

New South Wales

ANNO DECIMO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. 29, 1961.

An Act to make further provisions in relation to the basis upon which wages in awards and industrial agreements are to be assessed; for this purpose to amend the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 13th October, 1961.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961".

Short title, citation and commencement.

Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment.

(2) The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940-1961.

(3) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Amendment
of Act No.
21, 1961.
Sec. 1.

(Consequential.)

Amendment
of Act No.
2, 1940.

New Division 2c.

Interpretation.

Existing awards and industrial agreements.

(4) The Industrial Arbitration (Further Amendment) Act, 1961, is amended by omitting paragraph (a) of subsection two of section one.

2. The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

(a) by inserting next after section 61s the following new Division :—

DIVISION 2C.—Provisions applicable after the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961.

61T. (1) In this Division unless the context or subject matter otherwise indicates or requires :—

“Consumer Price Index” means the Consumer Price Index issued from time to time by the Commonwealth Statistician.

(2) Any document purporting to be a copy of the Consumer Price Index and purporting either to be printed by the Government Printer or to be under the signature of the registrar or some person acting in his place or on his behalf shall, without proof of the signature or official character of the registrar or such person, be accepted by all persons and upon all occasions as a true copy of the Consumer Price Index unless proof is adduced that such document is not a true copy as aforesaid.

61U. (1) This section shall apply to and in respect of all awards and industrial agreements in force at the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961, and

and which fix rates of wages for employees by reference or in relation to the basic wage for adult males or the basic wage for adult females assessed on any index number contained in the Commonwealth Statistician's Retail Price Index Numbers.

This section shall not apply to or in respect of any award or industrial agreement which contains a provision expressly excluding the application of section 61F or 61M of this Act.

(2) An award or industrial agreement to which this section applies shall, as from the commencement of the first pay period in the month of November, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one, have and take effect as if—

- (a) the appropriate basic wage for adult males had, immediately before the commencement of such pay period, been adjusted to an amount determined in accordance with the provisions of subsection three of this section;
- (b) the appropriate basic wage for adult females had, immediately before the commencement of such pay period, been adjusted to an amount equivalent to seventy-five per centum (calculated to the nearest sixpence, threepence to be regarded as sixpence,) of the amount to which the basic wage for adult males has been adjusted as referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

The said amount shall, where the basic wage for adult males contained in such award or industrial agreement has been assessed upon the index number contained in the Commonwealth Statistician's Retail Price Index Numbers for a place or combination of places, and

Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment.

- (a) there is an index number contained in the Consumer Price Index for the September quarter one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one for such place or combination of places, be assessed upon the index number contained in the Consumer Price Index for the said September quarter for such place or combination of places; or
- (b) there is no index number contained in the Consumer Price Index for the September quarter one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one for such place or combination of places, be assessed upon the index number for Sydney contained in the Consumer Price Index for the said September quarter.

The said amount shall be calculated by multiplying the Consumer Price Index Number applicable as aforesaid by two thousand four hundred and forty-seven and dividing the product by one thousand. The result shall be the amount expressed in shillings and any fraction less than one-half shall be disregarded and any fraction which is one-half or greater shall be regarded as a shilling.

(4) The terms of each award or industrial agreement to which this section applies, affecting rates of pay, shall be deemed to be varied to the extent necessary to give effect to the provisions of this section as from the commencement of the first pay period in the month of November, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one.

(5) The registrar may (subject to appeal to the commission), upon application made as prescribed or of his own motion, vary the terms of any award or industrial agreement to which this section applies, affecting rates of pay, to the extent necessary to give effect to this section.

The

Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment.

The registrar may refer any such application or any matter arising out of any such application or arising under this subsection to the commission for directions.

(6) In this section—

“basic wage for adult males” means the basic wage for adult males in force immediately before the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961, by the operation of Division 2A of this Part.

“basic wage for adult females” means the basic wage for adult females in force immediately before the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961, by the operation of Divisions 2A and 2B of this Part.

