Act No. 29, 1942.

An Act to make further provision for the withdrawal of lands held under lease and for the resumption of certain lands in the Western Division; to validate certain matters; for these and other purposes to amend the Western Lands Act of 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 23rd December, 1942.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942."

Short title
and construction.

Western Lands (Amendment).

---

(2) This Act shall be read and construed with the Western Lands Act of 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts, which Act, as so amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

Amendment
of Act No. 70, 1901.

2. The Principal Act is amended—

New sec. 17cc.

- (a) by inserting next after section 17c the following new section:—

Withdrawals
and resumptions.

17cc. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Minister may, by notification published in the Gazette, which notification shall be in or to the effect of the form of Schedule H to this Act, at any time after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, withdraw from lease the whole or any part of the land which is within the boundaries of any maximum area determined in accordance with section 17c of this Act or within such boundaries as varied pursuant to that section, and which has not been withdrawn under that section.

Resumption
of certain freehold,
C.P. and
C.L. land.

(2) (a) The Governor, by notification published in the Gazette, may, at any time after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, resume the whole or any part of any land held in fee simple, or under conditional purchase or conditional lease, where such land, in pursuance of any agreement or arrangement made between the Minister (or the Commissioner on behalf of the Minister) and the holder thereof is to be surrendered to the Crown in part satisfaction of the right of the Minister to withdraw land under the provisions of section 17c of this Act.

Upon publication of any such notification the land therein described shall vest in His Majesty and shall be deemed to be Crown lands.

(b) Every agreement or arrangement of the nature referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection is hereby validated but nothing in this paragraph shall affect the right of the Governor

Western Lands (Amendment).

Governor to resume land in pursuance of this subsection.

(3) (a) Land may be withdrawn from lease under this section notwithstanding any dealing, whether by way of transfer, conveyance, assignment, mortgage, devolution, subdivision or otherwise, with the lease, made after the date of determination of the boundaries of the maximum area from which withdrawals affecting such lease may be made, and whether such dealing was made before or is made after the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942.

(b) Land may be resumed under this section notwithstanding any dealing, whether by way of transfer, conveyance, assignment, mortgage, devolution, subdivision, or otherwise, with the land made after the date of the agreement or arrangement referred to in subsection two of this section relating to such land, and whether such dealing was made before or is made after the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942.

For the purposes of this paragraph the date of the agreement or arrangement shall be deemed to be the date upon which the approval of the Minister or Commissioner to the agreement or arrangement was given.

(4) No land shall be withdrawn or resumed under this section in any case where on the fourteenth day of October one thousand nine hundred and forty-two, the lessee—

(a) held no land under lease other than land within the boundaries of any maximum area referred to in subsection one of this section, or

(b) if holding land under lease other than land within such boundaries, held it under lease granted as or extended to a lease in perpetuity.

Nothing

Western Lands (Amendment).

---

Nothing in this subsection shall affect the right of the Minister to withdraw land under section 17c of this Act.

cf. Act No.
70, 1901,
s. 17c (11).

(5) No compensation shall be paid in respect of any land withdrawn or resumed under this section.

(6) The Minister, after report by the Commissioner, shall extend the term of the lease or of all or any of the leases held in the same interest at the date of the withdrawal (being the lease or leases which were taken into account in determining the boundaries of the maximum area) for such a period that the term in the lease or leases as so extended is equivalent in value to the value, immediately before such withdrawal, of the term in the lease or leases so held and taken into account.

Such period shall be ascertained by actuarial calculation; and for the purposes of such calculation the value immediately before such withdrawal of the term in the lease or leases so held and taken into account shall be ascertained—

- (a) as if the right of withdrawal conferred by this section did not exist; and
- (b) as if the lease or leases did not include so much of the land comprised therein as might be withdrawn under section 17c of this Act not less than nine years from the date of the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1934; and
- (c) as if the lease or leases were, as to so much of the land comprised therein as might be withdrawn under section 17c of this Act not less than fourteen years from the date of the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1934, for a term commencing on the date of withdrawal and expiring on the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight.

The basis to be used in any actuarial calculation under this subsection shall be four per centum per annum compounded with annual rests.

Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the term of any lease shall not be extended in pursuance of this subsection—

- (i) by more than three years and three months, where the lease is situated wholly or partly within the tract described in Schedule F of this Act; or
- (ii) by more than four years where the lease is situated wholly outside such tract.

(7) (a) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of the Minister to withdraw land under section 17c of this Act in any case in which withdrawal is not made under this section.

(b) Where withdrawal has been made under this section or under section 17c of this Act of the whole of the land within the boundaries of the maximum area determined in accordance with section 17c of this Act or within such boundaries as varied pursuant to that section, the lease shall cease to be subject to the special conditions referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection four of that section.

(8) Upon withdrawal or resumption under this section, the lessee or holder, as the case may be, shall be entitled to tenant right in accordance with the provisions of this Act in improvements upon the land withdrawn or resumed: Provided that where at the date of withdrawal or resumption any sum is owing to the Crown in respect of any such improvements the local land board, when determining the value of the improvements in accordance with this Act, shall apportion such value between the Crown and the person having tenant right in such improvements improvements in such manner as it may deem reasonable.

cf. Act No.
70, 1901,
s. 17c (12).

(9) Where the whole of the land within any lease is withdrawn or resumed under this section, the liability of the lessee for payment of rent shall cease as from the date of such withdrawal or resumption, as the case may be.

Where part of the land within any lease is so withdrawn or resumed, the rent for the remainder of the current period of the lease shall, as from the date of such withdrawal or resumption, be reduced in proportion to the area withdrawn or resumed or in proportion to the relative value of the area withdrawn or resumed to that of the remainder of the lease where the qualities and capabilities of the lease are not uniform, and any rent paid in advance shall be adjusted on the same basis.

s. 17c (13).

(10) Any land withdrawn or resumed under this section shall, until otherwise disposed of, be held by the lessee or holder, as the case may be, under preferential occupation license at a fee which shall, in the case of any land withdrawn from lease, be at the same rate as was payable at the date of the withdrawal, for the lease from which the land was withdrawn; and, in the case of any land resumed, at the rate payable at the date of resumption for the lease adjoining such land.

(11) (a) Upon the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942, the lease or any part thereof of any land which the Minister is authorised by this section to withdraw, shall not be transferred, conveyed, assigned or otherwise dealt with except by way of mortgage or discharge of mortgage without the consent of the Minister being first obtained.

(b) Where the lease was transferable, immediately before such commencement, without the consent of the Minister being first obtained, obtained, the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall, in respect of such lease, cease to operate after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five.

(c) Where the right of withdrawal has been exercised in full in relation to any lease the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall, notwithstanding anything in paragraph (b) of this subsection, thereupon cease to have effect.

(12) Where the land held under any lease is withdrawn or resumed under this section the Commissioner may make such endorsement on the instrument of lease as shall appear to him to be necessary or proper.

(b) by inserting next after Schedule G the following new Schedule:— New Sch. H.

same section the words “subsection eight or subsection nine” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “or subsection eight”;

(f) by inserting next after section 28B the following new sections:—

28c. Wherever in this Act power is vested in the Minister to grant leases, it shall be lawful for the Minister to execute such leases on behalf of His Majesty.

28d. (1) Where by or under this or any other Act the Commissioner is required or authorised to make any endorsement on any instrument of lease the Commissioner may by notice in writing served personally or by post on the lessee, direct the lessee to lodge such instrument of lease with the Commissioner within a period to be specified in the notice, which period shall not expire earlier than two months after the date of service of the notice.

If the instrument of lease be not so lodged the lease shall be liable to be forfeited.

(2) Service by post of any such notice may be effected by prepaid letter post addressed to the lessee at his last known place of business or abode in New South Wales, and such service shall be deemed to have been effected at the time when it would, in the ordinary course of post, have arrived at the place to which it was addressed or at the post town or post office nearest to that place, whether or not it has in fact been received by the lessee.

Amendment
of Act No. 70, 1901.

2. The Principal Act is amended—

New sec. 17cc.

- (a) by inserting next after section 17c the following new section:—

Withdrawals
and resumptions.

