

Re-introduced pursuant to Section 5B of the Constitution Act, 1902.

*This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and,
having this day been again passed in accordance with Section 5B of the Constitution Act, 1902, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.*

ALLAN PICKERING,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 6 April, 1960.*

New South Wales

ANNO NONO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. , 1960.

An Act to abolish the Legislative Council; to provide that another Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established until a Bill for the purpose has been approved by the electors on a referendum; to amend the Constitution Act, 1902, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, with the approval of the electors as required by the Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition) Act, 1960".

Short title, construction and commencement.

(2) This Act shall be read with the Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

(3) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

2. (1) The Legislative Council is hereby abolished.

Abolition of the Legislative Council.

(2) The office of member of the Legislative Council and all offices constituted or created in or in connection with the Legislative Council are hereby abolished.

3. The Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended by inserting next after section 7A the following new section :—

Amendment of Act No. 32, 1902.

New sec. 7B.

7B. (1) A Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established except in the manner provided in this section.

Special provision as to referendum on Bill to re-establish a Legislative Council.

(2) A Bill for any purpose within subsection one of this section shall not be presented to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent until the Bill has been approved by the electors in accordance with this section.

(3)

Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition).

5 (3) On a day not sooner than two months after the passage of the Bill through the Legislative Assembly the Bill shall be submitted to the electors qualified to vote for the election of the members of the Legislative Assembly.

Such day shall be appointed by the Legislature.

(4) When the Bill is submitted to the electors the vote shall be taken in such manner as the Legislature prescribes.

10 (5) If a majority of the electors voting approve the Bill, it shall be presented to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent.

15 (6) The provisions of this section shall extend to any Bill for the repeal or amendment of this section, and to any Bill for the repeal or amendment of section two of the Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition) Act, 1960.

4. Any reference in any Act, ordinance, rule, regulation, instrument or writing whatsoever to the Legislature, or to
20 Parliament, or to both Houses of Parliament or of the Legislature, or to each House of Parliament or of the Legislature, or to either House of Parliament or of the Legislature, or
25 shall be construed to refer only to Her Majesty the Queen with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales or only to the said Legislative Assembly as the context may require.

Construction of references to Legislature, Parliament, &c.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The Constitution of the United States is a document of great importance and interest. It is the foundation of our government and the source of our rights and liberties. The Constitution was drafted in 1787 and has since been amended several times.

The Constitution is a living document that has evolved over time to meet the needs of a changing society.

The Constitution is the supreme law of the land and all other laws must conform to its provisions.

The Constitution is a document that has shaped the course of our nation's history.

The Constitution is a document that has inspired generations of Americans.

The Constitution is a document that has made us a more just and free society.

1787
1791
1803
1850
1868
1870
1888
1895
1901
1913
1919
1920
1932
1933
1934
1937
1951
1952
1957
1961
1964
1967
1971
1972
1977
1981
1987
1991
1993
1994
1995
1996
1997
1998
1999
2001
2002
2003
2004
2005
2006
2007
2008
2009
2010
2011
2012
2013
2014
2015
2016
2017
2018
2019
2020
2021
2022
2023
2024

The Constitution is a document that has shaped the course of our nation's history. It is a document that has inspired generations of Americans. The Constitution is a document that has made us a more just and free society. The Constitution is a document that has shaped the course of our nation's history. It is a document that has inspired generations of Americans. The Constitution is a document that has made us a more just and free society.

Re-introduced pursuant to Section 5B of the Constitution Act, 1902.

*This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and,
having this day been again passed in accordance with Section 5B of the Constitution Act, 1902, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.*

ALLAN PICKERING,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 6 April, 1960.*

New South Wales

ANNO NONO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. , 1960.

An Act to abolish the Legislative Council; to provide that another Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established until a Bill for the purpose has been approved by the electors on a referendum; to amend the Constitution Act, 1902, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, with the approval of the electors as required by the Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition) Act, 1960".

Short title, construction and commencement.

(2) This Act shall be read with the Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

(3) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

2. (1) The Legislative Council is hereby abolished.

Abolition of the Legislative Council.

(2) The office of member of the Legislative Council and all offices constituted or created in or in connection with the Legislative Council are hereby abolished.

3. The Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended by inserting next after section 7A the following new section :—

Amendment of Act No. 32, 1902. New sec. 7B.

7B. (1) A Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established except in the manner provided in this section.

Special provision as to referendum on Bill to re-establish a Legislative Council.

(2) A Bill for any purpose within subsection one of this section shall not be presented to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent until the Bill has been approved by the electors in accordance with this section.

(3)

Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition).

(3) On a day not sooner than two months after the passage of the Bill through the Legislative Assembly the Bill shall be submitted to the electors qualified to vote for the election of the members of the Legislative 5 Assembly.

Such day shall be appointed by the Legislature.

(4) When the Bill is submitted to the electors the vote shall be taken in such manner as the Legislature prescribes.

10 (5) If a majority of the electors voting approve the Bill, it shall be presented to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent.

