ANNO SEXTO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. 47, 1957.

An Act to provide for the vesting in The National Trust of Australia (New South Wales) of certain lands and other property vested in the trustees of the Tenterfield School of Arts; to define the powers, authorities, duties and functions of The National Trust of Australia (New South Wales) in respect of the same; to empower the Trustees of the Sir Henry Parkes War Memorial Appeal to transfer to The National Trust of Australia (New South Wales) the moneys subscribed to the said Appeal; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 28th November, 1957.]

WHEREAS

Sir Henry Parkes National (War) Memorial Museum and Library.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by means of divers public subscriptions and appeals certain sums of money have from time to time been raised for the purpose of the Sir Henry Parkes War Memorial Appeal; And whereas it is the intention of the Committee of the Sir Henry Parkes War Memorial Appeal to apply the money hereinbefore mentioned towards the establishment of a Sir Henry Parkes National (War) Memorial Museum and Library in the Tenterfield School of Arts under the control of The National Trust of Australia (New South Wales); And whereas the Trustees and members of the Tenterfield School of Arts have by two meetings convened by advertisements in a newspaper circulating in the district, expressed their approval of the transfer of the Tenterfield School of Arts to The National Trust of Australia (New South Wales); And whereas The National Trust of Australia (New South Wales) has by resolution expressed a desire and willingness to receive control and maintain the Tenterfield School of Arts as a community centre, museum and library as a memorial to the late Sir Henry Parkes; And whereas it is expedient to define the purposes for which the Tenterfield School of Arts may be used: BE it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—
