TEXTILE PRODUCTS LABELLING BILL, 1954.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The object of this Bill is to require the affixing of trade descriptions to textile products in order to protect the wool trade against the passing off of artificial fibres as genuine wool.

The proposed legislation is designed to give effect to the decision of a conference of Ministers of the various States of Australia held in Sydney on 8th July, 1953, recommending the introduction of uniform legislation in the States for the branding of textiles on the lines of the Commonwealth regulations under the Commerce (Trade Descriptions) Act.
