(b) A person shall not, by reason of the operation of the amendments made by such paragraphs, be guilty of an offence against the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1948, as amended by subsequent Acts, in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by him before the commencement of this Act if he would not have been so guilty had such amendments not been made.

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

3. The Principal Act is further amended—Further amendment of Act No.
25, 1948.

- (a) by inserting next after section twenty-four the following new section:—

New sec.
24A.

24A. (1) This section applies to any prescribed premises other than shared accommodation which were in existence on the thirty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, and the fair rents of which are fixed by a determination or were, immediately before the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1951, fixed by section fifteen of this Act as enacted immediately before such commencement.

Determination based on
out-goings.

(2) The lessor of any prescribed premises to which this section applies may make application in writing—

- (a) where the premises are situated within, or partly within and partly outside, the Metropolitan Area—to the Controller; or
- (b) where the premises are situated wholly outside the Metropolitan Area—to the clerk of the Fair Rents Board nearest to the premises, for an increase in the fair rent of the premises pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(3) The Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, shall thereupon make an assessment of the fair rent of the premises by adding to the existing fair rent thereof, calculated on an annual basis, the amount by which he is satisfied that the lessor's liability in respect of such premises and fixtures thereon

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

thereon for annual rates and insurance premiums and for the annual cost of repairs, maintenance and renewals has increased since—

- (a) the date of the last determination of the fair rent of the premises; or
- (b) if there has been no determination—the date by reference to which the fair rent of the premises was fixed under section fifteen of this Act as enacted immediately before the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1951.

(4) (a) Notice of the fair rent so assessed shall be given in writing by the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, to the lessee of the premises.

The fair rent so assessed may be expressed on a weekly basis or on such other basis as the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, may determine.

(b) Such notice shall specify a date not less than twenty-eight days from the date on which the notice is given before which objection to the fair rent so assessed may be lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, by the lessee of the premises.

(5) (a) If no such objection is lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, before the date so specified—

- (i) the rent specified in the notice of assessment shall, as from the date so specified and until varied in pursuance of this Part, be the fair rent of the premises in
all

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

all respects as if the same had been determined by a Fair Rents Board in accordance with this Part;

- (ii) notice that the rent specified in the notice of assessment is to be the fair rent of the premises as from the date so specified shall be given by the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, to the lessor and lessee of the premises.

(b) If any such objection is lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, before the date so specified, the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, shall refer the lessor's application to the Fair Rents Board nearest to the premises.

(6) Any application made to the Controller or the clerk of a Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, pursuant to subsection two of this section may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection three of this section, at any time be referred by him of his own motion to the Fair Rents Board nearest to the prescribed premises.

(7) Any reference to a Fair Rents Board under paragraph (b) of subsection five or under subsection six of this section shall be deemed to be—

(a) where the fair rent of the premises has been previously fixed by a determination—an application by the lessor to that Fair Rents Board pursuant to section thirty-two of this Act for a variation of the last determination;

(b) where the fair rent of the premises is not fixed by a determination—an application by the lessor to that Fair Rents

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

Rents Board pursuant to section eighteen of this Act to have the fair rent of the premises determined, and shall be dealt with accordingly.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection two of section thirty-two of this Act, application may be made at any time to vary a determination of the fair rent of any prescribed premises made by the Controller or the clerk of a Fair Rents Board and having effect pursuant to subsection five of this section as a determination made by a Fair Rents Board.

Sec. 36.
(Certain payments prohibited.)

- (b) (i) by omitting from paragraph (a) of subsection one of section thirty-six the word "require" where firstly occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "seek";
- (ii) by omitting from the same paragraph the words "require the purchase or exchange of any goods" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "sell, purchase or exchange any goods";
- (iii) by inserting in the second proviso to the same paragraph after the words "No person shall" the words "demand, seek";
- (iv) by omitting from subsection three of the same section the words "been required to purchase or exchange" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "purchased or exchanged";
- (v) by omitting from the same subsection the words "guilty of the contravention" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "from whom the goods or goodwill was purchased or with whom the goods were exchanged";
- (vi) by omitting from the same subsection the words "in accordance with the requirement";

(vii)

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

(vii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection:—

(4) Where a person has, in contravention of this section, sold any goods or goodwill, he may recover in any court of competent jurisdiction, from the person to whom the goods or goodwill was sold, so much of the fair value thereof as exceeds the amount for which the goods or goodwill was sold.

