—brick—earth—gravel—or ballast";
- (iii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following words:—

Sec. 75.

(Special Leases : miscellaneous purposes.)

If an applicant so desires, one-tenth of the survey fee only may be paid with the application, in which event the balance, together with interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, shall be paid at such times as the Minister directs.

- (b) by omitting section one hundred and seventy-nine and the short heading thereto and by substituting in lieu thereof the following short heading and new section:—

Sec. 179.

(Conditional purchase : suspension of payment.)

Postponement of payment of instalments on conditional purchases.

179. (1) The Minister may postpone the payment conditionally, or unconditionally, of one or more instalments of purchase money owing on a conditional purchase if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such instalments on the due date.

Conditional purchase : postponement of instalments. cf. Closer Settlement Act No. 37, 1904, s. 29

Where any such postponement is granted, interest at the rate payable on the conditional purchase to the due date of the postponed instalment shall be added to the amount owing on the conditional purchase.

Where such instalment is subsequently paid the amount owing on the conditional purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

(2) Where interest only is payable yearly in respect of a conditional purchase, the Minister may postpone, conditionally or unconditionally, one or more of such interest payments if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such interest on the due date, in which case the amount of such interest unpaid shall be added to the amount owing on the conditional purchase as from the due date for payment of such interest.

Where such interest is subsequently paid the amount owing on the conditional purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

- (c) by omitting from section fifty-one the word "suspension" and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "postponement";
- (d) by omitting from subsection three of section fifty-eight the word "suspension" and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "postponement."

7. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended—

- (a) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section fifty-nine the words and brackets "(not being less than thirty shillings per acre)";
- (ii) by inserting in the same subsection after the words "and the conditions" the words and brackets "(as to residence, fencing, improvement, or otherwise)";
- (iii) by omitting subsection three of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsection:—

(3) A subdivision of the area shall be made into blocks of such areas as the Minister

Minister may determine, and the blocks shall be taken according to the published plan or design thereof, subject to any adjustment upon survey deemed proper by the Minister.

- (b) (i) by omitting from section sixty-six the words Sec. 66.
 “Purchasers under this section shall in (Miscellaneous special purchases.)
 addition to the price of the land and the deed fee pay the costs of survey and report incurred in dealing with their applications”;
- (ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsections :—
- (2) Crown lands may, with the approval of the Minister, be sold, in areas not exceeding five acres in extent, and at prices to be determined by the local land board—
- (a) to or to the trustees of any recognised religious body for any religious or public purpose; or
- (b) to any public authority or to the trustees of any association or institution for any public purpose.
- (3) Purchasers under this section shall in addition to the price of the land and the deed fee pay the costs of survey and report incurred in dealing with their applications.

8. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended by inserting next after subsection six of section 145A the following new subsections :— Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913.

(6A) If any holding, other than a town land lease or town land purchase, is mortgaged and the mortgagee enters into possession of the same under his mortgage, he may hold the same for a period of three years after the date of his entering into possession as aforesaid or for such further period as the Commission may permit. Sec. 145A. (Restrictions on transfer of holdings.)

But the mortgagee shall not, notwithstanding the terms of his mortgage, so enter into possession of the mortgaged land more than once, except by permission of the Commission.

The mortgagee shall not foreclose the mortgage without the consent of the Commission. Such consent shall be applied for and may be given or refused, as in the case of a sale; and the provisions of subsection one of this section shall apply thereto.

The mortgagee shall not transfer the land except in accordance with this section or by way of discharge of mortgage.

If within such period the mortgagee does not obtain the consent of the Commission to a foreclosure or does not transfer the holding in accordance with this section, the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and on notification by the Commission in the Gazette may be forfeited, and thereupon shall revert to the Crown.

A foreclosure or transfer in contravention of this subsection shall be void, and any agreement or contract for the sale of any such holding made without the permission of the Commission shall render such holding liable to forfeiture if such agreement or contract be not submitted for the approval of the Commission within three months from the date of execution thereof.

The fact that the mortgagee or some person by his authority occupies or uses any part of the mortgaged land shall be prima facie evidence that the mortgagee has entered into possession of the land under the mortgage.

(6B) If any holding devolves under a will or intestacy upon a person who is not qualified under this section to be a transferee thereof, such person may nevertheless hold the holding for a period of three years after the death of the testator or intestate, or for such further period as the Commission may permit.

Within any such period such person may, upon application to the Commission, and on showing that he is then qualified under this section to be a transferee as aforesaid, receive from the Commission a certificate to that effect, which shall entitle entitle him to hold the holding; or such person may, subject to this section, sell and transfer the holding.

If by the provisions of the will or by law such person has power to sell the land the sale may be effected under such power; in any other case the sale may be effected with the consent of all persons beneficially entitled to the land, or by order of the Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction, which may be obtained in the manner prescribed by rules of court, or until such rules are made by summons at chambers.

