Act No. 6, 1935.

An Act to amend the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, and certain other Acts in certain respects; to validate certain transfers of Returned Soldiers' Special Holdings; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 26th February, 1935.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1935." Short title.

2. The enactments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are, to the extent therein indicated, hereby repealed. Repeals.

*Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement
(Amendment).*

Commence-

3. (1) Subsections two, three and four, subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subsection five and paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection five of this section shall be deemed to have commenced on the thirtieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

Amendment
of Act No. 7, 1913.

(2) The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is amended as follows:—

Sec. 63.
(Sale by auction
of Crown

(a) by omitting subsection eight of section sixty-three and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

(8) Where a person has prior to the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, become the purchaser of any area of land under this section and either before or after the commencement of the said Act the purchase of such area is declared to have lapsed, the Minister may, upon the prescribed application, direct that the whole or part of any moneys paid in respect of such purchase, whether the same have become forfeited or not, shall be credited or applied as payment in respect of the purchase by such person, or by any member of the family of such person, of any other area under this section or of any area under section sixty-four of this Act; and where such direction has been given the whole or part of such moneys shall be credited or applied accordingly.

In this subsection the expression “member of the family of such person” shall include such person’s father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, step-father, step-mother, step-brother, step-sister, step-son and step-daughter.

Sec. 64.
(Crown
lands
not sold
at auction;
purchase
after
auction.)

(b) by omitting from section sixty-four all words after the words “purchase of any other area” and by inserting in lieu thereof the following words:—

Where a person has, prior to the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, become the purchaser of any area of land under

under this section and either before or after the commencement of the said Act the purchase of such area is declared to have lapsed, the Minister may, upon the prescribed application, direct that the whole or part of any moneys paid in respect of such purchase, whether the same have become forfeited or not, shall be credited or applied as payment in respect of the purchase by such person, or by any member of the family of such person, of any other area under this section or of any area under section sixty-three of this Act; and where such direction has been given the whole or part of such moneys shall be credited or applied accordingly.

In this section the expression " member of the family of such person " shall include such person's father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, step-father, step-mother, step-brother, step-sister, step-son and step-daughter.

- (c) by omitting section one hundred and seventy-nine and the short heading thereto and by inserting in lieu thereof the following short heading and new section:—

Postponement of payment of instalments and interest on purchases.

179. (1) The Minister may postpone, conditionally or unconditionally, the payment of one or more instalments in respect of any purchase under the Crown Lands Acts, if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such instalments on the due date, irrespective of whether such instalments became payable before or become payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

Where any such postponement is granted, interest at the rate payable in respect of the purchase to the said due date shall, if the Minister so directs, be added to the amount owing in respect respect of the purchase, and if such instalments be subsequently paid, the amount owing in respect of the purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

Where the Minister does not direct that such interest shall be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase, the interest so postponed shall, unless paid, be and remain a separate non-interest bearing debt in respect of the purchase payable at the end of the term of the purchase.

In the application of this subsection to purchases other than conditional purchases, an instalment shall be deemed to include the instalment of principal and the amount of interest due or owing on the purchase on the due date of the instalment of principal.

Payment of interest
in lieu of instalment.

(2) Subject to the approval of the Minister interest only in respect of any such purchase may be paid in lieu of instalments for such periods and subject to such conditions as the Minister may determine and irrespective of whether the instalments became payable before or become payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

Subject to the provisions of section three of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, such interest shall be charged at the rate payable in respect of the purchase and shall be paid annually on the date upon which the instalment would otherwise have been payable.

Postponement of interest.

(3) Where interest only is payable yearly in respect of any such purchase the Minister may postpone conditionally or unconditionally one or more of such interest payments if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such interest on the due date, irrespective of whether such interest became payable before or becomes payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

Where

Where any such postponement is granted, the amount of such interest shall, if the Minister so directs, be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase as at the due date for payment of such interest, and if such interest be subsequently paid, the amount owing in respect of the purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

Where the Minister does not direct that the amount of such interest shall be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase, the interest so postponed shall, unless paid, be and remain a separate non-interest bearing debt in respect of the purchase payable at the end of the term of the purchase.

(4) Any postponement granted in pursuance of the section which this section replaces before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, or granted in pursuance of this section may at any time be modified or revoked by the Minister at his discretion.

