Transfer from sick and
funeral funds
to fund for payment of contributions
of necessitous
members.

4. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of the Friendly Societies Act, 1912-1931, a society may, with the approval of the Registrar transfer from its accumulated sick and funeral funds each year an amount not exceeding one per centum of such funds to a fund established in accordance with the rules of the society for the purpose of enabling grants to be made towards the payment of contributions of any member of the society who satisfies the committee of management of the society that through necessitous circumstances he is unable to pay any such contributions.

The committee of management of a society may make regulations not inconsistent with the rules of the society relating to the disbursement of any amount so transferred.

(2) The Governor may by proclamation published in the Gazette vary the rate per centum of the accumulated sick and funeral funds which may be transferred in accordance with subsection one of this section.

(3) Subsection one of this section shall cease to have effect upon the expiration of two years from the commencement of this Act or upon such later date as the Governor may before the expiration of such two years by proclamation published in the Gazette appoint.

(4) Where a society makes a transfer from its sick or funeral funds in pursuance of subsection one of this section the Registrar may by writing under his hand require the society to impose such levy upon its members as he may deem necessary for the purpose of maintaining the financial position of the society.

The amount of such levy shall, notwithstanding any provision of the Friendly Societies Act, 1912-1931, be recoverable as a subscription due.
