

New South Wales.

ANNO OCTAVO

GEORGI VI REGIS.

Act No. 8, 1944.

An Act to make certain provisions in relation to the appointment as trustees of lands set apart, dedicated or reserved for the purposes of a cemetery, of corporate bodies constituted or created by or under any Act providing for the holding or managing of or dealing with church property; for this purpose to amend the Public Trusts Act, 1897, as amended by subsequent Acts; to validate certain matters; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 11th April, 1944.]

Public Trusts (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Public Trusts (Amendment) Act, 1944."

(2) The Public Trusts Act, 1897, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Public Trusts Act, 1897-1944.

Amendment of Act No.
8, 1897.
Sec. 2.

2. The Public Trusts Act, 1897, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended by inserting at the end of section two the following new subsections:—

(Corporations or municipal councils may be

(iii) This section shall extend and shall be deemed always to have extended to authorise the appointment as trustees of the whole or any part of land set apart, dedicated or reserved for the purposes of a cemetery, of a corporate body constituted or created by or under any Act providing for the holding or managing of or dealing with church property; and where any such corporate body is or has been so appointed then, by virtue of this Act, it shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had, authority to accept appointment as such trustees and to exercise and discharge all the powers, authorities, duties and functions necessary for the purpose of carrying its trusteeship into full effect.

(iv) Where, in the case of land set apart, dedicated or reserved for the purposes of a cemetery before the commencement of the Public Trusts (Amendment) Act, 1944, trustees have been appointed for that portion of the cemetery which is set apart or allocated as a Roman Catholic burial ground, then, as from such commencement, such trustees shall be deemed to have been removed, and the body corporate created by the Roman Catholic Church Trust Property Act, 1936, for the diocese in which such land is situated shall be deemed to have been appointed, pursuant to this Act, as trustees of that portion of the cemetery so set apart or allocated.

In

Public Trusts (Amendment).

In any case where the portion so set apart or allocated has been granted to or vested in trustees such portion shall be deemed to have been vested in the said body corporate as from the commencement of the Public Trusts (Amendment) Act, 1944, upon the trusts, and with the powers and subject to the conditions attaching to the same in the hands of such trustees immediately before such commencement.

By Authority:

ALFRED HENRY PETTIFER, Acting Government Printer, Sydney, 1944.

[3d.]

BE

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

G. BOOTH,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Public Trusts (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title and citation. 1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Public Trusts (Amendment) Act, 1944."

(2) The Public Trusts Act, 1897, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Public Trusts Act, 1897-1944.

Amendment of Act No. 8, 1897.

Sec. 2.

(Corporations or municipal councils may be appointed trustees.)

2. The Public Trusts Act, 1897, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended by inserting at the end of section two the following new subsections:—

(iii) This section shall extend and shall be deemed always to have extended to authorise the appointment as trustees of the whole or any part of land set apart, dedicated or reserved for the purposes of a cemetery, of a corporate body constituted or created by or under any Act providing for the holding or managing of or dealing with church property; and where any such corporate body is or has been so appointed then, by virtue of this Act, it shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had, authority to accept appointment as such trustees and to exercise and discharge all the powers, authorities, duties and functions necessary for the purpose of carrying its trusteeship into full effect.

(iv) Where, in the case of land set apart, dedicated or reserved for the purposes of a cemetery before the commencement of the Public Trusts (Amendment) Act, 1944, trustees have been appointed for that portion of the cemetery which is set apart or allocated as a Roman Catholic burial ground, then, as from such commencement, such trustees shall be deemed to have been removed, and the body corporate created by the Roman Catholic Church Trust Property Act, 1936, for the diocese in which such land is situated shall be deemed to have been appointed, pursuant to this Act, as trustees of that portion of the cemetery so set apart or allocated.

In

Public Trusts (Amendment).

In any case where the portion so set apart or allocated has been granted to or vested in trustees such portion shall be deemed to have been vested in the said body corporate as from the commencement of the Public Trusts (Amendment) Act, 1944, upon the trusts, and with the powers and subject to the conditions attaching to the same in the hands of such trustees immediately before such commencement.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

WAKEHURST,
Governor.

*Government House,
Sydney, 11th April, 1944.*

Public Trusts (Amendment)

In any case where the portion set apart in the trust has been granted to or vested in trustees and the trustees have decided to have the trust placed in the hands of a trustee as from the commencement of the Public Trusts (Amendment) Act, 1944, upon the trusts and with the powers and subject to the conditions attaching to the same in the hands of such trustees immediately before such commencement.