17cc. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Minister may, by notification published in the Gazette, which notification shall be in or to the effect of the form of Schedule H to this Act, at any time after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, withdraw from lease the whole or any part of the land which is within the boundaries of any maximum area determined in accordance with section 17c of this Act or within such boundaries as varied pursuant to that section, and which has not been withdrawn under that section.

Resumption
of certain
freehold,
C.P. and
C.L. land.

(2) (a) The Governor, by notification published in the Gazette, may, at any time after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, resume the whole or any part of any land held in fee simple, or under conditional purchase or conditional lease, where such land, in pursuance of any agreement or arrangement made between the Minister (or the Commissioner on behalf of the Minister) and the holder thereof is to be surrendered to the Crown in part satisfaction of the right of the Minister to withdraw land under the provisions of section 17c of this Act.

Upon publication of any such notification the land therein described shall vest in His Majesty and shall be deemed to be Crown lands.

(b) Every agreement or arrangement of the nature referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection is hereby validated but nothing in this paragraph shall affect the right of the

Governor to resume land in pursuance of this subsection.

(3) (a) Land may be withdrawn from lease under this section notwithstanding any dealing, whether by way of transfer, conveyance, assignment, mortgage, devolution, subdivision or otherwise, with the lease, made after the date of determination of the boundaries of the maximum area from which withdrawals affecting such lease may be made, and whether such dealing was made before or is made after the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942.

(b) Land may be resumed under this section notwithstanding any dealing, whether by way of transfer, conveyance, assignment, mortgage, devolution, subdivision, or otherwise, with the land made after the date of the agreement or arrangement referred to in subsection two of this section relating to such land, and whether such dealing was made before or is made after the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942.

For the purposes of this paragraph the date of the agreement or arrangement shall be deemed to be the date upon which the approval of the Minister or Commissioner to the agreement or arrangement was given.

(4) No land shall be withdrawn or resumed under this section in any case where on the fourteenth day of October one thousand nine hundred and forty-two, the lessee—

- (a) held no land under lease other than land within the boundaries of any maximum area referred to in subsection one of this section, or
- (b) if holding land under lease other than land within such boundaries, held it under lease granted as or extended to a lease in perpetuity.

Nothing

Nothing in this subsection shall affect the right of the Minister to withdraw land under section 17c of this Act.

cf. Act No.
70, 1901,
s. 17c (11).

(5) No compensation shall be paid in respect of any land withdrawn or resumed under this section.

(6) The Minister, after report by the Commissioner, shall extend the term of the lease or of all or any of the leases held in the same interest at the date of the withdrawal (being the lease or leases which were taken into account in determining the boundaries of the maximum area) for such a period that the term in the lease or leases as so extended is equivalent in value to the value, immediately before such withdrawal, of the term in the lease or leases so held and taken into account.

Such period shall be ascertained by actuarial calculation; and for the purposes of such calculation the value immediately before such withdrawal of the term in the lease or leases so held and taken into account shall be ascertained—

- (a) as if the right of withdrawal conferred by this section did not exist; and
- (b) as if the lease or leases did not include so much of the land comprised therein as might be withdrawn under section 17c of this Act not less than nine years from the date of the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1934; and
- (c) as if the lease or leases were, as to so much of the land comprised therein as might be withdrawn under section 17c of this Act not less than fourteen years from the date of the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1934, for a term commencing on the date of withdrawal and expiring on the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight.

ANNO SEXTO

GEORGII VI REGIS.

Act No. , 1942.

An Act to make further provision for the withdrawal of lands held under lease and for the resumption of certain lands in the Western Division; to validate certain matters; for these and other purposes to amend the Western Lands Act of 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of 5 the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942."

Short title
and construction.

Western Lands (Amendment).

(2) This Act shall be read and construed with the Western Lands Act of 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts, which Act, as so amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

5   2. The Principal Act is amended—

Amendment
of Act No. 70, 1901.

(a) by inserting next after section 17c the following new section:—

New sec. 17cc.

10           17cc. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Minister may, by notification
published in the Gazette, which notification shall be in or to the effect of the form of Schedule H to this Act, at any time after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-
three, withdraw from lease the whole or any part 15           of the land which is within the boundaries of any maximum area determined in accordance with section 17c of this Act or within such boundaries
as varied pursuant to that section, and which has not been withdrawn under that section.