- (d) (i) by omitting from section one hundred and eighty the words “ and if the conditions so imposed or any of them are or is not duly performed the concession granted by the Minister shall cease to operate ”; Sec 180.
(Deferring of payments.)
- (ii) by omitting from the same section the words “ remit the payment of such interest wholly or in part ” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “ direct that the whole or part of such interest shall not be charged, irrespective of whether such interest accrued due before or accrues due after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.
- No refund shall be made as a consequence of any such direction.”
- (iii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following paragraph:—

Any deferment granted or remission or direction made in pursuance of this section whether

payment.)

- (e) (i) by inserting in subsection one of section two hundred and sixteen after the words "after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932," the words "and interest in any such case shall be charged only as from the expiration of three years from that date";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "Where an applicant for a holding has, prior to the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, exercised his option of payment by instalments and the value of the improvements exceeds three hundred pounds, he may on the prescribed application have the terms of payment of the balance of such value varied so as to provide for payment by equal yearly instalments over an additional period not exceeding ten years, together with interest at the rate of four per centum per annum" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "Where at the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, the holder of one or more of such holdings as are referred to in this subsection is liable for payment for improvements to the Crown, and the total value of such improvements exceeds three hundred pounds, he may, on the prescribed application, have the terms of payment of the balance of the value of the improvements in respect of each of the holdings so held varied, so as to provide for payment by equal yearly instalments over an additional period not exceeding ten years, together with interest at the rate of four per centum per annum."

(Amendment).*

(f) by omitting from section two hundred and seventy-eight the words "remit the payment of such interest wholly or in part or may grant an extension of time for the payment of all or any part of such interest" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "irrespective of whether such interest accrued due before or accrues due after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932—

Sec. 278.
(Interest on arrears.)

- (a) direct that the whole or part of such interest shall not be charged; or
- (b) grant an extension of time for the payment of all or any part of such interest; or
- (c) remit the payment of such interest wholly or in part.

No refund shall be made as a consequence of any such direction."

(3) The Closer Settlement Act, 1904, is amended as follows:—

Amendment of Act No. 37, 1904

(a) by omitting subsection two of section twenty-nine;

Sec. 29 (2).
(Payment of interest in lieu of instalments: postponement of interest and of instalments.)

(b) by inserting next after section twenty-nine the following short heading and new section:—

New s. 29A.

Postponement of payment of instalments of interest on purchases.

29A. (1) The Minister may postpone, conditionally or unconditionally, the payment of one or more instalments owing in respect of any purchase under the Closer Settlement Acts, if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such instalments on the due date, irrespective of whether such instalments became payable before or become payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

purchase to the said due date shall, if the Minister so directs, be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase, and if such instalments be subsequently paid, the amount owing in respect of the purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

Where the Minister does not direct that such interest shall be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase, the interest so postponed shall, unless paid, be and remain a separate non-interest bearing debt in respect of the purchase payable at the end of the term of the purchase.

In the application of this subsection to purchases other than settlement purchases an instalment shall be deemed to include the instalment of principal and the amount of interest due or owing on the purchase on the due date of the instalment of principal.

(2) Subject to the approval of the Minister interest only in respect of any such purchase may be paid in lieu of instalments of purchase money for such periods and subject to such conditions as the Minister may determine, and irrespective of whether the instalments became payable before or become payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

Subject to the provisions of section three of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, such interest shall be charged at the rate payable in respect of the purchase and shall be paid annually on the date upon which the instalment of purchase money would otherwise have been payable.

(3) Where interest only is payable yearly in respect of any such purchase the Minister may postpone conditionally or unconditionally one or more of such interest payments

(5) The Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, is amended as follows:—

Amendment
of Act No.
69, 1932.

- (a) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section four the words “ to the Minister ”;
- (ii) by omitting from subsection two of the same section the words “ shall refer every such application to the local land board, and if the board ” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “ if the local land board ”;
- (iii) by omitting subsection four of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsection:—

Sec. 4.
(Waiver or remission of

(4) No postponement, waiver or remission shall be granted under this section in respect of any instalment, interest or rent which becomes due after the expiration of twelve months from the date of the recommendation of the local land board.

