 15 DIVISION 1.—Incorporation and Constitution.

4. (1) There is hereby constituted a Club which shall have the objects and functions set out in this Act or in regulations made under the authority of this Act. Constitution.
- (2) The Club shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in its corporate name, and shall, for the purposes and subject to the provisions of this Act, be capable of purchasing, holding, granting, demising, disposing of or otherwise dealing with real and personal property, and of doing and suffering all such other acts and things as bodies corporate may by law do and suffer. Incorporation.
- (3) The corporate name of the Club so incorporated and constituted by this section shall be the “Sydney Turf Club.” Corporate name.
- (4) The Club shall be deemed to be a company limited by guarantee and not having a share capital, within the meaning of the Companies Act, 1936, and the provisions of that Act to the extent to which they are not inconsistent with any provisions of this Act shall apply to and in respect of the Club, its directors and officers, as if the Club were formed and registered as such a company under that Act. Application of Companies Act, 1936.

Sydney Turf Club.

- (5) The registered office of the Club shall be situated in the city of Sydney or at such other place within the county of Cumberland as may from time to time be determined by the directors. Registered office.
- 5 (6) The liability of a member for any debts or liabilities of the Club is limited to the sum of five pounds (£5) which said sum each member shall be liable to contribute to the assets of the Club in the event of its being wound up while he is a member or within one year after, Limit of members' liability.
- 10 for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Club contracted before he ceases to be a member and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding-up and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.
- 15 (7) The Club shall enjoy all the privileges of a limited company within the meaning of the Companies Act, 1936, and shall be subject to all the obligations of such a company except those of using the word "Limited" as part of its name and of publishing its Exemption from certain provisions of Companies Act, 1936.
- 20 name and of sending lists of members to the Registrar-General, and of sending to the members a copy of the balance-sheet pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection one of section one hundred and eleven of that Act. Section thirty-four of that Act shall not extend to the
- 25 Club.
- (8) The Club may adopt and register with the Registrar-General articles of association, and until articles are so registered, and if articles are registered in so far as the articles do not exclude or modify the Articles of association.
- 30 regulations in the First Schedule to this Act, those regulations shall be the regulations of the Club in the same manner and extent as if they were contained in duly registered articles.
5. (1) The income and property of the Club from Application of income.
- 35 whatsoever source derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Club as set forth in this Act, and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit or gain
- 40 to the members of the Club or to any of them.

Sydney Turf Club.

(2) Nothing contained in this section shall prevent or preclude the payment of interest at a rate not exceeding five pounds (£5) per centum per annum or the repayment of principal to any member in respect of
5 any money which may at any time be lent by him to the Club or of reasonable or proper rent for premises demised or let by any member to the Club or the payment in good faith of remuneration to any officer or servant of the Club or to any member of the Club in 10 return for any services actually rendered by him to the Club.

(3) No remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth shall be given by the Club to any director except repayment of out-of-pocket expenses and 15 interest at a rate not exceeding five pounds (£5) per centum per annum in respect of money lent by him or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by him to the Club.

Subsection one of this section shall not extend to or 20 in respect of payments made to any company of which a director may be a member and in which he holds less than one-twentieth part of the capital.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prevent any member of the Club, whether a director thereof or not,
25 from entering and racing any horse or pony and competing for and receiving any money or any prize in any race or competition offered by the Club or prevent any member who may be a successful competitor or exhibitor at any competition, sport, game, exhibition or 30 show held or promoted by the Club or to the cost of establishing or holding of which the Club may have subscribed out of its income or property from receiving, as such competitor or exhibitor, a prize, medal, or other recognition, pecuniary or otherwise, which may under 35 the rules or conditions affecting such race, competition, sport, game, exhibition or show be awarded to him, and no such member shall be liable to account to the Club in respect of any such money, medal or prize won and received by him.

Sydney Turf Club.

- (5) If upon the winding-up or dissolution of the Club there remains after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Club, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution, company or corporation having objects similar to those of the Club and which is a non-proprietary association within the meaning of that expression as defined in the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, such institution, company or corporation to be determined by the members of the Club by special resolution at or before the time of dissolution or in default thereof by the Chief Judge in Equity of the Supreme Court of New South Wales or such other Judge of that Court as may have or acquire jurisdiction in the matter, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to the aforesaid provision the said property shall be applied to such charitable object as the said Chief Judge or Judge may direct.
- Application of surplus assets on winding-up.
- 20 6. (1) The first twelve members of the Club shall be persons selected by the Governor and appointed by notification published in the Gazette.
- First members, directors and auditors.
- (2) One of such twelve members shall by such notification be appointed chairman of directors, one other appointed vice-chairman and one other appointed honorary treasurer of the Club.
- 25 (3) Such twelve members so selected shall be the directors of the Club until their successors are elected at annual general meetings of the Club held after the thirtieth day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-five.
- 30 At the first of such annual general meetings the six directors nominated for retirement at such meeting in the notification referred to in subsection one of this section shall retire but shall be eligible for election at that meeting, and the remaining six shall retire at the next annual general meeting but shall be eligible for election at that meeting.
- (4) The notification referred to in subsection one of this section shall indicate the annual general meeting at which each member appointed by the Governor is to retire from the office of director.
- 40 (5)

Sydney Turf Club.

(5) Any member appointed under this section shall at the first meeting of directors which he attends sign in the minute book of the company an acknowledgment that he agrees to be bound by the regulations of the Club
5 in force for the time being and accepts the obligations of a member and a director of the Club.

(6) In the event of a vacancy occurring among the directors appointed pursuant to this section from any cause whatsoever the Governor may fill the same by a 10 notification in the Gazette.

Such notification shall indicate the annual general meeting at which the person whose place is being filled was to retire as the annual general meeting at which the person being appointed to fill the vacancy shall retire, 15 and he shall retire accordingly but shall be eligible for election at such meeting.

