WORKERS' COMPENSATION (SILICOSIS) AMENDMENT BILL, 1957.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are-

- (a) to extend the benefits of the Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1942, as amended by subsequent Acts,—
 - (i) to workers who have been disabled by silicosis resulting from their employment in New South Wales where such workers have not been workers since the commencement of the Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1942;
 - (ii) to dependants of workers who died from or, before dying, were disabled by silicosis, whether or not such workers have been workers since that commencement;
 - (iii) relating to the circumstances in which burial or cremation expenses are to be paid;
- (b) to clarify certain provisions of that Act, as so amended, relating to-
 - (i) the Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Committee's power to review weekly payments of compensation; and
 - (ii) the application of certain provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, as amended by subsequent Acts, to awards made by that committee;
- (c) to provide that certain findings made by the Workers' Compensation Commission in relation to a person who has claimed that his injury is a disease caused by the inhalation of dusts, other than silica dust, shall be conclusive evidence before the Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Committee;
- (d) to provide that weekly compensation payments awarded by the committee shall be payable as from the date of receipt of the application for compensation;
- (e) to authorise the committee-
 - (i) to make interim awards;
 - (ii) to vary or terminate awards made by it;
 - (iii) to resume weekly payments of compensation previously ended by the committee, and to specify the circumstances in which the committee may exercise such powers;

- (f) to validate certain payments of compensation made by the committee;
- (g) to provide that the dependants of certain persons who died before the commencement of the Act to give effect to this Bill shall be entitled to compensation as if the provisions of such Act had been in force when such persons died;
- (h) to make other provisions of a minor or ancillary character.

 - (ii) where the Commission finds that such person was not a worker during the whole of that time, whether or not he was a worker during part of that time and, if so, whether or not his disablement or death was reasonably attributable to his exposure to the inhalation of silica dust in such occupation during the time that he was a worker in such occupation.

Such award shall be conclusive evidence before the committee as to the matters so found, and the matters so found (other than the finding whether or not such person was a worker during the whole of the time he was engaged in such occupation, or whether or not such person was a worker during only part of the time he was engaged in such occupation) shall be deemed to have been certified by the medical authority pursuant to subsection one of this section.

- (v) by omitting from subsection six of the same section the words "Workers' Compensation Act, 1926-1942," and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "Principal Act";
- (vi) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection:---

(7) Weekly compensation payments under an award made pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section shall be payable as from the date when the application for compensation is received by the committee.

- (g) by omitting from section 8A the words "mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection two of section eight of this Act" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "made by a joint committee constituted under a scheme made under the Workmen's Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1920-1936, as amended by subsequent Acts";
- (h) by inserting next after section 8A the following new sections:--

SB. (1) The committee may, where it is satisfied that compensation is payable under this Act to any person, and pending its final determination as to the amount of such compensation, make an interim award for the payment of such amount of compensation to that person as does not exceed the least compensation to which he is, in the opinion of the committee, entitled.

(2) Upon the making of an award in favour of such person pursuant to subsection one of section eight of this Act, the interim award in his favour shall terminate and the amounts which have been paid under the interim award shall be deducted from the amount payable under the award made under that subsection.

Sec. 8A. (Power to vary awards for certain purposes.)

New secs. 8B, 8C and 8D.

Interim award.

(3) An interim award made in favour of any person may be terminated by the committee at any time before the making of an award in favour of that person pursuant to subsection one of section eight of this Act.

Sc. Act No. 26, 1957.

Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Amendment.

(2) The Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1942, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1942-1957.

(3) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Amendment 2. The Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1942, of Act No. 14, 1942. as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

Sec. 3. (Definitions). (a) by inserting at the end of section three the following new definition:—

"Worker" does not include a worker in or about a Broken Hill mine or a mine to which the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, applies.

(b) by omitting section four;

Sec. 4. (Application of this Act.)

Sec. 5. (Workers' Compensation Silicosis Committee.)

Sec. 6. (Constitution of Fund.)

Sec. 7. (Medical authority.) (c) by omitting from paragraph (a) of subsection two of section five the words "in respect of a worker to whom this Act applies" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "under this Act";

(d) by omitting from subsection two of section six the words "in respect of disablement or death of a worker to whom this Act applies from disease as defined by this Act or payable under subsection (1A) of section eight of this Act" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "under this Act";

(e) by inserting in subsection five of section seven after the word "shall" the words "except as to any of the matters found in an award made by the Commission in the circumstances mentioned in subsection five of section eight of this Act";
(f)

