(2) This Act shall commence on a date to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

(3) The Aborigines Protection Act, 1909-1936, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Aborigines Protection Act, 1909-1940.

Amendment of Act No.
25, 1909.
Substituted
secs. 4, 5 and 6.
Aborigines
Welfare Board.

2. (1) The Aborigines Protection Act, 1909-1936, is amended by omitting sections four, five and six and by inserting in lieu thereof the following sections:—

4. (1) There shall be a board to be called the "Aborigines Welfare Board" which shall consist of ten members.

(2) (a) The person for the time being holding the office of Under Secretary, Chief Secretary's Department, shall be a member of the board and shall be the chairman.

(b) The remaining members of the board (in this section referred to as "appointed members") shall be appointed by the Governor.

Of the appointed members—

- (i) one shall be the Superintendent of Aborigines Welfare;
- (ii) one shall be an officer of the Department of Public Instruction;
- (iii) one shall be an officer of the Department of Public Health;
- (iv) one shall be a member of the police force of or above the rank of inspector;
- (v) one shall be an expert in agriculture;
- (vi) one shall be an expert on sociology and/or anthropology;
- (vii) three shall be persons nominated by the Minister for appointment.

(3) The provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, or of any Act amending that Act, shall not apply to the appointment of appointed members, nor shall any member of the board, in his capacity as such member, be subject to the provisions of any such Act.

Aborigines Protection (Amendment).

---

(4) An appointed member shall be deemed to have vacated his office if he—

- (a) dies;
- (b) resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Governor;
- (c) ceases to reside in the State;
- (d) becomes bankrupt, compounds with his creditors or makes an assignment of his estate for their benefit;
- (e) becomes an insane person or patient, or an incapable person within the meaning of the Lunacy Act of 1898;
- (f) absents himself from two consecutive ordinary meetings of the board except on leave granted by the board.

(5) The board shall annually elect one of its members to be vice-chairman.

(6) (a) The procedure for the calling of meetings of the board and for the conduct of business at such meetings shall, subject to this Act and to any regulations made in relation thereto be as determined by the board.

(b) Four members of the board shall form a quorum and any duly convened meeting of the board at which a quorum is present shall be competent to transact any business of the board.

(c) At any meeting of the board the chairman or in his absence the vice-chairman shall preside.

If both the chairman and the vice-chairman are absent the members present shall elect one of their number to preside at the meeting.

(7) No act or proceeding of the board shall be invalidated or prejudiced by reason only of the fact that at the time when such act or proceeding was done, taken or commenced there was a vacancy in the office of any member of the board.

(8)

Aborigines Protection (Amendment).

---

(8) Each member of the board shall be entitled to receive allowances to cover expenses incurred by him for conveyance and subsistence in travelling upon business of the board at such rates and in such circumstances as may be prescribed.

Except as provided in this subsection no fees or remuneration of any kind shall be paid to a member in respect of his services as such member.

Superintendent and other officers and employees.

5. (1) The Governor may, under and subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, appoint a Superintendent of Aborigines Welfare and such other officers and employees as may be necessary for the administration of this Act.

(2) The Superintendent of Aborigines Welfare and other officers and employees shall be subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, during their tenure of office.

Committees.

6. The board may appoint committees at such times and for such purposes as the board may think fit.

Each committee shall exercise and discharge such functions and duties as the board may determine.

(2) Upon the commencement of this Act The Board for the Protection of Aborigines shall be dissolved and the members of that board shall cease to hold office as such members.

Further amendment of Act No. 25, 1909.

Sec. 3.

11B, 12, 13,
and 13A.

(e) by omitting sections eleven, 11A, 11B, twelve, thirteen, and 13A and by inserting in lieu thereof the following sections:—

Constitution and establishment of homes.

11. The board may constitute and establish under this Act homes for the reception, maintenance, education and training of wards and may assign a name or names to such homes.

Apprenticeship and placing in employment.

11A. (1) The board may, by indenture, bind or cause to be bound any ward as an apprentice or may, where apprenticeship conditions are not applicable or desirable, place any ward in other suitable employment.

