POLICE REGULATION (SUPERANNUATION AND APPEALS) AMENDMENT BILL, 1957.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (1) to bring the provisions of the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act relating to the payment of superannuation allowances and gratuities to members of the police force, and in the case of death of members of the police force to dependent relatives, upon the disablement or death of such members arising out of wounds or injuries received upon certain journeys into closer conformity with the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act relating to compensation payable to workers, and in the case of the death of workers to their dependants, upon injuries to such workers arising out of daily, periodic and certain other journeys;
- (2) to extend the right of appeal to the Crown Employees Appeal Board to decisions relating to the grant or refusal of leave of absence on full pay for a period of absence occasioned by wound or injury received on the classes of journey which by virtue of paragraph (1) are additional to those in respect of which the right of appeal previously existed;
- (3) to make a minor correction to the Attachment of Wages Limitation Act, 1957.