(7) Subject to this Act other members may be elected and admitted to the Club in the manner prescribed by the regulations appearing in the First Schedule to 20 this Act or by other the articles of association of the Club for the time being in force.

(8) Subject to this subsection the provisions of regulation 49 of the regulations in the First Schedule to this Act shall extend to the directors appointed by 25 the Governor, but paragraph (e) of that regulation shall, in relation to such directors, be read as if the words "regulation 47 (2)" were omitted and the words "section thirty of the Interpretation Act of 1897" were inserted.

30 Should either the chairman, vice-chairman or honorary treasurer vacate his office as director or without so vacating his office as director resign the office of chairman, vice-chairman or honorary treasurer, then the following provisions shall have effect:—

35 (a) If the vacancy or resignation occurs before the time arrives when the whole of the directors are to be elected by the members, the vacancy is to be filled by the Governor from among the directors.

Sydney Turf Club.

(b) If the vacancy or resignation occurs after such time the remaining directors shall fill the office of chairman, vice-chairman or honorary treasurer from among the directors.

5 (9) The Governor shall appoint two public accountants practising in Sydney to be the auditors of the Club until such time as all the directors are to be elected by the Club and shall fix the remuneration of such auditors to be paid by the Club. Such auditors shall 10 after such time be eligible for election as the auditors of the Club.

DIVISION 2.—Objects, functions and powers.

7. (1) The Club shall have the following objects and may exercise all or any of the following functions:—

Objects and functions of club.

- 15 (a) the promotion and encouragement of racing generally;
- (b) the carrying on of the business or occupation of racecourse keepers and sports ground proprietors;
- 20 (c) the promotion, arrangement, holding and conducting of race meetings for races of horses and/or ponies, steeplechasing, trotting or pacing races or races of any other kind whatsoever upon racecourses licensed under the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent 25 Acts;
- (d) the acquisition pursuant to this Act of all or any of the racecourses specified in the Second Schedule to this Act;
- 30 (e) the control and management of any racecourse or ground for the time being vested in or acquired by the Club;
- (f) the promotion and encouragement of any sports upon lands vested in or acquired by the Club or of which it has for the time being the control and management;
- 35 (g) the carrying out of any function expressly or impliedly conferred on the Club by or under this Act or any other Act.

Sydney Turf Club.

(2) That the Club may attain any of its objects and effectively carry out any of its functions, it shall have power to do all such things as it may deem incidental or conducive to the profitable and effective carrying out thereof.

Certain powers.

(3) The Club shall have in addition to any powers which are expressly or impliedly conferred upon it by or under this Act or any other Act the specific powers set out in the Third Schedule to this Act.

(4) The mere enumeration of specific powers in the Third Schedule or the conferring of other specific powers by any other section of this Act shall not operate to limit the general powers conferred by this section.

8. (1) The Governor may appoint some member of the Public Service to be the acting secretary of the Club until the directors shall appoint a secretary thereof.

Acting secretary.

(2) The Governor shall fix the salary and allowances of such acting secretary and such salary and allowances may be paid by the Colonial Treasurer.

DIVISION 3.—Financial.

9. (1) For the temporary accommodation of the Club it may obtain advances by overdraft on current account in any bank or banks upon the credit of the Club's assets and revenues to such extent as may from time to time be approved by the Governor.

Temporary accommodation.

(2) The Colonial Treasurer may advance such moneys to the Club as the Governor may approve upon such terms and conditions as to repayment and interest as may be agreed upon.

(3) Any moneys paid by the Colonial Treasurer for the salary and allowances of the acting secretary or for the payment of any preliminary expenses incurred in connection with the initiation of the operations of the Club shall be repaid to the Colonial Treasurer out of the funds of the Club as and when required by him.

10. (1) Subject to this Act the Club may from time to time with the approval of the Governor borrow and reborrow at interest such sums of money as it thinks requisite for the purposes of this Act, for the renewal of loans, loans, or the discharge or partial discharge of any indebtedness to the Colonial Treasurer or to any bank and without limiting the generality of the foregoing powers may borrow with such approval by mortgage, debentures

5 or otherwise any sum of money required for—

10 (a) The execution of any works which may be approved by the Governor on the recommendation of the Minister whether in connection with the improvement of any racecourse vested in it or of which the Club has the control or management or the erection, enlargement or equipment of the buildings thereon or used and occupied in connection therewith.

15 (b) The discharge or partial discharge of any capital indebtedness of the Club arising out of the acquisition of any lands, racecourses or grounds or other property whatsoever by the Club in furtherance of its objects.

20 (2) A person advancing money to the Club shall not when the borrowing has been so approved be bound to inquire into the application of the money advanced or be in any way responsible for the non-application or mis-application thereof.

25 (3) A notification in the Gazette of the approval of the Governor having been given to a borrowing on behalf of the Club shall, in favour of a lender, be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent to the borrowing have been complied with and that the borrowing is for a purpose authorised by this section.

30 (4) Every such borrowing shall be binding on the Club and if the borrowing is by mortgage the mortgage may be over the real and personal property of the Club or any part thereof or over the revenues of the Club from whatsoever source derived and may contain such powers
35 and provisions as the Governor approves.

(5) The due repayment of any money borrowed under the authority of this section, and the payment of interest thereon, is hereby guaranteed by the Government.

Any

Sydney Turf Club.

Any liability arising from such guarantee shall be payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

No time credit or other indulgence granted at any time or times to the Club by the lender or other person entitled 5 to repayment of the money borrowed shall affect the liability of the Government or the Consolidated Revenue under such guarantee.

(6) Any borrowing under this section shall be sufficiently evidenced by an instrument under the com-
10 mon seal of the Club.

