

CROWN LANDS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1963.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to repeal the provisions relating to the disposal of Crown lands under certain obsolete tenures ;
- (b) to provide for the periodic redetermination of rentals of future leases, not being suburban holdings for the erection of dwellings or leases converted out of existing tenures (other than special leases);
- (c) to provide that certain future leases may only be converted into purchases at a capital value determined as at the date of application for conversion ;
- (d) to require that the rent of future Crown-leases shall be the fair annual rent of the land instead of one and one-quarter per centum of the capital value ;
- (e) to repeal the provisions permitting the holders of homestead farms and Crown-leases to effect improvements in lieu of paying rent ;
- (f) to require the holders of conditional purchases to pay an annual instalment of seven per centum per annum including interest of four per centum per annum ;
- (g) to enable the Land and Valuation Court to extend the time for lodgment of an appeal against a decision or recommendation of a local land board ;
- (h) to permit of the holder of a week-end lease being required to pay the proportionate cost of resumption or withdrawal, or of making or providing roads ;
- (i) to provide that any disqualification from applying for a week-end lease because of the ownership of land shall include land held by the spouse of the applicant as well as by the applicant ;
- (j) to extend the provisions (whereby the survey fee may be reduced by the amount previously paid if a new tenure of the same land is obtained by the former owner) to other persons and in other circumstances ;
- (k) to provide that the local land board shall determine the rental as well as the capital value of land added under section 164 of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, to a lease ;
- (l) to require the local land board, when determining the rent, price or capital value of Crown land, to have regard to the additional value which accrues by reason of such land being held with other land ;
- (m) to enable a person who purchases Crown land at auction or after auction to claim a fencing contribution from an adjoining holder ;
- (n) to permit of a holding being forfeited upon default in payment towards cost of resumption or withdrawal and road making ;
- (o) to enable Crown land to be sold or leased to the Commonwealth and to validate sales and leases already made ;

- (p) to provide that the maximum term of a special lease for a term of years shall be forty instead of twenty-eight years;
- (q) to consolidate the provisions relating to variation of the purpose or conditions of special leases ;
- (r) to permit of two or more persons applying jointly for a suburban holding for the erection of a dwelling or for a week-end lease;
- (s) to permit of conversion of a special lease within a goldfield or mineral field, other than a special lease for the purpose of grazing, without the approval of the Minister for Mines ;
- (t) to provide for determination of the rent and alteration of the conditions for the residue of a special lease after conversion of part of the lease ;
- (u) to prevent the transfer without the Minister's consent of future holdings which may be obtained by conversion of special leases granted over certain expired conditional leases ;
- (v) to prevent the conversion of a conditional lease within a reserve for mining or mining purposes into a homestead farm except with the consent of the Minister for Mines ;
- (w) to exempt certain holdings from a condition of residence ;
- (x) to reduce the period allowed for payment of Crown improvements ;
- (y) to give the Minister a discretion in the recovery of a debt on an expired lease or permissive occupancy;
- (z) to confer additional rights on minors in respect of the purchase or mortgage of holdings with the consent of the Public Trustee ;
- (aa) to permit of subdivision of special leases, town lands leases and week-end leases ;
- (bb) to provide that restrictions on transfer shall not apply where the best practicable use of land is for the exploitation of the timber thereon or re-forestation ;
- (cc) to remove restrictions on the acquisition of Crown lands by aliens ;
- (dd) to permit the addition of Crown land to a reserve or dedicated area ;
- (ee) to extend the classes of notifications which automatically revoke existing reserves ;
- (ff) to extend the circumstances in which dedications may be revoked and validate revocations already made ;
- (gg) to empower trustees appointed under the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, to lease the land for which they were appointed ;

