Cereal Growers Drought Relief Bill, 1944.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THIS Bill is supplementary to the States Grants (Drought Relief) Bill recently introduced in the Parliament of the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth Bill makes provision for the payment of certain amounts by the Commonwealth to certain States, including New South Wales, for the purpose of the alleviation of hardship suffered, in consequence of drought, by persons concerned in the production of cereal crops.

It also provides that any amount so paid to a State shall be paid upon conditions specified in the Bill, which include a condition that an equal amount will be made available by the State, and that the amount so made available will be applied by the State for the same purpose and in the same manner as the amount paid to the State by the Commonwealth.

The attached Bill sets up a special account in the Treasury into which the moneys paid by the Commonwealth and contributed by the State will be paid. The moneys in the special account will be distributed by the Rural Bank of New South Wales to cereal growers to enable them to continue their operations.

The Bill follows substantially the lines of the Wheatgrowers Relief Act, 1941, of this State.