- (iv) by omitting from subsection six of the same section the words “ Where owing to damage by flood, fire, storm or tempest the Minister is satisfied after report by the local land board that any improvements which a holder is in course of purchasing from the Crown in pursuance of the provisions of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, have become depreciated in value, he may cause a re-determination of the capital value of such improvements to be made by the local land board ” and by inserting in lieu thereof the following words:—“ Where it appears to the local land board that any improvements which an applicant under this section is in course of purchasing from the Crown pursuant to the provisions of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, have become depreciated in value owing to damage by flood, fire, storm or tempest, the local land board may redetermine the capital value of such improvements ”;

severally to any disqualification in that behalf specified in this Act to acquire by transfer a conditional purchase lease or conditional purchase or conditional lease which is a conversion of any conditional purchase lease, in any case where the certificate of fulfilment of conditions has been issued in respect of the holding.

(3) If any holding to which the restriction mentioned in subsection one of this section applies devolves under a will or intestacy upon any person, such person may hold the same for a period of three years after the death of the testator or intestate or for such further period as the Minister may permit.

Within any such period such person may, upon application, obtain a certificate from the Minister that he is entitled to hold the holding; or such person may, subject to this section, sell and transfer the holding.

If by the provisions of the will or by law such person has power to sell the holding the sale may be effected under such power; in any other case the sale may be effected with the consent of all persons beneficially entitled to the holding or by order of the Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction which may be obtained in the manner prescribed by rules of court, or until such rules are made, by summons at chambers.

If such person does not within any such period obtain the certificate of the Minister as aforesaid nor transfer the holding as aforesaid the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and on notification by the Minister in the Gazette may be forfeited, and thereupon shall revert to the Crown.

(4) This section shall apply to any conditional purchase leases applied for before

(Restrictions as to assigns of certain holdings applied for after 1st February, 1909.)

(gg) by omitting the proviso to subsection six of section two hundred and seventy-two and by inserting in lieu thereof the following proviso:—

Provided that the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to the transfer of any parcel of land being part of that comprised in any such grant where the Minister so certifies in the prescribed form.

The Minister may so certify in the case of a subdivision made before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1919, as well as in the case of a subdivision made after such commencement or after the commencement of the Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1935.

Upon the issue of any certificate under this subsection the parcel of land may be transferred or otherwise dealt with without recourse to this section.

This proviso shall apply to and in respect of any certificate issued under the proviso to this subsection before the commencement of the Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1935, in the same manner in all respects as if this proviso were in force at the time when such certificate was issued.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

W. W. HEDGES,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

*Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement
(Amendment).*

3. (1) Subsections two, three and four, subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subsection five and paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection five of this section shall be deemed to have commenced on the thirtieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

Amendment
of Act No. 7, 1913.

(2) The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is amended as follows:—

Sec. 63.
(Sale by auction
of Crown

(a) by omitting subsection eight of section sixty-three and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

(8) Where a person has prior to the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, become the purchaser of any area of land under this section and either before or after the commencement of the said Act the purchase of such area is declared to have lapsed, the Minister may, upon the prescribed application, direct that the whole or part of any moneys paid in respect of such purchase, whether the same have become forfeited or not, shall be credited or applied as payment in respect of the purchase by such person, or by any member of the family of such person, of any other area under this section or of any area under section sixty-four of this Act; and where such direction has been given the whole or part of such moneys shall be credited or applied accordingly.

In this subsection the expression "member of the family of such person" shall include such person's father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, step-father, step-mother, step-brother, step-sister, step-son and step-daughter.

Sec. 64.
(Crown
lands
not sold
at auction;
purchase
after
auction.)

(b) by omitting from section sixty-four all words after the words "purchase of any other area" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following words:—

Where a person has, prior to the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, become the purchaser of any area of land under

under this section and either before or after the commencement of the said Act the purchase of such area is declared to have lapsed, the Minister may, upon the prescribed application, direct that the whole or part of any moneys paid in respect of such purchase, whether the same have become forfeited or not, shall be credited or applied as payment in respect of the purchase by such person, or by any member of the family of such person, of any other area under this section or of any area under section sixty-three of this Act; and where such direction has been given the whole or part of such moneys shall be credited or applied accordingly.

In this section the expression "member of the family of such person" shall include such person's father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, step-father, step-mother, step-brother, step-sister, step-son and step-daughter.

