

New South Wales

ANNO TERTIO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. 35, 1954.

An Act to amend the law of evidence; for this purpose to amend the Evidence Act, 1898, and certain other Acts in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 29th November, 1954.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954." Short title and citation.

(2) The Evidence Act, 1898, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Evidence Act, 1898-1954.

Evidence (Amendment).

(3) The Matrimonial Causes Act 1899, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1899-1954.

Amendment of Act No. 11, 1898.
Sec. 3.
(Interpretation.)

2. The Evidence Act, 1898, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

- (a) (i) by inserting in section three after the word "Act," the words "other than Part IIA,";
- (ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection:—

(2) Nothing in the amendments made to this Act by the Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954, prejudices the admissibility of any evidence which would apart from those amendments be admissible.

New Part IIA.

- (b) by inserting next after Part II the following new Part:—

PART IIA.

Admissibility of Documentary Evidence as to Facts in Issue.

Interpretation.
cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 6 (1).

14A. In this Part of this Act—

"Court" means the court, judge, justice of the peace, arbitrator or person before whom proceedings are held or taken.

"Document" includes books, maps, plans, drawings and photographs.

"Proceedings" means any proceedings or inquiry in which evidence is or may be given, and includes an arbitration.

"Statement" includes any representation of fact, whether made in words or otherwise.

Admissibility of documentary evidence as to facts in issue.
cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 1.

14B. (1) In any civil proceedings without a jury where direct oral evidence of a fact would be admissible, any statement made by a person in a document and tending to establish that fact shall,

Evidence (Amendment).

shall, on production of the original document, be admissible as evidence of that fact if the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—

(i) if the maker of the statement either—

(a) had personal knowledge of the matters dealt with by the statement; or

(b) where the document in question is or forms part of a record purporting to be a continuous record, made the statement (in so far as the matters dealt with thereby are not within his personal knowledge) in the performance of a duty to record information supplied to him by a person who had, or might reasonably be supposed to have, personal knowledge of those matters; and

Provided that the condition that the maker of the statement shall be called as a witness need not be satisfied if he is dead, or unfit by reason of his bodily or mental condition to attend as a witness, or if he is beyond the seas and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his attendance, or if all reasonable efforts to find him have been made without success.

(2) In any civil proceedings without a jury, the court may at any stage of the proceedings, if having regard to all the circumstances of the case it is satisfied that undue delay or expense would otherwise be caused,

Evidence (Amendment).

caused, order that such a statement as is mentioned in subsection one of this section shall be admissible as evidence or may, without any such order having been made, admit such a statement in evidence—

- (a) notwithstanding that the maker of the statement is available but is not called as a witness;
- (b) notwithstanding that the original document is not produced, if in lieu thereof there is produced a copy of the original document or of the material part thereof certified to be a true copy in such manner as may be specified in the order or as the court may approve, as the case may be.

(3) Nothing in this section shall render admissible as evidence any statement made by a person interested at a time when proceedings were pending or anticipated involving a dispute as to any fact which the statement might tend to establish.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a statement in a document shall not be deemed to have been made by a person unless the document or the material part thereof was written, made or produced by him with his own hand, or was signed or initialled by him or otherwise recognised by him in writing as one for the accuracy of which he is responsible.

(5) For the purpose of deciding whether or not a statement is admissible as evidence by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this section, the court may draw any reasonable inference from the form or contents of the document in which the statement is contained, or from any other circumstances, and may, in deciding whether or not a person is fit to attend

as a witness, act on a certificate purporting to be the certificate of a legally qualified medical practitioner.

14c. (1) In estimating the weight, if any, to be attached to a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act, regard shall be had to all the circumstances from which any inference can reasonably be drawn as to the accuracy or otherwise of the statement, and in particular to the question whether or not the statement was made contemporaneously with the occurrence or existence of the facts stated, and to the question whether or not the maker of the statement had any incentive to conceal or misrepresent facts.

Weight to be attached to evidence.
cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6.
c. 28, s. 2.

(2) For the purpose of any rule of law or practice requiring evidence to be corroborated or regulating the manner in which uncorroborated evidence is to be treated, a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act shall not be treated as corroboration of evidence given by the maker of the statement.

(c) by inserting in Part III next before section fifteen the following new section:—

New sec.
14d.

14d. Notwithstanding any rule of law, neither the evidence of any person nor any statement made out of court by any person shall be inadmissible in any legal proceeding by reason of the fact that it is tendered with the object of proving or that it proves or tends to prove that marital intercourse did or did not take place at any time or during any period between that person and a person who is or was his or her wife or husband or that any child is or was or is not or was not their legitimate child.

Admissibility of evidence or statements as to access by husband or wife.

Presump-
tions as to documents twenty years old.
cf. 1 & 2
Geo. 6.
c. 28, s. 4.

16A. In any legal proceeding there shall, in the case of a document proved, or purporting, to be not less than twenty years old, be made any presumption which immediately before the commencement of the Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954, would have been made in the case of a document of like character proved, or purporting, to be not less than thirty years old.

New sec.
23A.

- (e) by inserting next after section twenty-three the following new section:—

Proof of identity
of person convicted in another State and of convictions.
cf. Tas. 7
Geo. VI.
No. 40, s. 2.

23A. (1) An affidavit purporting to be made by a finger-print expert who is an officer of the police force of any other State or Territory (including the Territory of New Guinea) of the Commonwealth of Australia and in or to the effect of the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Act shall be admissible in evidence for the purpose of proving the identity of any person alleged to have been convicted in that State or Territory of any offence.

(2) Any such affidavit shall be evidence that the person, a copy of whose finger-prints is exhibited to such affidavit—

- (a) is the person who, in any document exhibited to such affidavit and purporting to be a certificate of conviction or certified copy of such conviction, is referred to as having been convicted; and

- (b) has been convicted of the offences mentioned in such affidavit.