(c) (i) by inserting in subsection one of section fifty-nine after the word "may" where firstly occurring the words "subject to subsection (1A) of this section"; Sec. 59.
(Service of notices.)

(ii) by inserting next after subsection one of the same section the following new subsection:—

(1A) Any notice required by section 24A of this Act to be given to any person may be given—

(a) by delivering the notice to him personally; or

(b) by forwarding the same by post in a registered letter addressed to him at his usual or last-known place of abode or business or at any address notified to the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board as the address at which notices may be given to or served upon him.

4. The Principal Act is further amended—

(a) by inserting at the end of paragraph (b) of subsection five of section sixty-two the following new subparagraph:— Further amendment of Act No. 25, 1948.
Sec. 62.
(Restriction on eviction.)

(ii) that the lessee has become the lessee by reason of an assignment or transfer made after the fourteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, in breach of a term or condition

of

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

of the lease and the transfer or assignment has not been consented to or approved by the lessor;

Sec. 65.
(Notice to quit where dwelling-house sold.)

- (b) (i) by inserting in subsection one of section sixty-five after the words "purchase thereof" wherever occurring the words "or any person claiming under or through such lessor (whether such claim arises before or after the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1951)";
- (ii) by omitting from the proviso to the same subsection the words "one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five";
- (iii) by omitting from the same proviso the words "after the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1949";

Sec. 70.
(Court to consider hardship.)

- (c) (i) by inserting in paragraph (a) of the first proviso to subsection two of section seventy after the word "lessor" the words and symbols "(not being himself a lessee of the dwelling-house under a concurrent lease)";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five";
- (iii) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsection:—

(3A) Where the application is made—

- (a) on the ground specified in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) of subsection five of section sixty-two of this Act in reliance upon the lessee's failure to perform or observe a term or condition of the lease against sub-letting by the lessee; or

(b)

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

- (b) on the ground specified in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of the said subsection, the court shall not refuse, in the exercise of the discretion vested in it by subsection one of this section, to make the order unless the court is satisfied that special circumstances exist by reason of which the order should not be made.

- (iv) by inserting in subsection four of the same section after the words "subsection three" the words and symbols "or subsection (3A)".

By Authority:

A. H. PETTIFER, Government Printer, Sydney, 1952.

[8d.]

Section 10. (10)

(b) on the ground specified in sub-section (a) of paragraph (b) of section 10.

the court shall have regard to the expediency of the order and shall not make an order unless the court is satisfied that the order should be made in the circumstances of the case and that the order should be made in the circumstances of the case.

(c) if the court is satisfied that the order should be made in the circumstances of the case and that the order should be made in the circumstances of the case, the court shall make an order in the circumstances of the case.

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

3. The Principal Act is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 25, 1948.

- (a) by inserting next after section twenty-four the following new section:—

New sec. 24A.

24A. (1) This section applies to any prescribed premises other than shared accommodation which were in existence on the thirty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, and the fair rents of which are fixed by a determination or were, immediately before the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1951, fixed by section fifteen of this Act as enacted immediately before such commencement.

Determination based on increased out-goings.

(2) The lessor of any prescribed premises to which this section applies may make application in writing—

(a) where the premises are situated within, or partly within and partly outside, the Metropolitan Area—to the Controller; or

(b) where the premises are situated wholly outside the Metropolitan Area—to the clerk of the Fair Rents Board nearest to the premises,

for an increase in the fair rent of the premises pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(3) The Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, shall thereupon make an assessment of the fair rent of the premises by adding to the existing fair rent thereof, calculated on an annual basis, the amount by which he is satisfied that the lessor's liability in respect of such premises and fixtures thereon

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

thereon for annual rates and insurance premiums and for the annual cost of repairs, maintenance and renewals has increased since—

- (a) the date of the last determination of the fair rent of the premises; or
- (b) if there has been no determination—the date by reference to which the fair rent of the premises was fixed under section fifteen of this Act as enacted immediately before the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1951.

(4) (a) Notice of the fair rent so assessed shall be given in writing by the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, to the lessee of the premises.

The fair rent so assessed may be expressed on a weekly basis or on such other basis as the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, may determine.