(7) Any trustee unless expressly forbidden by the instrument (if any) creating the trust may invest and shall be deemed to have been entitled to invest any trust moneys in his hands in any loan borrowed under this
15 section and the investment shall be and be deemed to have been an investment authorised by the Trustee Act, 1925.

(8) Any loan made under this section shall be and be deemed to have been a lawful investment for any moneys which any company or body corporate incor-
20 porated by or under any Act is or was authorised or directed to invest in addition to any other investments expressly provided for the investment of such moneys.

(9) No notice of any trusts express implied or constructive shall be received by the Club or by any 25 officer of the Club in relation to any debentures or coupons issued or mortgage given by the Club.

(10) When the borrowing is by way of mortgage over the revenues of the Club the charge thereby created shall be deemed to be a floating charge on the undertaking
30 and property of the Club and Part IX of the Companies Act, 1936, shall apply in respect thereof as well as to any charge created for the purpose of securing any issue of debentures and which is required to be registered under that Part.

35 11. (1) The Club shall—

Insurance.

- (a) insure at full insurable value with the Government Insurance Office all buildings on all lands vested in it or on any lands the control and management whereof is vested in it by this Act, together

together with the fencing of such lands and shall also insure all its personal property with such office.

5 For the purpose of any such insurance the Club shall be deemed to have an insurable interest in all property under its control and management;

10 (b) insure with the same office against claims for compensation for accidents to jockeys or members of the public and damage to any property arising from any operations carried on by or on behalf of the Club upon any racecourse vested in it or upon any lands the control and management whereof is vested in it by this Act;

15 (c) insure with the same office against claims for compensation against it under any Workers' Compensation Act for the time being in force;

(d) insure all its fixed property and all its personal property against war damage.

20 (2) The Club may out of its funds contribute—

(a) to any mutual benefit or sick or accident fund formed for the benefit of its officers or employees or to any fund formed for the relief of any jockeys; or Charitable contributions, superannuation, &c.

25 (b) to the funds of any public hospital; or

(c) to the funds of any district under the Ambulance Transport Service Act, 1919, in the area of which any racecourse vested in it or any lands whereof it has the control and management are situated; or 30 (d) to the funds of St. John Ambulance Association or any other like body which may provide ambulance or first-aid treatment on such racecourses or lands.

35 (3) The Club may by by-law establish a fund for the purpose of providing sums of money or annuities to officers, servants or employees who contributed to such fund to be payable to them on their retirement from their office, service or employment under the Club or on the cessation or abolition of their offices or, in case case of their death, to their widows, surviving children or dependent relatives, and/or in such case to provide for their funeral expenses.

The rule of law relating to perpetuities shall not 5 apply to or in respect of such fund or the purposes thereof.

(4) The Club may, if such fund as is referred to in subsection three of this section is established—

- 10 (a) contribute to the said fund such sums of money as it thinks fit not exceeding a pound for pound subsidy upon contributions made by employees;
- 15 (b) deduct from the salary or wages of any of its officers, servants or employees, as the case may be, such sums of money, if any, as they are required by by-law to pay into the superannuation fund.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection four of this section the Club may out of its funds grant superannuation allowances or gratuities to any 20 of its officers, servants or employees on their retirement and/or funeral benefits on their deaths.

The power conferred by this subsection may be exercised in favour of and in respect of officers or servants of any club or company whose racecourse 25 becomes vested in the Club or over which the Club is given the control and management, and whose services are not continued by the Club.

(6) The Club may out of its funds contribute in respect of its officers, servants and employees to the 30 Metropolitan Hospitals Contribution Fund or to the contribution fund of any public hospital in the district in which any racecourse vested in the Club or any lands whereof the Club has the control and management is situated.

35 (7) The Club shall not apply any of its funds directly or indirectly in or towards any political object or purpose.

DIVISION 4.—Acquisition of lands and equipment.

40 12. (1) The Club may acquire from any person, Purchase. including the Crown, any land which it may require for any

any of the purposes of this Act by lease, purchase, appropriation or resumption in accordance with this Division, and in particular may acquire all or any of the racecourses specified in the Second Schedule to this Act.

5 "Land" in this Division means either land in fee simple or any easement, right or privilege in, over or affecting land.

(2) The Club may acquire a leasehold estate in any land.

10 (3) The approval of the Governor to the purchase of the land or the acquisition of the leasehold interest shall be first obtained.

13. (1) When the Club proposes to acquire land by appropriation or resumption it may apply to the ^{Resumption.} Governor through the Minister.

15 (2) The Club shall make provision to the satisfaction of the Governor for the payment of compensation for the land together with interest and all necessary charges and expenses incidental to the appropriation 20 or resumption.

(3) The Governor may authorise the appropriation or resumption.

(4) Thereupon the Minister for Public Works may—

25 (a) appropriate or resume the land by Gazette notification under Division 1 of Part V of the Public Works Act, 1912; and

(b) notify that the land is vested in the Club.

(5) Thereupon the land shall vest in the Club.

30 (6) For the purposes of the Public Works Act, 1912, such appropriation or resumption shall be deemed to be for the purpose of carrying out an authorised work within the meaning of that Act.

(7) Where a racecourse is acquired by resumption
35 the Gazette notice of the resumption of the land shall also operate to divest from the owner of the racecourse any plant or equipment whether affixed to the land or not belonging to him on it and used in connection with the racecourse, and such plant and equipment shall thereupon 40 vest in the Club.

Sydney Turf Club.