Withdrawals
and resumptions.

20           (2) (a) The Governor, by notification
published in the Gazette, may, at any time after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, resume the whole or any part of any land held in fee simple, or 25           under conditional purchase or conditional lease,
where such land, in pursuance of any agreement
or arrangement made between the Minister (or the Commissioner on behalf of the Minister) and the holder thereof is to be surrendered to the 30           Crown in part satisfaction of the right of the Minister to withdraw land under the provisions of section 17c of this Act.

Resumption
of certain
freehold,
C.P. and
C.L. land.

35           Upon publication of any such notification the land therein described shall vest in His Majesty
and shall be deemed to be Crown lands.

(b) Every agreement or arrangement of the nature referred to in paragraph (a)
of this subsection is hereby validated but nothing in this paragraph shall affect the right of the Governor

Western Lands (Amendment).

---

Governor to resume land in pursuance of this subsection.

5 (3) (a) Land may be withdrawn from lease under this section notwithstanding any dealing, whether by way of transfer, conveyance, assignment, mortgage, devolution, subdivision or otherwise, with the lease, made after the date of determination of the boundaries of the maximum area from which withdrawals affecting such lease 10 may be made, and whether such dealing was made before or is made after the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942.

15 (b) Land may be resumed under this section notwithstanding any dealing, whether by way of transfer, conveyance, assignment, mortgage, devolution, subdivision, or otherwise, with the land made after the date of the agreement or arrangement referred to in subsection two of this section relating to such land, and whether 20 such dealing was made before or is made after the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942.

25 For the purposes of this paragraph the date of the agreement or arrangement shall be deemed to be the date upon which the approval of the Minister or Commissioner to the agreement or arrangement was given.

30 (4) No land shall be withdrawn or resumed under this section in any case where on the fourteenth day of October one thousand nine hundred and forty-two, the lessee—

- 35 (a) held no land under lease other than land within the boundaries of any maximum area referred to in subsection one of this section, or (b) if holding land under lease other than land within such boundaries, held it under lease granted as or extended to a lease in perpetuity.

Western Lands (Amendment).

Nothing in this subsection shall affect the right of the Minister to withdraw land under section 17c of this Act.

5 (5) No compensation shall be paid in respect of any land withdrawn or resumed under this section. cf. Act No.
70, 1901,
s. 17c (11).

10 (6) The Minister, after report by the Commissioner, shall extend the term of the lease or of all or any of the leases held in the same interest at the date of the withdrawal (being the lease or leases which were taken into account in determining the boundaries of the maximum area) for such a period that the term in the lease or leases as so extended is equivalent in value to the value, immediately before such withdrawal, of the term in the lease or leases so held and taken into account.

15 Such period shall be ascertained by actuarial calculation; and for the purposes of such calculation the value immediately before such withdrawal of the term in the lease or leases so held and taken into account shall be ascertained—

- 20 (a) as if the right of withdrawal conferred by this section did not exist; and
- 25 (b) as if the lease or leases did not include so much of the land comprised therein as might be withdrawn under section 17c of this Act not less than nine years from the date of the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1934; and
- 30 (c) as if the lease or leases were, as to so much of the land comprised therein as might be withdrawn under section 17c of this Act not less than fourteen years from the date of the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1934, for a term commencing on the date of withdrawal and expiring on the
- 35 twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight.
- 40

The

The basis to be used in any actuarial calculation under this subsection shall be four per centum per annum compounded with annual rests.

5 Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the term of any lease shall not be extended in pursuance of this subsection—

10 (i) by more than three years and three months, where the lease is situated wholly or partly within the tract described in Schedule F of this Act; or

15 (ii) by more than four years where the lease is situated wholly outside such tract.

(7) (a) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of the Minister to withdraw land under section 17c of this Act in any case in which withdrawal is not made under this section.

20 (b) Where withdrawal has been made under this section or under section 17c of this Act of the whole of the land within the boundaries of the maximum area determined in accordance with section 17c of this Act or within
25 such boundaries as varied pursuant to that section, the lease shall cease to be subject to the special conditions referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection four of that section.

