(a) relating to the adoption of measures for eradicating Argentine ants;

(b) relating to the administration of this Act;

25 (c) for making, altering or repealing any regulation.

(2) The Committee shall have the following functions—

(a) to consider and advise the Minister upon such matters and questions as the Minister may from 30 time to time refer to it relating to—

(i) measures for eradicating Argentine ants;

(ii) the administration of this Act;

(iii) any proposal for making, altering or repealing any regulation;

(b)

Argentine Ant Eradication.

- (b) to carry out such functions of an advisory or educational character as the Minister may direct;
- (c) in conjunction with councils to disseminate to the public information relating to Argentine ants and their eradication;
- (d) to instruct councils and their servants in the methods which should be employed to eradicate Argentine ants and furnish councils and their servants with technical assistance and advice to that end;
- (e) to carry out surveys and investigations in regard to Argentine ant infestation.

6. (1) On and from the commencement of this Act all personal property including vehicles, machinery, equipment and materials in the possession of or under the control of or held by the Minister for Agriculture for the purpose of the eradication of Argentine ants shall vest in and belong to the Minister and be held and dealt with by the Minister for the purposes of and subject to the provisions of this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary the Minister may sell and dispose of any of such personal property including vehicles, machinery, equipment or materials and pay the proceeds into the Fund.

7. (1) The occupier of any land shall notify the council of the area in which the land is situated immediately he is aware of or suspects the presence of Argentine ants in or upon such land.

(2) Where it appears to a council notified as aforesaid that such land is infested with Argentine ants, it shall so report to the Minister.

8. (1) The Governor may, subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, appoint inspectors and such other officers and employees as may be necessary for the administration of this Act.

Argentine Ant Eradication.

(2) Such inspectors shall exercise and perform their powers and duties under this Act subject to the control and direction of the Minister and such officers and employees shall be subject to the control and direction of the Minister.

5 9. (1) Health inspectors employed by the councils of the areas specified in the Schedule to this Act shall, by virtue of their office, be inspectors under this Act.

Council health inspectors to be inspectors under this Act.

(2) Each such inspector shall exercise and perform his powers and duties under this Act subject to the control and direction of the council by which he is employed.

(3) The powers and duties conferred and imposed by this Act upon a health inspector employed by a council shall apply in respect of each area to the health inspector employed by the council of that area.

15 10. (1) Any inspector under this Act or any member of the Committee may, at any reasonable time, and on production of the prescribed evidence of his authority, enter with or without assistants, plant and materials and inspect any land or vehicle in or upon which he has reasonable grounds for believing there may be Argentine ants and anything therein or thereon.

Powers of inspectors and members of Committee.

(2) Where the presence of Argentine ants in or upon any land has been detected by an inspector under this Act or a member of the Committee, an inspector under this Act or a member of the Committee may, with the consent of the Committee, serve a notice on the occupier of any such land requiring such occupier—

- (a) to rid such land of litter;
- (b) where any movable thing is so placed in or upon such land that it harbours or is likely to harbour Argentine ants or to hinder the eradication of such Argentine ants, to move and rid such movable thing of Argentine ants and then place such movable thing in or upon such land in accordance with the requirements of such notice.

Argentine Ant Eradication.

(3) Where the presence of Argentine ants in or upon any land or vehicle has been detected by an inspector under this Act or by a member of the Committee, an inspector appointed under section eight of this Act may, at any reasonable time, and on production of the prescribed evidence of his authority, enter with or without assistants, plant and materials and eradicate Argentine ants in or upon such land or vehicle.

(4) The Minister may by notice served on the council of an area specified in the Schedule to this Act require such council at its own expense to place at the disposal of the Minister such number of assistants and during such time as may be specified in such notice for the purpose of assisting an inspector appointed under section eight of this Act to eradicate Argentine ants from any land within or partly within the area of such council.

(5) Any person who obstructs, hinders, threatens or assaults any inspector under this Act or any assistant or any member of the Committee whilst acting in the exercise of his powers or the performance of his duties under this Act shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

(6) If an occupier of land fails, within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice, to comply with the requirements of a notice served under subsection two of this section, the Minister in the case of a notice issued by an inspector appointed under section eight of this Act, or the council in the case of a notice issued by an inspector referred to in section nine of this Act, may cause the requirements of such notice to be carried out and recover from such occupier the cost of the carrying out of such requirements as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) If the council of an area specified in the Schedule to this Act fails to comply with the terms of any notice served on it under subsection four of this section, the Minister may provide such number of assistants during such time as may be necessary to comply with the terms of such notice in so far as

as they have not been complied with by such council and recover the cost from such council as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) In exercising any of the powers conferred by this Act, a person shall cause as little inconvenience and damage as is practicable and where practicable give reasonable notice of his intention to enter land to the occupier.

11. Any notice to be given to any person under this Act or the regulations shall be in writing, and may be served on such person personally, or left at or posted to his usual or last known place of abode in this State, or, where a notice is to be given to a person who or whose address is unknown to the person giving the notice or if the person to whom the notice is to be given has no place of business or abode in this State, then service may be effected by affixing the notice in a conspicuous place on the land to which the notice relates.

