under this Act.

7. (1) Where any matter or thing is by or under the regulations directed or forbidden to be done, or where any person is authorised by the regulations to direct any matter or thing to be done, or to forbid any matter or thing to be done, and such matter or thing if so directed to be done remains undone, or if so forbidden to be done is done, then in every such case, every person offending against such direction or prohibition shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

(2) A person authorised in that behalf by the regulations may prior or subsequently to or in lieu of prosecuting for such offence do any such matter or thing and recover the costs and expenses thereof from the offender in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Any costs and expenses so recovered shall be dealt with in accordance with the regulations.

Regulations
not to impose industrial conscription or affect industrial awards or agreements.

8. (1) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorise the making of any regulation imposing any form of industrial conscription.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act the operation of any industrial award or agreement shall not be revoked, impaired or affected by any regulation made under this Act.

National Emergency.

9. Where any acts have been done before the commencement of any of the regulations, and by virtue of those regulations the acts would have been valid and lawful if the regulations had been in force when they were done, the acts shall be deemed to have been validly done under the authority of the regulations.

Validation of acts done in anticipation of emergency regulations.

10. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the regulations, no proceeding, whether at law or in equity, shall lie or be made or allowed by or in favour of any person against the Crown or any Minister of the Crown or the council of an area or any person acting in the execution or intended execution of this Act, or of the regulations for or in respect of any damage, loss or injury sustained or alleged to have been sustained by reason of anything done or purporting to be done under the authority of this Act or of the regulations.

Protection of persons acting under authority of this Act or of emergency regulations.

11. (1) Every person who commits or attempts to commit or does any act with intent to commit or counsels, procures, aids, abets or incites any other person to commit or conspires with any other person (whether in New South Wales or elsewhere) to commit, any offence against this Act, shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to a penalty not exceeding two hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and such penalty.

Penalty.

(2) Nothing in this Act or in the regulations shall be so construed or shall so operate as to take away or restrict the liability of any person for any offence punishable independently of this Act, but so that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

(3) Every corporation shall be liable for any offence against this Act as if such corporation were a private person and shall be subject to the same penalties as if it were a private person; and if any chairman, member of the governing body, director, manager, secretary or officer of such corporation knowingly authorises or permits the commission of any such offence he shall be deemed to have committed such offence and shall be punishable by imprisonment or penalty or both accordingly,