Sec. 28.
(Registered deeds, memorials
and wills.)

- (f) by omitting from subsection three of section twenty-eight the words "thirty years" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "twenty years";

(g)

Evidence (Amendment).

- (g) by inserting next after section thirty-five the following new section:— New sec. 35A.

35A. In any legal proceeding an instrument to the validity of which attestation is requisite may, instead of being proved by an attesting witness, be proved in the manner in which it might be proved if no attesting witness were alive: Proof of instrument to validity of which attestation is necessary. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 3.

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to the proof of wills or other testamentary documents.

- (h) by inserting next after section forty-three the following new sections:— New secs. 43A, 43B.

43A. A statement in writing to the effect that wages or salary of any amount have been paid to a person during any period, purporting to be signed by or on behalf of his employer, shall be evidence of the facts therein stated in any proceedings taken by or against that person— Statement of wages to be evidence. cf. 15 & 16 Geo. 6 and 1 Eliz. 2. c. 55, s. 80.

- (a) under the Deserted Wives and Children Act, 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts;
- (b) under the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1899, as amended by subsequent Acts, for maintenance of a wife or child or for alimony; or
- (c) under Part XII or Part XVI of the Child Welfare Act, 1939, as amended by subsequent Acts.

43B. (1) Rules of court of the Supreme Court or of the District Court may be made providing for orders being made at any stage of any action at law directing that specified facts may be proved at the trial by affidavit with or without the attendance of the deponent at the trial for cross-examination. Affidavit evidence of facts in actions at law. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 5.

Any rules so made shall contain a provision that an order shall not be made dispensing with the

the attendance of the deponent for cross-examination if any party desires his attendance for cross-examination.

(2) All rules of court made for the purpose referred to in subsection one of this section shall—

- (a) be published in the Gazette;
- (b) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified in the rules of court;
- (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after the publication thereof if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such rules of court have been laid before such House disallowing any rules of court or part thereof, such rule of court or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.

(3) The power to make rules of court conferred by this section may be exercised—

- (a) in relation to proceedings in the Supreme Court, by a majority of the judges of the Supreme Court;
- (b) in relation to proceedings in the District Courts, by a majority of the District Court judges.

- (i) by inserting next after Part III the following new Part:—

corporation and destroyed, lost, or delivered to a customer after such film was taken;

(b) any bill of exchange, promissory note, cheque, receipt, instrument or document held by the Crown or any prescribed corporation and destroyed, lost, or delivered to a customer after such film was taken; or

(c) any record, document, plan, book or paper belonging to or deposited with the Crown or any prescribed corporation,

shall be admissible in evidence in all cases in which and for all purposes for which the object photographed would have been received upon proof that—

(i) while such book, record, bill of exchange, promissory note, cheque, receipt, instrument or document, plan, book or paper was in the custody or control of the Crown or prescribed corporation, the photographic film was taken thereof in order to keep a permanent record thereof; and

(ii) the object photographed was subsequently destroyed by or in the presence of one of more of the officers or employees of the Crown or prescribed corporation, or was lost or was delivered to a customer.

(2) Proof of compliance with the conditions prescribed by this section may be given by any one or more of the officers or employees of the Crown or prescribed corporation, having knowledge of the taking of the photographic film, of such destruction, loss, or delivery to a customer, or of the making of the print, as the case may be, either orally or by statutory statutory declaration taken and received before any notary public or commissioner for taking affidavits.

(3) Unless the court otherwise orders, a copy of any such declaration duly certified to be a true copy by affidavit made by any notary public or commissioner for taking affidavits shall be admissible in evidence in lieu of the original declaration.

(4) The provisions of this section apply only in respect of books, records, bills of exchange, promissory notes, cheques, receipts, instruments, documents, plans, books and papers which, if they were still in existence or in the possession or custody of the Crown or prescribed corporation, would be not less than twenty years old at the date when the print from the photographic film thereof is tendered in evidence:

Provided that in respect of the ledger record maintained by a prescribed corporation, being a bank, of the transactions by a customer of the bank upon his account with the bank, the foregoing provisions of this subsection shall be read and construed as if the words "twenty years" were omitted therefrom and the words "six years" were inserted in lieu thereof.

(5) In this section—

"Crown" means the Crown in right of the State.

"photographic film" includes any photographic plate, microphotographic film or photostatic negative.

"prescribed corporation" means—

- (a) any statutory body representing the Crown;
- (b) the Rural Bank of New South Wales and any body corporate authorised to carry on banking business

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. 35, 1954.

An Act to amend the law of evidence; for this purpose to amend the Evidence Act, 1898, and certain other Acts in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 29th November, 1954.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954." Short title and citation.

(2) The Evidence Act, 1898, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Evidence Act, 1898-1954.

(3)

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

G. BOOTH,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

(3) The Matrimonial Causes Act 1899, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1899-1954.

Amendment of Act No. 11, 1898.

Sec. 3. (Interpretation.)

2. The Evidence Act, 1898, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

- (a) (i) by inserting in section three after the word "Act," the words "other than Part IIa,";
- (ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection:—

(2) Nothing in the amendments made to this Act by the Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954, prejudices the admissibility of any evidence which would apart from those amendments be admissible.

New Part IIa.

- (b) by inserting next after Part II the following new Part:—

PART IIa.

Admissibility of Documentary Evidence as to Facts in Issue.

14A. In this Part of this Act—

"Court" means the court, judge, justice of the peace, arbitrator or person before whom proceedings are held or taken.

"Document" includes books, maps, plans, drawings and photographs.

"Proceedings" means any proceedings or inquiry in which evidence is or may be given, and includes an arbitration.

"Statement" includes any representation of fact, whether made in words or otherwise.