If such person does not within any such period obtain the certificate of the Commission as aforesaid, nor transfer the holding as aforesaid, the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and on notification in the Gazette may be forfeited, and thereupon shall revert to the Crown.

9. (1) The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913. is further amended—

- (a) (i) by omitting from section fifty-two the words "Such term shall be divided into a first period of fifteen years computed from the commencement of the lease, a second period of fifteen years commencing from the expiration of such first period, and a third and final period of ten years"; Sec. 52. (Term and rent of conditional lease.)
- (ii) by omitting from the same section the words "in accordance with this Act. The annual rent for the first period shall be determined";
- (iii) by omitting from the same section the words "The annual rent for the second and third periods respectively shall be determined by the local land board if an application in that behalf is made by the lessee accompanied by a fee as prescribed, or if a reference for that purpose is made by the Minister, such application or reference being respectively made not later

these and other purposes to amend the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913; the Returned Soldiers Settlement Act, 1916; the Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1927, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 2nd October, 1931.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931," and shall be read and construed with the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, as amended by subsequent Acts.

Repeals.

2. The Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are, to the extent therein indicated, hereby repealed.

Amendment of Act No. 7, 1913.

3. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is amended as follows:—

Sec. 166.

(Appraisements by local land boards.)

(a) by inserting in section one hundred and sixty-six after the words "provided by the Minister" the following words:—

Where the rent, license fee, price, or capital value of any holding is to be determined, the local land board in making the determination shall have regard to the productive capacity of the land under fair average seasons, prices, and conditions.

Evidence of sales or leases of land similar in quality, locality, and other respects to the land in respect of which the determination is to be made shall not be deemed to be relevant unless the local land board is satisfied that the value reflected by any such sale or lease is fair and reasonable, having regard to the productive capacity of the land under fair average seasons, prices, and conditions.

Crown Lands (Amendment).

- (b) (i) by omitting subsection three of section one hundred and sixty-seven and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsection :—

Sec. 167.
(Appraisal ment of capital
values.)

(3) The application may be lodged at any time within five years after the confirmation or approval of the application for the holding, or at any time within two years after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

- (ii) by omitting subsection four of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsection :—

(4) Where, after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, an application for appraisal of the capital value of a holding has been made under the provisions of this section no further application thereunder to have the capital value of the holding determined shall be entertained, notwithstanding that the tenure of the holding has been converted into some other form of tenure.

- (iii) by omitting subsection six of the same section ;

(See Act No.
4, 1930, s. 4

- (iv) by omitting subsection (6A) of the same section ;

(viii)

- (viii) by inserting next after subsection thirteen of the same section the following new subsection:—

(14) For the purpose of making application for determination of the capital value of any holding which is abandoned by the holder or forfeited under this Act and of which at the time of abandonment or forfeiture the Commissioners of the Government Savings Bank of New South Wales are mortgagees, the said Commissioners shall be entitled to exercise the rights of a holder under this section.

Subsection seven of this section shall not apply to any such application of the said Commissioners.

For the purposes of this subsection a holding shall be deemed to have been abandoned if the said Commissioners furnish to the local land board a certificate to that effect.

Sec. 167A.
(Appraisement of
rents.)

- (c) (i) by omitting subsection two of section 167A and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsection:—

(2) The application in the prescribed form shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee, and shall be made within five years after the confirmation or approval of the application for the holding, or within two years after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

- (ii) by inserting in subsection four of the same section before the words "The local land board" the words "Subject to the provisions of section one hundred and sixty-six";

(See Act No.
4, 1930, s.

- (iv) by inserting next after subsection seven of the same section the following new subsection :—

(8) For the purpose of making application for determination of the annual rent of any holding which is abandoned by the holder or forfeited under this Act, and of which at the time of abandonment or forfeiture the Commissioners of the Government Savings Bank of New South Wales are mortgagees, the said Commissioners shall be entitled to exercise the rights of a holder under this section.

Subsection three of this section shall not apply to any such application of the said Commissioners.

For the purposes of this subsection a holding shall be deemed to have been abandoned if the said Commissioners furnish to the local land board a certificate to that effect.

4. (1) The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended by inserting next after section two hundred and thirty-five the following short heading and new section :—

Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913.
New s. 235A.

Lands measured with boundaries to lakes, roads, &c.

235A. (1) In this section—

“Bank” means the limit of the bed of any lake or river.

Lands alienated with boundaries to lakes, roads, &c.

“Bed” means the whole of the soil of any lake or river including that portion thereof which is alternately covered and left bare as there may be an increase or diminution in the supply of water and which is adequate to contain it at its average

average or mean stage without reference to extraordinary freshets in time of flood or to extreme droughts.

“Lake” includes a lagoon or other like collection of water, whether permanent or temporary, not being water contained in an artificial work.

“River” includes any stream of water whether perennial or intermittent, flowing in a natural channel, and any affluent, confluent, branch, or other stream into or from which the river flows.

