

MINING (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1961.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are:—

- (a) to amend the definitions of "Crown lands", and to insert new definitions of "Crown-lease for pastoral purposes" and "special lease for pastoral purposes", in the Mining Act, 1906, as amended; and to omit definitions of "lease for pastoral purposes", "small coal" and "street, road or highway" from that Act, as amended;
- (b) to enable mining schools and mining museums to be conducted in connection with all universities within the State, instead of only the University of Sydney;
- (c) to increase the fees payable for miners' rights, business licenses, and duplicates thereof;
- (d) to exempt from occupation under a miner's right Crown lands held under a permissive occupancy for residence purposes only;
- (e) to invalidate any marking out or taking possession, for mining purposes, of exempted Crown lands;
- (f) to provide that upon the forfeiture, surrender or expiration of any Crown lands holding situated within the external boundaries of an area of exempted Crown lands, the holding shall form part of that area;
- (g) to authorise the holder of a miner's right to prospect as well as to mine and to remove his right to take water;
- (h) to terminate the provisions of the Mining Act, 1906, as amended, permitting holders of miners' rights to take possession of Crown lands for residence purposes, and holders of business licenses to take possession of business areas;
- (i) to make new provisions relating to the granting of authorities to prospect on Crown lands;
- (j) to restrict the granting of mining leases in respect of Crown lands held under a permissive occupancy for residence purposes only, or Crown lands held under an authority to prospect;
- (k) to vary the provisions of the Mining Act, 1906, as amended, relating to the taking of possession of Crown lands for the purpose of obtaining priority for an application for a lease;
- (l) to authorise the refusal of applications for leases of Crown lands whether or not the Act and regulations have been complied with;
- (m) to permit an applicant for a lease of Crown lands to occupy and use the land applied for, only with the consent of and subject to conditions imposed by the Minister;
- (n) to authorise the refund, in certain cases, of the whole or part of the survey fee accompanying an application for a lease of Crown lands;

- (o) to increase the annual rental for mining leases of Crown land ;
- (p) to include in the Mining Act, 1906, as amended, provisions authorising applications to be made for mining leases and mining leases to be granted, of Crown lands containing minerals not reserved to the Crown ;
- (q) to provide that an application for an ordinary lease of Crown lands may be treated as an application for a special lease under section forty of the Mining Act, 1906, as amended, if special circumstances exist ;
- (r) to amend the definitions of "occupier", "owner" and "private lands" contained in Part IV (Mining on Private Lands) of the Mining Act, 1906, as amended ;
- (s) to authorise prospecting as well as mining on private lands ;
- (t) to remove the necessity for cultivated land to be enclosed in order for its surface to be exempt from entry or lease under the said Part IV of the Mining Act, 1906, as amended ;
- (u) to increase the fee for a license to prospect on private lands ;
- (v) to provide for applications for authorities to enter private lands to be dealt with according to priority of lodgment ;
- (w) to authorise the warden to refuse an application for an authority to enter private land if the land is exempt from the said Part IV by virtue of section 49 (2A) of the Act ; or is the subject of a pending application for a lease ;
- (x) to permit notice of inquiries to fix the rent in respect of private lands the subject of a proposed authority to enter to be given, in certain cases, by advertisement and to make provision with respect to the payment of such rent and of compensation ;
- (y) to require holders of authorities to enter private lands to serve notice of the grant of the authorities upon every owner and occupier of the lands in respect of which they were granted ;
- (z) to provide that authorities to enter private lands may be granted in respect of areas up to 1000 acres ;
- (aa) to allow extensions of time for commencing prospecting by holders of authorities to enter private lands ;
- (bb) to permit an applicant for a lease of private lands to occupy and use the lands pending determination of his application only with the consent of, and subject to conditions imposed by, the Minister ;
- (cc) to permit leases for mining purposes to be granted of private lands between specified depths and to permit an applicant for a lease for mining purposes to occupy and use the lands pending determination of his application only with the consent of, and subject to conditions imposed by the Minister ;
- (dd) to increase the rent payable to the owner of private lands the subject of a mining lease ;
- (ee) to vary the provisions of section sixty-nine of the Mining Act, 1906, as amended, relating to leases of private lands granted by the owner to the holder of a miner's right ;

- (ff) to require the warden, in cases where an application for an authority to enter private lands in which the minerals are not owned by the owner of the lands, to give notice of the application to the owner of the minerals, and to require the holder of any such authority to serve notice of the grant of the authority upon every owner and occupier of the lands, and upon every owner of the minerals ;
- (gg) to increase the rent payable to the owner of coal in lands the subject of a lease where the lands are held without reservation of minerals ;
- (hh) to permit an owner of private lands in which the minerals are owned by the owner of the land to obtain a lease of such lands for mining purposes ;
- (ii) to permit an owner of private lands, or an owner of minerals in private lands, where they are not the same person, to obtain a mining lease of such lands ;
- (jj) to increase the amounts payable to the Minister on behalf of the owner of the minerals by lessees of private lands held without reservation of minerals ;
- (kk) to provide that the Minister's decision, for the purpose of settling disputes under section 70b of the Mining Act, 1906, as amended, on whether bona fide mining operations are being carried on, shall be final ;
- (ll) to authorise the granting of special leases of private lands similar to special leases of Crown lands ;
- (mm) to confer rights of access upon applicants for leases of private lands ;
- (nn) to amend the definitions of "occupier", "owner" and "private lands" contained in Part V (Dredging Leases) of the Mining Act, 1906, as amended ;
- (oo) to exclude from the operation of the said Part V lands held under the Mining Act, 1906, as amended, and private lands under cultivation ;
- (pp) to empower the Governor to exempt from the said Part V any lands ;
- (qq) to provide that dredging leases shall be subject to labour conditions determined by the Governor, and that applications for such leases shall be accompanied by a survey fee ;
- (rr) to require that an applicant for an authority to enter for the purpose of marking out a dredging lease shall pay a prescribed fee instead of a deposit ;
- (ss) to make provisions relating to the priority of applications for dredging leases ;
- (tt) to increase the rent payable to the Crown in respect of dredging leases of Crown lands ;
- (uu) to enable a lessee under a dredging lease to deduct from the royalties payable to the Minister on behalf of the owner of the minerals any amount paid to the owner by way of rent under the lease ;
- (vv) to provide that the Governor, instead of the Minister, may refuse applications for dredging leases ;
- (ww) to permit an applicant for a dredging lease to occupy and use the lands applied for pending determination of his application only with the consent of, and subject to conditions imposed by, the Minister ;

