THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and expansion. It begins with the first settlers who came to the shores of the Atlantic coast in the early 17th century.

The early years of the colonies were marked by a struggle for independence from British rule. The American Revolution was a turning point in the nation's history, leading to the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (NEW SOUTH WALES) PROPERTY TRUST (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1956.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (1) to validate titles to certain reserved or dedicated lands granted by the Crown to the Presbyterian Church of Australia in the State of New South Wales, notwithstanding the breach or non-performance of any condition, trust or proviso contained in any such grant; and
- (2) to provide that section twenty-five of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, as amended, which authorises the revocation of reservations and dedications of Crown lands in certain circumstances, shall not, if the reservation or dedication was made before the date on which this Bill is assented to, apply to any such land which has been or may be granted to the said Church.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (NEW SOUTH WALES)
PROPERTY TRUST (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1988

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The purpose of this Bill is to amend the Property Trust Act 1987 in relation to the powers of the trustees of the Property Trust in relation to the disposal of land held in trust for the purposes of the Presbyterian Church of New South Wales.

The Bill amends section 10 of the Property Trust Act 1987 to provide that the trustees of the Property Trust may, in their absolute discretion, sell, lease, mortgage, charge, or otherwise dispose of any land held in trust for the purposes of the Presbyterian Church of New South Wales, subject to the approval of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of New South Wales.

The Bill also amends section 11 of the Property Trust Act 1987 to provide that the trustees of the Property Trust may, in their absolute discretion, enter into any agreement or arrangement in relation to any land held in trust for the purposes of the Presbyterian Church of New South Wales, subject to the approval of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of New South Wales.

The Bill further amends section 12 of the Property Trust Act 1987 to provide that the trustees of the Property Trust may, in their absolute discretion, do all such things as may be necessary or expedient to give effect to the purposes of the Property Trust, subject to the approval of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of New South Wales.

No. , 1956.