14B. (1) In any civil proceedings without a jury where direct oral evidence of a fact would be admissible, any statement made by a person in a document and tending to establish that fact shall,

Evidence (Amendment).

shall, on production of the original document, be admissible as evidence of that fact if the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—

(i) if the maker of the statement either—

(a) had personal knowledge of the matters dealt with by the statement; or

(b) where the document in question is or forms part of a record purporting to be a continuous record, made the statement (in so far as the matters dealt with thereby are not within his personal knowledge) in the performance of a duty to record information supplied to him by a person who had, or might reasonably be supposed to have, personal knowledge of those matters; and

Provided that the condition that the maker of the statement shall be called as a witness need not be satisfied if he is dead, or unfit by reason of his bodily or mental condition to attend as a witness, or if he is beyond the seas and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his attendance, or if all reasonable efforts to find him have been made without success.

caused, order that such a statement as is mentioned in subsection one of this section shall be admissible as evidence or may, without any such order having been made, admit such a statement in evidence—

(a) notwithstanding that the maker of the statement is available but is not called as a witness;

(b) notwithstanding that the original document is not produced, if in lieu thereof there is produced a copy of the original document or of the material part thereof certified to be a true copy in such manner as may be specified in the order or as the court may approve, as the case may be.

(3) Nothing in this section shall render admissible as evidence any statement made by a person interested at a time when proceedings were pending or anticipated involving a dispute as to any fact which the statement might tend to establish.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a statement in a document shall not be deemed to have been made by a person unless the document or the material part thereof was written, made or produced by him with his own hand, or was signed or initialled by him or otherwise recognised by him in writing as one for the accuracy of which he is responsible.

(5) For the purpose of deciding whether or not a statement is admissible as evidence by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this section, the court may draw any reasonable inference from the form or contents of the document in which the statement is contained, or from any other circumstances, and may, in deciding whether or not a person is fit to attend

14c. (1) In estimating the weight, if any, to be attached to a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act, regard shall be had to all the circumstances from which any inference can reasonably be drawn as to the accuracy or otherwise of the statement, and in particular to the question whether or not the statement was made contemporaneously with the occurrence or existence of the facts stated, and to the question whether or not the maker of the statement had any incentive to conceal or misrepresent facts.

Weight to be attached to evidence. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 2.

(2) For the purpose of any rule of law or practice requiring evidence to be corroborated or regulating the manner in which uncorroborated evidence is to be treated, a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act shall not be treated as corroboration of evidence given by the maker of the statement.

(c) by inserting in Part III next before section fifteen the following new section:—

New sec. 14d.

14d. Notwithstanding any rule of law, neither the evidence of any person nor any statement made out of court by any person shall be inadmissible in any legal proceeding by reason of the fact that it is tendered with the object of proving or that it proves or tends to prove that marital intercourse did or did not take place at any time or during any period between that person and a person who is or was his or her wife or husband or that any child is or was or is not or was not their legitimate child.

 - (c) any record, document, plan, book or paper belonging to or deposited with the Crown or any prescribed corporation, shall be admissible in evidence in all cases in which and for all purposes for which the object photographed would have been received upon proof that—

- (i) while such book, record, bill of exchange, promissory note, cheque, receipt, instrument or document, plan, book or paper was in the custody or control of the Crown or prescribed corporation, the photographic film was taken thereof in order to keep a permanent record thereof; and
- (ii) the object photographed was subsequently destroyed by or in the presence of one of more of the officers or employees of the Crown or prescribed corporation, or was lost or was delivered to a customer.

(2) Proof of compliance with the conditions prescribed by this section may be given by any one or more of the officers or employees of the Crown or prescribed corporation, having knowledge of the taking of the photographic film, of such destruction, loss, or delivery to a customer, or of the making of the print, as the case may be, either orally or by statutory statutory declaration taken and received before any notary public or commissioner for taking affidavits.

(3) Unless the court otherwise orders, a copy of any such declaration duly certified to be a true copy by affidavit made by any notary public or commissioner for taking affidavits shall be admissible in evidence in lieu of the original declaration.

(4) The provisions of this section apply only in respect of books, records, bills of exchange, promissory notes, cheques, receipts, instruments, documents, plans, books and papers which, if they were still in existence or in the possession or custody of the Crown or prescribed corporation, would be not less than twenty years old at the date when the print from the photographic film thereof is tendered in evidence:

Provided that in respect of the ledger record maintained by a prescribed corporation, being a bank, of the transactions by a customer of the bank upon his account with the bank, the foregoing provisions of this subsection shall be read and construed as if the words "twenty years" were omitted therefrom and the words "six years" were inserted in lieu thereof.

(5) In this section—

"Crown" means the Crown in right of the State.

"photographic film" includes any photographic plate, microphotographic film or photostatic negative.

"prescribed corporation" means—

- (a) any statutory body representing the Crown;
- (b) the Rural Bank of New South Wales and any body corporate authorised to carry on banking business

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. , 1954.

An Act to amend the law of evidence; for this purpose to amend the Evidence Act, 1898, and certain other Acts in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954." Short title and citation.

(2) The Evidence Act, 1898, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Evidence Act, 1898-1954.

NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through; those to be inserted are printed in black letter.

Evidence (Amendment).

(3) The Matrimonial Causes Act 1899, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1899-1954.

2. The Evidence Act, 1898, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

Amendment of Act No. 11, 1898.

(a) (i) by inserting in section three after the word "Act," the words "other than Part IIA,";

Sec. 3. (Interpretation.)

(ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection:—

10 (2) Nothing in the amendments made to this Act by the Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954, prejudices the admissibility of any evidence which would apart from those amendments be admissible.

15 (b) by inserting next after Part II the following new Part:—

New Part IIA.

PART IIA.

Admissibility of Documentary Evidence as to Facts in Issue.

