(2)

NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through; those to be inserted are printed in black letter.

Lunacy (Amendment).

(2) The Lunacy Act of 1898, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Lunacy Act, 1898-1946.

2. The Lunacy Act, 1898-1945, is amended by inserting 5 at the end of section sixty-seven the following proviso:—

Amendment of Act No. 45, 1898. Sec. 67.

10 Provided that in any case in which a person has been removed to and is kept in a hospital for the criminal insane in pursuance of a direction given by the Colonial Secretary under the provisions of this section, the Colonial Secretary may at any time, if in his opinion the circumstances so warrant, issue his order to the superintendent of such hospital directing that such person be removed to and kept in such hospital for the insane (not being a hospital 15 for the criminal insane) as he may appoint.

(Procedure in reference to certain persons under detention appearing insane.)

3. The Lunacy Act, 1898-1945, is further amended by inserting next after section sixty-seven the following new section:—

Further amendment of Act No. 45, 1898. New sec. 67A.

20 67A. (1) In any case in which a person charged with an offence for which he has not been tried (hereinafter called "the patient") is detained in a hospital for the insane or in a hospital for the criminal insane the Attorney-General, if he is of opinion that the question whether the patient is fit 25 to plead if put upon his trial should be determined by a jury, may by order under his hand direct that the patient be removed from the hospital in which he is detained to some gaol appointed by the Attorney-General and specified in the order.

Order by Attorney-General for trial of issue whether patient fit to plead if placed upon trial.

30 (2) Such order shall be a sufficient warrant for the removal of the patient from the hospital in which he is detained and for his detention in the gaol appointed by the Attorney-General and specified in the order.

35 (3) The Attorney-General may further order that a jury of twelve persons be empanelled for trial of an issue whether the patient is fit to plead if placed upon his trial.

Lunacy (Amendment).

(4) The said issue shall be tried at a time and place appointed by the Attorney-General before a judge of the Supreme Court or a chairman of Quarter Sessions.
