(2) This Act shall commence upon a date appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless the context or subject-matter otherwise indicates or requires—

“Person” includes a firm or corporation.

“Prescribed authority” means the prescribed authority of the State of New South Wales prescribed under the Wheat Growers Relief Act, 1936, of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia.

“Regulations” means regulations made under this Act.

“Wheat grower” means any person who has sown wheat for the production of grain during the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

Application of moneys paid by the Commonwealth to the State.

3. (1) Any moneys paid to the State by the Commonwealth, in pursuance of the Wheat Growers Relief Act, 1936, of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia, shall be carried to a Special Account in the Treasury to be called the “Wheat Growers Relief 1936 Account,” and all moneys at credit of that account shall be applied in providing relief to wheat growers in such manner as is prescribed by the regulations.

(2) Where by reason of the absence or uncertainty of information, it is impossible or impracticable for the prescribed authority to ascertain, in accordance with the regulations, the basis upon which payment is to be made to any wheat grower, the prescribed authority may determine such basis and such determination shall be final and conclusive.

Executors and trustees.4. Where—*(a) any person—

(i) is the legal personal representative of a person (since deceased); or

(ii) is the trustee of the estate of a person, who has, during the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, sown wheat for grain; or

10. (1) The prescribed authority or any person thereto authorised in writing by the prescribed authority may by notice in writing call upon any person to furnish to the prescribed authority or such authorised person, within such time as is specified in the notice, such books and documents and such information as the prescribed authority or such authorised person thinks necessary in relation to compliance with this Act or the regulations or any suspected contravention thereof.

Any such notice may be given to the person to whom it is addressed, personally or by registered letter sent through the post to his last known place of abode or business in New South Wales.

Wheat Growers Relief.

(2) Any person who without reasonable excuse (proof whereof shall lie upon him) fails, after receipt of a notice under subsection one of this section, to comply with the requirements of the notice shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable upon summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

(3) Where the person who has so failed to furnish the books, documents or information is an applicant for assistance under this Act payment of any amount payable to him as assistance may be withheld until he has furnished the required books, documents or information, or at the discretion of the prescribed authority, his application for assistance may be rejected.

11. Notwithstanding anything in the Census Act, 1901, the Government Statistician may supply to the prescribed authority such information as may be in his possession which may assist in the application of the moneys carried to the Wheat Growers Relief 1936 Account in accordance with this Act.

Government Statistician may supply information. Act No. 60, 1932, s. 4.

14. Any prosecution for an offence against this Act or the regulations may be heard and determined in a summary manner by two or more justices or by a police or stipendiary magistrate.

Recovery of penalties.

15. (1) The Governor may make regulations not inconsistent with this Act prescribing all matters which are required or permitted to be prescribed or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act; and in particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power the Governor may prescribe—Regulations.

- (a) the manner of making applications for assistance under this Act, and the person with whom such applications shall be lodged;

Wheat Growers Relief.

- (b) the forms required under this Act;
- (c) the manner in which the moneys at credit of the Wheat Growers Relief 1936 Account shall be applied in providing relief to wheat growers.

(2) Such regulations may prescribe a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for any breach thereof.

(3) Such regulations shall—

- (i) be published in the Gazette;
- (ii) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified therein; and
- (iii) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after publication if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session. If either House of Parliament passes a resolution, of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such regulations have been laid before such House disallowing any regulation or part thereof such regulation or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.

Amendment of Act No.
33, 1932.
New s. 33E.

16. The Farmers' Relief Act, 1932-1935, is amended by inserting next after section 33D the following new section:—
