(3) The State Coal Mines Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the State Coal Mines Act, 1912-1948.

Reconstitution and renaming of State Coal
Mines
Control Board.

2. (1) Upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette (which day is in this Act referred to as the "appointed day"), the State Coal Mines Control Board shall be reconstituted and shall consist of not more than seven members who shall be appointed in accordance with section thirteen of the Principal Act as amended by this section.

As from the appointed day the name of the State Coal Mines Control Board shall be altered and the said Board shall be known as the State Mines Control Authority. Any reference in any Act, proclamation, rule, regulation, by-law or instrument to the State Coal Mines Control Board shall, as from the appointed day, be deemed to be a reference to the State Mines Control Authority.

(2) (a) Nothing contained in this section shall prejudice or affect the continuity of the body corporate constituted under section thirteen of the Principal Act, but the same shall continue notwithstanding the provisions of this section.

(b) The said body corporate shall continue and shall be deemed always to have continued, notwithstanding that there are or have been at any time or times vacancies in the offices of all of the members of the body corporate, or of any one or more of them.

(c) (i) The term of office of the members of the State Coal Mines Control Board in office on the fifteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight, is hereby extended for a period expiring on the appointed day.

(ii) Subparagraph (i) of this paragraph shall be deemed to have commenced upon the fifteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight.

Director of State Coal
Mines.

The Director of State Coal Mines shall be paid such salary, fees and travelling expenses as may be determined by the Governor.

Such salary, fees and travelling expenses shall be deemed to be part of the general cost of administration and execution of this Act.

(2) The Director of State Coal Mines shall be the chief administrative officer of the authority and shall exercise and discharge the powers, authorities, duties and functions conferred or imposed upon him by or under this Act.

State Coal Mines (Amendment).

---

(3) The Minister and the authority may delegate to the Director of State Coal Mines any of his or its powers or functions but such delegation shall not interfere with his or its own execution or performance of these powers and functions. Any such delegation may be revoked or varied by the Minister or the authority.

Committees.

14B. (1) There shall be constituted at each State coal mine a committee which shall consist of three members appointed by the Minister.

One of such members, who shall be the chairman of the committee, shall be a representative of the State Mines Control Authority, one of such members shall be the manager of the mine in respect of which the committee is constituted and the other shall be a representative of the employees elected by the employees of such mine.

Such members (other than the manager of the mine) shall be appointed for a term of three years, shall be eligible for re-appointment and shall be paid such remuneration, fees and travelling expenses as may be determined by the Minister.

Such remuneration, fees and travelling expenses shall be deemed to be part of the general cost of the administration and execution of this Act.

A member (other than the manager of the mine) may be removed from office by the Minister for any cause which appears to him to be sufficient.

At any meeting of a committee two members shall form a quorum.

(2) It shall be the duty of a committee constituted under this section—

(a) to meet at least once in every two weeks;
