

No. , 1952.

A BILL

To amend the Library Act, 1939-1948, in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith.

[MR. HEFFRON;—10 September, 1952.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of 5 the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Library (Amendment) Act, 1952".

Short
title, citation and commencement.

(2) The Library Act, 1939, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Library
10 Act, 1939-1952.

Library (Amendment).

(3) This Act shall be deemed to have commenced upon the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two.

2. The Library Act, 1939-1948, is amended by omitting subsections four and five of section thirteen and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

Amendment of
Act No. 40, 1939.
Sec. 13.
(Subsidy.)

(4) Where a council is eligible for subsidy under this section the subsidy payable to the council in respect of any year shall be—

- 10 (a) an amount equal to one-half of the total amount expended by the council on libraries and library services in that year from—
- (i) rate income, and
- 15 (ii) any advance against subsidy made by the Minister to the council in respect of that year; or
- (b) an amount equivalent to one shilling and sixpence for each person resident within the area of the council,
- 20 whichever is the less.

An advance against subsidy may be made by the Minister to a council in any year in respect of which the Minister considers the council would, on the basis of the council's estimated expenditure on libraries and library services in that year from rate income, be eligible for subsidy under this section.

Any such advance shall be payable upon such conditions and at such times as the Minister may determine.

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

H. ROBBINS,

Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

Legislative Assembly Chamber, Sydney, 14 October, 1952.

and
commencement.

(2) The Library Act, 1939, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Library Act, 1939-1952.

(3)

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

L. J. TULLY,

Acting Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Library (Amendment).

(3) This Act shall be deemed to have commenced upon the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two.

Amendment of
Act No. 40, 1939.

Sec. 13.
(Subsidy.)

2. The Library Act, 1939-1948, is amended by omitting subsections four and five of section thirteen and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

(4) Where a council is eligible for subsidy under this section the subsidy payable to the council in respect of any year shall be—

(a) an amount equal to one-half of the total amount expended by the council on libraries and library services in that year from—

(i) rate income, and

(ii) any advance against subsidy made by the Minister to the council in respect of that year; or

(b) an amount equivalent to one shilling and sixpence for each person resident within the area of the council,

whichever is the less.

An advance against subsidy may be made by the Minister to a council in any year in respect of which the Minister considers the council would, on the basis of the council's estimated expenditure on libraries and library services in that year from rate income, be eligible for subsidy under this section.

Any such advance shall be payable upon such conditions and at such times as the Minister may determine.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

J. NORTHCOTT,
Governor.