- (xx) to provide that any exemption of Crown lands from dealings under the Crown Lands Acts may apply to the whole of the land or to the surface of the land and land below the surface to a specified depth ;
- (yy) to require all leases under the Mining Act, 1906, as amended, to be registered with the Registrar, Department of Mines, Sydney ;
- (zz) to require transfers and assignments of, and certain instruments affecting, such leases to be in writing and to be lodged for the Minister's sanction or concurrence, and for registration, without which the transfer, assignment or other instrument has no force ;
- (aaa) to clarify the powers of the warden to grant authorities to enter any land for the purpose of laying pipes or constructing tunnels ;
- (bbb) to extend the circumstances in which the warden may suspend labour conditions attached to a mining lease ;
- (ccc) to empower the Minister to require any person mining under the provisions of the Mining Act, 1906, as amended, to submit royalty returns at any time ;
- (ddd) to amend the provisions of section one hundred and eighteen of the Mining Act, 1906, as amended, relating to amalgamation of leases ;
- (eee) to require the payment of a fee upon the surrender of a lease ;
- (fff) to limit the period within which a complaint for non-compliance with labour conditions attached to a lease may be made ;
- (ggg) to extend the Minister's powers of writing off debts due to the Crown for rent under mining leases or applications therefor ;
- (hhh) to extend the Minister's powers of directing the warden to hold inquiries ;
- (iii) to increase the amount for which an employee is entitled to priority for services in connection with mining from £25 to £100 ;
- (jjj) to increase the penalty for—
 - (i) unauthorised mining from £10 to £500 ;
 - (ii) unauthorised occupation of Crown land from £10 to £500 ;
 - (iii) breaches of regulations under the Mining Act, 1906, as amended, from £10 to £50 ;
 - (iv) wrongful extraction of moneys for anything done under the said Act, as so amended, from £50 to £250 ;
 - (v) wrongful mining on private lands from £10 to £500 ;
- (kkk) to make other provisions of a minor or machinery nature, or ancillary to the foregoing.

No. , 1961.

Mining (Amendment).

(h) by inserting next after section 39C the following ^{New} Division 3A.
new Division :—

DIVISION 3A.—MINING LEASES OF CROWN LANDS CONTAINING MINERALS NOT RESERVED TO THE CROWN.

39D. (1) The Governor in the name and on ^{Application} for lease.
behalf of Her Majesty may grant mineral leases of Crown lands containing any minerals not reserved to the Crown, whether or not such lands also contain gold or minerals reserved to the Crown. The provisions of subsection two of section twenty-three of this Act shall apply to the leasing of Crown lands under this Division.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section—

(a) the provisions of Divisions 2 and 3 of this Part of this Act apply mutatis mutandis to leases under this Division and to applications for such leases; and

(b) the provisions of this Act relating to the rights and duties of applicants for, and lessees under, and of other persons in relation to the land comprised in, leases of Crown lands granted under this Division shall be the same as the rights and duties of applicants for, and lessees under, and of other persons in relation to the land comprised in, leases of Crown lands granted under section twenty-three of this Act.

(3) In addition to the rent payable to the Crown in respect of any lease under this Division, a yearly rental of five shillings per acre or portion of an acre in respect of the whole of the area included in any such lease, being a lease to mine for coal or shale, shall be reserved to the owner of such coal or shale and shall be paid half-yearly in advance.

Mining (Amendment).

(4) (a) A royalty at such rate as may be prescribed shall be paid in respect of all minerals not reserved to the Crown won from any land included in a lease under this Division.

5 (b) The regulations may prescribe rates according to a percentage of the value of the mineral won or an amount per ton on all mineral won or an amount per cubic foot, cubic yard, gallon or other appropriate standard of measurement or otherwise
10 howsoever.

Different rates may be prescribed in respect of different minerals. In the case of rates according to a percentage of the value of the mineral won such rates shall not exceed one and three-quarters per 15 centum of such value. In the case of rates according to an amount per ton on all mineral (other than coal or shale) won such rates shall not exceed two shillings per ton. The rate prescribed in respect of coal or shale shall not exceed one shilling per ton.

20 (c) The holder of any lease granted under this Division shall at the times and in the manner prescribed pay to the Minister on behalf of the owner of the minerals included in such lease the royalties required to be paid by such holder under 25 this subsection.

(d) The Minister shall at the times and in the manner prescribed pay to the owner of the minerals the royalties paid as aforesaid less—

- 30 (i) one-seventh of the amount paid under paragraph (a) of this subsection in respect of all minerals other than coal or shale won from the land; and
(ii) one penny per ton of all coal or shale won from the land;

35 which he is hereby authorised to deduct from such sum; and the amount so deducted shall be paid by the Minister into the Treasury and carried to the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Mining (Amendment).

(e) Upon any renewal of a lease under this Division the Governor may, in respect of such renewal, vary the amount payable by way of royalty under paragraph (a) of this subsection to such extent as he may determine.

For the purposes of paragraph (d) of this subsection the amount determined by the Governor in respect of any such renewal pursuant to the foregoing provision shall in respect of such renewal be deemed to be the amount prescribed by paragraph (a) of this subsection.