15 (6) The provisions of this section shall extend to any Bill for the repeal or amendment of this section, and to any Bill for the repeal or amendment of section two of the Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition) Act, 1960.

4. Any reference in any Act, ordinance, rule, regulation, instrument or writing whatsoever to the Legislature, or to
20 Parliament, or to both Houses of Parliament or of the Legislature, or to each House of Parliament or of the Legislature, or to either House of Parliament or of the Legislature, or
25 shall be construed to refer only to Her Majesty the Queen with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales or only to the said Legislative Assembly as the context may require.

Construction of references to Legislature, Parliament, &c.

General Statement (Article 1, Section 1)

The State of New York is a free and independent State, and the rights of the people shall not be infringed.

The Legislature shall have the honor to be the Legislature.

The Executive shall have the honor to be the Executive.

The Judiciary shall have the honor to be the Judiciary.

The State shall have the honor to be the State.

The State shall have the honor to be the State.

CONSTITUTION AMENDMENT (LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ABOLITION) BILL, 1960.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to abolish the Legislative Council ; and
- (b) to provide that another Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established until a Bill for the purpose has been approved by the electors on a referendum.

INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION

CONVENTION 102

RECOMMENDATION

1. The Committee on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations, established by the General Conference of the International Labor Organization, has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the report of the Commission of the European Communities, dated 1964, on the application of Convention 102, in the field of social security, in the member States of the Commission.

1965

PROOF

Re-introduced pursuant to Section 5B of the Constitution Act, 1902.

No. , 1960.

A BILL

To abolish the Legislative Council; to provide that another Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established until a Bill for the purpose has been approved by the electors on a referendum; to amend the Constitution Act, 1902, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

[MR. HEFFRON ;—31 March, 1960.]

Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, with the approval of the electors as required by the Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition) Act, 1960".

Short title, construction and commencement.

10 (2) This Act shall be read with the Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

(3) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

15 2. (1) The Legislative Council is hereby abolished.

Abolition of the Legislative Council.

(2) The office of member of the Legislative Council and all offices constituted or created in or in connection with the Legislative Council are hereby abolished.

20 3. The Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended by inserting next after section 7A the following new section :—

Amendment of Act No. 32, 1902. New sec. 7B.

25 7B. (1) A Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established except in the manner provided in this section.

Special provision as to referendum on Bill to re-establish a Legislative Council.

30 (2) A Bill for any purpose within subsection one of this section shall not be presented to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent until the Bill has been approved by the electors in accordance with this section.

(3)

Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition).

5 (3) On a day not sooner than two months after the passage of the Bill through the Legislative Assembly the Bill shall be submitted to the electors qualified to vote for the election of the members of the Legislative Assembly.

Such day shall be appointed by the Legislature.

(4) When the Bill is submitted to the electors the vote shall be taken in such manner as the Legislature prescribes.

10 (5) If a majority of the electors voting approve the Bill, it shall be presented to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent.

15 (6) The provisions of this section shall extend to any Bill for the repeal or amendment of this section, and to any Bill for the repeal or amendment of section two of the Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition) Act, 1960.

4. Any reference in any Act, ordinance, rule, regulation, instrument or writing whatsoever to the Legislature, or to
20 Parliament, or to both Houses of Parliament or of the Legislature or to each House of Parliament or of the Legislature, or to either House of Parliament or of the Legislature, or
25 shall be construed to refer only to Her Majesty the Queen with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales or only to the said Legislative Assembly as the context may require.

Construction of references to Legislature, Parliament, &c.

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

...the ... of the ...

CONSTITUTION AMENDMENT (LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ABOLITION) BILL, 1960.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to abolish the Legislative Council ; and
- (b) to provide that another Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established until a Bill for the purpose has been approved by the electors on a referendum,

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

MEMORANDUM

FOR THE RECORD

DATE: _____

1. The Committee has reviewed the report of the _____ and has concluded that the findings are consistent with the information available to it. It is recommended that the report be approved as presented.

RESOLVED:

PROOF

Re-introduced pursuant to Section 5B of the Constitution Act,
1902.

No. , 1960.

A BILL

To abolish the Legislative Council; to provide that another Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established until a Bill for the purpose has been approved by the electors on a referendum; to amend the Constitution Act, 1902, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

[MR. HEFFRON;—31 March, 1960.]

Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, with the approval of the electors as required by the Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition) Act, 1960".

Short title, construction and commencement.

10 (2) This Act shall be read with the Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

(3) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

15 2. (1) The Legislative Council is hereby abolished.

Abolition of the Legislative Council.

(2) The office of member of the Legislative Council and all offices constituted or created in or in connection with the Legislative Council are hereby abolished.

20 3. The Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended by inserting next after section 7A the following new section :—

Amendment of Act No. 32, 1902. New sec. 7B.

25 7B. (1) A Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established except in the manner provided in this section.

Special provision as to referendum on Bill to re-establish a Legislative Council.

30 (2) A Bill for any purpose within subsection one of this section shall not be presented to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent until the Bill has been approved by the electors in accordance with this section.

(3)

Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition).

