

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

W. R. McCOURT,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 28 February, 1935.

New South Wales.

ANNO VICESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. 11, 1935.

An Act to provide for the licensing of outdoor workers in the clothing trades; to limit the provisions of Part IV of the Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1931, relating to trade descriptions of goods to the trade description of bedding, including mattresses, pillows, bolsters, quilts, cushions, and upholstered furniture; to make certain further provisions as to false advertisements; to amend the Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1931; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 6th March, 1935.]

BE

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

W. W. HEDGES,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART I.PRELIMINARY.

Short title, citation and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Factories and Shops (Amendment) Act, 1935."

(2) The Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1931, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1935.

(4) This Act shall commence on a date to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Amendment of
Act No. 39,
1912.
Part II.
New Division 2A.

2. The Principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting at the end of Division 2 of Part II the following new Division:—

DIVISION 2A.—Outdoor Workers—Clothing Trades.

Outdoor workers in clothing trade to be licensed.

19A. No work in the clothing trades of any description or class which if done or performed in a factory would be covered by any award for the time being in force under any Act or Commonwealth Act relating to industrial arbitration shall be done or performed outside a factory by any person for or on behalf of the occupier of a factory, or any trader who sells such clothing by wholesale or retail, unless such person holds a license as an outdoor worker.

Licenses:
by whom and to whom granted,
etc.

19B. (1) The Industrial Registrar may grant such licenses to any persons who prove to his satisfaction that they are in necessitous circumstances, or that by reason of domestic ties, infirmity, old age, or any other sufficient reason (of which the Industrial Registrar shall be the sole judge) they are unable to work in factories.

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

(2) Application for the issue or renewal of such license shall be made to the Industrial Registrar in the form and in the manner prescribed.

(3) Every such license shall be in the form prescribed and shall be granted upon such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Industrial Registrar, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, remain in force for one year from the date thereof, but may be renewed and on each renewal shall take effect for a further period of twelve months.

(4) The Industrial Registrar shall notify the industrial union concerned of the grant of such license together with the terms and conditions upon which such license was granted.

(5) Every license issued under this Act shall be held by the licensee subject to the provisions of this Act and shall be delivered up to the Industrial Registrar upon demand.

(6) Upon the loss or accidental destruction of any license, the Industrial Registrar may, if satisfied, issue a duplicate or substitute license.

(7) The issue or renewal of a license may be refused—

(a) unless the applicant satisfies the Industrial Registrar that he is in all respects a fit and proper person to hold such license;

(b) upon proof to the satisfaction of the Industrial Registrar of any matter which under other provisions of this Act would be a sufficient cause for suspension or cancellation of a license.

(8) The Industrial Registrar shall keep a record of all persons licensed under this Act; and shall from time to time alter the entries in such record to the end that it shall be a correct record of the licenses for the time being in force and of the names and addresses and other particulars of the persons licensed.

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

(9) The license of any outdoor worker may be suspended or cancelled by the Industrial Registrar on being satisfied that the licensee is suffering from a communicable disease, or that he is not in all respects a fit and proper person to hold a license, or for any other sufficient reason, of which the Industrial Registrar shall be the sole judge.

Prohibition of employment of other persons by licensed outdoor workers,
etc.

19c. No licensed outdoor worker shall—

- (a) employ any other person or persons whatsoever in wholly or partly preparing or manufacturing articles of clothing or wearing apparel save and except members of the licensed outdoor worker's own family;

- (b) do any work inside a factory.

Restriction on employment of outdoor
workers.

19d. The occupier of a factory shall not have at any one time more than one licensed outdoor worker to every ten indoor workers or fraction thereof except with the approval in writing of the Industrial Registrar.

Powers of inspectors.

19e. (1) Any inspector, in addition to the powers already conferred upon him by this Act, may at any reasonable times enter any premises where any licensed outdoor worker is employed for the purpose of inspecting the outdoor worker's license or obtaining information as to the name and address of the employer, and the price or rate paid or to be paid to the licensee for the work performed by him, and for the purpose abovementioned may ask any reasonable questions of the licensee; and every such licensee shall in reply to such questions give such information as he may possess to enable the inspector to carry out the purpose abovementioned.

(2) If any person obstructs an inspector in the exercise of his powers under this section, or fails when duly required to produce his license, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

19f.

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

19F. Any person who contravenes or fails to carry out any provision of this Division of this Part of this Act shall, where no other penalty is provided, be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

Penalty for contravention of provisions of Division.

19G. This Division of this Part of this Act shall be read and construed subject to the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act and so as not to exceed the legislative power of the State to the intent that where any provision of this Division or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of this Division or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected.

Construction of Division.

- (b) by inserting in section three after the definition of "Furniture" the following new definition:—

Sec. 3.

New Part V. (a) by inserting after Part IV the following new Part:—

PART V.