30 (8) Upon withdrawal or resumption under this section, the lessee or holder, as the case may be, shall be entitled to tenant right in accordance with the provisions of this Act in improvements upon the land withdrawn or resumed: Provided that where at the date of 35 withdrawal or resumption any sum is owing to the Crown in respect of any such improvements the local land board, when determining the value of the improvements in accordance with this Act, shall apportion such value between the Crown and the person having tenant right in such 40 improvements

improvements in such manner as it may deem reasonable.

5 (9) Where the whole of the land within any lease is withdrawn or resumed under this section, the liability of the lessee for payment of rent shall cease as from the date of such withdrawal or resumption, as the case may be. cf. Act No. 70, 1901, s. 17c (12).

10 Where part of the land within any lease is so withdrawn or resumed, the rent for the remainder of the current period of the lease shall, as from the date of such withdrawal or resumption, be reduced in proportion to the area withdrawn or resumed or in proportion to the relative value of the area withdrawn or resumed to that of the remainder of the lease where the qualities and capabilities of the lease are not uniform, and any rent paid in advance shall be adjusted on the same basis.

20 (10) Any land withdrawn or resumed under this section shall, until otherwise disposed of, be held by the lessee or holder, as the case may be, under preferential occupation license at a fee which shall, in the case of any land withdrawn from lease, be at the same rate as was payable at the date of the withdrawal, for the lease from which the land was withdrawn; and, in the case of any land resumed, at the rate payable at the date of resumption for the lease adjoining such land. cf. Ibid. s. 17c (13).

30 (11) (a) Upon the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942, the lease or any part thereof of any land which the Minister is authorised by this section to withdraw, shall not be transferred, conveyed, assigned or otherwise dealt with except by way of mortgage or discharge of mortgage without the consent of the Minister being first obtained.

35 (b) Where the lease was transfer-40 able, immediately before such commencement, without the consent of the Minister being first obtained, obtained, the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall, in respect of such lease, cease to operate after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five.

(c) Where the right of withdrawal has been exercised in full in relation to any lease the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall, notwithstanding anything in paragraph (b) of this subsection, thereupon cease to have effect.

(12) Where the land held under any lease is withdrawn or resumed under this section the Commissioner may make such endorsement on the instrument of lease as shall appear to him to be necessary or proper.

(b) by inserting next after Schedule G the following new Schedule:—

GEORGII VI REGIS.

Act No. , 1942.

An Act to make further provision for the withdrawal of lands held under lease and for the resumption of certain lands in the Western Division; to validate certain matters; for these and other purposes to amend the Western Lands Act of 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of
5 the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942."

Short title
and construction.

Western Lands (Amendment).

(2) This Act shall be read and construed with the Western Lands Act of 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts, which Act, as so amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

5   2. The Principal Act is amended—

Amendment
of Act No. 70, 1901.

(a) by inserting next after section 17c the following new section:—

New sec. 17cc.

10           17cc. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained
in this Act, the Minister may, by notification
published in the Gazette, which notification shall be in or to the effect of the form of Schedule H to this Act, at any time after the twenty-fourth day
of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-
three, withdraw from lease the whole or any part 15           of the land which is within the boundaries of any maximum area determined in accordance with section 17c of this Act or within such boundaries
as varied pursuant to that section, and which has not been withdrawn under that section.

Withdrawals
and resumptions.

20           (2) (a) The Governor, by notification
published in the Gazette, may, at any time after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand
nine hundred and forty-three, resume the whole or any part of any land held in fee simple, or 25           under conditional purchase or conditional lease,
where such land, in pursuance of any agreement
or arrangement made between the Minister (or the Commissioner on behalf of the Minister) and the holder thereof is to be surrendered to the 30           Crown in part satisfaction of the right of the Minister to withdraw land under the provisions of section 17c of this Act.

Resumption
of certain
freehold,
C.P. and
C.L. land.

35           Upon publication of any such notification the land therein described shall vest in His Majesty
and shall be deemed to be Crown lands.

(b) Every agreement or arrangement of the nature referred to in paragraph (a)
of this subsection is hereby validated but nothing
in this paragraph shall affect the right of the Governor

Western Lands (Amendment).

