Crown Lands (Amendment).

Amendment of Act No.
7, 1913.
New sec. 9A.

2. The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, as amended by subsequent Acts, hereinafter referred to as the Principal Act, is amended by inserting next after section nine the following new section:—

Minister may direct Crown land agent to act in another district, etc.

9A. (1) The Minister may direct a Crown land agent for any land district or land districts to act as Crown land agent for any additional land district or land districts and such person while so acting within the scope of his authority shall have and may exercise and discharge the like powers, authorities, duties and functions as if he were the Crown land agent for such additional land district or land districts.

(2) The Minister may by notification in the Gazette appoint in respect of any particular land office the day or days upon which and the hours during which the Crown land agent is required to attend at such land office for the transaction of business, and the day or days so appointed shall be the land-office days for such land office within the meaning of this Act, and any such notification may in like manner be amended or revoked by the Minister.

Certain notifications to remain in force.

3. Subject to section four of this Act any notification made by the Minister under paragraph (b) of section two of the Land Offices Act, 1942, and in force immediately before the expiration of such Act, shall as from such expiration be deemed to have had force and effect as though such Act had not expired and shall after the commencement of this Act be deemed to be a notification made by the Minister under subsection two of section 9A of the Principal Act.

Validation of certain matters.

4. (1) (a) The land-office days and the hours on each land-office day during which the Crown land agent is required to attend at the land office at Picton for the transaction of business shall be Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each week (exclusive of public holidays) from thirty minutes past nine o'clock in the forenoon to one o'clock in the afternoon and from forty-five minutes past one o'clock to four o'clock in the afternoon.

(b)

Crown Lands (Amendment).

(b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be deemed to have commenced upon the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three.

(2) (a) The land-office days and the hours on each land-office day during which the Crown land agent is required to attend at the land office at Kiama for the transaction of business shall be Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week (exclusive of public holidays) from thirty minutes past nine o'clock in the forenoon to one o'clock in the afternoon and from forty-five minutes past one o'clock to four o'clock in the afternoon.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be deemed to have commenced upon the first day of September, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the provisions of subsection two of section 9A of the Principal Act.

By Authority:

A. H. PETTIFER, Government Printer, Sydney, 1954.

The first part of the report deals with the general conditions of the country, and the second part with the details of the various districts. The first part is divided into two sections, the first of which deals with the general conditions of the country, and the second with the details of the various districts. The second part is divided into two sections, the first of which deals with the details of the various districts, and the second with the details of the various districts.

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.