(2) The boundary of any land which is granted or otherwise alienated by the Crown and which is described or alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of any non-tidal lake or by metes which are expressed or shown to run to the lake or to the bank of the lake shall be deemed to be the bank of the lake at the time of the Crown survey for the purposes of the alienation.

(3) No title to the land comprising the bed of any non-tidal lake shall pass or be deemed ever to have passed by any Crown grant of land adjoining the lake by reason of the land granted being described as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the lake or by metes expressed to run to the lake or to the margin or bank of the lake.

(4) No title to the land comprising the bed of any non-tidal lake shall pass or be deemed ever to have passed by any other alienation of land adjoining the lake by reason of the land being alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the lake or by metes expressed or shown to run to the lake or to the margin or bank of the lake.

(5) (a) No person shall by reason of his being the owner of any land so described or alienated be entitled to any rights of access over or to the user of any part of such bed.

---

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect any license or authority acquired either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, under or pursuant to the Water Act, 1912-1930.

(6) The doctrine of accretion shall not apply and shall be deemed never to have applied to a non-tidal lake.

(7) Nothing in this section shall operate to divest any land included in a certificate of title under the Real Property Act, 1900, issued before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

(8) Where under the Crown Lands Acts the bed of any river has been reserved from sale or lease no person shall by reason of his being the owner of any land adjoining the river which has been subsequently alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the river or by metes expressed or shown to run to the river or to the margin or bank of the river be entitled to any rights of access over or to the user of any part of the bed of the river other than to such rights as are or have been acquired either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, under or pursuant to the Water Act, 1912-1930.

(9) Where, either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, any land which has been or is granted or alienated by the Crown with a boundary adjoining or as bounded by a road which has been or is created by the Crown, no part of such road shall be deemed to have passed or to pass with the land so granted or alienated.

(10) This section shall extend to all lands comprised in any grant or other alienation whether made before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

(11) In this section "alienation" includes any form of tenure under the Crown Lands Acts, the Closer Settlement Acts, or any other Act relating to the alienation of lands of the Crown, and "alienated" has a corresponding meaning.

(12) Nothing in this section shall apply to Lake Victoria or to any other lake to which the River Murray Waters Act, 1915, as amended by subsequent Acts, or any agreement thereby ratified, applies.

Amendment of
Act No. 44, 1912.

Sec. 7.

(Rights of occupiers of
land.)

(2) The Water Act, 1912-1931, is amended by inserting at the end of subsection six of section seven the words "or, with respect to a lake, to give to an occupier any right of access over or to the user of land not lawfully occupied by him."

Further
amendment of
Act No. 7, 1913.
New s. 235B.

5. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended by inserting next after section 235A the following new short heading and section :—

Limitation on acquisition of title by possession against the Crown.

Limitation of acquisition of title by
possession.

235B. No title to any land of the Crown which has been either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931—

- (a) set out as a road under any Act or in connection with the alienation of lands of the Crown; or
- (b) left between Crown grants for use as a road or driftway; or
- (c) dedicated under the Crown Lands Acts or any other Act for a public purpose; or
- (d) reserved in any Crown Grant, shall by reason of adverse possession be allowed to be asserted or established as against—

- (i) the Crown; or
- (ii) persons holding such lands in trust for any public purpose.

Crown Lands (Amendment).

Nothing in this section shall affect the operation of section thirteen of the Real Property (Amendment) Act, 1921, or the title to any land which has in any proceedings to which the Crown has been a party been adjudged not to be lands of the Crown or the title to any land which the Crown is at the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, debarred from recovering by reason of the operation of the Crown Suits Act, 1769.

6. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended—

- (a) (i) by omitting from section seventy-five the words “three hundred and twenty” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “one thousand nine hundred and twenty”; Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913. Sec. 75. (Special Leases : miscellaneous purposes.)
- (ii) by omitting from the same section the words “shells—limestone—loam—brick—earth—gravel—or ballast”;
- (iii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following words:—
- If an applicant so desires, one-tenth of the survey fee only may be paid with the application, in which event the balance, together with interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, shall be paid at such times as the Minister directs.
- (b) by omitting section one hundred and seventy-nine and the short heading thereto and by substituting in lieu thereof the following short heading and new section :— Sec. 179. (Conditional purchase : suspension of payment.)

Postponement of payment of instalments on conditional purchases.

179. (1) The Minister may postpone the payment conditionally, or unconditionally, of one or more instalments of purchase money owing on a conditional purchase if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such instalments on the due date. Conditional purchase : postpone-ment of instalments. cf. Closer Settlement Act No. 37, 1904, s. 29

Where (2)(c).

Where any such postponement is granted, interest at the rate payable on the conditional purchase to the due date of the postponed instalment shall be added to the amount owing on the conditional purchase.