The provisions of paragraph (d) of this subsection with regard to deductions shall apply to such renewed leases.

(f) The lessee of any lease granted under this Division, being a lease to mine coal or shale not reserved to the Crown, may deduct from the sum payable under paragraph (a) of this subsection in any one year to the Minister on behalf of the owner of the coal or shale a sum equal to the amount paid by him to such owner as rent for that year. For the purposes of this paragraph leases amalgamated under the provisions of this Act shall be regarded as separate leases unless the owners of the coal or shale are identical.

(5) Where there are in any Crown lands minerals not reserved to the Crown together with gold or minerals reserved to the Crown, the provisions of Division 5 of this Part shall extend to enabling the Minister to grant an authority under that Division in respect of such land, and to revoke or cancel any such authority.

The holder of any such authority at the times and in the manner prescribed, shall pay to the Crown in respect of any minerals reserved to the Crown won by him pursuant to such authority a royalty in accordance with the provisions of section thirty-six of this Act and such royalty may be recovered from the lessee as a Crown debt.

Mining (Amendment).

(6) No lease under this Division shall be granted—

5 (a) where the owner of the minerals not reserved to the Crown, or some other person with his consent, is, at the time possession of the land is taken by the applicant for the lease, bona fide carrying on mining operations for the purpose of winning such minerals unless such owner consents to the lease; or

10 (b) where the minerals that are not reserved to the Crown are coal or shale and are included in the freehold or leasehold lands held by the owner of a colliery and within the colliery holding a plan or description and particulars of title of which have been furnished to the Under Secretary for Mines in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, before possession of the land is taken by the applicant for the lease, unless the owner of the colliery consents to the lease.

20 In the event of any dispute arising as to whether bona fide mining operations are being carried on as aforesaid or as to the area protected by this section, the question shall be determined by the Minister after inquiry and report by the warden and the Minister's decision shall be final.

25 (i) (i) by inserting in subsection one of section forty after the words "coal or shale mining" the words Sec. 40. (Governor may grant special leases.)
30 " , whether or not the land applied for exceeds the limits prescribed as to area or dimensions in respect of ordinary leases under this Part,";

35 (ii) by omitting from paragraph (a) of subsection two of the same section the words "that an area in excess of the limit prescribed should be leased" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "that a special mining lease should be granted";

Mining (Amendment).

(iii) by omitting from subsection three of the same section the words "form of and area to be comprised in any such lease" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "area to be comprised in any such lease and the form of such area";

(iv) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection : —

(5) Where the Minister is satisfied that by reason of the difficulties and cost attending the construction of mine works upon or of mining any land the subject of an application for a lease under this Part (this section excepted) or for any other sufficient reason it is necessary that any such application should be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this section the Minister may approve of the application being so dealt with, and, if the Minister so approves, the application shall be deemed to have been made for a lease under this section.

This subsection shall apply to applications for leases made before the commencement of this subsection and not granted or refused at such commencement as well as to applications for leases made after such commencement.

(j) by omitting from subsection one of section 40A the words "the form of and area to be comprised in any such lease" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the area to be comprised in any such lease and the form of such area".

Sec. 40A.
(Railway Commissioners' leases.)

(2) The amendments made by paragraph (d) of subsection one of this section shall not apply to any applicant for a mining lease where his application was made before the commencement of that paragraph and had not been granted or refused at such commencement, but the provisions of section twenty-eight of the Principal Act shall continue to apply to and in respect of any such applicant and his application until his application is granted or refused.

- DIVISION 4B.—SPECIAL LEASES OF PRIVATE LAND.
- 15 70F. (1) The Governor may, upon the recommendation of the Minister, grant a special mining lease of private land for mining, other than coal or shale mining, whether or not the area applied for exceeds any limits prescribed as to area or dimensions, and irrespective of whether any of the minerals contained in such land are reserved to the Crown or are not so reserved, if the Minister is satisfied that by reason of the difficulties and cost attending the construction of mine works upon or of mining such land, or for any other sufficient reason, it is necessary that such lease be granted. Governor may grant special leases of private land.
- 25 (2) The Minister may, on application being made in the prescribed manner for such lease, direct the prospecting board or the warden to inquire and report—
- 30 (a) whether by reason of the difficulties and cost attending the construction of mine works upon and of mining such land, or for any other sufficient reason, it is necessary that a special mining lease should be issued; and
- (b) upon the royalty to be paid; and
- 35 (c) upon such other matters as the Minister may direct.

Mining (Amendment).

(3) The Governor may fix the area to be comprised in any such lease and the form of such area and the labour and other conditions, reservations and exceptions to be contained in the lease.

5 (4) The Governor may fix the royalty to be paid by the lessee of any such lease and the lessee shall—

10 (a) in respect of all gold and minerals reserved to the Crown won from the land so leased, pay to the Crown the royalty fixed as aforesaid at the times and in the manner prescribed and such royalty may be recovered from the lessee as a Crown debt; and

15 (b) in respect of minerals not so reserved won from the land so leased, pay to the Minister on behalf of the owner of such minerals, the royalty fixed as aforesaid at the times and in the manner prescribed.

20 The Minister shall at the times and in the manner prescribed pay to the owner of such minerals the sum paid as aforesaid less one-seventh of such sum which he is hereby authorised to deduct from such sum; and the amounts so deducted shall be paid by the Minister into the Treasury and carried to 25 the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

30 Where any private land the subject of a lease under this section and the minerals to which the lessee is pursuant to such lease entitled to mine in or upon such land are privately owned and in the same ownership, and the royalty payable in respect of such minerals by the lessee during any one year exceeds the rent paid for such year in respect of such land, the amount paid as rent as aforesaid may be deducted from such sum payable as royalty; but

(5)

Mining (Amendment).

