

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

W. R. McCOURT,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 7 September, 1933.

New South Wales.

ANNO VICESIMO QUARTO

GEORGI V REGIS.

Act No. 7, 1933.

An Act to provide for the appointment of an Acting-Commissioner to constitute the Forestry Commission of New South Wales for a less term than the term prescribed in the Forestry Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, and at a less salary than that appropriated by the said Act as so amended; to amend the said Act; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 13th September, 1933.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Forestry (Amendment) Act, 1933."

(2)

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

W. W. HEDGES,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Forestry (Amendment).

(2) The Forestry Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Forestry Act, 1916-1933.

Amendment of Act No. 55, 1916. New s. 6A.

Acting-commissioner.

2. The Principal Act is amended by inserting next after section six the following new section:—

6A. (1) The Governor may, in lieu of appointing a commissioner upon the expiration of the term of office of the commissioner holding office at the commencement of the Forestry (Amendment) Act, 1933, appoint such commissioner or some other person as acting-commissioner.

The instrument of appointment shall specify the term for which such person is appointed but such term shall not exceed seven years.

(2) During the period for which he is appointed an acting-commissioner shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the person for the time being holding the office of commissioner, and shall constitute the Forestry Commission.

(3) An acting-commissioner shall have and may exercise and perform all the rights, powers, authorities, duties and functions and shall be subject to all the obligations which by or under this Act are conferred or imposed upon the commissioner.

(4) The provisions of subsections two to five, both inclusive, of section five of this Act shall apply to and in respect of an acting-commissioner.

(5) The salary of an acting-commissioner shall be one thousand two hundred and fifty pounds and shall be subject to the provisions of the Public Service Salaries Act, 1931-1933.

(9)

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

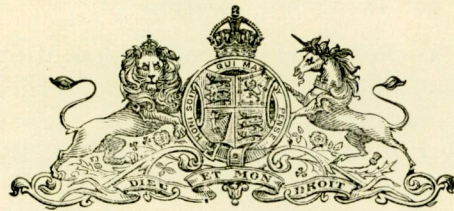

PHILIP GAME,
Governor.

Government House,
Sydney, 13th September, 1933.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

W. R. McCOURT,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 7 September, 1933.
