PART I.—PRELIMINARY.

PART II.—LOANS.

PART III.—AMENDMENT OF CO-OPERATION ACT, 1923-1937.

PART II.

LOANS.

Construction of Part II.

2. This Part of this Act shall be read and construed with the Co-operation Act, 1923-1937, and the Government Guarantees Act, 1934-1937.

Powers of certain societies in relation to loans.

3. (1) Where the Colonial Treasurer has, either before or after the commencement of this Act, executed a guarantee under the Government Guarantees Act, 1934, or under that Act as amended by any subsequent Act, in favour of any bank, friendly society or approved body, for the repayment of any advance made or to be made to a terminating building society by that bank, friendly society, or approved body—

(a) the terminating building society shall have and shall be deemed always to have had power to raise money on loan for the purpose of meeting the expenses of and incidental to—

(i) the raising of any loan by that society ;

or

(ii)

Co-operation (Amendment).

- (ii) the making of any loan by that society to any of its members and the exercise by that society of any of its rights, powers and remedies under any security taken in respect of any such loan; or
 - (iii) the formation, establishment and working of the society;
- (b) the terminating building society, where the rules of that society provide for the withdrawal of shares by a member, shall have and shall be deemed always to have had power to raise money on loan for the purpose of making refunds in respect of shares withdrawn in accordance with the rules of that society by a member who has not had an advance in respect of those shares;
- (c) the bank, friendly society or approved body shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had, power to make advances to the terminating building society for all or any of the purposes referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection;
- (d) any advance so made by the bank, friendly society or approved body to the terminating building society for any of the purposes referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, an advance the repayment of which is guaranteed by such guarantee, and such guarantee shall extend and apply accordingly:

Provided that this paragraph shall not operate to increase the total liability of the Colonial Treasurer and/or the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the bank, friendly society or approved body, as expressed in the guarantee.

(2) No agreement made with or undertaking given to the Colonial Treasurer before the commencement of this Act by a terminating building society shall operate

or
