prosecution for an offence against or failure to comply with the provisions of this Act or the regulations thereunder.

New sec.
11A.

- (b) by inserting next after the same section the following new section:—

Notice of intention to erect buildings.

11A. No person shall commence to erect a building intended to be used by rural workers for dining, cooking, sleeping or bathing unless he has, not less than one month before so commencing, given to the Under Secretary written notice on the prescribed form, accompanied by such other information as may be prescribed, of his intention so to do by posting such notice to the Under Secretary or leaving it at such address as the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, direct.

Sec. 12.

New sec.
12A.

12A. (1) There shall be constituted a Rural Workers Accommodation Advisory Committee which shall have and may exercise the powers and functions conferred upon it by or under this section.

Rural Workers Accommodation Advisory Committee.

(2) (a) The Committee shall consist of three members appointed by the Governor.

(b) Of the members so appointed—

(i) one member shall be nominated by the Minister to be chairman;

(ii) one member shall be representative of the persons required by this Act to provide accommodation for rural workers; and

(iii) one member shall be representative of rural workers.

(c) If the chairman is unable to attend any meeting of the Committee he may appoint a person to attend and act for him at such meeting and for all purposes such person when so acting shall be deemed to be the chairman of the Committee.

(d) Subject to this section—

(i) each member shall hold office for a term of five years; and

(ii) a member shall be eligible from time to time for re-appointment upon the expiration of his term of office.

(e) Members shall be entitled to receive such remuneration or fees for their services as may be fixed from time to time by the Governor.

Each

Rural Workers Accommodation (Amendment).

Each member shall be entitled to receive travelling expenses at such rate as the Governor may from time to time determine.

(f) On the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of a member a person appointed to fill the vacant office shall, subject to this section, hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term of the vacant office.

(g) In the case of illness or absence of a member, other than the chairman, the Governor may appoint a deputy to act in the place of such member during his illness or absence. Any deputy appointed under this paragraph whilst acting as such deputy shall have and may exercise all the powers, duties and functions of the member in whose place he acts.

(h) The Governor may remove from office or suspend any member.

(3) The Committee shall have power to—

- (a) investigate and make recommendations to the Minister in respect of special measures necessary for the proper accommodation of rural workers;
- (b) review, when required by the Minister, applications for exemption, wholly or in part, from compliance with this Act and the regulations thereunder and make recommendations to the Minister in connection therewith; and
- (c) investigate and furnish to the Minister a report and recommendation with respect to any matter or matters relative to the accommodation of rural workers which may be referred to the Committee by the Minister.

time to rebuild or repair the same, or to remove the danger of continuance of such disease, or where premises have been newly 10 established and there has not been a reasonable or sufficient time to erect a new building, temporary accommodation may be provided for such workers in tents or other structures of a temporary nature; but proper and sufficient accommodation shall 15 be erected within twelve months from the time of the causes aforesaid or within such extended time as may be allowed by the Minister.

20 (xviii) by omitting subsection four of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

25 (4) (a) The obligation to provide the buildings shall lie upon the owner of the premises as well as upon the person entitled to the immediate possession of the premises.

30 The obligation to comply with the other requirements of this section shall lie upon the owner of the premises, the person entitled to the immediate possession of the premises and also the employer of the rural workers, except where such employer is a person other than the owner or person entitled to the immediate possession of the premises, who, by agreement with such 35 owner or person, is carrying out work in connection with the shearing or crutching of sheep on the premises on behalf of such owner or person.

(b)

RURAL WORKERS ACCOMMODATION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1951.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE main objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to provide for the establishment of a Rural Workers Accommodation Advisory Committee;
- (b) to provide that the obligation to comply with the requirements of section 7 of the Act (other than the provision of buildings) shall, in certain cases, be upon the owner of the premises as well as upon the employer of the rural workers and the person entitled to the immediate possession of the premises;
- (c) to require that, where five or more rural workers are employed on premises, accommodation shall, unless an exemption is granted by the Minister, be provided for them on the premises. Under the present provisions of the Act the obligation to provide accommodation only arises where the workers reside on the premises and is avoided by a stipulation in the contract of employment that the workers are to reside elsewhere than on the premises;
- (d) to provide that after a date to be proclaimed cane field workers shall not, for the purposes of the Act, be regarded as temporary workers;
- (e) to limit the right to prosecute for breaches of the Act and the regulations to inspectors authorised by the Minister and secretaries of registered industrial unions of employers and employees;
- (f) to extend the definitions of "Owner" and "Pastoral occupation";
- (g) to extend the operation of the Act to the whole State;
- (h) to make further provision in relation to the nature and type of accommodation and equipment to be provided for rural workers;
- (i) to provide for matters of a supplementary or machinery nature.

No. , 1951.