- (8) The value of such plant or equipment shall be taken into account in the ascertainment of the compensation to be paid for the resumption of the land and such value shall be taken at the value at which such plant stands in the books of the owner thereof at the commencement of this Act due regard being had to any depreciation reserve in such books or if acquired by such owner subsequently thereto at cost less depreciation at a just rate.
- 10 (9) In ascertaining the amount of compensation to be awarded for the resumption of any of the racecourses which the Club may acquire pursuant to this Act regard shall be had to the purpose for which the same has been used and the earnings therefrom over the 15 previous fifteen years and the varying number of race days upon which race meetings could be or have been held thereon during such period and to the provisions of the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts.
- 20 14. (1) Before the thirtieth day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-three the directors of the Club shall decide which of the racecourses specified in the Second Schedule to this Act the Club desires to acquire either by purchase or resumption whether 25 forthwith or at some date not later than the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five, for the purposes of this Act and of carrying on the same as racecourses.
- (2) It shall be the duty of the person for the time
30 being acting as secretary of the Club to furnish the Minister with a copy of the resolution evidencing the decision of the directors certified as correct within fourteen days of the passing thereof.
- (3) No license for horse racing or for pony racing
35 under the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, for the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-four, or any subsequent year, shall be issued in respect of any of the racecourses specified in the Second Schedule to this Act other than in respect of the 40 racecourses which the Club has so expressed its desire to acquire.

(4) The race days which in the Fourth and Fifth Schedules to the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts and this Act, are set out opposite the name of any racecourse in respect of which
 5 by reason of this section no license for horse racing or for pony racing is to be issued for the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-four, may be utilised in that and in subsequent years for the holding of race meetings on all or any of the other racecourses set out in such 10 Schedules.

(5) The proprietors of any racecourse which by reason only of the operation of this section is not licensed for the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-four shall be entitled to be paid compensation from the Racing
 15 Compensation Fund for the deprivation of the right to obtain a license for the racecourse under the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts.

Claims for such compensation shall be made and the amount of compensation to be paid shall be ascertained, 20 determined and paid in the manner prescribed by or under this Act.

(6) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Club from acquiring at any time subsequent to the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-three any of the race-
 25 courses specified in the Second Schedule to this Act and should the Club at any time acquire any of such racecourses and desire to conduct race meetings thereon then the provisions of subsection three of this section shall cease to operate in respect of that racecourse.

(7) The Governor may by proclamation extend 30 the time within which the decision of the directors under subsection one of this section is to be made until a date not later than the thirtieth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, if so requested by 35 resolution of the directors.

PART III.

RACING COMPENSATION FUND.

15. (1) There shall be established and kept in the Treasury an account in special deposit account to be 40 called the Racing Compensation Fund. Establishment in Treasury.

Sydney Turf Club.

(2) The Club shall pay not later than the thirty-first day of January in each year to the Colonial Treasurer for the credit of such Fund an amount of five pounds per centum of the income derived by it from any race meetings conducted by it on any racecourse during the year ending the thirty-first day of December then last past after deducting from the gross income so derived any amounts paid by way of taxation on fees from bookmakers or entertainment or admission tax and any amount paid to the Colonial Treasurer pursuant to the Totalizator Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts.

The payment shall be accompanied by an account and statement in the prescribed form.

(3) The Governor may at any time direct that the accounts of the Club be audited by the Auditor-General who shall have in respect to such audit all the powers conferred on him by any law relating to the audit of the Public Accounts.

(4) There shall also be paid by the Club to the Colonial Treasurer for the credit of the Compensation Fund the proceeds of the sale of debentures of the Club the issue of which has been approved by the Governor for payment of compensation payable in respect of the resumption of any lands at the request of the Club.

(5) Moneys to the credit of the Compensation Fund may be applied by the Colonial Treasurer in or towards—

- (a) the repayment of any amount due by the Club to the Colonial Treasurer on any account whatsoever;
- (b) the payment of any compensation payable under the provisions of this Act;
- (c) the redemption of any debenture issued by the Club for any purpose whatsoever;
- (d) the liquidation of any overdraft of the Club with any bank; or
- (e) the payment of compensation, costs, charges and expenses of and in connection with the acquisition on behalf of the Club by resumption or appropriation of any land and the purchase by the Club of the plant and equipment then used in connection with any racecourse or ground acquired by or on behalf of the Club.

5 (6) The moneys to the credit of the Compensation Fund may be so applied by the Colonial Treasurer from time to time without further warrant than this section, but any moneys paid into such Fund by the Club for a special purpose shall be applied in or towards that 10 purpose.

(7) The Colonial Treasurer may from time to time advance moneys for the credit of the Compensation Fund upon such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Governor and may accept as security for the 15 repayment of such amounts so advanced debentures issued by the Club and may from time to time sell such debentures at the best price obtainable whether at a discount or not and apply the proceeds towards the repayment of the moneys so advanced.

20 (8) Any sum advanced by the Colonial Treasurer for the credit of the Compensation Fund shall bear interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum and remain a charge thereon to be recouped by the said Fund when moneys at the credit of such Fund are avail-25 able.

(9) Where the racecourse of a non-proprietary association, being a company to which the Companies Act, 1936, applies, is acquired by the Club by resumption the following provisions shall have effect:—

30 (a) the association shall be deemed as at the date of the publication of the Gazette notice under the Public Works Act, 1912, by which the resumption is effected, to have passed a valid resolution for the winding up of the association and to have 35 thereby appointed as the liquidator thereof such one of the persons appointed by the Governor pursuant to section two hundred and twenty-seven of the Companies Act, 1936, as is named in a notification by the Minister and published 40 in the Gazette;