20 14A. In this Part of this Act—

"Court" means the court, judge, justice of the peace, arbitrator or person before whom proceedings are held or taken.

Interpretation. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 6 (1).

25 "Document" includes books, maps, plans, drawings and photographs.

"Proceedings" means any proceedings or inquiry in which evidence is or may be given, and includes an arbitration.

30 "Statement" includes any representation of fact, whether made in words or otherwise.

35 14B. (1) In any civil proceedings without a jury where direct oral evidence of a fact would be admissible, any statement made by a person in a document and tending to establish that fact

Admissibility of documentary evidence as to facts in issue. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 1.

shall,

Evidence (Amendment).

shall, on production of the original document, be admissible as evidence of that fact if the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—

5 (i) if the maker of the statement either—

(a) had personal knowledge of the matters dealt with by the statement; or

10 (b) where the document in question is or forms part of a record purporting to be a continuous record, made the statement (in so far as the matters dealt with thereby are not within his personal knowledge) in the performance of a duty to record information supplied to him by a person who had, or might reasonably be supposed to have, personal knowledge of those matters; and

25 Provided that the condition that the maker of the statement shall be called as a witness need not be satisfied if he is dead, or unfit by reason of his bodily or mental condition to attend as a witness, or if he is beyond the seas and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his attendance, or if all reasonable efforts to find him have been made without success.

30 (2) In any civil proceedings without a jury, the court may at any stage of the proceedings, if having regard to all the circumstances of the case it is satisfied that undue delay or expense would otherwise be caused,

35

Evidence (Amendment).

caused, order that such a statement as is mentioned in subsection one of this section shall be admissible as evidence or may, without any such order having been made, admit such a statement in evidence—

5

(a) notwithstanding that the maker of the statement is available but is not called as a witness;

10

(b) notwithstanding that the original document is not produced, if in lieu thereof there is produced a copy of the original document or of the material part thereof certified to be a true copy in such manner as may be specified in the order or as the court may approve, as the case may be.

15

(3) Nothing in this section shall render admissible as evidence any statement made by a person interested at a time when proceedings were pending or anticipated involving a dispute as to any fact which the statement might tend to establish.

20

(4) For the purposes of this section, a statement in a document shall not be deemed to have been made by a person unless the document or the material part thereof was written, made or produced by him with his own hand, or was signed or initialled by him or otherwise recognised by him in writing as one for the accuracy of which he is responsible.

25

(5) For the purpose of deciding whether or not a statement is admissible as evidence by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this section, the court may draw any reasonable inference from the form or contents of the document in which the statement is contained, or from any other circumstances, and may, in deciding whether or not a person is fit to attend

35

as a witness, act on a certificate purporting to be the certificate of a legally qualified medical practitioner.

5 14c. (1) In estimating the weight, if any, to be attached to a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act, regard shall be had to all the circumstances from which any inference can reasonably be drawn as to the accuracy or otherwise of the statement, and in particular to the question whether or not the statement was made contemporaneously with the occurrence or existence of the facts stated, and to the question whether or not the maker of the statement had any incentive to conceal or misrepresent facts.

Weight to be attached to evidence. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 23, s. 2.

20 (2) For the purpose of any rule of law or practice requiring evidence to be corroborated or regulating the manner in which uncorroborated evidence is to be treated, a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act shall not be treated as corroboration of evidence given by the maker of the statement.

25 (c) by inserting in Part III next before section fifteen the following new section:—

New sec. 14d.

30 14d. Notwithstanding any rule of law, neither the evidence of any person nor any statement made out of court by any person shall be inadmissible in any legal proceeding by reason of the fact that it is tendered with the object of proving or that it proves or tends to prove that marital intercourse did or did not take place at any time or during any period between that person and a person who is or was his or her wife or husband or that any child is or was or is not or was not their legitimate child.

Admissibility of evidence or statements as to access by husband or wife. cf. Vict. Act No. 5647, s. 2. Russell v. Russell [1924] A.C. 687.

(d)

Evidence (Amendment).

(d) by inserting next after section sixteen the following new section:—

New sec.
16A.

5 16A. In any legal proceeding there shall, in the case of a document proved, or purporting, to be not less than twenty years old, be made any presumption which immediately before the commencement of the Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954, would have been made in the case of a document of like character proved, or purporting, to be not less than thirty years old.

Presump-
tions as to documents
twenty years old.
cf. 1 & 2
Geo. 6.
c. 28, s. 4.

10

(e) by inserting next after section twenty-three the following new section:—

New sec.
23A.

15 23A. (1) An affidavit purporting to be made by a finger-print expert who is an officer of the police force of any other State or Territory (including the Territory of New Guinea) of the Commonwealth of Australia and in or to the effect of the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Act shall be admissible in evidence for the purpose of proving the identity of any person alleged to have been convicted in that State or Territory of any offence.

Proof of identity
of person convicted in another State and of convictions.
cf. Tas. 7
Geo. VI.
No. 40, s. 2.

20

25 (2) Any such affidavit shall be evidence that the person, a copy of whose finger-prints is exhibited to such affidavit—

30 (a) is the person who, in any document exhibited to such affidavit and purporting to be a certificate of conviction or certified copy of such conviction, is referred to as having been convicted; and

(b) has been convicted of the offences mentioned in such affidavit.

35 (f) by omitting from subsection three of section twenty-eight the words "thirty years" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "twenty years";

Sec. 28.
(Registered
deeds,
memorials
and wills.)

(g)

Evidence (Amendment).

(g) by inserting next after section thirty-five the following new section:—

New sec.
35A.

5 35A. In any legal proceeding an instrument to the validity of which attestation is requisite may, instead of being proved by an attesting witness, be proved in the manner in which it might be proved if no attesting witness were alive:

Proof of instrument to validity of which attestation is necessary.
cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6.
c. 28, s. 3.