- (hh) to extend the provisions for reservation of Crown lands for public purposes so that such lands may be reserved temporarily or otherwise instead of only temporarily ;
- (ii) to clarify and extend the powers of a trustee, executor or administrator to effect a surrender for certain purposes of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913 ;
- (jj) to provide where the purchase of land held under a lease is limited to the surface or a specified depth that the land leased below the surface or that depth shall be deemed to have been surrendered to the Crown ;
- (kk) to authorise and validate the inclusion of a subsidence covenant in sales and leases of Crown lands ;
- (ll) to enable areas necessary for roads of access to be excluded without a formal surrender when a holding is being converted or subdivided ;
- (mm) to abolish quit-rents reserved in Crown grants ;
- (nn) to authorise and validate the practice of regarding the mortgagee of a suburban holding or returned soldiers special holding as the mortgagee of a purchase granted in respect of such a holding ;
- (oo) to make provisions for the inclusion of additional roads in, and the transfer, subdivision, variation, cancellation and amalgamation of, road permits ;
- (pp) to repeal the provisions requiring certain Crown grants to be in a prescribed form ;
- (qq) to authorise the issue of quarry licenses and validate licenses already issued ;
- (rr) to extend the power of the Minister to declare that the right to reclaim land below high-water mark has lapsed and permit such a declaration being made in respect of any part of the land ;
- (ss) to permit of the balance of purchase money on a conditional purchase being paid at any time ;
- (tt) to enable excess amounts at credit of a holder upon conversion to be transferred from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to any other fund without the approval of the Treasurer ;
- (uu) to dispense with the survey of a dividing line between certain holdings if a consolidated Crown grant will be issued ;
- (vv) to consolidate and extend existing provisions relating to concessions in the matter of residence and certain conditions to be performed on holdings ;
- (ww) to provide that the term of a future conditional lease obtained by conversion of a Crown-lease or a conditional purchase lease held for a term of years shall expire on the date on which the Crown-lease or conditional purchase lease would, but for conversion, have expired ;
- (xx) to enable a lease license or permissive occupancy to be granted under the provisions of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, or the Western Lands Act of 1901, over land within a timber reserve under the Forestry Act, 1916 ;

- (yy) to clarify the provisions in section 226 of the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, relating to the taking of timber by holders of conditional leases for building purposes ;
- (zz) to authorise and validate the charging of fees or costs in connection with applications under the Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913 ;
- (aaa) to make other provisions of a minor or machinery nature, or ancillary to the foregoing.

No. , 1963.

Crown Lands (Amendment).

(j) by inserting at the end of section two hundred and thirty-five the following new subsection :—

Sec. 235.
(Reservations in Crown grants.)

5 (4) Where the sale or lease or homestead selection of any land under this Act is limited to the surface only of the land or to the surface and to a specified depth below the surface the Governor may attach a covenant to any Crown grant in respect of any such sale or lease or homestead selection protecting the Crown and any mining lessee against any claim whatsoever in the event of subsidence taking place as a result of mining operations.

The provisions of this subsection shall—

- 15 (a) extend to any Crown grant whether issued before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963;
- (b) not relieve the Crown or any mining lessee from any liability to which the Crown or mining lessee may be subject by virtue of the provisions of the Mine Subsidence Compensation Act, 1961.

(k) by inserting next after section 235B the following short heading and new section :—

New sec. 235c.

25 Protection of the Crown and mining lessees against claims in the event of subsidence resulting from mining operations.

30 235c. Where any sale or lease or permissive occupancy or homestead selection of land under this Act is limited to the surface only of the land or to the surface and to a specified depth below the surface, a covenant may be attached to any such sale or lease or permissive occupancy or homestead selection, protecting the Crown or any mining lessee against any claim whatsoever in the event of subsidence resulting from mining operations. Such covenant shall attach to the land and shall continue to run notwithstanding any change in the tenure under which the land is held.

The

Crown Lands (Amendment).

The provisions of this section shall—

- 5 (a) extend to any sale or lease or permissive occupancy or homestead selection made or granted whether before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963;
- 10 (b) not relieve the Crown or any mining lessee from any liability to which the Crown or mining lessee may be subject by virtue of the provisions of the Mine Subsidence Compensation Act, 1961.
- 15 (1) (i) by omitting from section two hundred and fifty-seven the words "The holder of the conditional purchase, homestead selection, homestead farm, Crown-lease, conditional lease, settlement lease, suburban holding, suburban holding purchase, or conditional purchase lease, shall surrender such land as 20 may be necessary for providing roads of access to the subdivided portions, which land shall thereupon become Crown land free from any claim thereto of such holder." and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "Any areas 25 required for providing roads of access to the subdivided portions may be excluded by the Minister from the subdivision. Any areas so excluded shall thereupon be deemed to have been surrendered to the Crown.";
- 30 (ii) by inserting in the same section after the words
"such portions." the words "The Registrar-General may also make such entries on the grant or any certificate of title as may be necessary with respect to areas which the consent shows as having been excluded from 35 the subdivision for roads of access and which are deemed to be surrendered to the Crown.".

