

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

W. R. McCOURT,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 29 November, 1932.*

New South Wales.

ANNO VICESIMO TERTIO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. , 1932.

An Act to enable the Governor to make appointments of Acting District Court Judges and Acting Chairmen of Quarter Sessions; to validate certain judicial acts of persons heretofore so appointed; to amend the District Courts Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the "District Courts Short title. (Further Validation and Amendment) Act, 1932."

90603

82—

2.

District Courts (Further Validation and Amendment).

2. The District Courts Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, is further amended by inserting next after section nineteen the following new section:—

Amendment
of Act No.
23, 1912.
New s. 19A.

5 19A. The Governor may issue a special commission to any person qualified to be appointed a judge of the district courts under this Act, appointing him to sit and act as a judge of every district court and chairman of every court of quarter sessions in New 10 South Wales, but to exercise such jurisdiction only in the courts of the district specified in the commission for a time not exceeding in any case six months, to be specified in like manner.

Acting
judges.

15 A person so appointed shall in the district and for the time specified in such commission have all the powers, authorities, privileges and immunities, and fulfil all the duties of a judge of a district court under this Act, and during the time specified in the commission shall be deemed a district court judge within the meaning of this or any other Act.

20 3. (1) No judgment, order, sentence or other judicial act given, made, pronounced, or done before the commencement of this Act by any person appointed by the Governor to act as a district court judge or chairman of quarter sessions for a period specified in his commission 25 shall be deemed invalid merely on the ground that no power lay in the Governor to appoint such person otherwise than during ability and good behaviour or as the deputy of any district court judge during his illness or absence.

Validation.

30 (2) Where prior to the commencement of this Act any person was appointed by the Governor to act as a district court judge or chairman of quarter sessions for a period which has not expired at such commencement, the provisions of subsection one of this section shall 35 extend to judgments, orders, sentences, and other judicial acts given, made, pronounced, or done after the said commencement and during such period.

(Amendment) Act, 1932, No. 35, 131 30A

The District Courts Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 30th November, 1932.]

Amendment Act, 1932, No. 35, 131 30A

New South Wales.

ANNO VICESIMO TERTIO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. 35, 1932.

An Act to enable the Governor to make appointments of Acting District Court Judges and Acting Chairmen of Quarter Sessions; to validate certain judicial acts of persons heretofore so appointed; to amend the District Courts Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 30th November, 1932.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the "District Courts (Further Validation and Amendment) Act, 1932." Short title.

2.

District Courts (Further Validation and Amendment).

Amendment
of Act No.
23, 1912.
New s. 19A.

Acting
judges.

2. The District Courts Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, is further amended by inserting next after section nineteen the following new section:—

19A. The Governor may issue a special commission to any person qualified to be appointed a judge of the district courts under this Act, appointing him to sit and act as a judge of every district court and chairman of every court of quarter sessions in New South Wales, but to exercise such jurisdiction only in the courts of the district specified in the commission for a time not exceeding in any case six months, to be specified in like manner.

A person so appointed shall in the district and for the time specified in such commission have all the powers, authorities, privileges and immunities, and fulfil all the duties of a judge of a district court under this Act, and during the time specified in the commission shall be deemed a district court judge within the meaning of this or any other Act.

Validation.

3. (1) No judgment, order, sentence or other judicial act given, made, pronounced, or done before the commencement of this Act by any person appointed by the Governor to act as a district court judge or chairman of quarter sessions for a period specified in his commission shall be deemed invalid merely on the ground that no power lay in the Governor to appoint such person otherwise than during ability and good behaviour or as the deputy of any district court judge during his illness or absence.

(2) Where prior to the commencement of this Act any person was appointed by the Governor to act as a district court judge or chairman of quarter sessions for a period which has not expired at such commencement, the provisions of subsection one of this section shall extend to judgments, orders, sentences, and other judicial acts given, made, pronounced, or done after the said commencement and during such period.

By Authority:

ALFRED JAMES KENT, I.S.O., Government Printer, Sydney—1932.

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

W. R. McCOURT,

Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 29 November, 1932.*

New South Wales.

ANNO VICESIMO TERTIO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. 35, 1932.

An Act to enable the Governor to make appointments of Acting District Court Judges and Acting Chairmen of Quarter Sessions; to validate certain judicial acts of persons heretofore so appointed; to amend the District Courts Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 30th November, 1932.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the "District Courts Short title. (Further Validation and Amendment) Act, 1932."

2.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

W. T. MISSINGHAM,

Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

District Courts (Further Validation and Amendment).

Amendment
of Act No.
23, 1912.
New s. 19A.

Acting
judges.

2. The District Courts Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, is further amended by inserting next after section nineteen the following new section:—

19A. The Governor may issue a special commission to any person qualified to be appointed a judge of the district courts under this Act, appointing him to sit and act as a judge of every district court and chairman of every court of quarter sessions in New South Wales, but to exercise such jurisdiction only in the courts of the district specified in the commission for a time not exceeding in any case six months, to be specified in like manner.

A person so appointed shall in the district and for the time specified in such commission have all the powers, authorities, privileges and immunities, and fulfil all the duties of a judge of a district court under this Act, and during the time specified in the commission shall be deemed a district court judge within the meaning of this or any other Act.

Validation.

3. (1) No judgment, order, sentence or other judicial act given, made, pronounced, or done before the commencement of this Act by any person appointed by the Governor to act as a district court judge or chairman of quarter sessions for a period specified in his commission shall be deemed invalid merely on the ground that no power lay in the Governor to appoint such person otherwise than during ability and good behaviour or as the deputy of any district court judge during his illness or absence.

(2) Where prior to the commencement of this Act any person was appointed by the Governor to act as a district court judge or chairman of quarter sessions for a period which has not expired at such commencement, the provisions of subsection one of this section shall extend to judgments, orders, sentences, and other judicial acts given, made, pronounced, or done after the said commencement and during such period.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

PHILIP GAME,
Governor.

Government House,
Sydney, 30th November, 1932.