

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

ALLAN PICKERING,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 10 December, 1958.*

New South Wales

ANNO SEPTIMO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. , 1958.

An Act to make further provision for the prevention, control and suppression of bush and other fires and for the mitigation of dangers resulting from bush and other fires; for this purpose to amend the Bush Fires Act, 1949, and certain other Acts in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of
5 the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Bush Fires Short title.
(Amendment) Act, 1958".

Bush Fires (Amendment).

(2) The Bush Fires Act, 1949, as amended by the Fire Brigades and Bush Fires (Amendment) Act, 1958, and by this Act, may be cited as the Bush Fires Act, 1949-1958.

5 (3) The Fire Brigades and Bush Fires (Amendment) Act, 1958, is amended by omitting subsection three of section one. Consequential amendment of Act No. 4, 1958, s. 1.

(4) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette. Commencement.

2. The Bush Fires Act, 1949, as amended by the Fire Brigades and Bush Fires (Amendment) Act, 1958, is amended— Amendment of Act No. 31, 1949.

15 (a) by omitting from the definition of "Bush fire danger period" in section six the words "proclaimed as such under this Act" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "fixed or declared by or under this Act to be a bush fire danger period"; Sec. 6. (Interpretation.)

20 (b) by inserting in the same section at the end of the definition of "Eastern and Central Divisions" the words "and includes any part of the Western Division as defined in that Act, as so amended, which is for the time being included within the boundaries of any area";

25 (c) by inserting in the same section at the end of the definition of "Western Division" the words "but does not include any part of that Division which is for the time being included within the boundaries of any area".

Bush Fires (Amendment).

3. The Bush Fires Act, 1949, as amended by the Fire Brigades and Bush Fires (Amendment) Act, 1958, is further amended—

Further amendment of Act No. 31, 1949.

5 (a) by omitting section seven and by inserting in lieu thereof the following section:—

Subst. sec. 7.

10 7. (1) Subject to this section, there shall be a bush fire danger period for the whole State from the first day of October in each year until the thirty-first day of March in the year next ensuing, both days inclusive.

Bush fire danger period.

(2) Subject to subsection three of this section, the council of any area may by resolution declare—

15 (a) any period commencing on or after the first day of April and ending on or before the thirtieth day of September in any year to be a bush fire danger period in its area or in such part of its area as may be specified in the resolution;

20 (b) the bush fire danger period referred to in subsection one of this section to be revoked in respect of the whole or such part of its area as may be specified in the resolution for such period as may be so specified, and may at any time revoke that resolution.

30 (3) (a) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare an area to be a special area for the purposes of subsection two of this section.

(b)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

(b) The council of a special area shall not exercise the power conferred upon it by paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section unless it has first obtained—

5 (i) the written concurrence of the Forestry Commission of New South Wales or a person authorised in that behalf by that Commission to the proposed resolution; or

10 (ii) if that Commission or person does not give that written concurrence within three days after notice requesting concurrence in the proposed resolution has been given to that Commission or
15 person—the written concurrence of the Minister to the proposed resolution.

(4) The Minister may by order published in the Gazette declare—

20 (a) any period commencing on or after the first day of April and ending on or before the thirtieth day of September in any year to be a bush fire danger period on Lord Howe Island or in such part of the Island as may be specified
25 in the order or in the Western Division or in such part of that Division as may be specified in the order;

30 (b) the bush fire danger period applicable to Lord Howe Island pursuant to subsection one of this section to be revoked in respect of the whole or such part of the Island as may be specified in the order for such period as may be so specified;

(c)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

5 (c) the bush fire danger period applicable to the Western Division pursuant to subsection one of this section to be revoked in respect of the whole or such part of the Western Division as may be specified in the order for such period as may be so specified.

10 (5) (a) During any period specified by a council in a resolution under paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section, the provisions of subsection one of this section shall cease to have any force or effect in respect of the area of the council or, where part only of its area is specified in the resolution, in respect of the part so specified.

15 (b) During any period specified by the Minister in an order under paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection four of this section, the provisions of subsection one of this section shall cease to have any force or effect in respect of Lord Howe Island or the Western Division, as the case may be, or where part only of Lord Howe Island or of the Western Division is specified in the order, in respect of the part of that Island or Division, as the case may be, so specified.