10 Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to the proof of wills or other testamentary documents.

(h) by inserting next after section forty-three the following new sections:—

New secs.
43A, 43B.

15 43A. A statement in writing to the effect that wages or salary of any amount have been paid to a person during any period, purporting to be signed by or on behalf of his employer, shall be evidence of the facts therein stated in any proceedings taken by or against that person—

Statement of wages to be evidence.

the attendance of the deponent for cross-examination if any party desires his attendance for cross-examination.

(2) All rules of court made for the purpose referred to in subsection one of this section shall—

- (a) be published in the Gazette;
- (b) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified in the rules of court;
- (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after the publication thereof if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such rules of court have been laid before such House disallowing any rules of court or part thereof, such rule of court or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.

(3) The power to make rules of court conferred by this section may be exercised—

- (a) in relation to proceedings in the Supreme Court, by a majority of the judges of the Supreme Court;
 - (b) in relation to proceedings in the District Courts, by a majority of the District Court judges.
- (i) by inserting next after Part III the following new Part:—

Amendment of Act No. 11, 1898.

(a) (i) by inserting in section three after the word "Act," the words "other than Part IIA,";

Sec. 3. (Interpretation.)

(ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection:—

10 (2) Nothing in the amendments made to this Act by the Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954, prejudices the admissibility of any evidence which would apart from those amendments be admissible.

15 (b) by inserting next after Part II the following new Part:—

New Part IIA.

PART IIA.

Admissibility of Documentary Evidence as to Facts in Issue.

20 14A. In this Part of this Act—

"Court" means the court, judge, justice of the peace, arbitrator or person before whom proceedings are held or taken.

Interpretation. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 6 (1).

25 "Document" includes books, maps, plans, drawings and photographs.

shall, on production of the original document, be admissible as evidence of that fact if the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—

5 (i) if the maker of the statement either—

(a) had personal knowledge of the matters dealt with by the statement; or

10 (b) where the document in question is or forms part of a record purporting to be a continuous record, made the statement (in so far as the matters dealt with thereby are not within his personal knowledge) in the performance of a duty to record information supplied to him by a person who had, or might reasonably be supposed to have, personal knowledge of those matters; and

(ii) if the maker of the statement is called as a witness in the proceedings:

25 Provided that the condition that the maker of the statement shall be called as a witness need not be satisfied if he is dead, or unfit by reason of his bodily or mental condition to attend as a witness, or if he is beyond the seas and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his attendance, or if all reasonable efforts to find him have been made without success.

(a) notwithstanding that the maker of the statement is available but is not called as a witness;

10

(b) notwithstanding that the original document is not produced, if in lieu thereof there is produced a copy of the original document or of the material part thereof certified to be a true copy in such manner as may be specified in the order or as the court may approve, as the case may be.

15

(3) Nothing in this section shall render admissible as evidence any statement made by a person interested at a time when proceedings were pending or anticipated involving a dispute as to any fact which the statement might tend to establish.

20

(4) For the purposes of this section, a statement in a document shall not be deemed to have been made by a person unless the document or the material part thereof was written, made or produced by him with his own hand, or was signed or initialled by him or otherwise recognised by him in writing as one for the accuracy of which he is responsible.

25

(5) For the purpose of deciding whether or not a statement is admissible as evidence by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this section, the court may draw any reasonable inference from the form or contents of the document in which the statement is contained, or from any other circumstances, and may, in deciding whether or not a person is fit to attend

ANNO TERTIO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. , 1954.

An Act to amend the law of evidence; for this purpose to amend the Evidence Act, 1898, and certain other Acts in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954." Short title and citation.

(2) The Evidence Act, 1898, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Evidence Act, 1898-1954.

Evidence (Amendment).

(3) The Matrimonial Causes Act 1899, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1899-1954.

2. The Evidence Act, 1898, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

Amendment of Act No. 11, 1898.

(a) (i) by inserting in section three after the word "Act," the words "other than Part IIA,";

Sec. 3. (Interpretation.)

(ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection:—

10 (2) Nothing in the amendments made to this Act by the Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954, prejudices the admissibility of any evidence which would apart from those amendments be admissible.

15 (b) by inserting next after Part II the following new Part:—

New Part IIA.

PART IIA.

Admissibility of Documentary Evidence as to Facts in Issue.

20 14A. In this Part of this Act—

"Court" means the court, judge, justice of the peace, arbitrator or person before whom proceedings are held or taken.

Interpretation. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 6 (1).

25 "Document" includes books, maps, plans, drawings and photographs.

"Proceedings" means any proceedings or inquiry in which evidence is or may be given, and includes an arbitration.

30 "Statement" includes any representation of fact, whether made in words or otherwise.

35 14B. (1) In any civil proceedings without a jury where direct oral evidence of a fact would be admissible, any statement made by a person in a document and tending to establish that fact

Admissibility of documentary evidence as to facts in issue. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 1.

shall,

Evidence (Amendment).

shall, on production of the original document, be admissible as evidence of that fact if the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—

5 (i) if the maker of the statement either—

(a) had personal knowledge of the matters dealt with by the statement; or

10 (b) where the document in question is or forms part of a record purporting to be a continuous record, made the statement (in so far as the matters dealt with thereby are not within his personal knowledge) in the performance of a duty to record information supplied to him by a person who had, or might reasonably be supposed to have, personal knowledge of those matters; and

(ii) if the maker of the statement is called as a witness in the proceedings:

25 Provided that the condition that the maker of the statement shall be called as a witness need not be satisfied if he is dead, or unfit by reason of his bodily or mental condition to attend as a witness, or if he is beyond the seas and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his attendance, or if all reasonable efforts to find him have been made without success.