Governor to resume land in pursuance of this subsection.

(3) (a) Land may be withdrawn from lease under this section notwithstanding any dealing, whether by way of transfer, conveyance, assignment, mortgage, devolution, subdivision or otherwise, with the lease, made after the date of determination of the boundaries of the maximum area from which withdrawals affecting such lease may be made, and whether such dealing was made before or is made after the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942.

(b) Land may be resumed under this section notwithstanding any dealing, whether by way of transfer, conveyance, assignment, mortgage, devolution, subdivision, or otherwise, with the land made after the date of the agreement or arrangement referred to in subsection two of this section relating to such land, and whether such dealing was made before or is made after the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942.

For the purposes of this paragraph the date of the agreement or arrangement shall be deemed to be the date upon which the approval of the Minister or Commissioner to the agreement or arrangement was given.

(4) No land shall be withdrawn or resumed under this section in any case where on the fourteenth day of October one thousand nine hundred and forty-two, the lessee—

(a) held no land under lease other than land within the boundaries of any maximum area referred to in subsection one of this section, or

(b) if holding land under lease other than land within such boundaries, held it under lease granted as or extended to a lease in perpetuity.

---

Nothing in this subsection shall affect the right of the Minister to withdraw land under section 17c of this Act.

5 (5) No compensation shall be paid in respect of any land withdrawn or resumed under this section. cf. Act No. 70, 1901, s. 17c (11).

10 (6) The Minister, after report by the Commissioner, shall extend the term of the lease or of all or any of the leases held in the same interest at the date of the withdrawal (being the lease or leases which were taken into account in determining the boundaries of the maximum area) for such a period that the term in the lease or leases as so extended is equivalent in value to the value, immediately before such withdrawal, of the term in the lease or leases so held and taken into account.

15 Such period shall be ascertained by actuarial calculation; and for the purposes of such calculation the value immediately before such withdrawal of the term in the lease or leases so held and taken into account shall be ascertained—

- 20 (a) as if the right of withdrawal conferred by this section did not exist; and
- 25 (b) as if the lease or leases did not include so much of the land comprised therein as might be withdrawn under section 17c of this Act not less than nine years from the date of the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1934; and
- 30 (c) as if the lease or leases were, as to so much of the land comprised therein as might be withdrawn under section 17c of this Act not less than fourteen years from the date of the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1934, for a term commencing on the date of withdrawal and expiring on the
- 35 twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight.

The basis to be used in any actuarial calculation under this subsection shall be four per centum per annum compounded with annual rests.

5        Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the term of any lease shall not be extended in pursuance of this subsection—

10        (i) by more than three years and three months, where the lease is situated wholly or partly within the tract described in Schedule F of this Act; or

15        (ii) by more than four years where the lease is situated wholly outside such tract.

(7) (a) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of the Minister to withdraw land under section 17c of this Act in any case in which withdrawal is not made under this section.

20        (b) Where withdrawal has been made under this section or under section 17c of this Act of the whole of the land within the boundaries of the maximum area determined in accordance with section 17c of this Act or within
25        such boundaries as varied pursuant to that section, the lease shall cease to be subject to the special conditions referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection four of that section.

30        (8) Upon withdrawal or resumption under this section, the lessee or holder, as the case may be, shall be entitled to tenant right in accordance with the provisions of this Act in improvements upon the land withdrawn or resumed: Provided that where at the date of 35        withdrawal or resumption any sum is owing to the Crown in respect of any such improvements the local land board, when determining the value of the improvements in accordance with this Act, shall apportion such value between the Crown and the person having tenant right in such

improvements in such manner as it may deem reasonable.

5 (9) Where the whole of the land within any lease is withdrawn or resumed under this section, the liability of the lessee for payment of rent shall cease as from the date of such withdrawal or resumption, as the case may be. cf. Act No. 70, 1901, s. 17c (12).

10 Where part of the land within any lease is so withdrawn or resumed, the rent for the remainder of the current period of the lease shall, as from the date of such withdrawal or resumption, be reduced in proportion to the area withdrawn or resumed or in proportion to the relative value of the area withdrawn or resumed to that of the remainder of the lease where the qualities and capabilities of the lease are not uniform, and any rent paid in advance shall be adjusted on the same basis.