(b) Such notice shall specify a date not less than twenty-eight days from the date on which the notice is given before which objection to the fair rent so assessed may be lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, by the lessee of the premises.

(5) (a) If no such objection is lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, before the date so specified—

- (i) the rent specified in the notice of assessment shall, as from the date so specified and until varied in pursuance of this Part, be the fair rent of the premises in
all

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

all respects as if the same had been determined by a Fair Rents Board in accordance with this Part;

- (ii) notice that the rent specified in the notice of assessment is to be the fair rent of the premises as from the date so specified shall be given by the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, to the lessor and lessee of the premises.

(b) If any such objection is lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, before the date so specified, the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, shall refer the lessor's application to the Fair Rents Board nearest to the premises.

(6) Any application made to the Controller or the clerk of a Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, pursuant to subsection two of this section may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection three of this section, at any time be referred by him of his own motion to the Fair Rents Board nearest to the prescribed premises.

(7) Any reference to a Fair Rents Board under paragraph (b) of subsection five or under subsection six of this section shall be deemed to be—

- (a) where the fair rent of the premises has been previously fixed by a determination—an application by the lessor to that Fair Rents Board pursuant to section thirty-two of this Act for a variation of the last determination;
- (b) where the fair rent of the premises is not fixed by a determination—an application by the lessor to that Fair Rents Board

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

Rents Board pursuant to section eighteen of this Act to have the fair rent of the premises determined, and shall be dealt with accordingly.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection two of section thirty-two of this Act, application may be made at any time to vary a determination of the fair rent of any prescribed premises made by the Controller or the clerk of a Fair Rents Board and having effect pursuant to subsection five of this section as a determination made by a Fair Rents Board.

Sec. 36.
(Certain payments prohibited.)

- (b) (i) by omitting from paragraph (a) of subsection one of section thirty-six the word "require" where firstly occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "seek";
- (ii) by omitting from the same paragraph the words "require the purchase or exchange of any goods" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "sell, purchase or exchange any goods";

(b) A person shall not, by reason of the operation of the amendments made by such paragraphs, be 30 guilty of an offence against the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1948, as amended by subsequent Acts, in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by him before the commencement of this Act if he would not have been so guilty had such amendments not been made.

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

3. The Principal Act is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 25, 1948.

(a) by inserting next after section twenty-four the following new section:—

New sec. 24A.

5 24A. (1) This section applies to any prescribed premises other than shared accommodation which were in existence on the thirty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, and the fair rents of which are fixed by a determination or were, immediately before the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1951, fixed by section fifteen of this Act as enacted immediately before such commencement.

Determination based on increased out-goings.

15 (2) The lessor of any prescribed premises to which this section applies may make application in writing—

20 (a) where the premises are situated within, or partly within and partly outside, the Metropolitan Area—to the Controller; or

(b) where the premises are situated wholly outside the Metropolitan Area—to the clerk of the Fair Rents Board nearest to the premises,

25 for an increase in the fair rent of the premises pursuant to the provisions of this section.

30 (3) The Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, shall thereupon make an assessment of the fair rent of the premises by adding to the existing fair rent thereof, calculated on an annual basis, the amount by which he is satisfied that the lessor's liability in respect of such premises and fixtures thereon

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

thereon for annual rates and insurance premiums and for the annual cost of repairs, maintenance and renewals has increased since—

- 5 (a) the date of the last determination of the fair rent of the premises; or
- 10 (b) if there has been no determination—the date by reference to which the fair rent of the premises was fixed under section fifteen of this Act as enacted immediately before the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1951.

15 (4) (a) Notice of the fair rent so assessed shall be given in writing by the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, to the lessee of the premises.

20 The fair rent so assessed may be expressed on a weekly basis or on such other basis as the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, may determine.

25 (b) Such notice shall specify a date not less than twenty-eight days from the date on which the notice is given before which objection to the fair rent so assessed may be lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, by the lessee of the premises.

30 (5) (a) If no such objection is lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, before the date so specified—

35 (i) the rent specified in the notice of assessment shall, as from the date so specified and until varied in pursuance of this Part, be the fair rent of the premises in all

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

all respects as if the same had been determined by a Fair Rents Board in accordance with this Part;

5 (ii) notice that the rent specified in the notice of assessment is to be the fair rent of the premises as from the date so specified shall be given by the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, to the lessor and
10 lessee of the premises.