Where such instalment is subsequently paid the amount owing on the conditional purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

(2) Where interest only is payable yearly in respect of a conditional purchase, the Minister may postpone, conditionally or unconditionally, one or more of such interest payments if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such interest on the due date, in which case the amount of such interest unpaid shall be added to the amount owing on the conditional purchase as from the due date for payment of such interest.

Where such interest is subsequently paid the amount owing on the conditional purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

(c) by omitting from section fifty-one the word "suspension" and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "postponement";

(d) by omitting from subsection three of section fifty-eight the word "suspension" and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "postponement."

amendment of
Act No. 7, 1913.

Sec. 59.
(Special areas and conditional purchases therein.)

7. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended—

- (a) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section fifty-nine the words and brackets "(not being less than thirty shillings per acre)";
- (ii) by inserting in the same subsection after the words "and the conditions" the words and brackets "(as to residence, fencing, improvement, or otherwise)";
- (iii) by omitting subsection three of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsection :—

(3) A subdivision of the area shall be made into blocks of such areas as the Minister

Minister may determine, and the blocks shall be taken according to the published plan or design thereof, subject to any adjustment upon survey deemed proper by the Minister.

- (b) (i) by omitting from section sixty-six the words Sec. 66.
 "Purchasers under this section shall in (Miscella-addition to the price of the land and the neous special deed fee pay the costs of survey and report purchases.)
 incurred in dealing with their applications";

- (ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsections:—

(2) Crown lands may, with the approval of the Minister, be sold, in areas not exceeding five acres in extent, and at prices to be determined by the local land board—

(a) to or to the trustees of any recognised religious body for any religious or public purpose; or

(b) to any public authority or to the trustees of any association or institution for any public purpose.

(3) Purchasers under this section shall in addition to the price of the land and the deed fee pay the costs of survey and report incurred in dealing with their applications.

8. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is Further further amended by inserting next after subsection six amendment of section 145A the following new subsections:— of Act No. 7, 1913.

(6A) If any holding, other than a town land Sec. 145A.
 lease or town land purchase, is mortgaged and (Restrictions the mortgagee enters into possession of the same on transfer of under his mortgage, he may hold the same for holdings.)
 a period of three years after the date of his entering into possession as aforesaid or for such further period as the Commission may permit.

But the mortgagee shall not, notwithstanding the terms of his mortgage, so enter into possession of the mortgaged land more than once, except by permission of the Commission.

---

The mortgagee shall not foreclose the mortgage without the consent of the Commission. Such consent shall be applied for and may be given or refused, as in the case of a sale; and the provisions of subsection one of this section shall apply thereto.

The mortgagee shall not transfer the land except in accordance with this section or by way of discharge of mortgage.

If within such period the mortgagee does not obtain the consent of the Commission to a foreclosure or does not transfer the holding in accordance with this section, the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and on notification by the Commission in the Gazette may be forfeited, and thereupon shall revert to the Crown.

A foreclosure or transfer in contravention of this subsection shall be void, and any agreement or contract for the sale of any such holding made without the permission of the Commission shall render such holding liable to forfeiture if such agreement or contract be not submitted for the approval of the Commission within three months from the date of execution thereof.

The fact that the mortgagee or some person by his authority occupies or uses any part of the mortgaged land shall be prima facie evidence that the mortgagee has entered into possession of the land under the mortgage.

(6B) If any holding devolves under a will or intestacy upon a person who is not qualified under this section to be a transferee thereof, such person may nevertheless hold the holding for a period of three years after the death of the testator or intestate, or for such further period as the Commission may permit.

Within any such period such person may, upon application to the Commission, and on showing that he is then qualified under this section to be a transferee as aforesaid, receive from the Commission a certificate to that effect, which shall entitle entitle him to hold the holding; or such person may, subject to this section, sell and transfer the holding.

If by the provisions of the will or by law such person has power to sell the land the sale may be effected under such power; in any other case the sale may be effected with the consent of all persons beneficially entitled to the land, or by order of the Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction, which may be obtained in the manner prescribed by rules of court, or until such rules are made by summons at chambers.

If such person does not within any such period obtain the certificate of the Commission as aforesaid, nor transfer the holding as aforesaid, the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and on notification in the Gazette may be forfeited, and thereupon shall revert to the Crown.

of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, an application for appraisalment of the annual rent of a holding”;

5 (iv) by inserting next after subsection seven of the same section the following new subsection :—

10 (8) For the purpose of making application for determination of the annual rent of any holding which is abandoned by the holder or forfeited under this Act, and of which at the time of abandonment or forfeiture the Commissioners of the Government Savings Bank of New South Wales are mortgagees, the said Commissioners shall be entitled to exercise the rights of a holder under this section.

Subsection three of this section shall not apply to any such application of the said Commissioners.

20 For the purposes of this subsection a holding shall be deemed to have been abandoned if the said Commissioners furnish to the local land board a certificate to that effect.

25 4. (1) The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended by inserting next after section two hundred and thirty-five the following short heading and new section :—

Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913.
New s. 235A.