20 (10) Any land withdrawn or resumed under this section shall, until otherwise disposed of, be held by the lessee or holder, as the case may be, under preferential occupation license at a fee which shall, in the case of any land withdrawn from lease, be at the same rate as was payable at the date of the withdrawal, for the lease from which the land was withdrawn; and, in the case of any land resumed, at the rate payable at the date of resumption for the lease adjoining such land. cf. Ibid. s. 17c (13).

30 (11) (a) Upon the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942, the lease or any part thereof of any land which the Minister is authorised by this section to withdraw, shall not be transferred, conveyed, assigned or otherwise dealt with except by way of mortgage or discharge of mortgage without the consent of the Minister being first obtained.

40 (b) Where the lease was transferable, immediately before such commencement, without the consent of the Minister being first obtained, obtained, the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall, in respect of such lease, cease to operate after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five.

(c) Where the right of withdrawal has been exercised in full in relation to any lease the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall, notwithstanding anything in paragraph (b) of this subsection, thereupon cease to have effect.

(12) Where the land held under any lease is withdrawn or resumed under this section the Commissioner may make such endorsement on the instrument of lease as shall appear to him to be necessary or proper.

(b) by inserting next after Schedule G the following new Schedule:—

(2) This Act shall be read and construed with the Western Lands Act of 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts, which Act, as so amended, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

5    2. The Principal Act is amended—

Amendment
of Act No. 70, 1901.

(a) by inserting next after section 17c the following new section:—

New sec. 17cc.

10                    17cc. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained
in this Act, the Minister may, by notification
published in the Gazette, which notification shall be in or to the effect of the form of Schedule H to this Act, at any time after the twenty-fourth day
of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-
three, withdraw from lease the whole or any part 15                    of the land which is within the boundaries of any maximum area determined in accordance with section 17c of this Act or within such boundaries
as varied pursuant to that section, and which has not been withdrawn under that section.

Withdrawals
and resumptions.

20                    (2) (a) The Governor, by notification
published in the Gazette, may, at any time after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand
nine hundred and forty-three, resume the whole or any part of any land held in fee simple, or 25                    under conditional purchase or conditional lease,
where such land, in pursuance of any agreement
or arrangement made between the Minister (or the Commissioner on behalf of the Minister) and the holder thereof is to be surrendered to the 30                    Crown in part satisfaction of the right of the Minister to withdraw land under the provisions of section 17c of this Act.

Resumption
of certain
freehold,
C.P. and
C.L. land.

35                    Upon publication of any such notification the land therein described shall vest in His Majesty
and shall be deemed to be Crown lands.

Governor to resume land in pursuance of this subsection.

(3) (a) Land may be withdrawn from lease under this section notwithstanding any dealing, whether by way of transfer, conveyance, assignment, mortgage, devolution, subdivision or otherwise, with the lease, made after the date of determination of the boundaries of the maximum area from which withdrawals affecting such lease may be made, and whether such dealing was made before or is made after the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942.

(b) Land may be resumed under this section notwithstanding any dealing, whether by way of transfer, conveyance, assignment, mortgage, devolution, subdivision, or otherwise, with the land made after the date of the agreement or arrangement referred to in subsection two of this section relating to such land, and whether such dealing was made before or is made after the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942.

For the purposes of this paragraph the date of the agreement or arrangement shall be deemed to be the date upon which the approval of the Minister or Commissioner to the agreement or arrangement was given.

(4) No land shall be withdrawn or resumed under this section in any case where on the fourteenth day of October one thousand nine hundred and forty-two, the lessee—

(a) held no land under lease other than land within the boundaries of any maximum area referred to in subsection one of this section, or

(b) if holding land under lease other than land within such boundaries, held it under lease granted as or extended to a lease in perpetuity.

The basis to be used in any actuarial calculation under this subsection shall be four per centum per annum compounded with annual rests.

5 Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the term of any lease shall not be extended in pursuance of this subsection—

- 10 (i) by more than three years and three months, where the lease is situated wholly or partly within the tract described in Schedule F of this Act; or
- 15 (ii) by more than four years where the lease is situated wholly outside such tract.