- (f) (i) by omitting subsections one, (1A) and two Sec. 8. of section eight and by inserting in lieu (Certificate thereof the following subsections:--
 - (1) Subject to this Act—
 - (a) where the medical authority certifies that a person is totally or partially disabled for work from the disease and that his disablement was reasonably attributable to his exposure to the inhalation of silica dust in an occupation to the nature of which the disease was due, such person shall, if the committee finds—
 - (i) that such person was a worker during the whole of the time he was engaged in such occupation; or
 - (ii) that such person was a worker during only part of the time he was engaged in such occupation, and the medical authority further certifies that his disablement was reasonably attributable to his exposure to the inhalation of silica dust in such occupation during the time that the committee has found that he was a worker in such occupation,

be entitled to an award from the committee, and to receive compensation at the prescribed rates from the Fund;

(b) where the medical authority certifies that a person died from the disease and that his death was reasonably reasonably attributable to his exposure to the inhalation of silica dust in an occupation to the nature of which the disease was due, the dependants of such person shall, if the committee finds—

- (i) that such person was a worker during the whole of the time he was engaged in such occupation; or
- (ii) that such person was a worker during only part of the time he was engaged in such occupation, and the medical authority further certifies that his death was reasonably attributable to his exposure to the inhalation of silica dust in such occupation during the time that the committee has found that he was a worker in such occupation,

be entitled to an award from the committee, and to receive compensation at the prescribed rates from the Fund;

- (c) where a person dies and immediately before his death—
 - (i) he was receiving; or
 - (ii) he was entitled under an award of the committee to receive; or
 - (iii) he was a person in respect of whom the medical authority had certified in terms of paragraph (a) of this this subsection and he was entitled under that paragraph to an award from the committee and under such award would have been entitled to receive, continuing payments of compensation at the prescribed rates from the Fund in respect of his disablement for work from the disease, the dependants of such person shall, if they are not entitled under paragraph (b) of this subsection to an award from the committee and to receive compensation at the prescribed rates from the Fund, be entitled under this paragraph to an award from the committee and to receive compensation at the prescribed rates from the Fund.

(2) The prescribed rates of compensation payable under an award of the committee made pursuant to subsection one of this section shall be—

- (a) where the award is made pursuant to paragraph (a) of that subsection—the weekly compensation payments prescribed by section nine of the Principal Act;
- (b) where the award is made pursuant to paragraph (b) of that subsection—the compensation payments prescribed by section eight of the Principal Act, calculated as if that section as in force at the date of death had been in force at the date of the injury to the person whose dependants are entitled to the award;

- (c) where the award is made pursuant to paragraph (c) of that subsection and the disablement for work from the disease was—
 - (i) total—the compensation payments prescribed by section eight of the Principal Act, calculated as if that section as in force at the date of death had been in force at the date of the injury to the person whose dependants are entitled to the award;
 - (ii) partial—such percentage of the compensation payments that would have been payable under subparagraph (i) of this paragraph had the disablement been total as is equal to the percentage of the person's disablement for work from the disease as certified by the medical authority at the last examination of the person made by the medical authority before his death;
- (d) where medical or hospital treatment or ambulance service becomes reasonably necessary as a result of the disease—the benefits prescribed by section ten of the Principal Act.

All compensation payments authorised to be made under this Act shall be made from the Fund established by section six of this Act.

 $(2\mathbf{A})$

(2A) Where a person dies without dependants, but if he had died with dependants they would have been entitled to an award from the committee under paragraph (c) of subsection one of this section, the committee shall pay from the Fund the reasonable expenses of his burial or cremation not exceeding the sum prescribed by or under subsection four of section eight of the Principal Act.

- (ii) by omitting from subsection three of the same section the words "paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of";
- (iii) by inserting at the end of the same subsection the following words and new subsection:—

Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the provisions of the said section sixty shall, for the purposes of the application of the provisions of that section to any such award, be deemed to be amended—

- (a) by omitting from subsection one the words "Commission at the request of either the employer or" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "committee, either of its own motion or at the request of"; and
- (b) by omitting from the same subsection the word "Commission" where secondly occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "committee".

(3A) In the application to any award of the provisions of sections eight, nine, eleven and fourteen of the Principal Act, the injury to the person who is or whose dependants are are entitled to the award shall be deemed to have happened at the time when that person was last employed as a worker in an occupation to the nature of which the disease contracted by him was due:

Provided that if the committee, on the report of the medical authority, is satisfied that such person's employment in such occupation did not materially contribute to his disablement or death it may, for the purposes of this subsection, disregard that employment and have regard to the last previous employment of such person which the committee, on the report of the medical authority, is satisfied did materially contribute to such person's disablement or death.