Lands measured with boundaries to lakes, roads, &c.

30 235A. (1) In this section—

“Bank” means the limit of the bed of any lake or river.

Lands alienated with boundaries to lakes, roads, &c.

35 “Bed” means the whole of the soil of any lake or river including that portion thereof which is alternately covered and left bare as there may be an increase or diminution in the supply of water and which is adequate to contain it at its average average or mean stage without reference to extraordinary freshets in time of flood or to extreme droughts.

5       “Lake” includes a lagoon or other like collection of water, whether permanent or temporary, not being water contained in an artificial work. cf. Water Act, 1912 1930, s. 5.

10       “River” includes any stream of water whether perennial or intermittent, flowing in a natural channel, and any affluent, confluent, branch, or other stream into or from which the river flows. Ibid.

15       (2) The boundary of any land which is hereafter granted or otherwise alienated by the Crown and which is described or alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of any non-tidal lake or by metes which are expressed or shown to run to the lake or to the bank of the lake shall be deemed to be the bank of the lake at the time of the Crown survey for the purposes of the alienation.

25       (3) No title to the land comprising the bed of any non-tidal lake shall pass ~~or be deemed ever to have passed~~ by any Crown grant hereafter made of land adjoining the lake by reason of the land granted being described as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the lake or by metes expressed to run to the lake or to the margin or bank of the lake.

30       (4) No title to the land comprising the bed of any non-tidal lake shall pass ~~or be deemed ever to have passed~~ by any other alienation hereafter made of land adjoining the lake by reason of the land being alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the lake or by metes expressed or shown to run to the lake or to the margin or bank of the lake.

35       (5) (a) No person shall by reason of his being the owner of any land so described or alienated be entitled to any rights of access over or to the user of any part of such bed.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect any license or authority acquired either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, under or pursuant to the Water Act, 1912-1930.

(6) The doctrine of accretion shall not apply and ~~shall be deemed never to have applied to~~ in respect of land hereafter granted adjoining a non-tidal lake.

(7) Nothing in this section shall operate to divest any land included in a certificate of title under the Real Property Act, 1900, issued before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

(8) Where under the Crown Lands Acts the bed of any river has been reserved from sale or lease no person shall by reason of his being the owner of any land adjoining the river which has been subsequently alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the river or by metes expressed or shown to run to the river or to the margin or bank of the river be entitled to any rights of access over or to the user of any part of the bed of the river other than to such rights as are or have been acquired either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, under or pursuant to the Water Act, 1912-1930.

(9) Where, either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, any land which has been or is granted or alienated by the Crown with a boundary adjoining or as bounded by a road which has been or is created by the Crown, no part of such road shall be deemed to have passed or to pass with the land so granted or alienated.

(10) This section shall extend to all lands comprised in any grant or other alienation whether made before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

(11) In this section "alienation" includes any form of tenure under the Crown Lands Acts, the Closer Settlement Acts, or any other Act relating to the alienation of lands of the Crown, and "alienated" has a corresponding meaning.

(12) Nothing in this section shall apply to Lake Victoria or to any other lake to which the River Murray Waters Act, 1915, as amended by subsequent Acts, or any agreement thereby ratified, applies.

(2) The Water Act, 1912-1930, is amended by inserting at the end of subsection six of section seven the words "or, with respect to a lake, to give to an occupier any right of access over or to the user of land not lawfully occupied by him."

Amendment of Act No. 44, 1912. Sec. 7. (Rights of occupiers of riparian land.)

5. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended by inserting next after section 235A the following new short heading and section:—

Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913. New s. 235B.

Limitation on acquisition of title by possession against the Crown.

235B. No title to any land of the Crown which has been either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931—

Limitation of acquisition of title by possession.

- (a) set out as a road under any Act or in connection with the alienation of lands of the Crown; or
  - (b) left between Crown grants for use as a road or driftway; or
  - (c) dedicated under the Crown Lands Acts or any other Act for a public purpose; or
  - (d) reserved in any Crown Grant,
- shall by reason of adverse possession be allowed to be asserted or established as against—
- (i) the Crown; or
  - (ii) persons holding such lands in trust for any public purpose.

Nothing

Crown Lands (Amendment).

Nothing in this section shall affect the operation of section thirteen of the Real Property (Amendment) Act, 1921, or the title to any land which has in any proceedings to which the Crown has been a party been adjudged not to be lands of the Crown or the title to any land which the Crown is at the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, debarred from recovering by reason of the operation of the Crown Suits Act, 1769.

6. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended—

- (a) (i) by omitting from section seventy-five the words "three hundred and twenty" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "one thousand nine hundred and twenty";
- (ii) by omitting from the same section the words "shells—limestone—loam—brick—earth—gravel—or ballast";
- (iii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following words:—
- If an applicant so desires, one-tenth of the survey fee only may be paid with the application, in which event the balance, together with interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, shall be paid at such times as the Minister directs.
- (b) by omitting section one hundred and seventy-nine and the short heading thereto and by substituting in lieu thereof the following short heading and new section:—

Postponement of payment of instalments on conditional purchases.