- 5 (b) the individual liability of its members arising under or out of any guarantee contained in its memorandum or articles of association shall as from such date be a liability of the Club and such individual members as from such date shall be and are hereby released therefrom;
- (c) any surplus assets in the liquidation shall be paid to the Compensation Fund;
- 10 (d) any liability of the Club under this section shall be met from the Compensation Fund;
- (e) the plant and equipment of the association shall be handed over to the Club;
- 15 (f) the management and control of the racecourse and the control of the racing thereon shall be assumed and carried out by the Club;
- (g) any moneys necessary to pay the debts and liabilities of the association as at the date of the acquisition and the costs and expenses of the liquidation shall be paid out of the Compensation Fund;
- 20 (h) the paid officers and servants of the association whose services are terminated by the Club shall be entitled to receive from the Club compensation for loss of office or employment as in this Act provided;
- 25 (i) the liquidation shall not be deemed to terminate the services or employment of any paid officer or servant of the association continuously employed in connection with the racecourse and until the Club terminates the employment of any such officer or servant he shall be deemed to be the officer or servant of the Club, and to be employed by them to render the same services in connection with the racecourse as he rendered in the employment of the association and to receive the like pay and to be subject to the like conditions of employment.

of the meetings thereon shall be entitled to receive compensation in the cases and to the extent following only:—

Where the Club elects in writing to retain the services of any such employee at the same rate of pay and under 5 the like conditions of employment and gives notice of election to the employee within one month of the acquisition, no compensation shall be payable.

Where the Club does not in writing give to the officer or servant within one month of the acquisition notice
10 that his services are retained, compensation shall be paid as follows:—

(a) The employee shall be entitled to receive his accustomed pay or wages for the month after 15 the acquisition if he has continued to give his accustomed services.

(b) If the employee has been continuously employed in connection with the racecourse for a period in excess of one year, he shall be entitled to receive 20 one month's pay at the rate subsisting at the date of the acquisition for each completed year of continuous service in connection with the racecourse.

War service shall not be deemed to break the continuity of service in connection with the 25 racecourse.

(c) If the employee has been not continuously employed but employed in connection with meetings on the racecourse only, then if he is given notice by the Club that, subject to his 30 behaviour and work being and remaining satisfactory to the directors, he will continue to be employed as theretofore, he shall not be entitled to compensation.

If, on the other hand, the Club notify him
35 in writing within one month of the acquisition that it is not the intention of the directors to further employ him, he shall be entitled as compensation to his pay for one race day at the accustomed rate or to his pay for one race day 40 at such rate for each twelve race days during which he has been so casually employed at such racecourse, whichever is the greater amount.

17. (1) When by reason of the operation of this Act a racecourse is precluded from being licensed under the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912-1938, for the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-four, compensation shall be paid out of the Compensation Fund in respect of the damage sustained by the proprietors of the racecourse by such deprivation. Compensation for proprietors delicensed.
- 10 (2) In assessing the compensation to be awarded to the proprietors of a racecourse pursuant to this section regard may be had to the profit which during the last previous fifteen years had been derived from the racecourse; to the varying number of race days during such period; to the restrictions contained in the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912-1938; to the amount of capital actually expended in improvements to or upon the racecourse; to the dividends actually paid while the racecourse was operated as a proprietary course, if at all; and to the then present suitability and value of the land for subdivision and sale for residential, factory or business purposes.
- 25 (3) When such proprietors were at the commencement of this Act a non-proprietary association within the meaning of the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912-1938, and the members thereof had been charged and had paid entrance fees on becoming members of such association, any such member shall, if he becomes a member of the Club constituted by this Act, be entitled to do so on payment of such reduced entrance fee as the directors may determine, having regard to the circumstances, the age of such person and the length of time he had been a member of such association. And any such member, if his application for membership of the Club is declined by the directors, shall be entitled to a refund of his entrance fee to such association from the Compensation Fund. Members of non-proprietary associations.
- 40 (4) Where any racecourse is by the operation of this Act precluded from being licensed for the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-four, any person who has been continuously employed for a period Compensation to employees of racecourses delicensed.

in excess of one year in connection with such racecourse and who loses his employment by reason of such operation shall be entitled to be paid out of the Compensation Fund a sum equal to one month's salary 5 or wages at the rate obtaining at the termination of his employment for each year of his continuous service or employment in connection with the racecourse.

(5) The Colonial Treasurer may pay such sums out of the Compensation Fund upon the certificate of 10 the chairman of directors of the Club.

18. (1) If any dispute or difference arises between the Club and any person claiming compensation under section sixteen or section seventeen of this Act the question of whether such person is entitled to compensation
15 and, if so, to what amount, shall be decided by a stipendiary magistrate appointed in that behalf by the Governor.

Assessment
of compensation.

The decision of such magistrate shall be final and conclusive, and if he decides that an amount is payable to the claimant it shall be the duty of the chairman of 20 directors to certify to the Colonial Treasurer in accordance with such decision.

(2) The manner of making claims under this section and any matter in connection therewith may be prescribed by the regulations made under this Act.

25 (3) The Minister, the Club and any claimant may appear by solicitor or counsel at any inquiry held for the assessment of compensation under this section.

PART IV.

GENERAL.

30 19. (1) No bookmaker shall be eligible for election as a member of the Club.

Bookmakers not eligible as members.
cf. A.J.C.
Rule 11A.

(2) Any member who shall at any time carry on or be engaged or interested or employed in the business of a bookmaker shall thereupon forfeit his right to 35 membership.

On proof thereof to the satisfaction of the directors they shall remove the name of such member from the Register of Members of the Club.

Sydney Turf Club.

(3) Where any member is proved to the satisfaction of the directors to have made default in the payment of any bet made by him, the directors shall remove the name of such member from the Register of Members of the Club and such member shall cease to be a member of the Club.

cf. A.J.C.
Rule 11b.

(4) Before any action is taken by the directors under the authority of subsection two or subsection three of this section, due enquiry into the facts of the case shall be held by or on behalf of the directors of which enquiry the person liable to be affected shall have due notice and at which he shall be entitled to be heard.

