5 Act has received, or upon application is entitled to receive from any age, invalid or widow's pension under the Social Services Consolidation Act 1947-1952 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth or any pension payable under the Superannuation Act, 1916-1952, in respect of any 10 period for which such addition is payable under this Act shall, in addition to the deduction, if any, required to be made under the foregoing provisions of this subsection, be deducted from the amount payable to him as a pension under this Act.

(c) by inserting next after subsection one of the same section the following new subsection:—

15 (2) (a) Where it appears to the Registrar that any person referred to in subsection one of this section is entitled to receive but is not in receipt of any age, invalid or widow's pension under the Social Services Consolidation Act 20 1947-1952 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, the Registrar may request that person to make application for such a pension.

(b) Where such person does not make the 25 application referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection within fourteen days after request by the Registrar so to do, or having made, upon the request of the Registrar or otherwise, an application for such a pension which in the opinion of the Tribunal has been rejected on the 30 grounds of misrepresentation made or false information furnished thereupon, the Tribunal may reduce the pension payable to such person by such amount as the Tribunal estimates such person would, but for such misrepresentation or 35 false information, be entitled to receive from age, invalid or widow's pension under the said Act.

Any such reduction shall be made as from 40 such date as the Tribunal may determine. Such date shall be not earlier than the date of such application

application or, where the person has been requested by the Registrar to make an application and has failed to do so, the date of the making of such request.

- 5 (2) Any action of the Tribunal which would have been valid had the amendment of section thirteen made by paragraph (b) of subsection one of this section been in force at the time of such action is hereby validated.

10 5. The Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Act, 1941-1951, is further amended—

- (a) by inserting at the end of subsection three of section 19D the following new paragraph:—

15 In this subsection "owners" shall not, as on and from the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, include any manufacturers of coke or the South Maitland Railways Proprietary Limited.

- 20 (b) by omitting from subsection three of section thirty-two the words "ten pounds" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "fifty pounds".

25 6. (1) The estimate made by the Pensions Tribunal constituted under the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Act, 1941-1951, in accordance with section nineteen of that Act, of the amount required by the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers Superannuation Fund for the period of twelve months commencing on the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, shall be deemed to be varied to the extent necessary

30 to include the amount required for payment of pensions increased or other sums payable out of such Fund by virtue of the operation of this Act, and the estimate as so varied shall for all purposes of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Act, 1941-1952, be 35 deemed to be the estimate of the amount required by such Fund for the aforesaid period of twelve months for payment of pensions and other sums chargeable upon or payable out of that Fund and for the provision of a reserve in connection with that Fund.

Further amendment of Act No. 45, 1941.

5 Act has received, or upon application is entitled
to receive from any age, invalid or widow's
pension under the Social Services Consolidation Act 1947-1952 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth or any pension payable under the Super-
10 period for which such addition is payable under
this Act shall, in addition to the deduction, if
provisions of this subsection, be deducted from
the amount payable to him as a pension under
this Act.

(c) by inserting next after subsection one of the
same section the following new subsection:—

that any person referred to in subsection one
of this section is entitled to receive but is not
in receipt of any age, invalid or widow's pension
20 1947-1952 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, the Registrar may request that person
to make application for such a pension.

(b) Where such person does not make the
25 application referred to in paragraph (a) of this
subsection within fourteen days after request by
30 opinion of the Tribunal has been rejected on the
information furnished thereupon, the Tribunal
may reduce the pension payable to such person
by such amount as the Tribunal estimates such
false information, be entitled to receive from