(ii) by inserting next after the same paragraph the following new paragraph :—

10 (d1) Where the Minister limits the granting of the application to the surface only of the land or to the surface and to such depth below the surface as he may specify the holding as to any part of the land excluded by such limitation shall be deemed to have been 15 surrendered to the Crown.

(b) by inserting at the end of section twenty-two the following new subsection :—

Sec. 22. (Crown grants—reservations.)

20 (3) Where the sale or lease of land under this Act is limited to the surface only of the land or to the surface and to a specified depth below the surface the Governor may attach a covenant to any Crown grant in respect of such sale or lease 25 protecting the Crown and any mining lessee against any claim whatsoever in the event of subsidence taking place as a result of mining operations.

The provisions of this subsection shall—

30 (a) extend to any Crown grant whether issued before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963 ;

Further amendment of Act No. 7, 1913. Sec. 129B. (Purchase of suburban holdings.)

10 (1A) Where the purchase is of a suburban holding which is subject to a mortgage charge or other security—

cf. Act No. 38, 1943, s. 2(6).

15 (a) the mortgagee or person holding or entitled to the benefit of the mortgage charge or other security shall be deemed to retain the rights, powers and remedies which are expressly or impliedly given to him by the mortgage charge or other security against the mortgagor and to have the same rights, powers and remedies which are so

20 expressly or impliedly given in respect of the purchase as he had or would have had in respect of the suburban holding if the purchase had not been effected, and the covenants, conditions, stipulations and provisions of the mortgage charge or other

25 security shall be deemed to apply to and to be capable of being enforced as if such mortgage charge or other security had been given or executed in respect of the purchase; and

30 (b) if the mortgage charge or other security is constituted, wholly or in part, by a transfer registered or recorded in the books of the Department of Lands, such transfer shall be deemed to extend to the purchase in the same manner as it applied

35 to the suburban holding.

This subsection shall be deemed to have commenced on the date of commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1917. (2)

Crown Lands (Amendment).

(2) The Returned Soldiers Settlement Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, is further amended by inserting at the end of section 4A the following new subsection : —

Further amendment of Act No. 21, 1916. Sec. 4A. (Purchase of special holdings.)

5 (2) Where the purchase is of a holding which is subject to a mortgage charge or other security—

cf. Act No. 38, 1943, s. 2 (6).

10 (a) the mortgagee or person holding or entitled to the benefit of the mortgage charge or other security shall be deemed to retain the rights, powers and remedies which are expressly or impliedly given to him by the mortgage charge or other security against the mortgagor and to have the same rights, powers and remedies which are so expressly or impliedly given in respect of the purchase as he had or would have had in respect of the holding if the purchase had not been effected, and the covenants, conditions, stipulations and provisions of the mortgage charge or other security shall be deemed to apply to and to be capable of being enforced as if such mortgage charge or other security had been given or executed in respect of the purchase ; and

15 (b) if the mortgage charge or other security is constituted, wholly or in part, by a transfer registered or recorded in the books of the Department of Lands, such transfer shall be deemed to extend to the purchase in the same manner as it applied to the holding.

20 This subsection shall be deemed to have commenced on the date of commencement of the Returned Soldiers Settlement (Amendment) Act, 1917.

25 11. (1) The Crown Lands Consolidation Act, 1913, as amended by subsequent Acts, is further amended—

Crown Lands (Amendment).

5 the local land board where the holder desires to enclose or has enclosed, as aforesaid, any additional road or watercourse and upon such variation the local land board shall determine the rent payable in respect of the additional road or watercourse from the date of variation to the date when the annual rent in respect of the road or watercourse originally enclosed is next payable. The rent so determined shall be payable upon the date of such 10 determination and thereafter the annual rent payable in respect of the road or watercourse originally enclosed and any such additional enclosure shall be the amount of rent payable in respect of the original enclosure and the amount determined 15 by the local land board to be payable in respect of such additional enclosure.”