5 (3) On a day not sooner than two months after the passage of the Bill through the Legislative Assembly the Bill shall be submitted to the electors qualified to vote for the election of the members of the Legislative Assembly.

Such day shall be appointed by the Legislature.

(4) When the Bill is submitted to the electors the vote shall be taken in such manner as the Legislature prescribes.

10 (5) If a majority of the electors voting approve the Bill, it shall be presented to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent.

15 (6) The provisions of this section shall extend to any Bill for the repeal or amendment of this section, and to any Bill for the repeal or amendment of section two of the Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition) Act, 1960.

4. Any reference in any Act, ordinance, rule, regulation, instrument or writing whatsoever to the Legislature, or to Parliament, or to both Houses of Parliament or of the Legislature, or to each House of Parliament or of the Legislature, or to either House of Parliament or of the Legislature, or other reference which if this Act had not been passed would be deemed to include a reference to the Legislative Council, shall be construed to refer only to Her Majesty the Queen with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales or only to the said Legislative Assembly as the context may require.

Construction of references to Legislature, Parliament, &c.

Resolved, That the sum of £100,000 be granted unto His Majesty for the service of the year ending the 31st day of March 1704.

Resolved, That the sum of £100,000 be granted unto His Majesty for the service of the year ending the 31st day of March 1704.

Resolved, That the sum of £100,000 be granted unto His Majesty for the service of the year ending the 31st day of March 1704.

Resolved, That the sum of £100,000 be granted unto His Majesty for the service of the year ending the 31st day of March 1704.

Resolved, That the sum of £100,000 be granted unto His Majesty for the service of the year ending the 31st day of March 1704.

Resolved, That the sum of £100,000 be granted unto His Majesty for the service of the year ending the 31st day of March 1704.

Resolved, That the sum of £100,000 be granted unto His Majesty for the service of the year ending the 31st day of March 1704.

Re-introduced pursuant to Section 5B of the Constitution Act, 1902.

No. , 1960.

A BILL

To abolish the Legislative Council; to provide that another Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established until a Bill for the purpose has been approved by the electors on a referendum; to amend the Constitution Act, 1902, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

[MR. HEFFRON;—31 March, 1960.]

Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, with the approval of the electors as required by the Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition) Act, 1960". Short title, construction and commencement.
- 10 (2) This Act shall be read with the Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.
- (3) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

- 15 2. (1) The Legislative Council is hereby abolished. Abolition of the Legislative Council.
- (2) The office of member of the Legislative Council and all offices constituted or created in or in connection with the Legislative Council are hereby abolished.

- 20 3. The Constitution Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended by inserting next after section 7A the following new section :— Amendment of Act No. 32, 1902. New sec. 7B.

25 7B. (1) A Legislative Council shall not be created, constituted or established nor shall any Chamber, Assembly or House, other than the Legislative Assembly, designed to form part of the Legislature or the Parliament in New South Wales, be created, constituted or established except in the manner provided in this section. Special provision as to referendum on Bill to re-establish a Legislative Council.

30 (2) A Bill for any purpose within subsection one of this section shall not be presented to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent until the Bill has been approved by the electors in accordance with this section.

(3)

Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition).

5 (3) On a day not sooner than two months after the passage of the Bill through the Legislative Assembly the Bill shall be submitted to the electors qualified to vote for the election of the members of the Legislative Assembly.

Such day shall be appointed by the Legislature.

(4) When the Bill is submitted to the electors the vote shall be taken in such manner as the Legislature prescribes.

10 (5) If a majority of the electors voting approve the Bill, it shall be presented to the Governor for Her Majesty's assent.

15 (6) The provisions of this section shall extend to any Bill for the repeal or amendment of this section, and to any Bill for the repeal or amendment of section two of the Constitution Amendment (Legislative Council Abolition) Act, 1960.

20 4. Any reference in any Act, ordinance, rule, regulation, instrument or writing whatsoever to the Legislature, or to Parliament, or to both Houses of Parliament or of the Legislature or to each House of Parliament or of the Legislature, or to either House of Parliament or of the Legislature, or other reference which if this Act had not been passed would be deemed to include a reference to the Legislative Council, 25 shall be construed to refer only to Her Majesty the Queen with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales or only to the said Legislative Assembly as the context may require.

Construction of references to Legislature, Parliament, &c.

Constitution of the Legislative Council

(1) The Council shall consist of such members as may be appointed by the Governor in Council.

(2) The Council shall be a body corporate and shall have perpetual succession.

(3) The Council shall have the power to make regulations for the better conduct of its business.

(4) The Council shall be a body corporate and shall have perpetual succession.

(5) The Council shall have the power to make regulations for the better conduct of its business.

(6) The Council shall have the power to make regulations for the better conduct of its business.

(7) The Council shall have the power to make regulations for the better conduct of its business.

(8) The Council shall have the power to make regulations for the better conduct of its business.

(9) The Council shall have the power to make regulations for the better conduct of its business.

(10) The Council shall have the power to make regulations for the better conduct of its business.