(5) In all other respects a special mining lease of private land and the application therefor shall be subject to the provisions of this Act in respect of ordinary leases under this Part.

5 (6) Where the Minister is satisfied that by reason of the difficulties and cost attending the construction of mine works upon or of mining any land the subject of an application for a lease under this Part or for any other sufficient reason it is 10 necessary that any such application should be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this section the Minister may approve of the application being so dealt with, and, if the Minister so approves, the application shall be deemed to have been made for 15 a lease under this section.

This subsection shall apply to applications for leases made before the commencement of this subsection and not granted or refused at such commencement as well as to applications for leases made 20 after such commencement.

“lease” where secondly occurring the words “, or the subject of the application,”;
- 5 (iv) by inserting in the same section after the word
“authority” where thirdly occurring the words
“, the applicant”.

(2) The amendments made by subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (j) of subsection one of this section shall not apply to any applicant for a lease of private lands where his 10 application was made before the commencement of that sub-paragraph and had not been granted or refused at such commencement, but the provisions of subsection five of section fifty-seven of the Principal Act shall continue to apply to and in respect of any such applicant until his application is granted or refused.

definitions of “Occupier” and “Owner” and by inserting in lieu thereof the following definitions :—

Sec. 84.
(Interpretation.)

20 “Occupier” means a person in lawful occupation of any private lands.

“Owner” includes—

25 (a) any person to whom the Crown has lawfully contracted to grant
the fee simple under the Crown Lands Acts, or to whom the Crown has granted any lease
under those Acts; and

30 (b) a trustee of private lands, a guardian in infancy, committee or manager appointed under Part X
of the Mental Health Act, 1958, and a mortgagee in possession.

“Private

Mining (Amendment).

“Private lands” means lands other than Crown lands but does not include leases granted under Part III or IV, or this Part, of this Act.

- 5 (ii) by omitting from the same section the definition of “River-bed”;

- (b) by omitting section eighty-five and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new section :— Substituted
sec. 85.

10 85. Nothing in this Part shall apply to any lands held under this Act nor, where the owner of any private lands has not consented to the grant of an authority to enter thereon, to those private lands if they are found by the warden to have been at the time the application for such authority under actual cultivation. Cultivation for the growth and spread of pasture grasses shall not be deemed to be cultivation within the meaning of this section unless, in the opinion of the Minister, the circumstances so warrant. In the case of dispute as to whether land is or is not under cultivation within the meaning of this section the Minister’s decision thereon shall be final.

This Part
not to apply to certain cultivated land.

- (c) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section eighty-six the words and symbols “any land (not being land held under or by virtue of any Act relating to mining)” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “any Crown lands or private lands”; Sec. 86.
(Governor may grant leases for purposes of mining by dredging, etc., and of what lands.)
- 25

- 30 (ii) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsection :—

(1A) The Governor, on the recommendation of the Minister, may, by notification, exempt from the provisions of this Part any land, whether Crown land or private land, and may, in like manner, revoke or amend any such notification.

35

Any

Mining (Amendment).

Any marking out of, or application for, any lands which are exempt from leasing under this section shall be void and of no effect :

5 Provided that where part only of any lands marked out or applied for are so exempt, nothing in this subsection shall prevent a lease being granted under this section of such part of those lands as is not so exempt.

10 (iii) by omitting subsection two of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection : —

(2) (a) The area that may be demised by any lease granted under this section shall not exceed one hundred acres.

15 (b) Every such lease shall contain such labour conditions as the Governor may determine.

20 (c) Except in the prescribed circumstances, every application for any such lease shall be accompanied by the prescribed survey fee.

25 Where the Minister is of opinion that a survey is unnecessary for the purposes of any such application, or that the cost of the survey is less than the prescribed survey fee lodged by the applicant for the lease, he may refund the whole or such part as he thinks fit, of any prescribed survey fee to such applicant.

30 (d) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section Sec. 87. eighty-seven the words "is not Crown land" (Land to be applied for wherever occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "is private lands"; to be entered and marked out.)

35 (ii) by omitting from subsection two of the same section the word "deposit" where firstly occurring and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "fee";

(iii)

Mining (Amendment).

- (iii) by omitting from the same subsection the words “On the order of the Minister the amount of such deposit, less such sum (if any) as the Minister directs to be retained to cover the expenses incurred by the Crown in relation to the application, shall be refunded to the applicant on the execution of the lease by the lessee, or if the Minister is satisfied that the application was bona fide, on the refusal of the application.”;
- (e) by omitting from subsection one of section eighty-eight the words “fourteen days” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “twenty-eight days”;
- (f) by omitting subsection three of section ninety and by inserting in lieu thereof the following sub-sections :—
- (3) If more than one application is made for a lease of the same land the application of the person who has first marked out such land shall be first considered and dealt with and so on according to priority of marking out.
- For the purposes of this subsection “marking out”
 means the act of erecting a datum post, provided that the mode of marking out prescribed by the regulations is forthwith complied with :
- Provided that where under the regulations a datum post is not required, the time of marking out shall be deemed to be the time at which the application is lodged.
- (4) If any application for a lease is refused or abandoned any other application for a lease of the same land may be considered and dealt with regard being had where necessary to the rule of priority aforesaid.

Mining (Amendment).