The by-laws made pursuant to this Act shall prescribe the procedure to be followed in connection with such enquiry.

20. (1) The rights and privileges of a member of the Club shall be personal to the member and shall not be capable of transfer by the member or of being transmitted by operation of law.

Rights of member personal.

(2) The rights and privileges of a member of the Club shall cease on his death, upon his resignation, or upon his expulsion, and upon his ceasing to be a member in any other way whatsoever specified in the regulations of the Club set out in the First Schedule to this Act, or in other the articles of association of the Club in force for the time being.

(3) Upon the ceasing of the rights and privileges of a member his name shall be removed by the directors from the register of members, but such removal shall not affect any liability of such member under any provision of this Act.

21. (1) The directors of the Club or an absolute majority in number of such directors present at any meeting duly summoned for that purpose may from time to time, subject to the special provisions of this Act, make such by-laws as they may think fit for regulating all matters concerning or connected with any lands which may be acquired by the Club or of which it has the control and management and the admission thereto and the

the expulsion therefrom of members of the Club or any person respectively and the rates or charges to be paid for such admission and for the general management of any such lands or any racecourse or sports ground 5 thereon.

(2) Any such by-law may from time to time be altered or repealed by any other by-law.

(3) No by-law shall be made which is repugnant to the laws for the time being in force in the State of 10 New South Wales.

(4) Every by-law shall be reduced into writing and shall be signed by the Chairman.

(5) Different by-laws may be made relating to the matters aforesaid to have effect with regard to 15 various racecourses or sports grounds.

22. (1) No by-law made under the authority of this Act shall be of any force or effect until the expiration of one month after the same or a copy thereof signed by the Chairman shall have been sent to the Minister
20 and until publication as hereinafter in this section provided.

Commencement of
by-laws.

(2) The Governor may at any time within the said month disallow any such by-law and if so disallowed such by-law shall not come into operation.

25 (3) Every such by-law shall at the expiration of such month, if not so disallowed, be published in the Gazette together with a notice stating when the by-law was sent to the Minister and that such by-law has not been disallowed and upon the publication such by-law
30 shall come into operation.

(4) The production of a copy of the Gazette containing any such by-law and notice shall be conclusive proof that such by-law was duly made and had not been disallowed.

35 (5) The Governor may at any time by proclamation published in the Gazette declare that from a time to be specified in such proclamation and not less than six months from the date of publication thereof any by-law made under this Act shall be repealed and from and after

Sydney Turf Club.

after the time specified such by-law, unless previously repealed by by-law made by the directors, shall be absolutely repealed and of no effect.

Any such repeal pursuant to this subsection shall not 5 interfere with or affect any action, suit, prosecution or other proceeding commenced before the time of such repeal, but the same may be continued as if no such repeal had taken place.

23. (1) A copy of all by-laws made under this Act
 10 and for the time being in force with regard to any particular racecourse or sports ground shall be painted on board or printed on paper and pasted on boards and hung up and affixed and continued in some conspicuous place at or near the principal entrance of the racecourse or 15 sports ground to which they relate and also on the front or other conspicuous part of the grandstand on the racecourse or sports ground so as to give public notice thereof to the parties interested or affected thereby.

Public
notification
of by-laws.

(2) Such boards shall from time to time be 20 renewed as often as the by-laws thereon or any part thereof shall be obliterated or destroyed.

No penalty imposed by any such by-laws shall be recoverable unless the by-laws shall be published and kept published as prescribed by this section.

25 (3) Such by-laws when so published and affixed shall be binding upon and be observed by all parties and shall be sufficient to justify all persons acting under the same.

(4) For proof of the publication of any such
 30 by-laws it shall be sufficient to prove that a printed paper or painted board containing a copy of such by-laws was affixed and continued as directed by this section and that in case of such copy being afterwards displaced or damaged then that such paper or board was replaced as soon 35 as conveniently might be.

(5) The by-laws may impose a penalty not exceeding twenty-five pounds (£25) for any breach thereof.

Such penalty may be recovered in a summary manner before a stipendiary magistrate.

Sydney Turf Club.

(6) If the breach or non-observance of any by-law is or may be attended with danger or annoyance to the public or hindrance to the directors or any of the officers of the Club or the public in the lawful use of any race-
 5 course or sports ground in regard to which the by-laws are made it shall be lawful for the directors or any of them or any officer or servant of the Club summarily to interfere to obviate or remove such danger, apprehended danger, annoyance or hindrance and that without 10 prejudice to any penalty incurred by reason of the breach of any such by-law.

24. (1) Any person who wilfully obstructs any officer, servant or agent of the Club in the execution of his duty upon any land vested in the Club or of which 15 the control and management is vested in the Club or upon any building or premises connected therewith shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds (£10).

Obstructing
of officers.
A.J.C. Act,
1873, s. 20.

(2) Any person who wilfully trespasses upon
 20 any land vested in the Club or of which the control and management is vested in the Club or upon any building or premises connected therewith or who removes or wilfully injures any building, enclosure, post, tree or shrub upon any such land shall be liable on summary conviction 25 to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds (£10).

Wilful trespass on the Club.

Ibid.

(3) Any director, officer or servant of the Club and any person called by him to his assistance may seize and detain any person who shall have committed any offence against the provisions of this Act or of the by-laws
 30 made thereunder and whose name and residence shall not be given to such director, officer or servant upon his requiring the same to be given and give such offender in charge to a police constable.

Offender
may be arrested.
Ibid. s. 21.

Such constable shall convey the offender with all convenient despatch before the nearest court of petty 35 sessions without any other authority than this Act and such court shall proceed with all convenient despatch to the hearing of the complaint against the offender.

Notwithstanding

Sydney Turf Club.

Notwithstanding the liability of any person to any penalty under the provisions of this Act or of the by-laws made thereunder he shall not be relieved from any other liability to which he would have been subject if this Act had not been passed.

