(2) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Amendment of Act No. 5, 1901.
New Part II.A.
(Firearms, etc.)

2. (1) The Police Offences Act, 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

(a) by inserting next after section forty-one the following new Part:—

PART II.A.—FIREARMS, ETC.

Application of this Part to the whole State.

41A. The provisions of this Part shall apply and be in force in every part of New South Wales.

Interpretation.
cf. Vict.
Acts 1912
No. 2,380;
1915 No.
2,708; 1922
No. 3,262.

41B. In this Part of this Act unless the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires,—

“ Air gun ” means a rifle or gun of any kind, whether rifled or not, irrespective of the length of barrel, which is known or described as an air gun, and which is capable of propelling a projectile of any kind by means of compressed air the force of which is released by means of a trigger or similar device.

“ Firearm ” includes a gun, rifle, pistol, pea rifle or saloon gun and any weapon or article from which a shot or other hurtful material may be discharged whether by an explosive or by any other means whatsoever.

“ Hurtful material ” includes any noxious or irritant liquid, powder, gas, chemical or substance capable of causing bodily harm.

“ Prescribed ” means prescribed by this Part or the regulations under this Part.

“ Shooting gallery ” means any room, gallery, saloon, land or premises used for the purpose of practising shooting with pea rifles or saloon guns whether on payment or otherwise.

41c.

Firearms.

41c. (1) No person under the age of fourteen years shall use, discharge, carry, buy, sell, keep or knowingly have in his possession a firearm or an air gun.

Penalty on using, buying, selling or having a firearm or air gun.

(2) No person shall sell, let or hire, give or lend any firearm or air gun to any person under the age of fourteen years.

(3) No person shall knowingly sell, let or hire, give or lend a firearm or an air gun to a person who is intoxicated or of unsound mind.

(4) No person who is intoxicated shall use, carry or have in his possession any firearm or air gun.

(5) No person shall discharge any firearm or air gun on private property without the consent previously obtained of the owner or occupier of such property.

(6) Any person who is guilty of a contravention of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

(7) Subsection one of this section shall not apply to—

(a) any officer or member of the Commonwealth naval or military cadets using or carrying a firearm in the performance of his duty or when engaged in target practice at an authorised range or travelling thereto or therefrom ; or

(b) any employee of a gunsmith or gun seller; or any other employee under the age of fourteen years who carries or has in his possession any firearm or air gun in the ordinary course of his employer's business; or

(c) the agent or servant of the proprietor or lessee of any shooting gallery while employed therein or any person shooting at a target or figure in such gallery; or

(d)

Firearms.

- (d) a person under the age of fourteen years using a firearm or an air gun under the personal supervision of a responsible adult.
- When fire-arm or air gun carried in parts.
- 41D. When a firearm or an air gun is carried in parts by two or more persons, each and every one of such persons who is under the age of fourteen years shall be deemed to carry a firearm or an air gun (as the case may be).

- 41E. (1) Any person who sells, gives or disposes to any person under the age of fourteen years any cartridges or any bulletted caps shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.
- (2) It shall be a sufficient defence to any charge under this section that the sale, gift or disposal was made upon the written authority of some responsible adult person.
- Maxim silencer.
- 41F. Any person who uses any contrivance commonly called or in the nature of a maxim silencer shall be liable for a first offence to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months and for any subsequent offence to imprisonment for a term of twelve months.
- Seizure of firearm, etc.
- 41G. A firearm, air gun, cartridge or bulletted cap which is being used or carried by or which is in the possession of any person apparently in contravention of this Part, may be seized by any member of the police force, and possession thereof shall be retained by him until a court of petty sessions makes an order with regard to the forfeiture, disposal, destruction or return to the owner of the firearm, air gun, cartridge or cap.
- Precaution to be taken by owners.
- 41H. Any person who has a firearm or an air gun in his possession and who does not take all reasonable precautions to ensure the safe keeping of such firearm or air gun shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.
- Power to search premises for firearms, etc.
- 41I. If a justice is satisfied by information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting

suspecting that any firearm or air gun is concealed or lodged in any premises or place in breach of this Act, he may grant a search warrant authorising any member of the police force named therein to enter at any time if necessary by force and to search any premises or place named in such warrant and every person found therein, and to seize and detain any firearm or air gun which he may find on the premises or place, and in respect of which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that there has been or is a breach of this Act.