30 (2) In any civil proceedings without a jury, the court may at any stage of the proceedings, if having regard to all the circumstances of the case it is satisfied that undue delay or expense would otherwise be

35 caused,

Evidence (Amendment).

caused, order that such a statement as is mentioned in subsection one of this section shall be admissible as evidence or may, without any such order having been made, admit such a statement in evidence—

5

(a) notwithstanding that the maker of the statement is available but is not called as a witness;

10

(b) notwithstanding that the original document is not produced, if in lieu thereof there is produced a copy of the original document or of the material part thereof certified to be a true copy in such manner as may be specified in the order or as the court may approve, as the case may be.

15

(3) Nothing in this section shall render admissible as evidence any statement made by a person interested at a time when proceedings were pending or anticipated involving a dispute as to any fact which the statement might tend to establish.

20

(4) For the purposes of this section, a statement in a document shall not be deemed to have been made by a person unless the document or the material part thereof was written, made or produced by him with his own hand, or was signed or initialled by him or otherwise recognised by him in writing as one for the accuracy of which he is responsible.

25

(5) For the purpose of deciding whether or not a statement is admissible as evidence by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this section, the court may draw any reasonable inference from the form or contents of the document in which the statement is contained, or from any other circumstances, and may, in deciding whether or not a person is fit to attend

35

as

as a witness, act on a certificate purporting to be the certificate of a legally qualified medical practitioner.

5 14c. (1) In estimating the weight, if any, to be attached to a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act, regard shall be had to all the circumstances from which any inference can reasonably be drawn as to the accuracy or otherwise of the statement, and in particular to the question whether or not the statement was made contemporaneously with the occurrence or existence of the facts stated, and to the question whether or not the maker of the statement had any incentive to conceal or misrepresent facts.

Weight to be attached to evidence.
cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 2.

10 (2) For the purpose of any rule of law or practice requiring evidence to be corroborated or regulating the manner in which uncorroborated evidence is to be treated, a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act shall not be treated as corroboration of evidence given by the maker of the statement.

15 (c) by inserting in Part III next before section fifteen the following new section:—

New sec. 14D.

20 14D. Notwithstanding any rule of law, neither the evidence of any person nor any statement made out of court by any person shall be inadmissible in any legal proceeding by reason of the fact that it is tendered with the object of proving or that it proves or tends to prove that marital intercourse did or did not take place at any time or during any period between that person and a person who is or was his or her wife or husband or that any child is or was or is not or was not their legitimate child.

Admissibility of evidence or statements as to access by husband or wife.

Evidence (Amendment).

- (d) by inserting next after section sixteen the following new section:— New sec. 16A.

5 16A. In any legal proceeding there shall, in the case of a document proved, or purporting, to be not less than twenty years old, be made any presumption which immediately before the commencement of the Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954, would have been made in the case of a document of like character proved, or purporting, to be not less than thirty years old. Presump- tions as to documents twenty years old. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 4.

- 10 (e) by inserting next after section twenty-three the following new section:— New sec. 23A.

15 23A. (1) An affidavit purporting to be made by a finger-print expert who is an officer of the police force of any other State or Territory (including the Territory of New Guinea) of the Commonwealth of Australia and in or to the effect of the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Act shall be admissible in evidence for the purpose of proving the identity of any person alleged to have been convicted in that State or Territory of any offence. Proof of identity of person convicted in another State and of convictions. cf. Tas. 7 Geo. VI. No. 40, s. 2.

20 (2) Any such affidavit shall be evidence that the person, a copy of whose finger-prints is exhibited to such affidavit—

25 (a) is the person who, in any document exhibited to such affidavit and purporting to be a certificate of conviction or certified copy of such conviction, is referred to as having been convicted; and

30 (b) has been convicted of the offences mentioned in such affidavit.

5 (2) All rules of court made for the purpose referred to in subsection one of this section shall—

- (a) be published in the Gazette;
 (b) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified in 10 the rules of court;
 (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after the publication thereof if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within 15 fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such 20 rules of court have been laid before such House disallowing any rules of court or part thereof, such rule of court or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.

(3) The power to make rules of court conferred by this section may be exercised—

- (a) in relation to proceedings in the Supreme Court, by a majority of the judges of the Supreme Court;
 (b) in relation to proceedings in the 30 District Courts, by a majority of the District Court judges.

A BILL

To amend the law of evidence; for this purpose to amend the Evidence Act, 1898, and certain other Acts in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith.

[MR. SHEAHAN;—21 September, 1954.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954." Short title and citation.

(2) The Evidence Act, 1898, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Evidence Act, 1898-1954.

Evidence (Amendment).

(3) The Matrimonial Causes Act 1899, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1899-1954.

2. The Evidence Act, 1898, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended— Amendment of Act No. 11, 1898.

(a) (i) by inserting in section three after the word "Act," the words "other than Part IIA,"; Sec. 3. (Interpretation.)

(ii) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection:—

10 (2) Nothing in the amendments made to this Act by the Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954, prejudices the admissibility of any evidence which would apart from those amendments be admissible.

15 (b) by inserting next after Part II the following new Part:— New Part IIA.

PART IIA.

Admissibility of Documentary Evidence as to Facts in Issue.

20 14A. In this Part of this Act—

"Court" means the court, judge, justice of the peace, arbitrator or person before whom proceedings are held or taken. Interpretation. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 6 (1).

25 "Document" includes books, maps, plans, drawings and photographs.

"Proceedings" means any proceedings or inquiry in which evidence is or may be given, and includes an arbitration.

30 "Statement" includes any representation of fact, whether made in words or otherwise.

35 14B. (1) In any civil proceedings without a jury where direct oral evidence of a fact would be admissible, any statement made by a person in a document and tending to establish that fact shall, Admissibility of documentary evidence as to facts in issue. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 1.