Liability to penalty not to relieve offender from other liabilities.
cf. A.J.C. Act, 1873, s. 22.

25. (1) A person may be refused admission to any lands vested in the Club or of which the Club has the control and management or may be expelled from any such lands if he is a person for the time being under any disqualification by the Committee of the Australian Jockey Club pursuant to the rules of racing of that Club for the time being in force or under any disqualification by the Club constituted under this Act or by any other kindred Club of another State whose disqualifications are recognised and given effect to by the Committee of the Australian Jockey Club.

Exclusion of undesirable persons.
Ibid. s. 31.

(2) A person may be refused admission to the said lands or may be expelled therefrom if the directors of the Club resolve that there are reasonable grounds for believing that his presence on the said lands would be undesirable in the interests of the public resorting thereto or prejudicial to the proper conduct of racing or of any other sport.

(3) The preceding provisions of this section shall be construed as supplemental to and not in derogation of or limited by the provisions of this Act relating to by-laws.

26. (1) The directors may by any by-law from time to time prescribe and vary at pleasure the scale of tolls and charges to be levied or taken for admission to lands for the time being vested in the Club or to any building standing or being thereon and may demand, recover and receive such tolls and charges from any person coming upon such land or any part thereof or into or upon any such building.

Directors may fix tolls and charges.
cf. Ibid. s. 23.

(2) The scale of tolls and charges to be levied and taken for admission to one racecourse or sports ground may

Sydney Turf Club.

may be different from that prescribed in respect of another racecourse or sports ground and the charges for one racecourse may vary according to the days on which and the purposes for which admission is sought 5 or allowed.

(3) The power conferred by this section shall extend to the prescribing by by-law of charges for the use of any part of the lands for any purpose within the objects of the Club.

10 27. The Club may demise for any particular race meeting or meetings or for any other amusement or sport any portion of the lands for the time being vested in it or of which it has the control and management or any buildings erected thereon or all or any of the tolls
15 or charges demandable under and by virtue of this Act and the lessee, his collectors, servants and agents shall have the same power of demanding, recovering and receiving the said tolls and charges as are by this Act given to the Club or the directors.

Power to let lands, buildings or tolls.
A.J.C. Act, 1873, s. 24.

20 28. (1) The Minister may when he thinks fit authorise any proper person being a member of the Public Service to inspect the whole or any part of the lands vested in the Club or of which it has the control and management and all buildings thereon and the person
25 so authorised, on producing (if required) to any director, officer or servant of the Club, requiring the same, his authority, may at all reasonable times enter upon and examine the said lands and the buildings erected and being thereon and may exercise all such powers and 30 authorities as may be required for the purpose of such inspection.

Inspection.
cf. Ibid. s. 26.

(2) If the person so authorised certify under his hand to the Minister that in his opinion the surface of the said lands or any part thereof is imperfectly kept
35 in order for the purposes of a public racecourse or that any building thereon is in want of repair or is unsafe to the public or in any other respect improper or unfit for use, which certificate shall contain a detailed statement of all such defects and want of repair, the Minister

Notice to repair.
Ibid. s. 27.

Sydney Turf Club.

Minister may by notice in writing under his hand, addressed to the Chairman, require the directors within a reasonable time after receipt of such notice well and sufficiently to repair and make good all or any of such 5 defects and want of repair.

Every such notice with a true copy of such certificate shall be served upon the Chairman personally or by registered letter post addressed to him at the registered office of the Club. Service of notice.

10 29. The directors shall within a reasonable time after service of such notice well and sufficiently repair and make good all such defects and want of repair mentioned in the certificate as by the said notice they shall be required to do. Club to repair, etc. A.J.C. Act, 1873, s. 29.

15 30. (1) The Governor may make regulations not inconsistent with this Act prescribing all matters which by the Act are required or permitted to be prescribed or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out and generally giving effect to the purposes
20 of this Act. Regulations.

(2) A penalty not exceeding twenty-five pounds (£25) may be imposed for any breach of such regulations.

Any such penalty may be recovered in a summary manner before a stipendiary magistrate.

25 (3) The regulations shall—
(a) be published in the Gazette;
(b) take effect from the date of such publication or from a later date to be specified in the regulations; and
30 (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after the publication thereof if Parliament is then in session, and if not, then within fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

35 (4) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such regulations have been laid before

25 23. The financial year of the Club shall close on the Thirtieth day of June in each year and the annual subscription shall be payable in advance on the First day of July in each year. The directors may determine a reduced rate of subscription for members admitted to membership after the First day of January in any financial year. Financial year.

30 24. An Ordinary General Meeting of the Club shall be held on the fourth Monday in August in each year at such time and place as may be determined by the directors. General meetings.

25 25. The General Meetings referred to in clause 24 shall be called Ordinary General Meetings and all other meetings of the Club shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings. Style of meeting.

40 26. The directors may whenever they think fit convene an Extraordinary General Meeting and subject to section ninety-four of the Companies Act shall on the requisition of not less than twenty members forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Club and in the case of such requisition the following provisions shall have effect:— Extraordinary general meetings.

(1) The requisition must state the objects of the meeting and must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the office and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more of the requisitionists.

Sydney Turf Club.

(2) If the directors do not proceed to cause a meeting to be held within twenty-one days after the date of the requisition being so deposited the requisitionists or a majority of them may themselves convene the meeting but any meeting so convened shall not be held after three months from the date of such deposit.

(3) Any meeting convened under this clause by the requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by the directors.

27. Subject to section ninety-seven of the Companies Act at least seven clear days' notice to the members specifying the place, day and hour of meeting, and in case of special business the general nature of such business, shall be given by notice sent by post or otherwise served as hereinafter provided. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to or the non-receipt of any such notice by any of the members shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting or the proceedings thereof.