(2) The indentures of apprenticeship and agreements shall be in the forms prescribed and shall contain provisions to the satisfaction of the board for the maintenance, training, care and religious instruction of any ward concerned and for the due payment of any wages payable thereunder. Such indentures and agreements shall be exempt from the provisions of the Stamp Duties Act, 1920-1939.

(3) All wages earned by any ward except such part thereof as the employer is required to pay to the ward personally as pocket money, shall be paid by the employer to the board on behalf of such ward and shall be applied as prescribed.

Aborigines Protection (Amendment).

---

(4) The wages due by any employer or person on account of any ward may be sued for and recovered in the name of the board, or any officer authorised by the board in that behalf, in any court of competent jurisdiction, for the benefit of such ward.

11B. (1) Where a ward is not regarded by the board as ready for placement in employment or for apprenticeship, such ward may be placed in a home for the purpose of being maintained, educated and trained.

Placing of wards in
pending
apprenticeship or employment.

(2) Where the board is satisfied that any ward is not likely to succeed in his employment or as an apprentice, the board may, with the approval of the employer or guardian of such ward, cancel any indenture of apprenticeship or agreement, and may place such ward in a home for the purpose of being maintained, educated and trained.

11C. Upon complaint made by the board or any officer authorised by the board in that behalf, that any person with whom any ward has been placed in employment or apprenticed is not observing or performing the conditions of any indenture of apprenticeship or agreement or is unfit to have the further care of such ward any magistrate or justice may call upon such person to answer such complaint, and on proof thereof a children's court established under the Child Welfare Act, 1939, may order such agreement to be terminated and may direct that the ward be sent to a home constituted and established under section eleven of this Act pending arrangements for further employment or apprenticeship.

Securing observance of conditions of apprenticeship.

12. (1) If any ward placed in a home constituted and established under section eleven of this Act, or any ward placed in employment or apprenticed, is absent without the leave of the board,

board, or of any officer authorised in that behalf by the board, any member of the police force or any officer of the board may apprehend such ward and convey him to such home or back to his employer.

(2) Any magistrate or justice may issue a warrant for the arrest of any ward who has absconded or been illegally removed from his proper custody.

(3) Where any ward who has absconded or has been illegally removed from his proper custody is arrested, he shall, as soon as practicable, be brought before a children's court established under the Child Welfare Act, 1939.

(4) Any ward who absconds from his proper custody shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and such court may—

(a) order the offender to be punished by one or more of the methods of punishment referred to in Part XI of the Child Welfare Act, 1939;

(b) exercise any of the powers enumerated in subsection one, subsection two, or subsection three of section eighty-three of the Child Welfare Act, 1939; but where it decides to exercise the power referred to in paragraph (d) of subsection one or paragraph (c) of subsection two of that section it shall commit the child to the care of the board to be dealt with as a ward admitted to the control of the board; and where it decides to exercise the power referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection one or paragraph (d) of subsection two of that section, the court shall commit the child to a home constituted and established under section eleven of this Act;
or

(c) return the ward to his former custody.

Aborigines Protection (Amendment).

13. (1) Whosoever without the consent of the board or of any officer authorised by the board in that behalf or of the officer-in-charge of any home constituted and established under section eleven of this Act, as the case may be, holds or attempts to hold any communication with any ward who is an inmate of such home or enters or attempts to enter any such home or any premises belonging thereto or used in connection therewith, and does not depart therefrom when required to do so, or after being forbidden so to do by the board or any officer so authorised or of the officer-in-charge of such home, as the case may be, holds or attempts to hold any communication, directly or indirectly, with any ward who is an inmate of such home, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Protection of wards.

(2) A person shall be guilty of an offence against this Act if he—

- (a) ill-treats, terrorises, overworks or injures any ward; or
- (b) counsels, or causes or attempts to cause, any ward to be withdrawn or to abscond from any home constituted and established under section eleven of this Act, or from the charge of any person with whom he is placed or to whom he is apprenticed or to escape from his proper custody; or
- (c) knowing any ward to have so been withdrawn or to have so absconded or escaped harbours or conceals such ward or prevents him from returning to such home or person or to his proper custody; or
- (d) having the care of any ward—
  - (i) illegally discharges or dismisses or attempts to discharge or dismiss him from any any home constituted and established under section eleven of this Act,

(ii) illegally detains him in any home constituted and established under section eleven of this Act,

(iii) neglects him, or

(iv) does not well and truly observe, perform and keep all the covenants, conditions and agreements contained in any indenture or agreement entered into by him respecting any ward, and which by such indenture or agreement he has bound himself or agreed, to observe, perform or keep.