- (c) by omitting section one hundred and seventy-nine and the short heading thereto and by inserting in lieu thereof the following short heading and new section:—

Postponement of payment of instalments and interest on purchases.

179. (1) The Minister may postpone, conditionally or unconditionally, the payment of one or more instalments in respect of any purchase under the Crown Lands Acts, if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such instalments on the due date, irrespective of whether such instalments became payable before or become payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

Where any such postponement is granted, interest at the rate payable in respect of the purchase to the said due date shall, if the Minister so directs, be added to the amount owing in respect

(Conditional purchase: postponement of instalments.)

Postponement of instalment.

respect of the purchase, and if such instalments be subsequently paid, the amount owing in respect of the purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

Where the Minister does not direct that such interest shall be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase, the interest so postponed shall, unless paid, be and remain a separate non-interest bearing debt in respect of the purchase payable at the end of the term of the purchase.

In the application of this subsection to purchases other than conditional purchases, an instalment shall be deemed to include the instalment of principal and the amount of interest due or owing on the purchase on the due date of the instalment of principal.

Payment of interest
in lieu of instalment.

(2) Subject to the approval of the Minister interest only in respect of any such purchase may be paid in lieu of instalments for such periods and subject to such conditions as the Minister may determine and irrespective of whether the instalments became payable before or become payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

Subject to the provisions of section three of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, such interest shall be charged at the rate payable in respect of the purchase and shall be paid annually on the date upon which the instalment would otherwise have been payable.

ment of
interest.

(3) Where interest only is payable yearly in respect of any such purchase the Minister may postpone conditionally or unconditionally one or more of such interest payments if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such interest on the due date, irrespective of whether such interest became payable before or becomes payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

Where

Where any such postponement is granted, the amount of such interest shall, if the Minister so directs, be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase as at the due date for payment of such interest, and if such interest be subsequently paid, the amount owing in respect of the purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

Where the Minister does not direct that the amount of such interest shall be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase, the interest so postponed shall, unless paid, be and remain a separate non-interest bearing debt in respect of the purchase payable at the end of the term of the purchase.

(4) Any postponement granted in pursuance of the section which this section replaces before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, or granted in pursuance of this section may at any time be modified or revoked by the Minister at his discretion.

- (d) (i) by omitting from section one hundred and eighty the words " and if the conditions so imposed or any of them are or is not duly performed the concession granted by the Minister shall cease to operate ";
- Sec 180.
(Deferring
of pay-

ANNO VICESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. , 1935.

An Act to amend the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, and certain other Acts in certain respects; to validate certain transfers of Returned Soldiers' Special Holdings; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1935." Short title.
2. The enactments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are, to the extent therein indicated, hereby repealed. Repeals.

30591 199—A

3.

NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through; those to be inserted are printed in black letter.

3. (1) Subsections two, three and four, subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subsection five and paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection five of this section shall be deemed to have commenced on the thirtieth day of 5 December, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

Commence-
ment.

(2) The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is amended as follows:—

Amendment
of Act No. 7, 1913.

(a) by omitting subsection eight of section sixty-three and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

Sec. 63.
(Sale by auction
of Crown
lands.)

10 (8) Where a person has prior to the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, become the purchaser of any area of land under this section and either before or after the commencement of the said Act the purchase of such area is declared to have lapsed, the Minister may, upon the prescribed applica- 15 tion, direct that the whole or part of any moneys paid in respect of such purchase, whether the same have become forfeited or not, shall be credited or applied as payment in respect of the purchase by such person, or by any member of the family of such person, of any other area under this section or of any area under section 20 sixty-four of this Act; and where such direction has been given the whole or part of such moneys shall be credited or applied accordingly.

25 In this subsection the expression "member of the family of such person" shall include such person's father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, step-father, step-mother, step-brother, step-sister, step-son and step-daughter.

Sec. 64.
(Crown
lands
not sold
at auction;
purchase
after
auction.)

40 Where a person has, prior to the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, become the purchaser of any area of land under

Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement
(Amendment).