(b) If any such objection is lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, before the date so specified, the Controller or the clerk of the Fair
15 Rents Board, as the case may be, shall refer the lessor's application to the Fair Rents Board nearest to the premises.

(6) Any application made to the Controller or the clerk of a Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, pursuant to subsection two of this section may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection three of this section, at any time be referred by him of his own motion to the Fair Rents Board nearest to the prescribed
20 premises.

(7) Any reference to a Fair Rents Board under paragraph (b) of subsection five or under subsection six of this section shall be deemed to be—

30 (a) where the fair rent of the premises has been previously fixed by a determination—an application by the lessor to that Fair Rents Board pursuant to section thirty-two of this Act for a variation of the last determination;
35

(b) where the fair rent of the premises is not fixed by a determination—an application by the lessor to that Fair
Rents

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

Rents Board pursuant to section eighteen of this Act to have the fair rent of the premises determined, and shall be dealt with accordingly.

5

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection two of section thirty-two of this Act, application may be made at any time to vary a determination of the fair rent of any prescribed premises made by the Controller or the clerk of a Fair Rents Board and having effect pursuant to subsection five of this section as a determination made by a Fair Rents Board.

10

(b) (i) by omitting from paragraph (a) of subsection one of section thirty-six the word "require" where firstly occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "seek";

(vii)

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

(vii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection:—

(4) Where a person has, in contravention of this section, sold any goods or goodwill, he may recover in any court of competent jurisdiction, from the person to whom the goods or goodwill was sold, so much of the fair value thereof as exceeds the amount for which the goods or goodwill was sold.

10 (c) (i) by inserting in subsection one of section fifty-nine after the word "may" where firstly occurring the words "subject to subsection (1A) of this section";

Sec. 59.
(Service of notices.)

15 (ii) by inserting next after subsection one of the same section the following new subsection:—

(1A) Any notice required by section 24A of this Act to be given to any person may be given—

20 (a) by delivering the notice to him personally; or

25 (b) by forwarding the same by post in a registered letter addressed to him at his usual or last-known place of abode or business or at any address notified to the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board as the address at which notices may be given to or served upon him.

30 4. The Principal Act is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 25, 1948.

(a) by inserting at the end of paragraph (b) of subsection five of section sixty-two the following new subparagraph:—

Sec. 62.
(Restriction on eviction.)

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and expansion. It begins with the first settlers who came to the shores of the Atlantic coast in the early 17th century.

The early years were marked by struggle and hardship. The settlers had to contend with a hostile environment and a lack of resources. Despite these challenges, they persevered and established a new society.

Over time, the colonies grew in number and influence. They began to assert their independence from British rule, leading to the American Revolution. The new nation was born, and it has since become a world power.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

LANDLORD AND TENANT (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1951.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to remove doubts as to the validity of certain fair rent determinations purporting to have been made under the authority of the National Security (Landlord and Tenant) Regulations before the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1948;
- (b) to establish a more informal, more expeditious, and less expensive procedure whereby landlords may obtain increases in the rents of premises to compensate them for increased outgoings on account of rates, insurance, repairs, maintenance and renewals;
- (c) to provide that the special protection afforded tenants till 31st December, 1951, under the proviso to section 65 (1) and under section 70 (2) of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act 1948-1949, is to continue until 31st December, 1954;
- (d) to provide a ground for recovery of premises against a tenant who has become tenant, in breach of covenant, by assignment;
- (e) to prevent certain provisions of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1948-1949, being evaded by use of the device of granting a "concurrent lease" of premises.

The Bill also effects certain minor amendments of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1948-1949, and certain other amendments consequential upon the objects abovementioned.

No. , 1951.

A BILL

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

3. The Principal Act is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 25, 1948.

(a) by inserting next after section twenty-four the following new section:—

New sec. 24A.

5 24A. (1) This section applies to any prescribed premises other than shared accommodation which were in existence on the thirty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, and the fair rents of which are fixed by a determination or were, immediately before the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1951, fixed by section fifteen of this Act as enacted immediately before such commencement.

Determination based on increased out-goings.

