DAIRY INDUSTRY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1951.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE object of this Bill is to make provision for the total amount of table margarine which may be manufactured in New South Wales (otherwise than for export from the Commonwealth) to be increased from 1,248 tons per annum to 2,500 tons per annum.

Provision has also been made enabling the Minister to vary current licenses to permit increased amounts of margarine to be manufactured thereunder, within the limits of the increased total amount which may be manufactured.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Dairy Industry (Amendment) Bill, 1951, is intended to amend the Dairy Industry Act, 1946, in order to give effect to the recommendations of the Dairy Commission, which were contained in its report published on the 15th July 1950. The Commission's report recommended that the Dairy Industry Act, 1946, should be amended so as to provide for the appointment of a Dairy Commissioner, to be known as the Dairy Commissioner for India, and to give him powers to regulate the production, distribution and sale of milk and milk products in the States. The Commission also recommended that the Dairy Industry Act, 1946, should be amended so as to provide for the appointment of a Dairy Commissioner for each State, to be known as the Dairy Commissioner for that State, and to give him powers to regulate the production, distribution and sale of milk and milk products in that State. The Commission further recommended that the Dairy Industry Act, 1946, should be amended so as to provide for the appointment of a Dairy Commissioner for each Union Territory, to be known as the Dairy Commissioner for that Union Territory, and to give him powers to regulate the production, distribution and sale of milk and milk products in that Union Territory. The Commission also recommended that the Dairy Industry Act, 1946, should be amended so as to provide for the appointment of a Dairy Commissioner for each State and Union Territory, to be known as the Dairy Commissioner for that State or Union Territory, and to give him powers to regulate the production, distribution and sale of milk and milk products in that State or Union Territory. The Commission further recommended that the Dairy Industry Act, 1946, should be amended so as to provide for the appointment of a Dairy Commissioner for each State and Union Territory, to be known as the Dairy Commissioner for that State or Union Territory, and to give him powers to regulate the production, distribution and sale of milk and milk products in that State or Union Territory.