179. (1) The Minister may postpone the payment conditionally, or unconditionally, of one or more instalments of purchase money owing on a conditional purchase if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such instalments on the due date.

- (b) (i) by omitting from section sixty-six the words Sec. 66.
 "Purchasers under this section shall in (Miscellaneous special purchases.)
 addition to the price of the land and the deed fee pay the costs of survey and report incurred in dealing with their applications";

10

- (ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsections:—

15

(2) Crown lands may, with the approval of the Minister, be sold, in areas not exceeding five acres in extent, and at prices to be determined by the local land board—

20

- (a) to or to the trustees of any recognised religious body for any religious or public purpose; or
 (b) to any public authority or to the trustees of any association or institution for any public purpose.

(3) Purchasers under this section shall in addition to the price of the land and the deed fee pay the costs of survey and report incurred in dealing with their applications.

3. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended by inserting next after subsection six of section 145A the following new subsections:— Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913.

(6A) If any holding, other than a town land Sec. 145A.
 lease or town land purchase, is mortgaged and (Restrictions on transfer of holdings.)
 the mortgagee enters into possession of the same under his mortgage, he may hold the same for a period of three years after the date of his entering into possession as aforesaid or for such further period as the Commission may permit.

5 The mortgagee shall not foreclose the mortgage without the consent of the Commission. Such consent shall be applied for and may be given or refused, as in the case of a sale; and the provisions of subsection one of this section shall apply thereto.

The mortgagee shall not transfer the land except in accordance with this section or by way of discharge of mortgage.

10 If within such period the mortgagee does not obtain the consent of the Commission to a foreclosure or does not transfer the holding in accordance with this section, the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and on notification by the Commission in the Gazette may be forfeited, and thereupon
15 shall revert to the Crown.

A foreclosure or transfer in contravention of this subsection shall be void, and any agreement or contract for the sale of any such holding made without the permission of the Commission shall 20 render such holding liable to forfeiture if such agreement or contract be not submitted for the approval of the Commission within three months from the date of execution thereof.

25 The fact that the mortgagee or some person by his authority occupies or uses any part of the mortgaged land shall be prima facie evidence that the mortgagee has entered into possession of the land under the mortgage.

30 (6B) If any holding devolves under a will or intestacy upon a person who is not qualified under this section to be a transferee thereof, such person may nevertheless hold the holding for a period of three years after the death of the testator or intestate, or for such further period as the Commission may permit.
35

Within any such period such person may, upon application to the Commission, and on showing that he is then qualified under this section to be a transferee as aforesaid, receive from the Commission a certificate to that effect, which shall these and other purposes to amend the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913; the Returned Soldiers Settlement Act, 1916; the Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1927, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931," and shall be read and construed with the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, as amended by subsequent Acts.

2. The Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are, to the extent therein indicated, hereby repealed.

3. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is amended as follows :—

(a) by inserting in section one hundred and sixty-six after the words "provided by the Minister" the following words :—

Where the rent, license fee, price, or capital value of any holding is to be determined, the local land board in making the determination shall have regard to the productive capacity of the land under fair average seasons, prices, and conditions.

Evidence of sales or leases of land similar in quality, locality, and other respects to the land in respect of which the determination is to be made shall not be deemed to be relevant unless the local land board is satisfied that the value reflected by any such sale or lease is fair and reasonable, having regard to the productive capacity of the land under fair average seasons, prices, and conditions.

(b)

Amendment of
Act No. 7, 1913.

Sec. 166.
(Appraisements by

(iv) by inserting next after subsection seven of the same section the following new subsection :—

(8) For the purpose of making application for determination of the annual rent of any holding which is abandoned by the holder or forfeited under this Act, and of which at the time of abandonment or forfeiture the Commissioners of the Government Savings Bank of New South Wales are mortgagees, the said Commissioners shall be entitled to exercise the rights of a holder under this section.

Subsection three of this section shall not apply to any such application of the said Commissioners.

For the purposes of this subsection a holding shall be deemed to have been abandoned if the said Commissioners furnish to the local land board a certificate to that effect.

4. (1) The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended by inserting next after section two hundred and thirty-five the following short heading and new section :—

Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913.
New s. 235A.

Lands measured with boundaries to lakes, roads, &c.

235A. (1) In this section—

“Bank” means the limit of the bed of any lake or river.

Lands alienated with boundaries to lakes, roads, &c.

“Bed” means the whole of the soil of any lake or river including that portion thereof which is alternately covered and left bare as there may be an increase or diminution in the supply of water and which is adequate to contain it at its average cf. Thames Conservators v. Smeed, 1897, 2 Q.B. at p. 338.

average or mean stage without reference to extraordinary freshets in time of flood or to extreme droughts.