3 under this section and either before or after the commencement of the said Act the purchase of such area is declared to have lapsed, the Minister may, upon the prescribed application, direct 10 that the whole or part of any moneys paid in respect of such purchase, whether the same have become forfeited or not, shall be credited or applied as payment in respect of the purchase
by such person, or by any member of the family of such person, of any other area under this section or of any area under section sixty-three of this Act; and where such direction has been given the whole or part of such moneys shall be credited or applied accordingly.

15 In this section the expression "member of the family of such person" shall include such person's father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-
in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law,
step-father, step-mother, step-brother, step-
20 sister, step-son and step-daughter.

(c) by omitting section one hundred and seventy-nine and the short heading thereto and by inserting in lieu thereof the following short heading and new section:—

25 Postponement of payment of instalments and interest on purchases.

30 179. (1) The Minister may postpone, condi-tionally or unconditionally, the payment of one or more instalments in respect of any purchase
under the Crown Lands Acts, if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such instalments
on the due date, irrespective of whether such instalments became payable before or become payable after the commencement of the Crown
Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

35 Where any such postponement is granted, interest at the rate payable in respect of the purchase to the said due date shall, if the Minister so directs, be added to the amount owing in respect

Sec. 179.
(Conditional purchase:
postponement
of instalments.)

Postponement of instalment.

*Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement

respect of the purchase, and if such instalments be subsequently paid, the amount owing in respect of the purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

5           Where the Minister does not direct that such interest shall be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase, the interest so postponed shall, unless paid, be and remain a separate non-interest bearing debt in respect of the purchase payable at the end of the term of the purchase.

10           In the application of this subsection to purchases other than conditional purchases, an instalment shall be deemed to include the instalment of principal and the amount of interest due or owing on the purchase on the due date of the instalment of principal.

15           (2) Subject to the approval of the Minister interest only in respect of any such purchase may be paid in lieu of instalments for such periods and subject to such conditions as the Minister may determine and irrespective of whether the instalments became payable before or become payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932. Payment of interest in lieu of instalment.

20           Subject to the provisions of section three of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, such interest shall be charged at the rate payable in respect of the purchase and shall be paid annually on the date upon which the instalment would otherwise have been payable.

25           (3) Where interest only is payable yearly in respect of any such purchase the Minister may postpone conditionally or unconditionally one or more of such interest payments if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such interest on the due date, irrespective of whether such interest became payable before or becomes payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932. Postponement of interest.

Where

(Amendment).*

Where any such postponement is granted, the amount of such interest shall, if the Minister so directs, be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase as at the due date for payment of such interest, and if such interest be subsequently paid, the amount owing in respect of the purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

Where the Minister does not direct that the amount of such interest shall be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase, the interest so postponed shall, unless paid, be and remain a separate non-interest bearing debt in respect of the purchase payable at the end of the term of the purchase.

(4) Any postponement granted in pursuance of the section which this section replaces before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, or granted in pursuance of this section may at any time be modified or revoked by the Minister at his discretion.

(d) (i) by omitting from section one hundred and eighty the words " and if the conditions so imposed or any of them are or is not duly performed the concession granted by the Minister shall cease to operate ";

Sec 180.
(Deferring of payments.)

(ii) by omitting from the same section the words " remit the payment of such interest wholly or in part " and by inserting in lieu thereof the words " direct that the whole or part of such interest shall not be charged, irrespective of whether such interest accrued due before or accrues due after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

No refund shall be made as a consequence of any such direction."

(iii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following paragraph:—

Any deferment granted or remission or direction made in pursuance of this section whether

whether before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, may at any time be modified or revoked by the Minister at his discretion.

- 5 (c) (i) by inserting in subsection one of section two hundred and sixteen after the words "after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932," the words "and interest in any such case shall be charged only as from the expiration of three years from that date";
- 10 (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "Where an applicant for a holding has, prior to the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, exercised his option of payment by instalments and the value of the improvements exceeds three hundred pounds, he may on the prescribed application have the terms of payment of the balance of such value varied so as to provide for payment by equal yearly instalments over an additional period not exceeding ten years, together with interest at the rate of four per centum per annum" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "Where at the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, the holder of one or more of such holdings as are referred to in this subsection is liable for payment for improvements to the Crown, and the total value of such improvements exceeds three hundred pounds, he may, on the prescribed application, have the terms of payment of the balance of the value of the improvements in respect of each of the holdings so held varied, so as to provide for payment by equal yearly instalments over an additional period not exceeding ten years, together with interest at the rate of four per centum per annum."