(b) by omitting from subsection five of the same section the words “determined by the local land board as aforesaid” and by inserting in lieu thereof the 20 words “payable in respect of any such permission”;

(c) by inserting in subsection six of the same section after the word “Commission.” the words “Where any road or watercourse has been enclosed without the authority of the local land board with a 25 holding under the Crown Lands Acts or a freehold and such road or watercourse is additional to any road or watercourse which has been enclosed with such holding or freehold the local land board upon report by the district surveyor or said Commis-30 sion as the case may require shall determine the rent payable in respect of such additional road or watercourse from the date of such determination to the date when the annual rent in respect of the road or watercourse originally enclosed is next 35 payable. The rent so determined shall be payable upon the date of such determination and thereafter the amount of rent payable in respect of the road or watercourse originally enclosed and any such additional enclosure shall be the amount of 40 rent payable in respect of the original enclosure and

and the amount determined by the local land board to be payable in respect of such additional enclosure.”;

5 (d) (i) by inserting in subsection seven of the same section after the words “has been enclosed” the words “, or that part of the land, which such enclosure traverses or bounds,”;

(ii) by inserting in the same subsection after the words “such land” the words “or part”;

10 (iii) by inserting at the end of the same subsection the following new paragraph :—

15 Where permission has been granted to enclose a road or watercourse in accordance with this section, and the land with which such road or watercourse is enclosed is subdivided and transferred in such a way that portions of such road or watercourse traverse or bound parts of the land held by different holders, such permission shall, subject to this section, remain in full force and effect, and the holder of any part of the land which any portion of such road or watercourse traverses or bounds shall—

25 (a) erect such gates or suitable substitutes as the local land board may consider necessary in accordance with subsection one of this section, and

30 (b) pay such rent for such portion of such road or watercourse as the district surveyor may determine as being proportionate to the rent payable for the road or watercourse in respect of which such permission was granted: Provided that the annual rent for any portion of such road or watercourse after such subdivision and transfer shall not be less than two pounds.

35 (e)

Crown Lands (Amendment).

5 (e) by inserting in subsection nine of the same section after the words "anniversary of such date" the words "Provided that the district surveyor shall be deemed to have had power and shall have power to fix a new date from time to time for payment of the rent to coincide with any date on which another payment was or is required to be made by the holder to the Crown and the proportionate part of the rent to the new date shall be deemed to have 10 been and shall be payable upon the date of such fixation and thereafter the rent shall be deemed to have been and shall be payable in advance upon the new date and upon each anniversary of such date.";

15 (f) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsections :—

20 (10) Any permission to enclose wholly or in part any road or watercourse with a holding under the Crown Lands Acts or a freehold, whether granted before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963, shall be cancelled or varied by the Minister or the district surveyor, as may be necessary, upon forfeiture or conversion or expiration by effluxion of time of the 25 holding or acquisition by the Crown or any public authority of the holding or freehold or part of the holding or freehold or upon the road or part of the road being closed or dedicated as a public road or the road or watercourse ceasing to be enclosed : 30 Provided that where the term of the holding has expired and the holder obtains from the date of expiration under the same or a different class of tenure the land or part of the land formerly comprised within such holding and with which any such road or watercourse or part thereof is enclosed, 35 the permission shall remain in full force and effect and shall attach to the new holding.

Any

Crown Lands (Amendment).

5 Any such cancellation or variation shall take effect from such date as may be determined by the Minister or the district surveyor. Any such date may be a date before the decision is made to make such cancellation or variation.

10 Where the permission is varied the rental for the area as varied shall be at the same rate per acre as was applicable to the area subject to such permission before variation but the annual rent payable shall not be less than two pounds.

15 If the forfeiture of a holding is reversed whether provisionally or otherwise the cancellation or variation of any permission to enclose wholly or in part any road or watercourse with the holding may likewise be reversed provisionally or otherwise by the Minister or the district surveyor.