“Commonwealth Statistician’s Retail Price Index Numbers” has the meaning ascribed thereto in Division 2A of this Part.

61v. (1) This section shall apply to and in respect of all awards and industrial agreements made after the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961. ^{Future awards and industrial agreements.}

(2) Subject to subsection three of this section all awards and industrial agreements to which this section applies shall in so far as they fix rates of wages by reference or in relation to—

- (a) a basic wage for adult males be made by reference or in relation to a basic wage for adult males assessed upon the index number for Sydney contained in the Consumer Price Index and calculated as provided in subsection four of this section; or
- (b) a basic wage for adult females be made by reference or in relation to a basic wage for adult females equivalent to seventy-five per centum

centum (calculated to the nearest sixpence, threepence to be regarded as sixpence,) of the basic wage for adult males assessed and calculated under and in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection two of this section, the parties to any award or industrial agreement to which this section applies and which fixes rates of wages by reference or in relation to a basic wage for adult males or a basic wage for adult females, may by consent, at the time the award or industrial agreement is made or upon any application for variation of the award or industrial agreement, adopt—

- (a) in the case of a basic wage for adult males, a basic wage for adult males assessed upon the index number for such place or such combination of places (of which Sydney is one) contained in the Consumer Price Index as may be specified in the award or industrial agreement and calculated as provided in subsection four of this section; or
- (b) in the case of a basic wage for adult females, a basic wage for adult females equivalent to seventy-five per centum (calculated to the nearest sixpence, threepence to be regarded as sixpence,) of the appropriate basic wage for adult males assessed and calculated under and in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(4) The basic wage for adult males shall, for the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection two and paragraph (a) of subsection three of this section, be calculated by multiplying the relevant index number as applicable by virtue of such provisions by two thousand four hundred and forty-seven and dividing the product by one thousand.

Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment.

thousand. The result shall be the basic wage for adult males expressed in shillings and any fraction less than one-half shall be disregarded and any fraction which is one-half or greater shall be regarded as a shilling.

This section shall not apply to an award made or industrial agreement entered into for wages of apprentices or trainee apprentices.

(2) The terms of each award made or industrial agreement entered into whether before or after the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961, affecting rates of pay shall be deemed so to be varied to accord with the fluctuations (if any) in the index number upon which the basic wage for adult adult males and the basic wage for adult females applicable to that award or industrial agreement is assessed—

- (a) in any case where a period of adjustment is specifically provided in the award or industrial agreement—as from the commencement of the first pay period in each such period of adjustment; or
- (b) in any other case—as from the commencement of the first pay period in the months of February, May, August and November in each year :

Provided that in the case of an industrial agreement where provision is made in the industrial agreement as to the manner in which effect shall be given to any such fluctuations in the index number upon which the basic wage for adult males and the basic wage for adult females is assessed, the terms of the industrial agreement affecting rates of pay shall, in lieu of the variation referred to in the preceding provisions of this subsection, be deemed to be varied to the extent necessary to give effect to that provision.

(3) The registrar may (subject to appeal to the commission), upon application made as prescribed or of his own motion, vary the terms of any award or industrial agreement affecting rates of pay to the extent necessary to give effect to subsection two of this section.

The terms of any award affecting rates of pay may to the extent practicable be expressed by the registrar in such a form as will render unnecessary the variation of such award under this subsection consequent upon subsequent variations in the rates of pay pursuant to the operation of this section.

The

Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment.

The registrar may refer any such application or any matter arising out of any such application or arising under this subsection to the commission for directions.

(4) This section shall not apply to or in respect of any award or industrial agreement which contains a provision expressly excluding the application of this section.

(b) by inserting in section 61P after the figure and symbol "2A" the word, figure and symbol "or 2C";

Sec. 61P.
(Existing basic wage for adult females.)

(c) (i) by omitting from subsection five of section 88D the figure and symbol "2A" and by inserting in lieu thereof the figure and symbol "2C";

Sec. 88D.
(Equal pay for males and females in certain circumstances.)