Evidence (Amendment).

shall, on production of the original document, be admissible as evidence of that fact if the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—

5 (i) if the maker of the statement either—

(a) had personal knowledge of the matters dealt with by the statement; or

10 (b) where the document in question is or forms part of a record purporting to be a continuous record, made the statement (in so far as the matters dealt with thereby are not within his personal knowledge) in the performance of a duty to record information supplied to him by a person who had, or might reasonably be supposed to have, personal knowledge of those matters; and

(ii) if the maker of the statement is called as a witness in the proceedings:

25 Provided that the condition that the maker of the statement shall be called as a witness need not be satisfied if he is dead, or unfit by reason of his bodily or mental condition to attend as a witness, or if he is beyond the seas and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his attendance, or if all reasonable efforts to

30 find him have been made without success.

(2) In any civil proceedings without a jury, the court may at any stage of the proceedings, if having regard to all the circumstances of the case it is satisfied that

35 undue delay or expense would otherwise be caused,

Evidence (Amendment).

5 caused, order that such a statement as is mentioned in subsection one of this section shall be admissible as evidence or may, without any such order having been made, admit such a statement in evidence—

- (a) notwithstanding that the maker of the statement is available but is not called as a witness;
- 10 (b) notwithstanding that the original document is not produced, if in lieu thereof there is produced a copy of the original document or of the material part thereof certified to be a true copy in such manner as may be
- 15 specified in the order or as the court may approve, as the case may be.

(3) Nothing in this section shall render admissible as evidence any statement made by a person interested at a time when proceedings were pending or anticipated involving a dispute as to any fact which the statement might tend to establish.

20

(4) For the purposes of this section, a statement in a document shall not be deemed to have been made by a person unless the document or the material part thereof was written, made or produced by him with his own hand, or was signed or initialled by him or otherwise recognised by him in writing as one for the accuracy of which he is responsible.

25

(5) For the purpose of deciding whether or not a statement is admissible as evidence by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this section, the court may draw any reasonable inference from the form or contents of the document in which the statement is contained, or from any other circumstances, and may, in deciding whether or not a person is fit to attend

as a witness, act on a certificate purporting to be the certificate of a legally qualified medical practitioner.

5 14c. (1) In estimating the weight, if any, to be attached to a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act, regard shall be had to all the circumstances from which any inference can reasonably be drawn as to the accuracy or otherwise of the statement, and in particular to the question whether or not the statement was made contemporaneously with the occurrence or existence of the facts stated, and to the question whether or not the maker of the statement had any incentive to conceal or misrepresent facts.

Weight to be attached to evidence. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 2.

20 (2) For the purpose of any rule of law or practice requiring evidence to be corroborated or regulating the manner in which uncorroborated evidence is to be treated, a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act shall not be treated as corroboration of evidence given by the maker of the statement.

25 (c) by inserting in Part III next before section fifteen the following new section:— New sec. 14d.

30 14d. Notwithstanding any rule of law, neither the evidence of any person nor any statement made out of court by any person shall be inadmissible in any legal proceeding by reason of the fact that it is tendered with the object of proving or that it proves or tends to prove that marital intercourse did or did not take place at any time or during any period between that person and a person who is or was his or her wife or husband or that any child is or was or is not or was not their legitimate child.

35

Admissibility of evidence or statements as to access by husband or wife. cf. Viet. Act No. 5647, s. 2. Russell v. Russell [1924] A.C. 687.

(d)

Evidence (Amendment).

- (d) by inserting next after section sixteen the following new section:— New sec. 16A.

5 16A. In any legal proceeding there shall, in the case of a document proved, or purporting, to be not less than twenty years old, be made any presumption which immediately before the commencement of the Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954, would have been made in the case of a document of like character proved, or purporting, to be not less than thirty years old. Presump- tions as to documents twenty years old. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 4.

- 10 (e) by inserting next after section twenty-three the following new section:— New sec. 23A.

15 23A. (1) An affidavit purporting to be made by a finger-print expert who is an officer of the police force of any other State or Territory (including the Territory of New Guinea) of the Commonwealth of Australia and in or to the effect of the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Act shall be admissible in evidence for the purpose of proving the identity of any person alleged to have been convicted in that State or Territory of any offence. Proof of identity of person convicted in another State and of convictions. cf. Tas. 7 Geo. VI. No. 40, s. 2.

20 (2) Any such affidavit shall be evidence that the person, a copy of whose finger-prints is exhibited to such affidavit—

25 (a) is the person who, in any document exhibited to such affidavit and purporting to be a certificate of conviction or certified copy of such conviction, is referred to as having been convicted; and

30

(b) has been convicted of the offences mentioned in such affidavit.

- 35 (f) by omitting from subsection three of section twenty-eight the words "thirty years" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "twenty years": Sec. 28. (Registered deeds, memorials and wills.)

(g)

Evidence (Amendment).

(g) by inserting next after section thirty-five the following new section:— New sec. 35A.

5 35A. In any legal proceeding an instrument to the validity of which attestation is requisite may, instead of being proved by an attesting witness, be proved in the manner in which it might be proved if no attesting witness were alive: Proof of instrument to validity of which attestation is necessary. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 3.

10 Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to the proof of wills or other testamentary documents.

(h) by inserting next after section forty-three the following new sections:— New secs. 43A, 43B.

15 43A. A statement in writing to the effect that wages or salary of any amount have been paid to a person during any period, purporting to be signed by or on behalf of his employer, shall be evidence of the facts therein stated in any proceedings taken by or against that person— Statement of wages to be evidence. cf. 15 & 16 Geo. 6 and 1 Eliz. 2. c. 55, s. 80.

- 20 (a) under the Deserted Wives and Children Act, 1901, as amended by subsequent Acts;
- (b) under the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1899, as amended by subsequent Acts, for maintenance of a wife or child or for alimony; or
- 25 (c) under Part XII or Part XVI of the Child Welfare Act, 1939, as amended by subsequent Acts.