FALSE ADVERTISEMENTS.

Penalty for publishing or causing to be published any false advertisement to promote the sale of goods. 97. (1) Any person who publishes or causes to be published any statement which—

(a) is intended or apparently intended by such person or any other person to promote the sale or disposal of any goods (which term includes anything that is the subject of trade, manufacture or merchandise); and

(b) is to his knowledge false in any material particular, shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

(2)

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

(2) A statement shall be deemed to be published within the meaning of this section if it is—

(a) inserted in any newspaper or any other publication printed and published in New South Wales; or

(b) publicly exhibited—

(i) in, on, over or under any building, vehicle or place (whether or not a public place and whether on land or water); or

(ii) in the air in view of persons being or passing in or on any street or public place; or

(c) contained in any document gratuitously sent or delivered to any person or thrown or left upon premises in the occupation of any person.

(d) broadcast by wireless transmission.

(3) In any proceedings under this section against any person for publishing any statement aforesaid or causing the same to be published, if it is proved that such statement was false in any material particular, the person who published the statement or caused the same to be published shall be deemed to have published the same or to have caused the same to be published with knowledge of its falsity, unless he proves that having taken all reasonable precautions against committing an offence under this section he had reasonable grounds to believe and did believe that the statement was true and had no reason to suspect that the statement was false.

(4) Every body corporate shall be liable for an offence under this section as if such body corporate were a private person and shall be subject to the same penalties as if it were an individual.

(5)

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

(5) Every person who aids, abets, counsels or procures or by act or omission is in any way directly or indirectly knowingly concerned in the commission of any offence under this section shall be deemed to have committed that offence and shall be punishable accordingly.

(6) Where two or more persons commit or knowingly authorise or permit the commission of any offence under this section each of such persons shall be liable therefor and the liability of each of them shall be independent of the liability of the other or others.

(7) No prosecution shall be instituted against the printer, publisher, or proprietor of any newspaper printed and published in New South Wales or against any person acting under the authority of the same for the publication in any such newspaper of any statement in contravention of this section unless—

(a) such printer, publisher or proprietor has been warned by an inspector of the falsity of such statement or of any other statement substantially the same as such statement and that the publication thereof is an offence under this section; and

(b) such printer, publisher or proprietor has on any one day after the receipt of the warning published or authorised or permitted the publication of such statement or any such other statement in any issue of any newspaper in New South Wales printed or owned by him (as the case may be); and

(c) the consent of the Minister to the prosecution is first obtained.

(8) No prosecution shall be instituted against the seller or distributor of any newspaper for the publication in such newspaper of any statement in contravention of this section unless the consent of the Minister to the prosecution is first obtained.

(9)

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

(9) In this section "newspaper" includes any periodical publication.

(10) Notwithstanding any proceedings against any person for an offence under this section (whether resulting in a conviction or otherwise) such person shall remain liable to all civil proceedings in like manner as if the proceedings for an offence had not been taken.

(11) This section shall be read and construed as in aid of and not in derogation from any enactment or law relating to false or misleading advertisements or other statements.

- (b) by inserting in subsection one of section fifty-two after the words and figures "Part IV" the words and figures "and Part V"; Sec. 52.
(Prosecutions.)
- (c) by inserting at the end of section one the words and figures "Part V—False Advertisements—s. 97." Sec. 1.
(Division into Parts.)

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty, I have assented to this Act.

A. HORE-RUTHVEN,
Governor.

*Government House,
Sydney, 6th March, 1935.*

Factories and Shops (Amendment)

(3) In this section "newspaper" includes any periodical publication.

(4) Notwithstanding any proceedings against any person for an offence under this section (whether committed in a conviction or otherwise) such person shall remain liable to all civil proceedings in the manner as if the proceedings for an offence had not been taken.

(5) This section shall be read and construed as if and not in derogation from any enactment or law relating to false or misleading advertisements or other statements.

- (b) by inserting in sub-section one of section fifty-two after the words and figures "and 'L' and 'V'";
- (c) by inserting at the end of section one hundred and thirty-two the words and figures "and 'L' and 'V'";

In the name and on behalf of the Governor, I have signed this Act.

No work in the clothing trades of any description or class which if done or performed in a factory would be covered by any award for the time being in force under any Act or Commonwealth Act relating to industrial arbitration shall be done or performed outside a factory by any person for or on behalf of the occupier of a factory, or any trader who sells such clothing by wholesale or retail, unless such person holds a license as an outdoor worker. Outdoor workers in clothing trade to be licensed.
- 30

- 35 19B. (1) The Industrial Registrar may grant such licenses to any persons who prove to his satisfaction that they are in necessitous circumstances, or that by reason of domestic ties, infirmity, old age, or any other sufficient reason (of which the Industrial Registrar shall be the sole judge) they are unable to work in factories. Licenses: by whom and to whom granted, etc.