41j. (1) The Minister may by order in writing appoint persons to exercise all powers and authorities conferred by this Part on members of the police force; and every person so appointed shall until such appointment is revoked by the Minister have and may exercise, subject to such order, all or any of the said powers and authorities.

Power to appoint persons to execute Part.

(2) Every person so appointed shall, if demanded, produce his authority from the Minister when exercising any of the powers and authorities conferred upon him pursuant to this section.

41k. In every prosecution for an offence against this Part where it is averred in the information that a person is under the age of fourteen years this shall be deemed to be proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.

Proof of age.

41l. If any child under the age of fourteen years uses or has in his possession any firearm or air gun, the parent or guardian of the child shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Liability of parent or guardian.

It shall be a sufficient defence to any proceedings under this section if the person charged proves that the use or possession was without his consent or knowledge, and that he took all reasonable precautions to prevent the use or possession of the firearm or air gun by the child,

or

---

or that the child was using the firearm or air gun under the personal supervision of a responsible adult.

Discharging
firearms or air guns in street, etc.

41M. Whosoever discharges a firearm or air gun in or near a street or public place without lawful excuse shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Illegal
possession
of firearms
or air guns.

41N. Whosoever having previously been convicted of an offence punishable in a summary jurisdiction or on indictment or who, being found consorting with criminals or known prostitutes, has in his possession or carries in a public street, highway, or public place a firearm or air gun, except for some lawful, proper and sufficient purpose, the proof of which purpose shall lie upon him, shall be liable on summary conviction for a first offence to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, and for any subsequent offence to imprisonment for a term of two years.

Illegal
possession
of gas
pencil, etc.

41O. Whosoever has in his possession or carries in any public street, highway or public place, any article or instrument capable of discharging in any way any irritant liquid, gas, powder or any substance capable of causing bodily harm except for some lawful purpose the proof of which purpose shall lie upon him, shall be liable on summary conviction for a first offence to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, and for a subsequent offence to imprisonment for a term of six months.

Possession
of firearms
or air guns
in vehicle.

41P. (1) Any firearm or air gun found in any vehicle shall be deemed in the absence of proof to the contrary to be in the possession of any person who at the time of the finding or recently thereto is or was in the vehicle where such person is one who has previously been convicted of an indictable offence or where such person

Where a license has been so revoked the holder thereof shall, within forty-eight hours from receipt of such notice of revocation, return such license to the said officer in charge. Return of revoked license.

Any person who fails to so return such license shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

(f) by inserting next after section eight the following new section:— New sec. 8A.

8A. (1) Where a license is revoked or where a holder of a pistol license does not desire to renew the license the pistol shall be handed to the officer in charge of the police station in or nearest to the place where the owner of the pistol usually resides or to a pistol dealer registered under this Act to be held by such officer or pistol dealer as the case may be pending the sale or other lawful disposal of the pistol. Pistol to be handed to police upon revocation of license, etc.

Where the pistol is handed to a pistol dealer so registered such pistol dealer shall forthwith issue a receipt for the same and within three days thereafter forward a duplicate of such receipt to the officer in charge of the police station in or nearest to the place where the owner of the pistol usually resides.

(2) Any person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection one of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five pounds.

(3) The regulations may provide for the disposal or sale by the Commissioner of Police of any pistol handed to an officer of police under this section, failing the sale or lawful disposal by the owner thereof within a period of six months.

Where

---

Firearms.

---

Where a pistol handed in under this section is sold or disposed of by the Commissioner of Police pursuant to the regulations made in that behalf the net proceeds of the sale shall, upon the prescribed application made within the prescribed time, be paid to the owner of the pistol, and, failing such application, shall be paid to the Police Superannuation and Reward Fund.