30 43B. (1) Rules of court of the Supreme Court or of the District Court may be made providing for orders being made at any stage of any action at law directing that specified facts may be proved at the trial by affidavit with or without the attendance of the deponent at the trial for cross-examination. Affidavit evidence of facts in actions at law. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 5.

35 Any rules so made shall contain a provision that an order shall not be made dispensing with the

the attendance of the deponent for cross-examination if any party desires his attendance for cross-examination.

5 (2) All rules of court made for the purpose referred to in subsection one of this section shall—

- (a) be published in the Gazette;
- (b) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified in the rules of court;
- 10 (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after the publication thereof if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within
- 15 fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such rules of court have been laid before such House disallowing any rules of court or part thereof, such rule of court or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.

20

(3) The power to make rules of court conferred by this section may be exercised—

25

- (a) in relation to proceedings in the Supreme Court, by a majority of the judges of the Supreme Court;
- (b) in relation to proceedings in the District Courts, by a majority of the District Court judges.

EVIDENCE (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1954.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to make new exceptions to the rules against the admissibility of hearsay evidence by providing, as has been done in England, for statements in certain documents to be admissible in certain circumstances;
- (b) to abolish the rule (known as the rule in Russell v. Russell) limiting the admissibility of evidence by a husband or wife as to access or non-access during marriage;
- (c) to provide that the same presumptions shall be made in the case of documents twenty years old as are now made in the case of documents thirty years old;
- (d) to enable proof (i) of the identity of a person convicted in another State or Territory of the Commonwealth, and (ii) of his convictions in that State or Territory, to be given by affidavit;
- (e) to provide that documents, other than wills, that need to be attested to be valid may be proved as if no attesting witness were alive;
- (f) to provide that statements in writing by an employer as to the amount of wages or salary paid to an employee shall be evidence of the facts stated therein in certain proceedings by or against the employee;
- (g) to authorise the making of rules of court under which courts will be empowered to order that specified facts may be proved in the trial of an action at law by affidavit;
- (h) to prescribe conditions under which prints from photographic films shall be admissible in evidence;
- (i) to require parties to custody proceedings under the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1899, to answer questions tending to show that they have been guilty of adultery if the questions are asked for the purpose of determining their fitness to be given custody of, or access to, children.

(3) Nothing in this section shall render admissible as evidence any statement made by a person interested at a time when proceedings were pending or anticipated involving a dispute as to any fact which the statement might tend to establish.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a statement in a document shall not be deemed to have been made by a person unless the document or the material part thereof was written, made or produced by him with his own hand, or was signed or initialled by him or otherwise recognised by him in writing as one for the accuracy of which he is responsible.

25

(5) For the purpose of deciding whether or not a statement is admissible as evidence by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this section, the court may draw any reasonable inference from the form or contents of the document in which the statement is contained, or from any other circumstances, and may, in deciding whether or not a person is fit to attend

5 14c. (1) In estimating the weight, if any, to be attached to a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act, regard shall be had to all the circumstances from which any inference can reasonably be drawn as to the accuracy or otherwise of the statement, and in particular to the question whether or not the statement was made contemporaneously with the occurrence or existence of the facts stated, and to the question whether or not the maker of the statement had any incentive to conceal or misrepresent facts.

10 (2) For the purpose of any rule of law or practice requiring evidence to be corroborated or regulating the manner in which uncorroborated evidence is to be treated, a statement rendered admissible as evidence by this Part of this Act shall not be treated as corroboration of evidence given by the maker of the statement.

15 (c) by inserting in Part III next before section fifteen the following new section:—

20 14d. Notwithstanding any rule of law, neither the evidence of any person nor any statement made out of court by any person shall be inadmissible in any legal proceeding by reason of the fact that it is tendered with the object of proving or that it proves or tends to prove that marital intercourse did or did not take place at any time or during any period between that person and a person who is or was his or her wife or husband or that any child is or was or is not or was not their legitimate child.

5 16A. In any legal proceeding there shall, in the case of a document proved, or purporting, to be not less than twenty years old, be made any presumption which immediately before the commencement of the Evidence (Amendment) Act, 1954, would have been made in the case of a document of like character proved, or purporting, to be not less than thirty years old. Presump- tions as to documents twenty years old. cf. 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 28, s. 4.

(e) by inserting next after section twenty-three the following new section:— New sec. 23A.

15 23A. (1) An affidavit purporting to be made by a finger-print expert who is an officer of the police force of any other State or Territory (including the Territory of New Guinea) of the Commonwealth of Australia and in or to the effect of the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Act shall be admissible in evidence for the purpose of proving the identity of any person alleged to have been convicted in that State or Territory of any offence. Proof of identity of person convicted in another State and of convictions. cf. Tas. 7 Geo. VI. No. 40, s. 2.

25 (2) Any such affidavit shall be evidence that the person, a copy of whose finger-prints is exhibited to such affidavit—

30 (a) is the person who, in any document exhibited to such affidavit and purporting to be a certificate of conviction or certified copy of such conviction, is referred to as having been convicted; and

(b) has been convicted of the offences mentioned in such affidavit.

the attendance of the deponent for cross-examination if any party desires his attendance for cross-examination.

5 (2) All rules of court made for the purpose referred to in subsection one of this section shall—

- (a) be published in the Gazette;
- (b) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified in the rules of court;
- 10 (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after the publication thereof if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within
- 15 fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such 20 rules of court have been laid before such House disallowing any rules of court or part thereof, such rule of court or part shall thereupon cease to have effect.

(3) The power to make rules of court conferred by this section may be exercised—

25

- (a) in relation to proceedings in the Supreme Court, by a majority of the judges of the Supreme Court;
- (b) in relation to proceedings in the
- 30 District Courts, by a majority of the District Court judges.