(7) (a) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of the Minister to withdraw land under section 17c of this Act in any case in which withdrawal is not made under this section.

20 (b) Where withdrawal has been made under this section or under section 17c of this Act of the whole of the land within the boundaries of the maximum area determined in accordance with section 17c of this Act or within

30 (8) Upon withdrawal or resumption under this section, the lessee or holder, as the case may be, shall be entitled to tenant right in accordance with the provisions of this Act in improvements upon the land withdrawn or resumed: Provided that where at the date of

(9) Where the whole of the land within any lease is withdrawn or resumed under this section, the liability of the lessee for payment of rent shall cease as from the date of such withdrawal or resumption, as the case may be. cf. Act No. 70, 1901, s. 17c (12).

Where part of the land within any lease is so withdrawn or resumed, the rent for the remainder of the current period of the lease shall, as from the date of such withdrawal or resumption, be reduced in proportion to the area withdrawn or resumed or in proportion to the relative value of the area withdrawn or resumed to that of the remainder of the lease where the qualities and capabilities of the lease are not uniform, and any rent paid in advance shall be adjusted on the same basis.

(10) Any land withdrawn or resumed under this section shall, until otherwise disposed of, be held by the lessee or holder, as the case may be, under preferential occupation license at a fee which shall, in the case of any land withdrawn from lease, be at the same rate as was payable at the date of the withdrawal, for the lease from which the land was withdrawn; and, in the case of any land resumed, at the rate payable at the date of resumption for the lease adjoining such land. cf. Ibid. s. 17c (13).

(11) (a) Upon the commencement of the Western Lands (Amendment) Act, 1942, the lease or any part thereof of any land which the Minister is authorised by this section to withdraw, shall not be transferred, conveyed, assigned or otherwise dealt with except by way of mortgage or discharge of mortgage without the consent of the Minister being first obtained.

(b) Where the lease was transferable, immediately before such commencement, without the consent of the Minister being first obtained, obtained, the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall, in respect of such lease, cease to operate after the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five.

(c) Where the right of withdrawal has been exercised in full in relation to any lease the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall, notwithstanding anything in paragraph (b) of this subsection, thereupon cease to have effect.

(12) Where the land held under any lease is withdrawn or resumed under this section the Commissioner may make such endorsement on the instrument of lease as shall appear to him to be necessary or proper.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, but subject to the provisions of subsection three of this section, the total amount paid by the Minister as compensation for the withdrawal or acquisition of any land in pursuance of this section shall be charged upon any lease of such land thereafter granted under this Act, or, where more than one such lease is so granted, upon such leases in such proportions as the Minister may determine.

Charge on lease.
cf. Act No. 46, 1919, s. 12.

Western Lands (Amendment).

(b) In determining any such proportions, the Minister shall have regard to the qualities and capabilities of the land and to the improvements existing thereon.

5 (c) The provisions of section thirty-one of this Act shall not apply to any such lease.

(3) Upon the expiration, forfeiture, surrender or other determination of any such lease, the charge under subsection two of this section, if not previously vacated, shall be deemed to have been extinguished: Provided that upon any redisposal of the land the Minister, upon the recommendation of the Commissioner, shall determine the amount, if any, which shall be charged upon any lease granted in respect of the land, and thereupon such amount shall be charged accordingly.

20 The amount so determined shall not include the value of any improvements, but the provisions of section thirty-one of this Act shall apply upon any such redisposal.

25 (4) (a) Payment of the amount charged upon any lease pursuant to this section shall be made to the Colonial Treasurer within such period, by such instalments and with interest at such rate as the Minister may determine.

Payment of amount charged.
cf. Act No. 70, 1901, s. 31.

30 (b) The Colonial Treasurer may credit the whole or any part of any moneys so paid, to the Consolidated Revenue Fund or to such other fund or account as he may elect.

35 (c) If any such instalment or interest remains unpaid for a period of six months after the date for payment thereof the lease shall become liable to be forfeited.

cf. Ibid. s. 18.

40 (5) Any such charge shall have priority over any other charge, mortgage or encumbrance.