25 (6) Where any resolution is passed by a council under subsection two of this section, the council shall—

30 (a) forward to the Minister within twenty-four hours of the meeting at which the resolution was passed a copy of the resolution, together with, where the council is the council of a special area and the resolution is passed pursuant to paragraph (b) of that subsection, a copy of the written concurrence of the Forestry Commission of New South Wales or a person authorised in that behalf by that Commission; and

(b)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

- (b) within the prescribed time cause a notice in the prescribed form of the resolution to be published in at least one newspaper circulating in its area.
- 5 (7) Where the Governor is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient in the interests of public safety or for the protection of any national forest, State forest, timber reserve or
- 10 or any other Act, from damage by fire, the Governor may by proclamation published in the Gazette suspend the operation of paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section, and of any
- 15 resolution passed under that subsection, in such area and for such period as may be specified in the proclamation.
- (b) (i) by omitting paragraph (a) of subsection two of section ten and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph:—
- 20 (a) No person shall during a bush fire danger period light, maintain or use or cause to be lit, maintained or used any fire upon any land in relation to which the bush fire
- 25 danger period applies for the purpose of clearing the land of bush, stubble, scrub, timber, trees, grass or vegetative or other material or for burning any fire break, unless—
- (i) he gives the notices required to be given under subsection one of this
- 30 section;
- (ii) he has obtained a permit authorising him to light, maintain or use the fire from—

10 7. (1) Subject to this section, there shall be a bush fire danger period for the whole State from the first day of October in each year until the thirty-first day of March in the year next ensuing, both days inclusive.
Bush fire danger period.

(2) Subject to subsection three of this section, the council of any area may by resolution declare—

15 (a) any period commencing on or after the first day of April and ending on or before the thirtieth day of September in any year to be a bush fire danger period in its area or in such part of its area as may be specified in the 20 resolution;

(b) the bush fire danger period referred to in subsection one of this section to be 25 revoked in respect of the whole or such part of its area as may be specified in the resolution for such period as may be so specified, and may at any time revoke that resolution.

30 (3) (a) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare an area to be a special area for the purposes of subsection two of this section.

(b)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

(b) The council of a special area shall not exercise the power conferred upon it by paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section unless it has first obtained—

5 (i) the written concurrence of the Forestry Commission of New South Wales or a person authorised in that behalf by that Commission to the proposed resolution; or

10 (ii) if that Commission or person does not give that written concurrence within three days after notice requesting concurrence in the proposed resolution has been given to that Commission or
15 person—the written concurrence of the Minister to the proposed resolution.

(4) The Minister may by order published in the Gazette declare—

20 (a) any period commencing on or after the first day of April and ending on or before the thirtieth day of September in any year to be a bush fire danger period on Lord Howe Island or in such part of the Island as may be specified
25 in the order or in the Western Division or in such part of that Division as may be specified in the order;

30 (b) the bush fire danger period applicable to Lord Howe Island pursuant to subsection one of this section to be revoked in respect of the whole or such part of the Island as may be specified in the order for such period as may be so specified;

(c)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

5 (c) the bush fire danger period applicable to the Western Division pursuant to subsection one of this section to be revoked in respect of the whole or such part of the Western Division as may be specified in the order for such period as may be so specified.

10 (5) (a) During any period specified by a council in a resolution under paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section, the provisions of subsection one of this section shall cease to have any force or effect in respect of the area of the council or, where part only of its area is specified in the resolution, in respect of the part
15 so specified.

(b) During any period specified by the Minister in an order under paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection four of this section, the provisions of subsection one of this section shall cease to have any force or effect in respect of Lord Howe Island or the Western Division, as the case may be, or where part only of Lord Howe Island or of the Western Division is specified in the order, in respect of the part of that Island or Division, as the case may be, so specified.

(6) Where any resolution is passed by a council under subsection two of this section, the council shall—

30 (a) forward to the Minister within twenty-four hours of the meeting at which the resolution was passed a copy of the resolution, together with, where the council is the council of a special area and the resolution is passed pursuant to paragraph (b) of that subsection, a copy of the written concurrence of the Forestry Commission of New South Wales or a person authorised in that behalf by that Commission; and 35

(b)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

(b) within the prescribed time cause a notice in the prescribed form of the resolution to be published in at least one newspaper circulating in its area.

5 (7) Where the Governor is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient in the interests of public safety or for the protection of any national forest, State forest, timber reserve or 10 flora reserve, under the Forestry Act, 1916-1957, or any other Act, from damage by fire, the Governor may by proclamation published in the Gazette suspend the operation of paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section, and of any
15 resolution passed under that subsection, in such area and for such period as may be specified in the proclamation.

(b) (i) by omitting paragraph (a) of subsection two of section ten and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph:—

20 (a) No person shall during a bush fire danger period light, maintain or use or cause to be lit, maintained or used any fire upon any land in relation to which the bush fire
25 danger period applies for the purpose of clearing the land of bush, stubble, scrub, timber, trees, grass or vegetative or other material or for burning any fire break, unless—

30 (i) he gives the notices required to be given under subsection one of this section;

New South Wales

ANNO SEPTIMO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. 37, 1958.