(ii) by omitting paragraph (c) of subsection nine of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraph :—

(c) In this section "appropriate basic wage for adult males" means the basic wage for adult males as may be applicable pursuant to and assessed and calculated under and in accordance with the provisions of Division 2C of Part V of this Act.

3. The Acts (as amended by subsequent Acts, if any) specified in the first and second columns of the First Schedule to this Act are amended as respectively specified in the third column of the said Schedule.

ANNO DECIMO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. 29, 1961.

An Act to make further provisions in relation to the basis upon which wages in awards and industrial agreements are to be assessed; for this purpose to amend the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 13th October, 1961.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961".
- (2) Short title, citation and commencement.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

HOWARD T. FOWLES,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment.

(2) The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts and by this Act, may be cited as the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940-1961.

(3) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Amendment of Act No. 21, 1961. Sec. 1. (Consequential.) (4) The Industrial Arbitration (Further Amendment) Act, 1961, is amended by omitting paragraph (a) of subsection two of section one.

(Consequential.)

Amendment of Act No. 2, 1940. 2. The Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, is amended—

New Division 2c.

(a) by inserting next after section 61s the following new Division :—

DIVISION 2C.—Provisions applicable after the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961.

Interpretation.

61T. (1) In this Division unless the context or subject matter otherwise indicates or requires :—

“Consumer Price Index” means the Consumer Price Index issued from time to time by the Commonwealth Statistician.

(2) Any document purporting to be a copy of the Consumer Price Index and purporting either to be printed by the Government Printer or to be under the signature of the registrar or some person acting in his place or on his behalf shall, without proof of the signature or official character of the registrar or such person, be accepted by all persons and upon all occasions as a true copy of the Consumer Price Index unless proof is adduced that such document is not a true copy as aforesaid.

Existing awards and industrial agreements.

61U. (1) This section shall apply to and in respect of all awards and industrial agreements in force at the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961, and

and which fix rates of wages for employees by reference or in relation to the basic wage for adult males or the basic wage for adult females assessed on any index number contained in the Commonwealth Statistician's Retail Price Index Numbers.

This section shall not apply to or in respect of any award or industrial agreement which contains a provision expressly excluding the application of section 61F or 61M of this Act.

(2) An award or industrial agreement to which this section applies shall, as from the commencement of the first pay period in the month of November, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one, have and take effect as if—

- (a) the appropriate basic wage for adult males had, immediately before the commencement of such pay period, been adjusted to an amount determined in accordance with the provisions of subsection three of this section;
- (b) the appropriate basic wage for adult females had, immediately before the commencement of such pay period, been adjusted to an amount equivalent to seventy-five per centum (calculated to the nearest sixpence, threepence to be regarded as sixpence,) of the amount to which the basic wage for adult males has been adjusted as referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

The said amount shall, where the basic wage for adult males contained in such award or industrial agreement has been assessed upon the index number contained in the Commonwealth Statistician's Retail Price Index Numbers for a place or combination of places, and

Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment.

- (a) there is an index number contained in the Consumer Price Index for the September quarter one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one for such place or combination of places, be assessed upon the index number contained in the Consumer Price Index for the said September quarter for such place or combination of places; or
- (b) there is no index number contained in the Consumer Price Index for the September quarter one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one for such place or combination of places, be assessed upon the index number for Sydney contained in the Consumer Price Index for the said September quarter.

The said amount shall be calculated by multiplying the Consumer Price Index Number applicable as aforesaid by two thousand four hundred and forty-seven and dividing the product by one thousand. The result shall be the amount expressed in shillings and any fraction less than one-half shall be disregarded and any fraction which is one-half or greater shall be regarded as a shilling.

(4) The terms of each award or industrial agreement to which this section applies, affecting rates of pay, shall be deemed to be varied to the extent necessary to give effect to the provisions of this section as from the commencement of the first pay period in the month of November, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one.

(5) The registrar may (subject to appeal to the commission), upon application made as prescribed or of his own motion, vary the terms of any award or industrial agreement to which this section applies, affecting rates of pay, to the extent necessary to give effect to this section.