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

(2) Application for the issue or renewal of such license shall be made to the Industrial Registrar in the form and in the manner prescribed.

5 (3) Every such license shall be in the form prescribed and shall be granted upon such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Industrial Registrar, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, remain in force for one year from the date thereof, but may be renewed and on each renewal shall take effect for a further period of twelve months.

10 (4) The Industrial Registrar shall notify the industrial union concerned of the grant of ~~any~~ such license together with the terms and conditions upon which such license was granted.

15 (5) Every license issued under this Act shall be held by the licensee subject to the provisions of this Act and shall be delivered up to the Industrial Registrar upon demand.

20 (6) Upon the loss or accidental destruction of any license, the Industrial Registrar may, if satisfied, issue a duplicate or substitute license.

25 (7) The issue or renewal of a license may be refused—

30 (a) unless the applicant satisfies the Industrial Registrar that he is in all respects a fit and proper person to hold such license;

35 (b) upon proof to the satisfaction of the Industrial Registrar of any matter which under other provisions of this Act would be a sufficient cause for suspension or cancellation of a license.

40 (8) The Industrial Registrar shall keep a record of all persons licensed under this Act; and shall from time to time alter the entries in such record to the end that it shall be a correct record of the licenses for the time being in force and of the names and addresses and other particulars of the persons licensed. (9)

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

(9) The license of any outdoor worker may be suspended or cancelled by the Industrial Registrar on being satisfied that the licensee is suffering from a communicable disease, or that he is not in all respects a fit and proper person to hold a license, or for any other sufficient reason, of which the Industrial Registrar shall be the sole judge.

19c. No licensed outdoor worker shall—

(a) employ any other person or persons whatsoever in wholly or partly preparing or manufacturing articles of clothing or wearing apparel save and except members of the licensed outdoor worker's own family;

Prohibition of employment of other persons by licensed outdoor workers, etc.

ANNO VICESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. , 1935.

An Act to provide for the licensing of outdoor workers in the clothing trades; to limit the provisions of Part IV of the Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1931, relating to trade descriptions of goods to the trade description of bedding, including mattresses, pillows, bolsters, quilts, cushions, and certain upholstered furniture; to make certain further provisions as to false advertisements; to amend the Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1931; and for purposes connected therewith.

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

PART I.PRELIMINARY.

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Factories and Shops (Amendment) Act, 1935."

Short title,
citation and commencement.

10 (2) The Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1931, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1935.

15 (4) This Act shall commence on a date to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

2. The Principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting at the end of Division 2 of Part II the following new Division:—

Amendment of
Act No. 39,
1912.
Part II.
New Division 2A.

20 DIVISION 2A.—Outdoor Workers—Clothing Trades.

25 19A. No work in the clothing trades of any description or class which if done or performed in a factory would be covered by any award for the time being in force under any Act or Commonwealth Act relating to industrial arbitration shall be done or performed outside a factory by any person for or on behalf of the occupier of a factory, or any trader who sells such clothing by wholesale or retail, unless such person holds a license as an outdoor worker.

etc.

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

(2) Application for the issue or renewal of such license shall be made to the Industrial Registrar in the form and in the manner prescribed.

5 (3) Every such license shall be in the form prescribed and shall be granted upon such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Industrial Registrar, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, remain in force for one year from the date thereof, but may be renewed and on each renewal shall take effect for a further period of twelve months.

10 (4) The Industrial Registrar shall notify the industrial union concerned of the grant of ~~any~~ such license together with the terms and conditions upon which such license was granted.

15 (5) Every license issued under this Act shall be held by the licensee subject to the provisions of this Act and shall be delivered up to the Industrial Registrar upon demand.

20 (6) Upon the loss or accidental destruction of any license, the Industrial Registrar may, if satisfied, issue a duplicate or substitute license.

25 (7) The issue or renewal of a license may be refused—

(a) unless the applicant satisfies the Industrial Registrar that he is in all respects a fit and proper person to hold such license;

30 (b) upon proof to the satisfaction of the Industrial Registrar of any matter which under other provisions of this Act would be a sufficient cause for suspension or cancellation of a license.

35 (8) The Industrial Registrar shall keep a record of all persons licensed under this Act; and shall from time to time alter the entries in such record to the end that it shall be a correct record of the licenses for the time being in force and of the names and addresses and other particulars of the persons licensed.

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

(9) The license of any outdoor worker may be suspended or cancelled by the Industrial Registrar on being satisfied that the licensee is suffering from a communicable disease, or that he is not in all respects a fit and proper person to hold a license, or for any other sufficient reason, of which the Industrial Registrar shall be the sole judge.

19c. No licensed outdoor worker shall—

(a) employ any other person or persons whatsoever in wholly or partly preparing or manufacturing articles of clothing or wearing apparel save and except members of the licensed outdoor worker's own family;

ANNO VICESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. , 1935.