An Act to make further provision for the prevention, control and suppression of bush and other fires and for the mitigation of dangers resulting from bush and other fires; for this purpose to amend the Bush Fires Act, 1949, and certain other Acts in certain respects; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 31st December, 1958.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Bush Fires Short title.
(Amendment) Act, 1958".

Bush Fires (Amendment).

Citation.

(2) The Bush Fires Act, 1949, as amended by the Fire Brigades and Bush Fires (Amendment) Act, 1958, and by this Act, may be cited as the Bush Fires Act, 1949-1958.

Consequential amendment of Act No. 4, 1958, s. 1.

(3) The Fire Brigades and Bush Fires (Amendment) Act, 1958, is amended by omitting subsection three of section one.

Commencement.

(4) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Amendment of Act No. 31, 1949.

2. The Bush Fires Act, 1949, as amended by the Fire Brigades and Bush Fires (Amendment) Act, 1958, is amended—

Sec. 6.
(Interpretation.)

- (a) by omitting from the definition of “Bush fire danger period” in section six the words “proclaimed as such under this Act” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “fixed or declared by or under this Act to be a bush fire danger period”;
- (b) by inserting in the same section at the end of the definition of “Eastern and Central Divisions” the words “and includes any part of the Western Division as defined in that Act, as so amended, which is for the time being included within the boundaries of any area”;
- (c) by inserting in the same section at the end of the definition of “Western Division” the words “but does not include any part of that Division which is for the time being included within the boundaries of any area”.

Bush Fires (Amendment).

3. The Bush Fires Act, 1949, as amended by the Fire Brigades and Bush Fires (Amendment) Act, 1958, is further amended—
Further amendment of Act No. 31, 1949.

- (a) by omitting section seven and by inserting in lieu thereof the following section:—
Subst. sec. 7.

7. (1) Subject to this section, there shall be a bush fire danger period for the whole State from the first day of October in each year until the thirty-first day of March in the year next ensuing, both days inclusive.
Bush fire danger period.

(2) Subject to subsection three of this section, the council of any area may by resolution declare—

- (a) any period commencing on or after the first day of April and ending on or before the thirtieth day of September in any year to be a bush fire danger period in its area or in such part of its area as may be specified in the resolution;
- (b) the bush fire danger period referred to in subsection one of this section to be revoked in respect of the whole or such part of its area as may be specified in the resolution for such period as may be so specified, and may at any time revoke that resolution.

(3) (a) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare an area to be a special area for the purposes of subsection two of this section.

(b)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

(b) The council of a special area shall not exercise the power conferred upon it by paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section unless it has first obtained—

- (i) the written concurrence of the Forestry Commission of New South Wales or a person authorised in that behalf by that Commission to the proposed resolution; or
- (ii) if that Commission or person does not give that written concurrence within three days after notice requesting concurrence in the proposed resolution has been given to that Commission or person—the written concurrence of the Minister to the proposed resolution.

(4) The Minister may by order published in the Gazette declare—

- (a) any period commencing on or after the first day of April and ending on or before the thirtieth day of September in any year to be a bush fire danger period on Lord Howe Island or in such part of the Island as may be specified in the order or in the Western Division or in such part of that Division as may be specified in the order;
- (b) the bush fire danger period applicable to Lord Howe Island pursuant to subsection one of this section to be revoked in respect of the whole or such part of the Island as may be specified in the order for such period as may be so specified;

(c)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

(c) the bush fire danger period applicable to the Western Division pursuant to subsection one of this section to be revoked in respect of the whole or such part of the Western Division as may be specified in the order for such period as may be so specified.

(5) (a) During any period specified by a council in a resolution under paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section, the provisions of subsection one of this section shall cease to have any force or effect in respect of the area of the council or, where part only of its area is specified in the resolution, in respect of the part so specified.

(b) During any period specified by the Minister in an order under paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection four of this section, the provisions of subsection one of this section shall cease to have any force or effect in respect of Lord Howe Island or the Western Division, as the case may be, or where part only of Lord Howe Island or of the Western Division is specified in the order, in respect of the part of that Island or Division, as the case may be, so specified.

(6) Where any resolution is passed by a council under subsection two of this section, the council shall—

(a) forward to the Minister within twenty-four hours of the meeting at which the resolution was passed a copy of the resolution, together with, where the council is the council of a special area and the resolution is passed pursuant to paragraph (b) of that subsection, a copy of the written concurrence of the Forestry Commission of New South Wales or a person authorised in that behalf by that Commission; and

(b)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

- (b) within the prescribed time cause a notice in the prescribed form of the resolution to be published in at least one newspaper circulating in its area.