Notices to be given in writing.

12. No person shall be entitled to compensation by reason of anything done or omitted to be done by any inspector, member of the Committee or other person in the exercise of any power or the performance of any duty conferred or imposed by this Act or the regulations, or in respect of any loss or injury that may directly or indirectly result therefrom unless the same was occasioned wilfully, negligently or maliciously.

Persons not entitled to compensation.

13. (1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of this Act the Minister shall prepare an estimate of the probable expenditure from the Fund during the period from the commencement of this Act to the thirtieth day of June then next ensuing, which period is hereinafter in this Act referred to as the first financial year.

Estimate to be prepared by the Minister.

(2) Before the end of the first financial year and of each subsequent financial year the Minister shall prepare an estimate of the probable expenditure from the Fund during the then next ensuing financial year.

14.

Argentine Ant Eradication.

14. (1) (a) Towards each estimate referred to in section thirteen of this Act—

(i) the Treasurer shall contribute one-third; and

5 (ii) the councils of the areas specified in the Schedule to this Act at the commencement of the first financial year and of each subsequent financial year shall contribute two-thirds:

Contributions by the Treasurer and councils.

10 Provided that the total of the amount to be contributed under subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of this paragraph shall not exceed the amount of fifteen thousand pounds in the first, or any subsequent financial year.

15 (b) The Governor may by proclamation published in the Gazette amend the Schedule to this Act by inserting therein the name of any area or by omitting therefrom the name of any area for the time being specified therein. The said Schedule, as so amended, shall be the Schedule to this Act.

20 (2) The amount to be contributed under subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section in the first financial year and any subsequent financial year by the councils of the areas specified in the Schedule to this Act shall be paid in equal shares by such councils.

25 (3) The amount to be paid by each council pursuant to subsection two of this section shall be paid out of the general fund of such council.

(4) (a) Contributions payable under this section shall, subject to this section, be assessed by the Minister and notice of such assessment shall be served on the Treasurer and on the councils concerned.

30 (b) Such contributions shall become due and payable at the expiration of one month from the date of service of the notice of assessment on the council.

35 (c) Any such contribution or any part thereof payable by a council and not paid within sixty days of the date of service of the notice of assessment shall, unless the Minister otherwise determines, be increased by ten per centum of the amount of the contribution payable.

Argentine Ant Eradication.

(5) Contributions or any part thereof payable by a council and not paid by such council within ninety days of the date of service of the notice of assessment, and all penalties incurred in respect thereof, shall constitute a debt due and payable to the Minister and shall be recoverable in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) Moneys payable by the Treasurer under this section shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

15 15. (1) There shall be established and kept in the Treasury an account in the Special Deposits Account to be called the "Argentine Ant Eradication Campaign Fund".

sistent with this Act prescribing all matters which by this Act are required or permitted to be prescribed or which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or 5 giving effect to this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection one of this section the Governor may make regulations for and with respect to—

- 10 (a) the acts or things to be done or to be caused to be done generally or for or with respect to any locality, land, vehicle or person, as the case may be, with a view to freeing any land or vehicle from Argentine ants or preventing the infestation or spread thereof from or on such land or vehicle;
- 15 (b) the procedure for the calling of meetings of the Committee and for the conduct of business at such meetings;
- 20 (c) the preparations to be made by the occupier of land in or upon which the presence of Argentine ants has been detected by an inspector under this Act for facilitating or ensuring the effective eradication of Argentine ants from such land;
- 25 (d) the confining of animals, birds or fish on any land
in or upon which the presence of Argentine ants has been detected by an inspector under this Act where such animals, birds or fish may be adversely affected by spraying or the spray materials to be used by an inspector, appointed pursuant to section eight of this Act, or an assistant, in or upon any such land;
- 30 (e) prohibiting any person from doing any act specified in the regulations which may adversely affect any measures carried out pursuant to this Act for the purpose of eradicating Argentine ants;

(f)

Argentine Ant Eradication.

- 5 (f) authorising the Minister or the council where the occupier of land has not complied with the requirements of the regulations to cause such requirements to be carried out and recover from such occupier the cost of the carrying out of such requirements as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction;
- 10 (g) in relation to any land or vehicle in or upon which the presence of Argentine ants has been detected by an inspector under this Act, prohibiting or imposing restrictions on the doing or omission of anything by any person which will result or be likely to result in the transfer of Argentine ants from any such land or vehicle to any other land or vehicle.
- 15 (3) The regulations may impose a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for any breach thereof, and in the case of a continuing breach, a daily penalty not exceeding five pounds per day.
- (4) The regulations shall—
- 20 (a) be published in the Gazette;
- (b) take effect from the date of such publication or from a later date to be specified in the regulations; and
- 25 (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after the publication thereof if Parliament is then in session, and, if not, then within fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.
- (5) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after such regulations have been laid before such House disallowing any regulation or part thereof, such regulation or part thereof shall thereupon cease to have effect.
