

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

W. R. McCOURT,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 20 May, 1931.

New South Wales.

ANNO VICESIMO SECUNDO
GEORGI V REGIS.

Act No. 18, 1931.

An Act to confer certain additional powers and authorities upon the Newcastle District Abattoir Board; to validate certain actions of the Board; to amend the Newcastle District Abattoir and Sale-yards Act, 1912, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 22nd May, 1931.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Newcastle District Abattoir and Sale-yards (Amendment) Act, 1931." Short title.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

H. J. CONNELL,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Newcastle District Abattoir and Sale-yards (Amendment).

Amendment of Act No. 49, 1912. 2. The Newcastle District Abattoir and Sale-yards Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

Sec. 2.
(Definitions.)

- (a) by inserting in section two after the definition of "Local newspaper" the following definition:—

cf. Act No. 69, 1915, s. 7.
Meat.

"Meat" means the whole or any part of an animal such as is used for human consumption.

Sec. 9.

- (b) by inserting at the end of section nine the following new subsection:—

Additional powers and authorities.

(4) The board may also, if it thinks fit—

- (a) establish, maintain, and conduct works for canning, preserving, curing, smoking, chilling, and freezing meat;
- (b) purchase cattle and meat;
- (c) sell either on its own behalf or on behalf of any other person cattle and meat, including bacon, ham, sausages, saveloys, and other small goods manufactured or prepared from a carcass or any portion thereof.

Sec. 12.
(Acquisition of land.)

- (c) by inserting in section twelve after the word "sale-yards" wherever occurring the words "and for any other of the board's authorised purposes or objects";

Sec. 19.
(Carcasses brought into district.)

- (d) by inserting after subsection four of section nineteen the following new subsection:—

cf. Act No. 69, 1915, s. 19.

(4A) No person shall within the district, except with the consent of the board, sell or attempt to sell or expose for sale or allow or cause to be sold or exposed for sale for human consumption any carcass or portion of a carcass which has been slaughtered within or brought into the district otherwise than in accordance with this Act.

Whosoever contravenes any provision of this subsection shall be liable upon summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

Newcastle District Abattoir and Sale-yards (Amendment).

3. (1) The Newcastle District Abattoir and Sale-yards Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended by omitting sections twenty-two and twenty-three and by inserting in lieu thereof the following sections:—

Amendment of Act No. 49,
1912, ss. 22,
23.

22. (1) The board shall cause proper books of account to be kept in relation to each department of the board, and shall, as soon as practicable after the thirtieth day of June in each year, prepare and transmit to the Minister for presentation to Parliament balance-sheets and statements of account setting forth a true statement of the financial position and the transactions of the board in its several departments for the preceding financial year, audited by the Auditor-General.

Accounts and audit.

(2) Each such balance-sheet and statement shall include—

- (a) a profit and loss account;
- (b) statement of the assets and liabilities of the board, and be in a form approved by the Auditor-General.

(3) The Auditor-General shall have, with respect to such accounts, all the powers conferred on him by the Audit Act, 1902, and Acts amending the same.

(4) The Audit Act, 1902, and Acts amending the same, shall apply to the board and its officers in the same manner as it applies to accounting officers of public departments.

(5) Without limiting the generality of the powers conferred by subsection three of this section, the Auditor-General may disallow any expenditure or entry in the books of the board which he considers has been wrongly, irregularly, or dishonestly made.

(6) Any sum so disallowed shall be a surcharge upon and may be recovered or deducted from moneys due to the officers or servants by whom the expenditure was incurred or ordered to be incurred, or by whom the entry was made or ordered to be made, made, but such officers or servants shall have the same right of appeal against such surcharge as is prescribed under the Audit Act, 1902.

Newcastle District Abattoir and Sale-yards (Amendment).

Payment for audit.

23. The board shall in each year pay into the Treasury such sum as is fixed by the Colonial Treasurer towards the cost of the audit of the accounts of the board by the Auditor-General.

(2) This section shall commence upon a date to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Validation.

4. The actions of the board in acting as though the law had been in accordance with the amendments in section two of this Act are hereby validated.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

PHILIP GAME,
Governor.