20 Any such provisional reversal of any such cancellation or variation shall suspend the operation of such cancellation or variation, as from the date when such cancellation or variation was made, and if such provisional reversal shall afterwards be revoked such revocation shall have the same effect as if the provisional reversal so revoked had never been made. Any absolute reversal of any such 25 cancellation or variation shall relate back to the date when such cancellation or variation was made, and shall have the same effect as if the cancellation or variation so reversed had never been made.

30 Any cancellation or variation of any such permission or reversal of any such cancellation or variation made, or permission attached to a new holding before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963, which would have been valid had the provisions of this subsection been 35 in operation when such cancellation or variation or reversal was made or the permission so attached, is hereby validated.

Crown Lands (Amendment).

(11) Any cancellation or variation of any permission to enclose wholly or in part a road or watercourse shall not operate to extinguish any debt to the Crown in respect of such permission unless the Minister otherwise approves. The Minister may so approve in respect of the whole or part of such debt irrespective of whether the permission was cancelled or varied before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963.

(12) On application or consent by the holder of two or more permissions to enclose wholly or in part any roads or watercourses the Minister or the district surveyor may, subject to such conditions as he may think necessary, authorise the amalgamation of the permissions which shall for all purposes thereafter be deemed to be one permission. The annual rent in respect of the amalgamated permissions shall be the sum of the separate rents or, where one or more of the permissions is held at a minimum rent, such amount not in excess of the sum of the separate rents as the local land board may determine: Provided that the annual rent in respect of the amalgamated permissions shall not be less than two pounds.

Any amalgamation of any such permissions made before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963, shall be and shall be deemed always to have been valid.

(2) The Closer Settlement Act, 1904, as amended by subsequent Acts, is further amended—

(a) by omitting from section forty-six the words “and upon complaint being made in the prescribed form with the prescribed deposit the local land board may for any sufficient reason cancel any permission granted as aforesaid, and may order any fence, gate, or other structure on any road to be removed by such holder, and within such period as the board

- 5 board may determine.” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “Such permission and direction may be varied by the local land board where the holder desires to enclose or has enclosed, as afore-10 said, any additional road and upon such variation the local land board shall determine the rent payable in respect of the additional road from the date of variation to the date when the annual rent in respect of the road originally enclosed is next payable. The rent so determined shall be payable upon the date of such determination and thereafter the annual rent payable in respect of the road originally enclosed and any such additional enclosure shall be the amount of rent payable in respect of the original enclosure and the amount determined by the local land board to be payable in respect of such additional enclosure.”;
- 20 (b) by inserting in the same section after the words “by the district surveyor.” the words “Where any road has been enclosed without the permission of the local land board or chairman with a purchase or lease under this Act and such road is additional to any road which has been enclosed with such purchase or lease the local land board upon report by 25 the district surveyor shall determine the rent payable in respect of such additional road from the date of such determination to the date when the annual rent in respect of the road originally enclosed is next payable. The rent so determined shall be payable upon the date of such determination and thereafter the annual rent payable in respect of the road originally enclosed and any such additional enclosure shall be the amount of rent payable in respect of the original enclosure and the amount 30 determined by the local land board to be payable in respect of such additional enclosure.”;
- 35 (c) by omitting from the same section the words “If the amount of the rent so determined be not paid by the person liable within two months after the date

Crown Lands (Amendment).

date of such determination the Minister may sue him therefor in any court of competent jurisdiction.

5 Any determination of rent under this section shall not be less than two pounds per annum." and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "The annual rent payable under this section shall not be less than two pounds.";

10 (d) by inserting at the end of the same section the following new subsections :—

15 (2) On complaint made, the local land board may, for any sufficient reason, cancel any permission to enclose wholly or in part a road granted under this section whether before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963, and may order any fence, gate or other structure on any road to be removed by such person, and within such period, as such board may determine. Such complaint shall be accompanied by the prescribed deposit : Provided that if such complaint be made by the Minister or by the council of a municipality or shire a deposit will not require to be made in respect of costs, nor shall costs be awarded against the Minister or such council on the hearing of such complaint.

25 Provided that—

30 (a) without making such complaint the Minister may by notification in the Gazette cancel any permission granted under this section if the rent payable in respect of any such permission remains unpaid at the expiration of three months after the date when the same fell due; and

35 (b) the Minister shall have power to reverse the cancellation by him of any such permission on such terms and conditions as to him may seem fit.