5 "Lake" includes a lagoon or other like collection of water, whether permanent or temporary, not being water contained in an artificial work. cf. Water Act, 1912-1930, s. 5.

10 "River" includes any stream of water whether perennial or intermittent, flowing in a natural channel, and any affluent, confluent, branch, or other stream into or from which the river flows. Ibid.

15 (2) The boundary of any land which is granted or otherwise alienated by the Crown and which is described or alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of any non-tidal lake or by metes which are expressed or shown to run to the lake or to the bank of the lake shall be deemed to be the bank of the lake at the time of the Crown survey for the purposes of the alienation.

25 (3) No title to the land comprising the bed of any non-tidal lake shall pass or be deemed ever to have passed by any Crown grant of land adjoining the lake by reason of the land granted being described as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the lake or by metes expressed to run to the lake or to the margin or bank of the lake.

30 (4) No title to the land comprising the bed of any non-tidal lake shall pass or be deemed ever to have passed by any other alienation of land adjoining the lake by reason of the land being alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the lake or by metes expressed or shown to run to the lake or to the margin or bank of the lake.

35 (5) (a) No person shall by reason of his being the owner of any land so described or alienated be entitled to any rights of access over or 40 to the user of any part of such bed.

5 (b) Nothing in this section shall affect any license or authority acquired either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, under or pursuant to the Water Act, 1912-1930.

(6) The doctrine of accretion shall not apply and shall be deemed never to have applied to a non-tidal lake.

10 (7) Nothing in this section shall operate to divest any land included in a certificate of title under the Real Property Act, 1900, issued before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

15 (8) Where under the Crown Lands Acts the bed of any river has been reserved from sale or lease no person shall by reason of his being the owner of any land adjoining the river which has been subsequently alienated as bounded by or by reference to or by the margin or bank of the river
20 or by metes expressed or shown to run to the river or to the margin or bank of the river be entitled to any rights of access over or to the user of any part of the bed of the river other than to such rights as are or have been acquired either before or after the 25 commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, under or pursuant to the Water Act, 1912-1930.

(9) Where, either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment)
30 Act, 1931, any land which has been or is granted or alienated by the Crown with a boundary adjoining or as bounded by a road which has been or is created by the Crown, no part of such road shall be deemed to have passed or to pass with the land so 35 granted or alienated.

(10) This section shall extend to all lands comprised in any grant or other alienation whether made before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931.

(11) In this section "alienation" includes any form of tenure under the Crown Lands Acts, the Closer Settlement Acts, or any other Act relating to the alienation of lands of the Crown, and "alienated" has a corresponding meaning.

(12) Nothing in this section shall apply to Lake Victoria or to any other lake to which the River Murray Waters Act, 1915, as amended by subsequent Acts, or any agreement thereby ratified, applies.

(2) The Water Act, 1912-1930, is amended by inserting at the end of subsection six of section seven the words "or, with respect to a lake, to give to an occupier any right of access over or to the user of land not lawfully occupied by him."

Amendment of Act No. 44, 1912, Sec. 7. (Rights of occupiers of riparian land.)

5. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended by inserting next after section 235A the following new short heading and section:—

Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913, New s. 235E.

Limitation on acquisition of title by possession against the Crown.

235B. No title to any land of the Crown which has been either before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931—

Limitation of acquisition of title by possession.

(a) set out as a road under any Act or in connection with the alienation of lands of the Crown; or

(b) left between Crown grants for use as a road or driftway; or

(c) dedicated under the Crown Lands Acts or any other Act for a public purpose; or

(d) reserved in any Crown Grant, shall by reason of adverse possession be allowed to be asserted or established as against—

(i) the Crown; or

(ii) persons holding such lands in trust for any public purpose.

Nothing

Crown Lands (Amendment).

Nothing in this section shall affect the operation of section thirteen of the Real Property (Amendment) Act, 1921, or the title to any land which has in any proceedings to which the Crown has been a party been adjudged not to be lands of the Crown or the title to any land which the Crown is at the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1931, debarred from recovering by reason of the operation of the Crown Suits Act, 1769.

6. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended—

- (a) (i) by omitting from section seventy-five the words "three hundred and twenty" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "one thousand nine hundred and twenty";
- (ii) by omitting from the same section the words "shells—limestone—loam—brick-earth—gravel—or ballast";
- (iii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following words:—
- If an applicant so desires, one-tenth of the survey fee only may be paid with the application, in which event the balance, together with interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, shall be paid at such times as the Minister directs.
- (b) by omitting section one hundred and seventy-nine and the short heading thereto and by substituting in lieu thereof the following short heading and new section:—

Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913.

Sec. 75. (Special Leases : miscellaneous purposes.)

Sec. 179. (Conditional purchase : suspension of payment.)

Postponement of payment of instalments on conditional purchases.

