W. R. McCOURT,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 11 May, 1932.

New South Wales.

ANNO VICESIMO TERTIO

GEORGI V REGIS.

Act No. , 1932.

An Act to provide for the setting apart of lands for the establishment of State Cement Works; to amend the Mining Act, 1906, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Mining (State Cement Works) Act, 1932." Short title.

2. The expressions "Crown lands" and "Private lands" shall have in this Act the same meanings as those given to them respectively in sections three and forty-five of the Mining Act, 1906, as amended by subsequent Acts. Definitions.

Mining (State Cement Works).

3. (1) The Governor may by notification published in the Gazette set apart any Crown lands which in his opinion contain limestone, coal, or clay-shale, or, which for other reasons, may be required for the establishment or operation of a State Cement Works.

Crown lands may be set apart. cf. Act No. 70, 1912, s. 2.

(2) Upon the publication of the notification, the lands so set apart shall be deemed to be reserved from any form of sale or lease, other than Annual Lease, under the Crown Lands Acts, and to be exempted from the leasing provisions of the Mining Act, 1906, or from occupation under miner's right or business license.

Exempted from mining lease or occupation. Ibid.

4. The Governor may by notification published in the Gazette, exempt from the operation of Part IV of the Mining Act, 1906, any private lands which in his opinion contain limestone, coal or clay-shale reserved to the Crown, or which for other reasons may be required for the establishment or operation of a State Cement Works.

Private lands may be set apart. cf. Ibid. s. 10.

This section shall not extend to private lands which at the date of the notification are being worked under the said Part, or are the subject of an application under the said Part.

5. A notification setting apart lands under this Act shall not be revoked or altered in whole or in part except in the following manner:—

Revocation of notification. cf. Act No. 55, 1916, s. 19.

- (a) The Governor shall cause to be laid on the table of each House of Parliament proposals for such revocation or alteration.
- (b) After such proposals have been so laid before Parliament, the Governor, on a resolution being passed by both Houses that such proposals be carried out, may by notification published in the Gazette, revoke or alter such setting apart as aforesaid.
- (c) On any such revocation the land affected by the revocation shall become Crown land within the meaning of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, as amended by subsequent Acts, and may be dealt with under such Act.
