DRIED FRUITS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1957.

---

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to require that moneys received by the New South Wales Dried Fruits Board under the Dried Fruits Act, 1939, as amended by subsequent Acts, be paid into a bank to the credit of the Dried Fruits Account instead of into an account in Special Deposits Account;
- (b) to empower the Board to invest in trustee investments moneys not immediately required for expenditure in the administration of the Act;
- (c) to alter the time when the Board is required to furnish statements of account to the Minister;
- (d) to permit the Board to exhibit in its office a copy of its annual report instead of forwarding a copy to each person on the roll of growers;
- (e) to make provisions of a minor or ancillary character.