Crown Lands (Amendment).

5 (3) Where before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963, any permission to enclose a road in accordance with this section has been or is granted the annual rent shall be deemed to have been and shall be payable in advance.

10 The proportionate part of the rent from the date of the granting of the permission to a date fixed by the local land board or the district surveyor shall be deemed to have been and shall be payable upon the date of the granting of the permission and thereafter the rent shall be deemed to have been and shall be payable yearly in advance upon the date so fixed and upon each anniversary of such date : Provided that the district surveyor shall be deemed to have had power and shall have power to fix a new date from time to time for payment of the rent to coincide with any date on which another payment was or is required to be made by the holder to the Crown and the proportionate part of the rent to the new date shall be deemed to have been and shall be payable upon the date of such fixation and thereafter the rent shall be deemed to have been and shall be payable in advance upon the new date and upon each anniversary of such date.

25 (4) Where permission has been granted to enclose a road in accordance with this section, and the land with which the road has been enclosed, or that part of the land which such enclosure traverses or bounds, is subsequently transferred, the permission so granted shall, subject to this section, remain in full force and effect and the holder for the time being of such land or part shall be liable for payment of rent in respect of such enclosure and all arrears thereof.

30 Where permission has been granted to enclose a road in accordance with this section, and the land with which such road is enclosed is subdivided and transferred in such a way that portions of such road

Crown Lands (Amendment).

5 road traverse or bound parts of the land held by different holders, such permission shall, subject to this section, remain in full force and effect, and the holder of any part of the land which any portion of such road traverses or bounds shall—

- (a) erect such gates or suitable substitutes as the the local land board may consider necessary in accordance with subsection one of this section, and
- 10 (b) pay such rent for such portion of such road as the district surveyor may determine as being proportionate to the rent payable for the road in respect of which such permission was granted : Provided that the annual rent
- 15 for any portion of such road after such subdivision and transfer shall not be less than two pounds.

20 (5) Any permission to enclose wholly or in part any road with any purchase or lease under this Act, whether granted before or after the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963, shall be cancelled or varied by the Minister or the district surveyor, as may be necessary, upon forfeiture of the purchase or lease or acquisition by the Crown

25 or any public authority of the purchase or lease or part of the purchase or lease or upon the road or part of the road being closed or dedicated as a public road or ceasing to be enclosed.

30 Any such cancellation or variation shall take effect from such date as may be determined by the Minister or the district surveyor. Any such date may be a date before the decision is made to make such cancellation or variation.

35 Where the permission is varied the rental for the area as varied shall be at the same rate per acre as was applicable to the area subject to such permission before variation but the annual rent payable shall not be less than two pounds.

If

Crown Lands (Amendment).

5 If the forfeiture of a purchase or lease is reversed the cancellation or variation of any permission to enclose wholly or in part any road with the purchase or lease may likewise be reversed by the Minister or the district surveyor and such reversal shall relate back to the date when such cancellation or variation was made, and shall have the same effect as if the cancellation or variation so reversed had never been made.

10 Any cancellation or variation or reversal of any such cancellation or variation made before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963, which would have been valid had the provisions of this subsection been in operation when 15 such cancellation or variation or reversal was made is hereby validated.

20 (6) Any cancellation or variation of any permission to enclose wholly or in part any road shall not operate to extinguish any debt to the Crown in respect of such permission unless the Minister otherwise approves. The Minister may so approve in respect of the whole or part of such debt irrespective of whether the permission was cancelled or varied before or after the commencement of the 25 Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963.

30 (7) On application or consent by the holder of two or more permissions granted under this section the Minister or the district surveyor may, subject to such conditions as he may think necessary, authorise the amalgamation of the permissions which shall for all purposes thereafter be deemed to be one permission. The annual rent in respect of the amalgamated permissions shall be the sum of the separate rents or, where one or more of the 35 permissions is held at a minimum rent, such amount not in excess of the separate rents as the local land board may determine : Provided that the annual rent in respect of the amalgamated permissions shall not be less than two pounds.

Any

Crown Lands (Amendment).

Any amalgamation of any such permissions made before the commencement of the Crown Lands (Amendment) Act, 1963, shall be and shall be deemed always to have been valid.