28. A copy of the Annual Report and Balance-sheet shall be furnished to each member of the Club before the Ordinary General Meeting.

29. The business at an Ordinary General Meeting shall be to receive and consider the Balance-sheet, the Profit and Loss Account and reports of the directors and of such other officers as may be determined by the directors, to elect members of the directors in the place of those retiring by rotation, to fill up any vacancy in the office of and to fix the remuneration of the Auditors and to transact any other business which under these presents ought to be transacted at an Ordinary General Meeting.

30. All other business transacted at an Ordinary General Meeting and all business transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be deemed special.

30. The quorum for any General Meeting shall be seven members personally present.

31. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless the quorum requisite shall be present at the commencement of the business.

32. The Chairman of the directors or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, shall be entitled to take the chair at every General Meeting.

If there be no Chairman or Vice-Chairman or if at any meeting one shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting or is unwilling to act the members or the directors present may choose a chairman of the meeting and in default of their doing so the members present shall choose one of the directors present to be chairman of the meeting and if no member of the directors present be willing to take the chair they shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

Sydney Turf Club.

33. If within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present the meeting, if convened upon such requisition as aforesaid, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day, time and place as the Chairman may by notice to the members appoint.

Absence of quorum.

If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present any five or more members who are present shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

10 The notice referred to in this clause shall be given by advertisement published in the Sydney Morning Herald and another morning newspaper circulating in Sydney, and in The Sun and in another evening newspaper so circulating.

15 34. Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands and in the case of an equality of votes the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to the vote to which he may be entitled as a member.

Method of voting.

20 35. At any General Meeting a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Club shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

Declaration of results of voting.

25 36. In case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote the chairman of the meeting shall determine the same and such determination shall be made in good faith and shall be final and conclusive.

Chairman's decision.

30 37. The chairman of any General Meeting may with the consent of the meeting adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

Adjournment.

35 38. Every member present in person shall have one vote and, until otherwise determined by the Club in General Meeting, voting by proxy shall not be allowed.

Votes of members.

39. A member shall not be entitled to vote at any General Meeting if any money is then presently payable by him to the Club.

Financial members only to vote. Powers and duties of directors.

40 40. The Club shall be governed and its affairs administered by the directors who may exercise all such powers of the Club as are not by the Companies Act, 1936, or by these Regulations required to be exercised by the Club in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to any provision of these Regulations to the provisions of the said Act and those of the Club's Act and to such Regulations being not inconsistent with the aforesaid as may be prescribed by the Club
45 in general meeting held after the thirtieth day of June, 1945; but no regulation made by the Club in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

Members eligible for election.
- 25 The Secretary shall thereupon cause the names of members so nominated to be exhibited at the office of the Club.
- Retiring directors shall be eligible for re-election without nomination.
- If at any Ordinary General Meeting the number of retiring directors seeking re-election and of members (if any) nominated in accordance with this clause does not exceed the number required to fill the 30 vacancies among the directors, such retiring directors and members shall be elected without any ballot being held. If at any Ordinary General Meeting the number of retiring directors seeking re-election and of the members nominated in accordance with this clause is less 35 than the number required to fill the vacancies among the directors any vacancy thereby occurring shall be deemed to be a casual vacancy.
44. If there be any candidate or candidates nominated for election as a director, in addition to the retiring members, the election shall be by ballot as follows:— Election of directors.
- 40 The Secretary shall forward to each member an envelope addressed to the Secretary, Sydney Turf Club, Sydney, endorsed "Voting Paper," enclosing a list of the retiring directors seeking re-election and of the other candidates, together with a summary of the attendance of each retiring director at 45 the various directors' meetings held during his term of office.
- Any member wishing to vote shall erase the names of such candidates as he may not approve of, retaining no more and no less than the required number, and shall return the list in the envelope as above, first signing his name inside.

All

Sydney Turf Club.

- All such envelopes returned to the Secretary shall be by him handed over unopened, on the day of election, to the scrutineers, and shall by them be then and there opened, and the voting paper therein contained shall be placed in the ballot box without being unfolded.
- 5 Members present at the meeting, who may not have voted in the manner above prescribed, may, if necessary, obtain voting papers from the scrutineers.
- 10 The ballot shall remain open for the space of one hour and the six candidates receiving the greatest number of votes shall be elected as directors. But if, before the ballot is opened, the number of candidates is reduced to six by withdrawal or otherwise, the six remaining shall be elected as directors without ballot.
- 15 45. (1) The directors shall meet as often as they may deem necessary to transact the current business. Meetings of directors.
Seven shall form a quorum.
Minutes of the proceedings at each meeting shall be entered in a book, and be read and confirmed at the next meeting.
- 20 Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.
In the case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- 25 A director may and the Secretary shall on the requisition of a director summon a meeting of the directors.
(2) A meeting of the directors at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and directions by the regulations of the Club for the time being vested in or exercisable by the directors.
- 30 46. (1) Subject to the Club's Act the directors shall elect one of their number to be Chairman, who shall preside at all meetings of the directors. Chairman.
Such election shall take place each year at the first meeting after the election of the directors (or in the event of the death or resignation of the Chairman, at the first meeting after such death or resignation).
- 35 The directors may also at any time elect a Vice-Chairman, who shall preside at meetings of the directors in the absence of the Chairman.
- 40 If neither the Chairman nor the Vice-Chairman be present at any meeting within ten minutes after the time for which such meeting is convened, the members present shall elect another member to take the chair at such meeting.
- 45 (2) The directors shall in each year at the meeting at which the Chairman is so elected, elect one of their number to be the Honorary Treasurer of the Club. The Honorary Treasurer shall be charged Honorary treasurer.