15 (2) The lessor of any prescribed premises to which this section applies may make application in writing—

20 (a) where the premises are situated within, or partly within and partly outside, the Metropolitan Area—to the Controller; or

(b) where the premises are situated wholly outside the Metropolitan Area—to the clerk of the Fair Rents Board nearest to the premises,

25 for an increase in the fair rent of the premises pursuant to the provisions of this section.

30 (3) The Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, shall thereupon make an assessment of the fair rent of the premises by adding to the existing fair rent thereof, calculated on an annual basis, the amount by which he is satisfied that the lessor's liability in respect of such premises and fixtures thereon

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

thereon for annual rates and insurance premiums and for the annual cost of repairs, maintenance and renewals has increased since—

- 5 (a) the date of the last determination of the fair rent of the premises; or
- (b) if there has been no determination—
10 the date by reference to which the fair rent of the premises was fixed under section fifteen of this Act as enacted immediately before the commencement of the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act, 1951.

15 (4) (a) Notice of the fair rent so assessed shall be given in writing by the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, to the lessee of the premises.

20 The fair rent so assessed may be expressed on a weekly basis or on such other basis as the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, may determine.

25 (b) Such notice shall specify a date not less than twenty-eight days from the date on which the notice is given before which objection to the fair rent so assessed may be lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, by the lessee of the premises.

30 (5) (a) If no such objection is lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, before the date so specified—

all

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

all respects as if the same had been determined by a Fair Rents Board in accordance with this Part;

5 (ii) notice that the rent specified in the notice of assessment is to be the fair rent of the premises as from the date so specified shall be given by the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, to the lessor and
10 lessee of the premises.

(b) If any such objection is lodged with the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, before the date so specified, the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, shall refer the 15 lessor's application to the Fair Rents Board nearest to the premises.

(6) Any application made to the Controller or the clerk of a Fair Rents Board, as the case may be, pursuant to subsection two of this section may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection three of this section, at any time be referred by him of his own motion to the Fair Rents Board nearest to the prescribed
20 premises.

(7) Any reference to a Fair Rents Board under paragraph (b) of subsection five or under subsection six of this section shall be deemed to be—

30 (a) where the fair rent of the premises has been previously fixed by a determination—an application by the lessor to that Fair Rents Board pursuant to section thirty-two of this Act for a variation of the last determination;
35

(b) where the fair rent of the premises is not fixed by a determination—an application by the lessor to that Fair Rents
Rents

Landlord and Tenant (Amendment).

Rents Board pursuant to section eighteen of this Act to have the fair rent of the premises determined, and shall be dealt with accordingly.

- 5 (8) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection two of section thirty-two of this Act, application may be made at any time to vary a determination of the fair rent of any prescribed premises made by the Controller or the clerk of a Fair Rents Board and having effect pursuant to subsection five of this section as a determination made by a Fair Rents Board.
- 10
- 15 (b) (i) by omitting from paragraph (a) of subsection one of section thirty-six the word "require" where firstly occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "seek";
- 20 (ii) by omitting from the same paragraph the words "require the purchase or exchange of any goods" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "sell, purchase or exchange any goods";

(vii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection:—

5 (4) Where a person has, in contravention of this section, sold any goods or goodwill, he may recover in any court of competent jurisdiction, from the person to whom the goods or goodwill was sold, so much of the fair value thereof as exceeds the amount for which the goods or goodwill was sold.

10 (c) (i) by inserting in subsection one of section fifty-nine after the word "may" where firstly occurring the words "subject to subsection (1A) of this section"; Sec. 59. (Service of notices.)

15 (ii) by inserting next after subsection one of the same section the following new subsection:—

(1A) Any notice required by section 24A of this Act to be given to any person may be given—

20 (a) by delivering the notice to him personally; or

25 (b) by forwarding the same by post in a registered letter addressed to him at his usual or last-known place of abode or business or at any address notified to the Controller or the clerk of the Fair Rents Board as the address at which notices may be given to or served upon him.

30 4. The Principal Act is further amended—

(a) by inserting at the end of paragraph (b) of subsection five of section sixty-two the following new subparagraph:— Further amendment of Act No. 25, 1948. Sec. 62. (Restriction on eviction.)

35 (ii) that the lessee has become the lessee by reason of an assignment or transfer made after the fourteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, in breach of a term or condition of