(7) Where the Governor is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient in the interests of public safety or for the protection of any national forest, State forest, timber reserve or flora reserve, under the Forestry Act, 1916-1957, or any other Act, from damage by fire, the Governor may by proclamation published in the Gazette suspend the operation of paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section, and of any resolution passed under that subsection, in such area and for such period as may be specified in the proclamation.

Sec. 10.

(Requirements to be complied with by persons lighting certain classes of fires.)

- (b) (i) by omitting paragraph (a) of subsection two of section ten and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph:—

(a) No person shall during a bush fire danger period light, maintain or use or cause to be lit, maintained or used any fire upon any land in relation to which the bush fire danger period applies for the purpose of clearing the land of bush, stubble, scrub, timber, trees, grass or vegetative or other material or for burning any fire break, unless—

- (i) he gives the notices required to be given under subsection one of this section;
- (ii) he has obtained a permit authorising him to light, maintain or use the fire from—
 - (a) where the land is situated within an area—the council of the area or a person authorised in that behalf by the council;

(b)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

- (b) where the land is on Lord Howe Island—the Lord Howe Island Board or a person authorised in that behalf by that Board; or 3.

Bush Fires (Amendment).

3. The Bush Fires Act, 1949, as amended by the Fire Brigades and Bush Fires (Amendment) Act, 1958, is further amended—
Further amendment of Act No. 31, 1949.

(a) by omitting section seven and by inserting in lieu thereof the following section:—
Subst. sec. 7.

7. (1) Subject to this section, there shall be a bush fire danger period for the whole State from the first day of October in each year until the thirty-first day of March in the year next ensuing, both days inclusive.
Bush fire danger period.

(2) Subject to subsection three of this section, the council of any area may by resolution declare—

(a) any period commencing on or after the first day of April and ending on or before the thirtieth day of September in any year to be a bush fire danger period in its area or in such part of its area as may be specified in the resolution;

(b) the bush fire danger period referred to in subsection one of this section to be revoked in respect of the whole or such part of its area as may be specified in the resolution for such period as may be so specified,

and may at any time revoke that resolution.

(3) (a) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, declare an area to be a special area for the purposes of subsection two of this section.

(b)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

(b) The council of a special area shall not exercise the power conferred upon it by paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section unless it has first obtained—

- (i) the written concurrence of the Forestry Commission of New South Wales or a person authorised in that behalf by that Commission to the proposed resolution; or
- (ii) if that Commission or person does not give that written concurrence within three days after notice requesting concurrence in the proposed resolution has been given to that Commission or person—the written concurrence of the Minister to the proposed resolution.

(4) The Minister may by order published in the Gazette declare—

- (a) any period commencing on or after the first day of April and ending on or before the thirtieth day of September in any year to be a bush fire danger period on Lord Howe Island or in such part of the Island as may be specified in the order or in the Western Division or in such part of that Division as may be specified in the order;
- (b) the bush fire danger period applicable to Lord Howe Island pursuant to subsection one of this section to be revoked in respect of the whole or such part of the Island as may be specified in the order for such period as may be so specified;

(c)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

- (c) the bush fire danger period applicable to the Western Division pursuant to subsection one of this section to be revoked in respect of the whole or such part of the Western Division as may be specified in the order for such period as may be so specified.

(5) (a) During any period specified by a council in a resolution under paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section, the provisions of subsection one of this section shall cease to have any force or effect in respect of the area of the council or, where part only of its area is specified in the resolution, in respect of the part so specified.

(b) During any period specified by the Minister in an order under paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection four of this section, the provisions of subsection one of this section shall cease to have any force or effect in respect of Lord Howe Island or the Western Division, as the case may be, or where part only of Lord Howe Island or of the Western Division is specified in the order, in respect of the part of that Island or Division, as the case may be, so specified.

(6) Where any resolution is passed by a council under subsection two of this section, the council shall—

- (a) forward to the Minister within twenty-four hours of the meeting at which the resolution was passed a copy of the resolution, together with, where the council is the council of a special area and the resolution is passed pursuant to paragraph (b) of that subsection, a copy of the written concurrence of the Forestry Commission of New South Wales or a person authorised in that behalf by that Commission; and

(b)

Bush Fires (Amendment).

- (b) within the prescribed time cause a notice in the prescribed form of the resolution to be published in at least one newspaper circulating in its area.

(7) Where the Governor is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient in the interests of public safety or for the protection of any national forest, State forest, timber reserve or flora reserve, under the Forestry Act, 1916-1957, or any other Act, from damage by fire, the Governor may by proclamation published in the Gazette suspend the operation of paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section, and of any resolution passed under that subsection, in such area and for such period as may be specified in the proclamation.