179. (1) The Minister may postpone the payment conditionally, or unconditionally, of one or more instalments of purchase money owing on a conditional purchase if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such instalments on the due date.

Conditiona purchase : postpone-ment of instalments. cf. Closer Settlement Act No. 37, 1904, s. 29

Where (2)(c).

Where any such postponement is granted, interest at the rate payable on the conditional purchase to the due date of the postponed instalment shall be added to the amount owing on the conditional purchase.

Where such instalment is subsequently paid the amount owing on the conditional purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

(2) Where interest only is payable yearly in respect of a conditional purchase, the Minister may postpone, conditionally or unconditionally, one or more of such interest payments if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such interest on the due date, in which case the amount of such interest unpaid shall be added to the amount owing on the conditional purchase as from the due date for payment of such interest.

Where such interest is subsequently paid the amount owing on the conditional purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

(c) by omitting from section fifty-one the word "suspension" and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "postponement";

(d) by omitting from subsection three of section fifty-eight the word "suspension" and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "postponement."

7. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended—

(a) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section fifty-nine the words and brackets "(not being less than thirty shillings per acre)";

(ii) by inserting in the same subsection after the words "and the conditions" the words and brackets "(as to residence, fencing, improvement, or otherwise)";

(iii) by omitting subsection three of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsection:—

(3) A subdivision of the area shall be made into blocks of such areas as the Minister

Minister may determine, and the blocks shall be taken according to the published plan or design thereof, subject to any adjustment upon survey deemed proper by the Minister.

(b) (i) by omitting from section sixty-six the words "Purchasers under this section shall in addition to the price of the land and the deed fee pay the costs of survey and report incurred in dealing with their applications";

(ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsections:—

(2) Crown lands may, with the approval of the Minister, be sold, in areas not exceeding five acres in extent, and at prices to be determined by the local land board—

(a) to or to the trustees of any recognised religious body for any religious or public purpose; or

(b) to any public authority or to the trustees of any association or institution for any public purpose.

(3) Purchasers under this section shall in addition to the price of the land and the deed fee pay the costs of survey and report incurred in dealing with their applications.

8. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is further amended by inserting next after subsection six of section 145A the following new subsections:—

(6A) If any holding, other than a town land lease or town land purchase, is mortgaged and the mortgagee enters into possession of the same under his mortgage, he may hold the same for a period of three years after the date of his entering into possession as aforesaid or for such further period as the Commission may permit.

But the mortgagee shall not, notwithstanding the terms of his mortgage, so enter into possession of the mortgaged land more than once, except by permission of the Commission.

5 The mortgagee shall not foreclose the mortgage without the consent of the Commission. Such consent shall be applied for and may be given or refused, as in the case of a sale; and the provisions of subsection one of this section shall apply thereto.

The mortgagee shall not transfer the land except in accordance with this section or by way of discharge of mortgage.

10 If within such period the mortgagee does not obtain the consent of the Commission to a foreclosure or does not transfer the holding in accordance with this section, the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and on notification by the Commission in the Gazette may be forfeited, and thereupon
15 shall revert to the Crown.

A foreclosure or transfer in contravention of this subsection shall be void, and any agreement or contract for the sale of any such holding made without the permission of the Commission shall 20 render such holding liable to forfeiture if such agreement or contract be not submitted for the approval of the Commission within three months from the date of execution thereof.

25 The fact that the mortgagee or some person by his authority occupies or uses any part of the mortgaged land shall be prima facie evidence that the mortgagee has entered into possession of the land under the mortgage.

30 (6B) If any holding devolves under a will or intestacy upon a person who is not qualified under this section to be a transferee thereof, such person may nevertheless hold the holding for a period of three years after the death of the testator or intestate, or for such further period as the Commission may permit.
35

Within any such period such person may, upon application to the Commission, and on showing that he is then qualified under this section to be a transferee as aforesaid, receive from the Commission a certificate to that effect, which shall 40 entitle

entitle him to hold the holding; or such person may, subject to this section, sell and transfer the holding.

5 If by the provisions of the will or by law such person has power to sell the land the sale may be effected under such power; in any other case the sale may be effected with the consent of all persons beneficially entitled to the land, or by order of the Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction, which 10 may be obtained in the manner prescribed by rules of court, or until such rules are made by summons at chambers.

15 If such person does not within any such period obtain the certificate of the Commission as aforesaid, nor transfer the holding as aforesaid, the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and on notification in the Gazette may be forfeited, and thereupon shall revert to the Crown.

20 9. (1) The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913. is further amended—

- (a) (i) by omitting from section fifty-two the words "Such term shall be divided into a first period of fifteen years computed from the commencement of the lease, a second period of fifteen years commencing from the expiration of such first period, and a third and final period of ten years"; Sec. 52. (Term and rent of conditional lease.)
- 25 (ii) by omitting from the same section the words "in accordance with this Act. The annual rent for the first period shall be determined";
