PART II.

AMENDMENT OF THE VALUATION OF LAND ACT, 1916, AS AMENDED BY SUBSEQUENT ACTS.

Citation.

2. The Valuation of Land Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Valuation of Land Act, 1916-1951.

Amendment of Act No.
2, 1916.

3. The Valuation of Land Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

Sec. 2.
(Date of commencement.)

(a) by inserting in section two after the word “district” the words “or any part of a district”;

Sec. 4 (1).
(Definitions.)

(b) by inserting in subsection one of section four next after the definition of “Minister” the following new definition:—

“Municipality” includes a City.

Sec. 5.
(Improved value of land.)

(c) by inserting at the end of section five the following new subsection:—

(2) In determining the improved value of any land being premises occupied for trade, business, or manufacturing purposes, such value shall not include the value of any plant, machines, tools, or other appliances which are not fixed to the premises or which are only so fixed that they may be removed from the premises without structural damage thereto.

---

- (d) by inserting at the end of section seven the following new subsection:—
- Sec. 7.
(Assessed annual value.)
- (2) In determining the assessed annual value of any land being premises occupied for trade, business, or manufacturing purposes such value shall not include the value of any plant, machines, tools, or other appliances which are not fixed to the premises or which are only so fixed that they may be removed from the premises without structural damage thereto.
- (e) by omitting subsection one of section eighteen and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—
- Sec. 18.
(When valuation made.)
- (1) A valuation, other than a valuation made under section seventy of this Act, shall be deemed to be made as at the date on which the official valuer records the valuation made by him. The valuation and the date on which it was made shall be entered in the valuation roll as soon as practicable after approval by or on behalf of the valuer-general and shall be signed or initialled by the valuer-general or an officer approved in that behalf by the valuer-general. The valuation roll so signed or initialled shall be conclusive proof of the making of the valuation on the date shown therein.
- (f) by omitting section twenty and by inserting in lieu thereof the following section:—
- Subst. sec. 20.
20. The following persons, that is to say—
- New valuation on application.
- the holder of an estate in fee simple;
the mortgagee in possession; and
any lessee who is liable to pay rates,
- may, by notice in or to the effect of the prescribed form and on payment of the prescribed fee require the valuer-general to make a new valuation of his land or of his estate or interest therein, as the case may be; and in any such case the new valuation shall be entered in the valuation roll.

Secs. 21-25.
(Interests
of lessors
and lessees.)

- (g) by omitting sections twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four and twenty-five and the short heading thereto and by inserting in lieu thereof the following sections and short headings:—

Fractional interests.

Total value of interests
in land.

21. (1) Where there are more owners than one of the freehold of any land the sum of the values of the interests of all the said owners in the land shall be not less than the amount at which the improved value of the land would be estimated if held by one owner in fee simple.

(2) Where there are more owners than one of a leasehold interest in any land the sum of the values of the interests of all the said owners shall be not less than the amount at which the value of the said leasehold interest would be estimated if held by one lessee.

Interests of lessors and lessees.

Interests
of lessors
and lessees.

22. The value of the interest of a lessor or a lessee in the improved value of land is the capital sum which such interest may be expected to realise if offered for sale on such reasonable terms and conditions as a bona fide seller would require.

Sec. 27 (2).
(Where lands are to be separately valued.)

- (h) by omitting subsection two of section twenty-seven and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

(2) Lands which do not adjoin or which are separated by a road, or are separately owned, shall be separately valued: Provided that the valuer-general may include in one valuation lands owned by the same person and of the same class of tenure but separated by a road if worked as one holding for agricultural or pastoral purposes.

Sec. 133
(1).
(Appeal on question of whether land is ratable.)

- (a) by omitting subsection one of section one hundred and thirty-three and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

(1) This section shall not apply in any area until a valuation list under the Valuation of Land Act, 1916-1951, is furnished to the council of the area in respect of all land within the area: Provided that in any case where any such valuation list is furnished in respect of part only of the area this section shall thereupon apply to and in respect of all land within such part.

(b)

Valuation of Land (Amendment).

---

- (b) by inserting at the end of subsection one of section one hundred and thirty-six the following new proviso:—

Sec. 136.
(Valuation book.)

Provided that where a valuation list is furnished or supplied to the council by the Valuer-General in respect of part only of the area the valuation book shall be constituted by such valuation list (together with any supplementary list so furnished or supplied) as to the land within that part and by the valuation book kept as prescribed under Schedule III of this Act as to the residue of the land within the area.

- (c) (i) by inserting in subsection three of section one hundred and thirty-seven after the figures "1916" the words "in respect of the whole or in respect of part of the land within its area";

Sec. 137.
(Temporary provisions. Schedule III.)

- (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "with respect to that council" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "in respect of the land within the area or within the part of the area included in such valuation list, as the case may require";

- (d) by omitting section 137A;

Sec. 137A.
(Option for shires.)

- (e) by inserting at the end of section 1 of Schedule Three the following words "in respect of which a valuation list has not been furnished to the council by the Valuer-General in accordance with the Valuation of Land Act, 1916-1951";

Schedule III.
Sec. 1.
(Application of Schedule.)

- (f) by omitting subsection (2) of section 10 of the same Schedule and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

Schedule III.
Sec. 10 (2).
(Separate valuations.)

(2) Lands which do not adjoin or which are separated by a road, or are separately owned, shall be separately valued: Provided that lands owned by the same person and of the same class
