PHILOSOPHY

The first part of the work is devoted to a study of the history of the philosophy of mind. It begins with a consideration of the ancient Greek philosophers, and then proceeds to the medieval and modern periods. The author discusses the various theories of mind, and the ways in which they have been developed and modified over time.

The second part of the work is devoted to a study of the philosophy of language. It begins with a consideration of the ancient Greek philosophers, and then proceeds to the medieval and modern periods. The author discusses the various theories of language, and the ways in which they have been developed and modified over time.
