All persons having the custody of any such unsold copies shall hold and deal with the same in accordance with the directions of the Trust, and shall account to the Trust for the same or for the proceeds of the realisation thereof.

(4) Any moneys held by the Trust may, pending the application thereof under this Act, be invested in any of the securities authorised by the Trustee Act, 1925-1940.

(5) The accounts of the Trust are hereby included in Schedule Two to the Trustees Audit Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts.

7. (1) The Trust shall, as soon as practicable after the commencement of this Act, consider how the fund may be utilised for the purpose of providing a suitable and fitting memorial to perpetuate the memory and services of Sir Joseph Banks, and shall furnish to the Governor a report setting out the conclusions arrived at by the Trust together with recommendations as to the nature of the memorial to be provided, and the manner in which the fund should be utilised for the purpose of providing such memorial.

Trust to make report and recommendation.

(2) The report shall be furnished within six months after the commencement of this Act or within such further time as the Governor may allow.

The report shall be accompanied by a draft Bill for any legislation necessary to give effect to the report and recommendations.

8. (1) The Governor may make regulations not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters which by this Act are required or permitted to be prescribed or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Regulations.

(2) Such regulations shall—

- (a) be published in the Gazette;
- (b) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified in the regulations;
- and
- (c)

Sir Joseph Banks Memorial Fund.

- (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after the publication thereof if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such regulations have been laid before such House disallowing any regulation or part thereof, such regulation or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.

By Authority:

ALFRED HENRY PETTIFER, Acting Government Printer, Sydney, 1943.