An Act to provide for the licensing of outdoor workers in the clothing trades; to limit the provisions of Part IV of the Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1931, relating to trade descriptions of goods to the trade description of bedding, including mattresses, pillows, bolsters, quilts, cushions, and certain upholstered furniture; to make certain further provisions as to false advertisements; to amend the Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1931; and for purposes connected therewith.

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART I.

PRELIMINARY.

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Factories and Shops (Amendment) Act, 1935."

Short title, citation and commencement.

(2) The Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1931, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Factories and Shops Act, 1912-1935.

(4) This Act shall commence on a date to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

2. The Principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting at the end of Division 2 of Part II the following new Division:—

Amendment of Act No. 39, 1912.
Part II.
New Division 2A.

DIVISION 2A.—Outdoor Workers—Clothing Trades.

19A. No work in the clothing trades of any description or class which if done or performed in a factory would be covered by any award for the time being in force under any Act or Commonwealth Act relating to industrial arbitration shall be done or performed outside a factory by any person for or on behalf of the occupier of a factory, or any trader who sells such clothing by wholesale or retail, unless such person holds a license as an outdoor worker.

Outdoor workers in clothing trade to be licensed.

19B. (1) The Industrial Registrar may grant such licenses to any persons who prove to his satisfaction that they are in necessitous circumstances, or that by reason of domestic ties, infirmity, old age, or any other sufficient reason (of which the Industrial Registrar shall be the sole judge) they are unable to work in factories.

Licenses: by whom and to whom granted, etc.

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

(2) Application for the issue or renewal of such license shall be made to the Industrial Registrar in the form and in the manner prescribed.

5 (3) Every such license shall be in the form prescribed and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, remain in force for one year from the date thereof, but may be renewed and 10 on each renewal shall take effect for a further period of twelve months.

(4) The Industrial Registrar shall notify the industrial union concerned of the grant of any license.

15 (5) Every license issued under this Act shall be held by the licensee subject to the provisions of this Act and shall be delivered up to the Industrial Registrar upon demand.

(6) Upon the loss or accidental destruction of any license, the Industrial Registrar
20 may, if satisfied, issue a duplicate or substitute license.

(7) The issue or renewal of a license may be refused—

25 (a) unless the applicant satisfies the Industrial Registrar that he is in all respects a fit and proper person to hold such license;

30 (b) upon proof to the satisfaction of the Industrial Registrar of any matter which under other provisions of this Act would be a sufficient cause for suspension or cancellation of a license.

35 (8) The Industrial Registrar shall keep a record of all persons licensed under this Act; and shall from time to time alter the entries in such record to the end that it shall be a correct record of the licenses for the time being in force and of the names and addresses and other particulars of the persons licensed.

40 (9) The license of any outdoor worker may be suspended or cancelled by the Industrial Registrar on being satisfied that the licensee is

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

is suffering from a communicable disease, or that he is not in all respects a fit and proper person to hold a license, or for any other sufficient reason, of which the Industrial Registrar shall be the sole judge.

19c. No licensed outdoor worker shall—

(a) employ any other person or persons whatsoever in wholly or partly preparing or manufacturing articles of clothing or wearing apparel save and except members of the licensed outdoor worker's own family;

Prohibition of employment of other persons by licensed outdoor workers, etc.

(b) do any work inside a factory.

19d. The occupier of a factory shall not have at any one time more than one licensed outdoor worker to every ten indoor workers or fraction thereof except with the approval in writing of the Industrial Registrar.

Restriction on employment of outdoor workers.

15

19e. (1) Any inspector, in addition to the powers already conferred upon him by this Act, may at any reasonable times enter any premises where any licensed outdoor worker is employed for the purpose of inspecting the outdoor worker's license or obtaining information as to the name and address of the employer, and the price or rate paid or to be paid to the licensee for the work performed by him, and for the purpose abovementioned may ask any reasonable questions of the licensee; and every such licensee shall in reply to such questions give such information as he may possess to enable the inspector to carry out the purpose abovementioned.

Powers of inspectors.

25

30

(2) If any person obstructs an inspector in the exercise of his powers under this section, or fails when duly required to produce his license, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

35

19f. Any person who contravenes or fails to carry out any provision of this Division of this Part of this Act shall, where no other penalty is provided, be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty for contravention of provisions of Division.

40

19g.

Factories and Shops (Amendment).

- 19G. This Division of this Part of this Act shall be read and construed subject to the Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act and so as not to exceed the legislative power of the State to the intent that where any provision of this Division or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of this Division or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected.
- (b) by inserting in section three after the definition of "Furniture" the following new definition:—
 "Industrial Registrar" means the Registrar appointed under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912, or any Act replacing that Act.
- (c) by omitting from paragraph six of section nine the words "Part of this" wherever occurring;