The

Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment.

The registrar may refer any such application or any matter arising out of any such application or arising under this subsection to the commission for directions.

(6) In this section—

“basic wage for adult males” means the basic wage for adult males in force immediately before the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961, by the operation of Division 2A of this Part.

“basic wage for adult females” means the basic wage for adult females in force immediately before the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961, by the operation of Divisions 2A and 2B of this Part.

“Commonwealth Statistician’s Retail Price Index Numbers” has the meaning ascribed thereto in Division 2A of this Part.

(2) Subject to subsection three of this section all awards and industrial agreements to which this section applies shall in so far as they fix rates of wages by reference or in relation to—

(a) a basic wage for adult males be made by reference or in relation to a basic wage for adult males assessed upon the index number for Sydney contained in the Consumer Price Index and calculated as provided in subsection four of this section; or

(b) a basic wage for adult females be made by reference or in relation to a basic wage for adult females equivalent to seventy-five per centum

centum (calculated to the nearest sixpence, threepence to be regarded as sixpence,) of the basic wage for adult males assessed and calculated under and in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection two of this section, the parties to any award or industrial agreement to which this section applies and which fixes rates of wages by reference or in relation to a basic wage for adult males or a basic wage for adult females, may by consent, at the time the award or industrial agreement is made or upon any application for variation of the award or industrial agreement, adopt—

(a) in the case of a basic wage for adult males, a basic wage for adult males assessed upon the index number for such place or such combination of places (of which Sydney is one) contained in the Consumer Price Index as may be specified in the award or industrial agreement and calculated as provided in subsection four of this section; or

(b) in the case of a basic wage for adult females, a basic wage for adult females equivalent to seventy-five per centum (calculated to the nearest sixpence, threepence to be regarded as sixpence,) of the appropriate basic wage for adult males assessed and calculated under and in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(4) The basic wage for adult males shall, for the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection two and paragraph (a) of subsection three of this section, be calculated by multiplying the relevant index number as applicable by virtue of such provisions by two thousand four hundred and forty-seven and dividing the product by one thousand.

thousand. The result shall be the basic wage for adult males expressed in shillings and any fraction less than one-half shall be disregarded and any fraction which is one-half or greater shall be regarded as a shilling.

This section shall not apply to an award made or industrial agreement entered into for wages of apprentices or trainee apprentices.

(2) The terms of each award made or industrial agreement entered into whether before or after the commencement of the Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment Act, 1961, affecting rates of pay shall be deemed so to be varied to accord with the fluctuations (if any) in the index number upon which the basic wage for adult

adult males and the basic wage for adult females applicable to that award or industrial agreement is assessed—

- (a) in any case where a period of adjustment is specifically provided in the award or industrial agreement—as from the commencement of the first pay period in each such period of adjustment; or
- (b) in any other case—as from the commencement of the first pay period in the months of February, May, August and November in each year :

Provided that in the case of an industrial agreement where provision is made in the industrial agreement as to the manner in which effect shall be given to any such fluctuations in the index number upon which the basic wage for adult males and the basic wage for adult females is assessed, the terms of the industrial agreement affecting rates of pay shall, in lieu of the variation referred to in the preceding provisions of this subsection, be deemed to be varied to the extent necessary to give effect to that provision.

(3) The registrar may (subject to appeal to the commission), upon application made as prescribed or of his own motion, vary the terms of any award or industrial agreement affecting rates of pay to the extent necessary to give effect to subsection two of this section.

The terms of any award affecting rates of pay may to the extent practicable be expressed by the registrar in such a form as will render unnecessary the variation of such award under this subsection consequent upon subsequent variations in the rates of pay pursuant to the operation of this section.

The

Industrial Arbitration (Basic Wage) Amendment.

The registrar may refer any such application or any matter arising out of any such application or arising under this subsection to the commission for directions.

(4) This section shall not apply to or in respect of any award or industrial agreement which contains a provision expressly excluding the application of this section.