- (k) (i) by inserting next after subsection one of section ninety-eight the following new subsection :— Sec. 98.
(Rent and royalty.)
- 5 (1A) The rent to be paid to the Crown in respect of Crown land included in any dredging lease granted under this Part after the commencement of this subsection shall be five shillings per acre or portion of an acre. Such rent shall be payable at the times and places and in the manner prescribed :
- 10 Provided that all such rents shall be payable yearly in advance and the first annual payment shall be made on making the application for such lease.
- 15 (ii) by inserting at the end of paragraph (a) of subsection three of the same section the following new proviso :—
- 20 Provided that the lessee may deduct from the sum payable as aforesaid in any one year to the Minister on behalf of the owner of the minerals, a sum equal to the amount paid by him to such owner as rent for that year. For the purposes of this subsection leases amalgamated under the provisions of this Act shall be regarded as separate leases unless the owners of the minerals are identical : Provided further that if the
- 25 royalty in any one year payable to the Minister on behalf of the owner of the mineral amounts to less than the rent paid to such owner for such year, the lessee shall not for such year be
- 30 required to pay royalty.
- (l) by inserting next after subsection two of section ninety-nine the following new subsection :— Sec. 99.
(No obligation to grant lease.)
- 35 (2A) The Governor may refuse any application for a lease and such refusal shall take effect from the time of publication of such refusal in the Gazette.

agreement, working agreement, or other instrument, affecting, any lease under this Act or lease or agreement registered under section sixty-nine or seventy of this Act, together with a copy of every 5 such instrument certified by any two persons to be a true copy of the original, shall be lodged within the time and in the manner prescribed for—

(a) the sanction of the Minister in the case of any such transfer, assignment or instrument, 10 affecting any lease under this Act; or

(b) the concurrence of the Minister in the case of any transfer, assignment or instrument, affecting any lease or agreement registered under section sixty-nine or seventy of this 15 Act,

and for registration by the Registrar, Department of Mines, Sydney, under the provisions of this section.

The Minister may refuse such sanction or concurrence or may grant it absolutely or subject 20 to such amendments, modifications, stipulations or conditions (including a condition as to the payment of royalty), as he may think necessary in the public interest to make or impose.

Any transfer, assignment or other instrument required to be lodged for registration under this subsection, which is not lodged within the time and 25 in manner prescribed, shall not be registered unless the Minister so approves.

Any person who neglects or fails to comply with any such amendment, modification, stipulation or condition so imposed upon him shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds and to a further 30 penalty not exceeding five pounds for each and every day such neglect or failure continues.

(3) Every instrument which by this section is required to be lodged for registration shall be 35 lodged by such person as may be prescribed.

Any

Mining (Amendment).

5 Any person so prescribed who neglects or fails to comply with the provisions of subsection two of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable upon conviction to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds and to a further penalty not exceeding five pounds for each and every day such neglect or failure continues.

10 (4) (a) No transfer or assignment (except an assignment by operation of law) of, and no sub-lease, tribute agreement, option contract, mortgage, partnership agreement, working agreement or other dealing, affecting, any lease under this Act or lease or agreement registered under section sixty-nine or 15 seventy of this Act shall have any force or effect unless it is in writing and is signed by the parties thereto.

20 Nothing in this paragraph applies to any transfer or assignment, or any sub-lease, tribute, option, contract, mortgage, partnership agreement, working agreement or other dealing made before the commencement of the Mining (Amendment) Act, 1961, other than a transfer or tribute agreement referred to in section sixty-nine or seventy of this Act, as enacted immediately before such commencement.

25 (b) Any transfer, assignment or other instrument required to be lodged for registration under subsection two of this section shall not have any force or effect until it is registered under the provisions of this section.

30 Nothing in this paragraph applies to any transfer, assignment or other instrument made before the commencement of the Mining (Amendment) Act, 1961, other than a transfer or tribute agreement referred to in section sixty-nine or seventy of this
35 Act, as enacted immediately before such commencement.

Mining (Amendment).

- (5) Any person claiming interest in any lease under this Act or any Act hereby repealed, or under any lease or agreement under section sixty-nine or seventy of this Act may, before the registration of any instrument required by subsection one or two of this section to be registered, lodge with the Minister a caveat in the prescribed form, and accompanied by the prescribed fee, against such registration. On receipt of such caveat the Minister shall stay registration for fourteen days, unless the caveat is sooner withdrawn, but may then register the instrument, unless the person lodging the caveat has obtained and served upon him an order of some competent court forbidding such registration.

stipulations or conditions, including conditions as to the payment of royalty, as he may think 10 necessary in the public interest to impose, authorise the amalgamation of the said leases upon payment of a fee of two pounds for each lease so amalgamated, or he may refuse such application.

15 (b) Where any two or more leases have been amalgamated, whether before or after the commencement of this subsection and such amalgamated leases are the subject of any application made under this subsection after such commencement, they shall, for the purpose of 20 calculating the fee payable in respect of such application, be regarded as one lease.

(2) Where an applicant for an authority dies or becomes bankrupt or mentally ill before his application is granted or refused, the authority may,
30 if the legal representative of such deceased or bankrupt applicant or the committee, or manager of the property, of such mentally ill applicant so requests, be granted to such legal representative, committee or manager.

35 (3) An authority may be granted notwithstanding that the applicant therefor has not in every respect complied with the regulations or has included in the land applied for land in respect of which an authority may not be granted under this Act.

Mining (Amendment).

(4) Any such authority may, at the request in writing of the applicant therefor, be granted to any person nominated by him.

5 (5) The Minister may refuse any such application and upon publication of such refusal in the Gazette such application shall cease to be pending.

(6) The Minister may—

10 (a) determine the land to be held under any such authority and may grant any such authority in respect of the surface of the land and the soil thereof to a specified depth below the surface, or in respect of the soil below a specified depth below the surface, or in respect of the soil between specified depths below the surface;

15 (b) subject to this Act, grant any such authority in respect of the land referred to in the application therefor, or, with the consent in writing of the applicant therefor, grant such authority in respect of such land subject to such alterations, enlargements or reductions in the area thereof as the Minister may determine;

20 (c) determine the rent to be paid in respect of any such authority;

25 (d) grant any such authority subject to such conditions, provisions and stipulations as he may think fit;

Mining (Amendment).

- (h) by inserting next after section 39C the following new Division :—

New Division 3A.

DIVISION 3A.—MINING LEASES OF CROWN LANDS
CONTAINING MINERALS NOT RESERVED TO THE CROWN.