Sec. 216.

allowed for payment.)

(f)

(Amendment).*

5 (f) by omitting from section two hundred and seventy-eight the words "remit the payment of such interest wholly or in part or may grant an extension of time for the payment of all or any part of such interest" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "irrespective of whether such interest accrued due before or accrues due after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932—

Sec. 278. (Interest on arrears.)

- 10 (a) direct that the whole or part of such interest shall not be charged; or
- (b) grant an extension of time for the payment of all or any part of such interest; or
- 15 (c) remit the payment of such interest wholly or in part.

No refund shall be made as a consequence of any such direction."

(3) The Closer Settlement Act, 1904, is amended as follows:—

Amendment of Act No. 37, 1904

20 (a) by omitting subsection two of section twenty-nine;

Sec. 29 (2). (Payment of interest in lieu of instalments: postponement of interest and of instalments.)

(b) by inserting next after section twenty-nine the following short heading and new section:—

New s. 29A.

25 Postponement of payment of instalments of interest on purchases.

30 29A. Supreme Court in its equitable jurisdiction which may be obtained in the manner 30 prescribed by rules of court, or until such rules are made, by summons at chambers.

35 If such person does not within any such period obtain the certificate of the Minister as aforesaid nor transfer the holding as aforesaid the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and on notification by the Minister in the Gazette may be forfeited, and thereupon shall revert to the Crown.

40 (4) This section shall apply to any conditional purchase leases applied for

(Amendment).*

5 before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1935, or any conditional purchase 10 leases comprising land allotted in exchange under the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-seven before or after such commencement, or any conditional purchase or conditional lease which is a conversion of a conditional purchase lease whether the conversion was approved or confirmed before or after such commencement.

(gg) by omitting the proviso to subsection six of 15 section two hundred and seventy-two and by inserting in lieu thereof the following proviso:—

20 Provided that the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to the transfer of any parcel of land being part of that comprised in any such grant where the Minister so certifies in the prescribed form.

Sec. 272.
(Restrictions as to assigns of certain holdings applied for after 1st February, 1909.)

25 The Minister may so certify in the case of a subdivision made before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1919, as well as in the case of a subdivision made after such commencement or after the commencement of the Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment)
Act, 1935.

30 Upon the issue of any certificate under this subsection the parcel of land may be transferred or otherwise dealt with without recourse to this section.

35 This proviso shall apply to and in respect of any certificate issued under the proviso to this subsection before the commencement of the Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1935, in the same manner in all respects as if this proviso were in force at the time when such certificate 40 was issued.

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. , 1935.

An Act to amend the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, and certain other Acts in certain respects; to validate certain transfers of Returned Soldiers' Special Holdings; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1935."
2. The enactments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are, to the extent therein indicated, hereby repealed.

3. (1) Subsections two, three and four, subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subsection five and paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection five of this section shall be deemed to have commenced on the thirtieth day of 5 December, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two.

Commencement.

(2) The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, is amended as follows:—

Amendment of Act No. 7, 1913.

(a) by omitting subsection eight of section sixty-three and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

Sec. 63.
(Sale by auction of Crown lands.)

10 (8) Where a person has prior to the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, become the purchaser of any area of land under this section and either before or after the commencement of the said Act the purchase of such area is declared to have lapsed, the Minister may, upon the prescribed application, direct that the whole or part of any moneys paid in respect of such purchase, whether the same have become forfeited or not, shall be credited or applied as payment in respect of the purchase by such person, or by any member of the family of such person, of any other area under this section or of any area under section 15 sixty-four of this Act; and where such direction has been given the whole or part of such moneys shall be credited or applied accordingly.

20 In this subsection the expression "member of the family of such person" shall include such person's father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, step-father, step-mother, step-brother, step-sister, step-son and step-daughter.

Sec. 64.
(Crown lands not sold at auction; purchase after auction.)

40 Where a person has, prior to the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, become the purchaser of any area of land under

*Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement
(Amendment).*

5 under this section and either before or after the commencement of the said Act the purchase of
such area is declared to have lapsed, the Minister may, upon the prescribed application, direct
that the whole or part of any moneys paid in 10 respect of such purchase, whether the same have become forfeited or not, shall be credited or applied as payment in respect of the purchase
by such person, or by any member of the family
of such person, of any other area under this section or of any area under section sixty-three
of this Act; and where such direction has been given the whole or part of such moneys shall be credited or applied accordingly.