(iv) by omitting subsection five of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection:—

(5) Where in proceedings before the Commission it is claimed that a person's injury is a disease caused by the inhalation of dusts, other than silica dust, and the Commission finds in its award that the injury is a disease caused by silica dust, the Commission shall in its award make findings as to the following matters:—

> (a) (i) where such person is not dead, whether or not such person is totally or partially disabled for work from the disease, as defined in section three of this Act, and whether or not his disablement was reasonably attributable to his exposure to the inhalation of silica dust in an occupation to the nature of which the disease was due; or

(ii) where such person is dead, whether or not such person died from the disease, as defined in section three of this Act, and whether or not his death was reasonably attributable to his exposure to the inhalation of silica dust in an occupation to the nature of which the disease was due; and 0 9

- (b) (i) whether or not such person was a worker during the whole of the time he was engaged in such occupation; or
 - (ii) where the Commission finds that such person was not a worker during the whole of that time, whether or not he was a worker during part of that time and, if so, whether or not his disablement or death was reasonably attributable to his exposure to the inhalation of silica dust in such occupation during the time that he was a worker in such occupation.

Such award shall be conclusive evidence before the committee as to the matters so found, and the matters so found (other than the finding whether or not such person was a worker during the whole of the time he was engaged in such occupation, or whether or not such person was a worker during only part of the time he was engaged in such occupation) shall be deemed to have been certified by the medical authority pursuant to subsection one of this section.

- (v) by omitting from subsection six of the same section the words "Workers' Compensation Act, 1926-1942," and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "Principal Act";
- (vi) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection:---

(7) Weekly compensation payments under an award made pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section shall be payable as from the date when the application for compensation is received by the committee.

- (g) by omitting from section 8A the words "mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection two of section eight of this Act" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "made by a joint committee constituted under a scheme made under the Workmen's Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1920-1936, as amended by subsequent Acts";
- (h) by inserting next after section 8A the following new sections:-

8B. (1) The committee may, where it is satisfied that compensation is payable under this Act to any person, and pending its final determination as to the amount of such compensation, make an interim award for the payment of such amount of compensation to that person as does not exceed the least compensation to which he is, in the opinion of the committee, entitled.

(2) Upon the making of an award in favour of such person pursuant to subsection one of section eight of this Act, the interim award in his favour shall terminate and the amounts which have been paid under the interim award shall be deducted from the amount payable under the award made under that subsection.

Sec. 8A. (Power to vary awards for certain purposes.)

New secs. 8B, 8C and 8D.

Interim award.

(3) An interim award made in favour of any person may be terminated by the committee at any time before the making of an award in favour of that person pursuant to subsection one of section eight of this Act.

Sc. Where the committee is satisfied that by Power to reason of any mistake of law or of fact an award ^{terminate} or vary was wrongly made or any amount of compensa- awards. tion specified in an award was wrongly calculated, it may terminate or vary such award, and the compensation payable thereunder, accordingly.

Sp. Where either before or after the com- Power to mencement of the Workers' Compensation resume weekly (Silicosis) Amendment Act, 1957, any weekly payments payments to any person made under this Act section 60 have been ended pursuant to the committee's of Principal Act. powers under section sixty of the Principal Act and the committee, upon an application for resumption of such weekly payments made by such person, is satisfied that such weekly pavments would, if they were in force, not be ended pursuant to such powers, the committee may resume making weekly payments to such person of such amount not exceeding the maximum provided by this Act as the committee may determine.

3. (1) All payments of compensation from the Fund Validation made before the commencement of this Act pursuant to ^{of certain} awards. any award made by the committee, or purporting to have been so made before such commencement, and which but for this subsection would have been invalid, are hereby validated.

- (2) Any award-
- (a) made by the committee under the Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1942, or any Act amending that Act, or purporting to have been 50

so made, before the commencement of this Act, or deemed to have been made under any such Act; or

and continuing in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall continue in force after such commencement, but shall be subject to the provisions of the Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1942, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act.

(3) Where immediately before the commencement of this Act a person was entitled to an award from the committee, or where but for this Act a person would have been so entitled, nothing in this Act shall affect such entitlement, but the award shall be subject to the provisions of the Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1942, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act.

(4) In any case where the committee after the first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five, and before the commencement of this Act made an award in respect of the death of any person and if, had this Act been in force at the date of such award, the dependants of such person would have been entitled to an award of an amount greater than that so awarded, such dependants shall be entitled to an award of such greater amount, less the amount already so awarded.

Dependants of certain persons dying before commencement of this Act entitled to awards.

4. Where a person died before the commencement of this Act and he was immediately before his death receiving weekly payments of compensation from the Fund pursuant to an award made, or purporting to have been made, by the committee, the dependants of such person shall, if they were not entitled to an award under subsection one or (1A) of the Workers' Compensation (Silicosis) Act, 1942-1953, be entitled to an award from the committee as if the amendments made by section two of this Act had been in force at the date of such person's death, and to receive compensation at the prescribed rates from the Fund.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

J. NORTHCOTT,

Governor.

Government House, Sydney, 30th April, 1957.