39D. (1) The Governor in the name and on behalf of Her Majesty may grant mineral leases of Crown lands containing any minerals not reserved to the Crown, whether or not such lands also contain gold or minerals reserved to the Crown. The provisions of subsection two of section twenty-three of this Act shall apply to the leasing of Crown lands under this Division.

Application
for lease.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section—

(a) the provisions of Divisions 2 and 3 of this Part of this Act apply mutatis mutandis to leases under this Division and to applications for such leases; and

(b) the provisions of this Act relating to the rights and duties of applicants for, and lessees under, and of other persons in relation to the land comprised in, leases of Crown lands granted under this Division shall be the same as the rights and duties of applicants for, and lessees under, and of other persons in relation to the land comprised in, leases of Crown lands granted under section twenty-three of this Act.

(3) In addition to the rent payable to the Crown in respect of any lease under this Division, a yearly rental of five shillings per acre or portion of an acre in respect of the whole of the area included in any such lease, being a lease to mine for coal or shale, shall be reserved to the owner of such coal or shale and shall be paid half-yearly in advance.

Mining (Amendment).

(4) (a) A royalty at such rate as may be prescribed shall be paid in respect of all minerals not reserved to the Crown won from any land included in a lease under this Division.

5 (b) The regulations may prescribe rates according to a percentage of the value of the mineral won or an amount per ton on all mineral won or an amount per cubic foot, cubic yard, gallon or other appropriate standard of measurement or otherwise
10 howsoever.

Different rates may be prescribed in respect of different minerals. In the case of rates according to a percentage of the value of the mineral won such rates shall not exceed one and three-quarters per centum of such value. In the case of rates according 15 to an amount per ton on all mineral (other than coal or shale) won such rates shall not exceed two shillings per ton. The rate prescribed in respect of coal or shale shall not exceed one shilling per ton.

20 (c) The holder of any lease granted under this Division shall at the times and in the manner prescribed pay to the Minister on behalf of the owner of the minerals included in such lease the royalties required to be paid by such holder under 25 this subsection.

(d) The Minister shall at the times and in the manner prescribed pay to the owner of the minerals the royalties paid as aforesaid less—

30 (i) one-seventh of the amount paid under paragraph (a) of this subsection in respect of all minerals other than coal or shale won from the land; and

(ii) one penny per ton of all coal or shale won from the land;

35 which he is hereby authorised to deduct from such sum; and the amount so deducted shall be paid by the Minister into the Treasury and carried to the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Mining (Amendment).

(e) Upon any renewal of a lease under this Division the Governor may, in respect of such renewal, vary the amount payable by way of royalty under paragraph (a) of this subsection to such extent as he may determine.

For the purposes of paragraph (d) of this subsection the amount determined by the Governor in respect of any such renewal pursuant to the foregoing provision shall in respect of such renewal be deemed to be the amount prescribed by paragraph (a) of this subsection.

The provisions of paragraph (d) of this subsection with regard to deductions shall apply to such renewed leases.

(f) The lessee of any lease granted under this Division, being a lease to mine coal or shale not reserved to the Crown, may deduct from the sum payable under paragraph (a) of this subsection in any one year to the Minister on behalf of the owner of the coal or shale a sum equal to the amount paid by him to such owner as rent for that year. For the purposes of this paragraph leases amalgamated under the provisions of this Act shall be regarded as separate leases unless the owners of the coal or shale are identical.

(5) Where there are in any Crown lands minerals not reserved to the Crown together with gold or minerals reserved to the Crown, the provisions of Division 5 of this Part shall extend to enabling the Minister to grant an authority under that Division in respect of such land, and to revoke or cancel any such authority.

The holder of any such authority at the times and in the manner prescribed, shall pay to the Crown in respect of any minerals reserved to the Crown won by him pursuant to such authority a royalty in accordance with the provisions of section thirty-six of this Act and such royalty may be recovered from the lessee as a Crown debt.

Mining (Amendment).

(6) No lease under this Division shall be granted—

5 (a) where the owner of the minerals not reserved to the Crown, or some other person with his consent, is, at the time possession of the land is taken by the applicant for the lease, bona fide carrying on mining operations for the purpose of winning such minerals unless such owner consents to the lease; or

10 (b) where the minerals that are not reserved to the Crown are coal or shale and are included in the freehold or leasehold lands held by the owner of a colliery and within the colliery holding a plan or description and particulars of title of which have been furnished to the 15 Under Secretary for Mines in accordance with the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, before possession of the land is taken by the 20 applicant for the lease, unless the owner of the colliery consents to the lease.

In the event of any dispute arising as to whether bona fide mining operations are being 25 carried on as aforesaid or as to the area protected by this section, the question shall be determined by the Minister after inquiry and report by the warden and the Minister's decision shall be final.

30 (i) (i) by inserting in subsection one of section forty after the words "coal or shale mining" the words "Sec. 40. (Governor may grant special leases.)", whether or not the land applied for exceeds the limits prescribed as to area or dimensions in respect of ordinary leases under this Part,";

35 (ii) by omitting from paragraph (a) of subsection two of the same section the words "that an area in excess of the limit prescribed should be leased" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "that a special mining lease should be granted";

Mining (Amendment).

(iii) by omitting from subsection three of the same section the words "form of and area to be comprised in any such lease" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "area to be comprised in any such lease and the form of such area";

(iv) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsection :—

(5) Where the Minister is satisfied that by reason of the difficulties and cost attending the construction of mine works upon or of mining any land the subject of an application for a lease under this Part (this section excepted) or for any other sufficient reason it is necessary that any such application should be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this section the Minister may approve of the application being so dealt with, and, if the Minister so approves, the application shall be deemed to have been made for a lease under this section.

This subsection shall apply to applications for leases made before the commencement of this subsection and not granted or refused at such commencement as well as to applications for leases made after such commencement.