15 In this section the expression " member of the family of such person " shall include such person's father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-
in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law,
step-father, step-mother, step-brother, step-
20 sister, step-son and step-daughter.

(c) by omitting section one hundred and seventy-nine and the short heading thereto and by
inserting in lieu thereof the following short
heading and new section:—

25 *Postponement of payment of instalments and
interest on purchases.*

30 179. (1) The Minister may postpone, condi-
tionally or unconditionally, the payment of one or more instalments in respect of any purchase
under the Crown Lands Acts, if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such instalments
on the due date, irrespective of whether such instalments became payable before or become
payable after the commencement of the Crown
Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

35 Where any such postponement is granted,
interest at the rate payable in respect of the purchase to the said due date shall, if the Minister so directs, be added to the amount owing in respect

Sec. 179.
(Conditional
purchase:
postponement
of instalments.)

Postponement of instalment.

*Crown Lands, Closer Settlement and Returned Soldiers Settlement

respect of the purchase, and if such instalments be subsequently paid, the amount owing in respect of the purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

5 Where the Minister does not direct that such interest shall be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase, the interest so postponed shall, unless paid, be and remain a separate non-interest bearing debt in respect of the purchase payable at the end of the term of the purchase.

10 In the application of this subsection to purchases other than conditional purchases, an instalment shall be deemed to include the instalment of principal and the amount of interest due or owing on the purchase on the due date of the instalment of principal.

15 (2) Subject to the approval of the Minister interest only in respect of any such purchase may be paid in lieu of instalments for such periods and subject to such conditions as the Minister may determine and irrespective of whether the instalments became payable before or become payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

Payment of interest in lieu of instalment.

20 Subject to the provisions of section three of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, such interest shall be charged at the rate payable in respect of the purchase and shall be paid annually on the date upon which the instalment would otherwise have been payable.

25 (3) Where interest only is payable yearly in respect of any such purchase the Minister may postpone conditionally or unconditionally one or more of such interest payments if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such interest on the due date, irrespective of whether such interest became payable before or becomes payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

Postponement of interest.

30 Where

(Amendment).*

Where any such postponement is granted, the amount of such interest shall, if the Minister so directs, be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase as at the due date for payment of such interest, and if such interest be subsequently paid, the amount owing in respect of the purchase shall be reduced by the amount so paid.

Where the Minister does not direct that the amount of such interest shall be added to the amount owing in respect of the purchase, the interest so postponed shall, unless paid, be and remain a separate non-interest bearing debt in respect of the purchase payable at the end of the term of the purchase.

(4) Any postponement granted in pursuance of the section which this section replaces before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932, or granted in pursuance of this section may at any time be modified or revoked by the Minister at his discretion.

- (d) (i) by omitting from section one hundred and eighty the words " and if the conditions so imposed or any of them are or is not duly performed the concession granted by the Minister shall cease to operate ";
- (ii) by omitting from the same section the words " remit the payment of such interest wholly or in part " and by inserting in lieu thereof the words " direct that the whole or part of such interest shall not be charged, irrespective of whether such interest accrued due before or accrues due after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.
- No refund shall be made as a consequence of any such direction."
- (iii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following paragraph:—
- Any deferment granted or remission or direction made in pursuance of this section whether

No refund shall be made as a consequence of any such direction."

(3) The Closer Settlement Act, 1904, is amended as follows:—

Amendment of Act No. 37, 1904

20 (a) by omitting subsection two of section twenty-nine;

Sec. 29 (2).
(Payment of interest in lieu of instalments: postponement of interest and of instalments.)

(b) by inserting next after section twenty-nine the following short heading and new section:—

New s. 29A.

25 Postponement of payment of instalments of interest on purchases.

30 29A. (1) The Minister may postpone, conditionally or unconditionally, the payment of one or more instalments owing in respect of any purchase under the Closer Settlement Acts, if satisfied of the inability of the holder to pay such instalments on the due date, irrespective of whether such instalments became payable before or become payable after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1932.

Postponement of instalments.