Neglected
and uncontrollable
children.

13A. (1) Any justice may, upon oath being made before him by any officer authorised by the board in that behalf, or by any member of the police force, that having made due inquiry he believes any child to be a neglected or uncontrollable child—

(a) issue his summons for the appearance of such child before a children's court established under the Child Welfare Act, 1939; or

(b) in the first instance issue his warrant directing such child to be apprehended.

(2) Any person having the care, custody or control of a child may apply to a children's court established under the Child Welfare Act, 1939, to commit the child to the control of the board or to a home constituted or established under section eleven of this Act upon the ground that he is an uncontrollable child.

Aborigines Protection (Amendment).

(3) The expressions "neglected child" and "uncontrollable" shall respectively have the meanings given to those expressions in the Child Welfare Act, 1939.

(4) Any officer authorised by the board in that behalf or any member of the police force may, although the warrant is not at the time in his possession, apprehend any child for whose apprehension a warrant has been issued under this section.

(5) Any child apprehended as a neglected or uncontrollable child shall be taken to a place of safety or to a shelter constituted or established under the Child Welfare Act, 1939, and as soon as practicable thereafter shall be brought before a children's court established under that Act.

(6) Any child charged as a neglected or uncontrollable child shall be brought before a children's court established under the Child Welfare Act, 1939.

(7) The provisions of sections eighty-one and eighty-two of the Child Welfare Act, 1939, shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to and in respect of any proceedings against a child under this section:

Provided that where the court decides to exercise the power referred to in paragraph (d) of section eighty-two of that Act, it shall commit the child to the care of the board to be dealt with as a ward admitted to the control of the board, and where the court decides to exercise the power referred to in paragraph (e) of that section it shall commit the child to a home constituted and established under section eleven of this Act.

- (f) (i) by inserting in section 13c after the word "concerned" the words "and/or of his wife and/or children";
- (ii) Sec. 13c.
(Payment of wages by employer.)

Aborigines Protection (Amendment).

(ii) by omitting from the same section the word "secretary" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "Superintendent of Aborigines Welfare";

and 18.

(g) by omitting sections sixteen, seventeen and eighteen and by inserting in lieu thereof the following sections:—

Maintenance of children under sixteen years
by near relatives.

16. (1) Where an aborigine under sixteen years of age has been admitted to the control of the board and is a ward, or where any order has been made by a children's court established under the Child Welfare Act, 1939, committing an aborigine under sixteen years of age—

- (a) to the care of any person; or
- (b) to the control of the board; or
- (c) to a home constituted and established under section eleven of this Act, the near relatives shall be liable to pay for or to contribute towards his maintenance.

(2) The provisions of Part XII of the Child Welfare Act, 1939, shall, mutatis mutandis, extend to and in respect of the maintenance of any such aborigine and the liability of the near relatives in respect of such maintenance.

For the purposes of such extension—

- (a) a reference in that Part to the Minister shall be construed as a reference to the board,
- (b) a reference in that Part to an institution shall be construed as a reference to a home constituted and established under section eleven of this Act, and
- (c) a reference in that Part to the Director shall be construed as a reference to the Superintendent of Aborigines Welfare.

Aborigines Protection (Amendment).

17. (1) Any person guilty of an offence against this Act shall be liable, upon summary conviction, unless some other penalty or punishment is expressly provided, to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds or to imprisonment for one month, or to both such penalty and imprisonment. Penalties, etc.

(2) Proceedings for an offence against this Act or the regulations may be taken before a court of petty sessions.

18. Proceedings for an offence against this Act or the regulations may be instituted in the name of the board by any officer or employee of the board or member of the police force. Proceedings.