(j) by omitting from subsection one of section 40A the words "the form of and area to be comprised in any such lease" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the area to be comprised in any such lease and the form of such area".

Sec. 40A.
(Railway Commissioners'
leases.)

(2) The amendments made by paragraph (d) of subsection one of this section shall not apply to any applicant for a mining lease where his application was made before the commencement of that paragraph and had not been granted or refused at such commencement, but the provisions of section twenty-eight of the Principal Act shall continue to apply to and in respect of any such applicant and his application until his application is granted or refused.

DIVISION 4B.—SPECIAL LEASES OF PRIVATE LAND.

15 70F. (1) The Governor may, upon the recommendation of the Minister, grant a special mining lease of private land for mining, other than coal or shale mining, whether or not the area applied for exceeds any limits prescribed as to area or dimensions, and irrespective of whether any of the minerals contained in such land are reserved to the Crown or are not so reserved, if the Minister is satisfied that by reason of the difficulties and cost attending the construction of mine works upon or of mining such land, or for any other sufficient reason, it is necessary that such lease be granted. Governor may grant
special leases of private land.

25 (2) The Minister may, on application being made in the prescribed manner for such lease, direct the prospecting board or the warden to inquire and report—

30 (a) whether by reason of the difficulties and cost attending the construction of mine works upon and of mining such land, or for any other sufficient reason, it is necessary that a special mining lease should be issued; and

(b) upon the royalty to be paid; and

35 (c) upon such other matters as the Minister may direct.

Mining (Amendment).

(3) The Governor may fix the area to be comprised in any such lease and the form of such area and the labour and other conditions, reservations and exceptions to be contained in the lease.

5 (4) The Governor may fix the royalty to be paid by the lessee of any such lease and the lessee shall—

10 (a) in respect of all gold and minerals reserved to the Crown won from the land so leased, pay to the Crown the royalty fixed as aforesaid at the times and in the manner prescribed and such royalty may be recovered from the lessee as a Crown debt; and

15 (b) in respect of minerals not so reserved won from the land so leased, pay to the Minister on behalf of the owner of such minerals, the royalty fixed as aforesaid at the times and in the manner prescribed.

20 The Minister shall at the times and in the manner prescribed pay to the owner of such minerals the sum paid as aforesaid less one-seventh of such sum which he is hereby authorised to deduct from such sum; and the amounts so deducted shall be paid by the Minister into the Treasury and carried to 25 the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

30 Where any private land the subject of a lease under this section and the minerals to which the lessee is pursuant to such lease entitled to mine in or upon such land are privately owned and in the same ownership, and the royalty payable in respect of such minerals by the lessee during any one year exceeds the rent paid for such year in respect of such land, the amount paid as rent as aforesaid may be deducted from such sum payable as royalty; but

(5)

Mining (Amendment).

(5) In all other respects a special mining lease of private land and the application therefor shall be subject to the provisions of this Act in respect of ordinary leases under this Part.

5 (6) Where the Minister is satisfied that by reason of the difficulties and cost attending the construction of mine works upon or of mining any land the subject of an application for a lease under 10 this Part or for any other sufficient reason it is necessary that any such application should be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this section the Minister may approve of the application being so dealt with, and, if the Minister so approves, the 15 application shall be deemed to have been made for a lease under this section.

This subsection shall apply to applications for leases made before the commencement of this subsection and not granted or refused at such commencement as well as to applications for leases made 20 after such commencement.

(z) by inserting at the end of paragraph (a) of Sec. 82.
subsection (2A) of section eighty-two the words "or, (Amount.) in the case of a special mining lease granted under section 70F of this Act, at such rates as may be 25 fixed by the Governor under that section";

30 (ii) by omitting from the same section the words "thereby conferred" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "conferred by or under this Act, or the lease, upon the holder of such authority or lease or upon the applicant for such lease";

(iii)

Mining (Amendment).

(iii) by inserting in the same section after the word "lease" where secondly occurring the words ", or the subject of the application,";

5 (iv) by inserting in the same section after the word "authority" where thirdly occurring the words ", the applicant".

(2) The amendments made by subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (j) of subsection one of this section shall not apply to any applicant for a lease of private lands where his 10 application was made before the commencement of that subparagraph and had not been granted or refused at such commencement, but the provisions of subsection five of section fifty-seven of the Principal Act shall continue to apply to and in respect of any such applicant until his application is granted or refused.

definitions of "Occupier" and "Owner" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following
definitions :—

Sec. 84.
(Interpretation.)

20 "Occupier" means a person in lawful occupation of any private lands.

"Owner" includes—

25 (a) any person to whom the Crown
has lawfully contracted to grant
the fee simple under the Crown
Lands Acts, or to whom the Crown has granted any lease
under those Acts; and

30 (b) a trustee of private lands, a guardian in infancy, committee or manager appointed under Part X
of the Mental Health Act, 1958,
and a mortgagee in possession.

Mining (Amendment).

“Private lands” means lands other than Crown lands but does not include leases granted under Part III or IV, or this Part, of this Act.

5 (ii) by omitting from the same section the definition of “River-bed”;

(b) by omitting section eighty-five and by inserting in lieu thereof the following new section :— Substituted
sec. 85.

10 85. Nothing in this Part shall apply to any lands held under this Act nor, where the owner of any private lands has not consented to the grant of an authority to enter thereon, to those private lands if they are found by the warden to have been at the time the application for such authority under actual cultivation. Cultivation for the growth and spread of pasture grasses shall not be deemed to be cultivation within the meaning of this section unless, in the opinion of the Minister, the circumstances so warrant. In the case of dispute as to whether land is or is not under cultivation within the meaning of this section the Minister’s decision thereon shall be final. This Part
not to apply

30 (ii) by inserting next after the same subsection the following new subsection :—

35 (1A) The Governor, on the recommendation of the Minister, may, by notification, exempt from the provisions of this Part any land, whether Crown land or private land, and may, in like manner, revoke or amend any such notification.

Any

Mining (Amendment).

Any marking out of, or application for, any lands which are exempt from leasing under this section shall be void and of no effect :

5 Provided that where part only of any lands marked out or applied for are so exempt, nothing in this subsection shall prevent a lease being granted under this section of such part of those lands as is not so exempt.

10 (iii) by omitting subsection two of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

(2) (a) The area that may be demised by any lease granted under this section shall not exceed one hundred acres.

15 (b) Every such lease shall contain such labour conditions as the Governor may determine.

20 (c) Except in the prescribed circumstances, every application for any such lease shall be accompanied by the prescribed survey fee.

25 Where the Minister is of opinion that a survey is unnecessary for the purposes of any such application, or that the cost of the survey is less than the prescribed survey fee lodged by the applicant for the lease, he may refund the whole or such part as he thinks fit, of any prescribed survey fee to such applicant.

 Minister directs to be retained to cover the expenses incurred by the Crown in relation to the application, shall be refunded to the applicant on the execution of the lease by the lessee, or if the Minister is satisfied that the application was bona fide, on the refusal of the application.”;
- (e) by omitting from subsection one of section eighty-eight the words “fourteen days” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “twenty-eight days”;
- (f) by omitting subsection three of section ninety and
 by inserting in lieu thereof the following sub-sections :—
- (3) If more than one application is made for a lease of the same land the application of the person who has first marked out such land shall be first considered and dealt with and so on according to priority of marking out.
- For the purposes of this subsection “marking out”
 means the act of erecting a datum post, provided that the mode of marking out prescribed by the regulations is forthwith complied with :
- Provided that where under the regulations a
 datum post is not required, the time of marking out shall be deemed to be the time at which the application is lodged.
- (4) If any application for a lease is refused or abandoned any other application for a lease of the same land may be considered and dealt with regard being had where necessary to the rule of priority aforesaid.

- (k) (i) by inserting next after subsection one of section ninety-eight the following new subsection :— Sec. 98.
(Rent and royalty.)

5 (1A) The rent to be paid to the Crown in respect of Crown land included in any dredging lease granted under this Part after the commencement of this subsection shall be five shillings per acre or portion of an acre. Such rent shall be payable at the times and places and in the manner prescribed :

10 Provided that all such rents shall be payable yearly in advance and the first annual payment shall be made on making the application for such lease.

- 15 (ii) by inserting at the end of paragraph (a) of subsection three of the same section the following new proviso :—

20 Provided that the lessee may deduct from the sum payable as aforesaid in any one year to the Minister on behalf of the owner of the minerals, a sum equal to the amount paid by him to such owner as rent for that year. For the purposes of this subsection leases amalgamated under the provisions of this Act shall be regarded as separate leases unless the owners of the minerals are identical : Provided further that if the
25 royalty in any one year payable to the Minister on behalf of the owner of the mineral amounts to less than the rent paid to such owner for such year, the lessee shall not for such year be 30 required to pay royalty.

- (l) by inserting next after subsection two of section ninety-nine the following new subsection :— Sec. 99.
(No obligation to grant lease.)

Mining (Amendment).

- (n) by omitting section one hundred and one and by inserting in lieu thereof the following section : — Substituted sec. 101.

Mining during pendency of application.

5 101. (1) When any application for a lease has been duly made the applicant, or his nominee, may by virtue of the application, until such lease is granted or refused, subject to the consent of the Minister and to any conditions (including, in the case of Crown lands, the payment of rent and royalty not exceeding that prescribed by section ninety-eight of this Act, and, in the case of private lands, such rent and compensation as may be determined or assessed and royalty not exceeding that prescribed by that section) or restrictions imposed by him, occupy the land applied for and mine upon and in such land. The Minister may by notice in writing addressed to the applicant revoke any such consent or may, in like manner, vary any such consent as he may think fit.

20 Any person occupying any land pursuant to this subsection who neglects or fails to comply with conditions or restrictions specified in any relevant consent given under this subsection shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

25 (2) This section shall apply to applications for leases made under this Part before the commencement of this section, and not granted at such commencement as well as to applications for leases made under this Part after such commencement :

30 Provided that where the applicant for a lease applied for before, and not granted at, such commencement, has before such commencement obtained the consent of the owner or occupier to commence mining operations in or on the area included in the application, such applicant may, in accordance with such consent, commence, and continue to carry on, such operations notwithstanding the provisions of this section.

5 Any person so prescribed who neglects or fails to comply with the provisions of subsection two of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable upon conviction to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds and to a further penalty not exceeding five pounds for each and every day such neglect or failure continues.

10 (4) (a) No transfer or assignment (except an assignment by operation of law) of, and no sub-lease, tribute agreement, option contract, mortgage, partnership agreement, working agreement or other dealing, affecting, any lease under this Act or lease
15 or agreement registered under section sixty-nine or seventy of this Act shall have any force or effect unless it is in writing and is signed by the parties thereto.

20 Nothing in this paragraph applies to any transfer or assignment, or any sub-lease, tribute, option, contract, mortgage, partnership agreement, working agreement or other dealing made before the commencement of the Mining (Amendment) Act, 1961, other than a transfer or tribute agreement referred to in section sixty-nine or seventy of this Act, as enacted immediately before such commencement.

25 (b) Any transfer, assignment or other instrument required to be lodged for registration under subsection two of this section shall not have any force or effect until it is registered under the provisions of this section.

30 Nothing in this paragraph applies to any transfer, assignment or other instrument made before the commencement of the Mining (Amendment) Act, 1961, other than a transfer or tribute agreement referred to in section sixty-nine or seventy of this 35 Act, as enacted immediately before such commencement.
