ANNO TERTIO DECIMO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. , 1964.

An Act to enable the Department of Agriculture to undertake, in certain circumstances, responsibility for the inspection of meat at certain abattoirs established in local government areas or county districts; to extend the powers of the Metropolitan Meat Industry Board relating to borrowing and in certain other respects; for these and other purposes to amend the Meat Industry Act, 1915, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE

Meat Industry (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Meat Industry (Amendment) Act, 1964". Short title and citation.

(2) The Meat Industry Act, 1915, as amended by subsequent Acts, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Meat Industry Act, 1915-1964.

2. The Principal Act is amended—

Amendment of Act No. 69, 1915.

(a) by omitting from the definition of "Inspector" in section seven the words "the said section" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "that section or section 9B of this Act"; Sec. 7. (Definitions.)

(b) by inserting next after section 9A the following new section :— New sec. 9B.

9B. (1) The Minister may, at the request of a council or county council within the meaning of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, agree that the Department of Agriculture shall, on and from a day to be specified in a notice in writing informing the council or county council of his agreement to its request, exercise and perform the council's or county council's powers, authorities, duties and functions under the provisions of any Act, regulation or ordinance in relation to— Assumption of council's meat inspection powers, etc., by Department of Agriculture.

(a) the inspection of—

county council and are licensed or deemed to be licensed under section 21A of this Act; and

- 5 (ii) any carcase or part of a carcase, and any sausages, saveloys or other smallgoods (to be used as the food of man) brought or sent to the premises specified in the notice in accordance with those provisions;
- 10 (b) the fixing and charging of fees for making inspections referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(2) The day specified in any such notice is, in relation to the premises specified in the notice, referred to in this section as the appointed day.

(3) On and from the appointed day, the powers, authorities, duties and functions referred to in subsection one of this section shall cease to be exercised and performed by the council or county council concerned and shall be exercised and performed by the Department of Agriculture.

20

(4) For the purposes of any Act, regulation or ordinance under which any powers, authorities, duties or functions referred to in subsection one of this section are conferred or imposed on a council or county council, a person appointed under section 9A of this Act to be an inspector and carrying out the duties of an inspector at any premises specified in a notice under subsection one of this section shall be deemed to be an inspector appointed under that Act, regulation or ordinance by the council or county council in whose area or district the premises are situated.

25

30

(5) Where, immediately before the appointed day, the council of an area or the county council of a district employed a servant, who was an

35

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 an inspector within the meaning of the Cattle
Slaughtering and Diseased Animals and Meat Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, and whose duties ordinarily were, or included, the carrying out
of any inspections of a kind referred to in paragraph
(a) of subsection one of this section, that servant
shall, on and from that day, cease to be a servant
of that council or county council and become and
be an employee of the Public Service and, except 10 as otherwise provided in this section, shall be subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

15 (6) A person who ceases to be a servant of a council or county council and becomes an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section shall—

20 (a) be paid salary or wages at a rate not less than the rate which was payable to him, as such a servant immediately before the
appointed day, subject to any adjustment
necessary to give effect to any fluctuations
in the basic wage for adult males from time
to time applicable by virtue of the provisions of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 25 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, until such salary or wages is or are varied or
altered under the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, or by an award or industrial 30 agreement made or filed under the said
Industrial Arbitration Act;

(b) be entitled to any recreation and sick leave accrued to him as such a servant but not taken at the appointed day; and

35 (c) have and enjoy rights and privileges with regard to extended leave not less favourable
than those applicable to him as such a servant immediately before he became such

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 such an employee and for the purpose of his entitlement under this paragraph his continuous service with the council or county council concerned immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed to be service in the Public Service.

10 (7) Except as provided by this section, where any condition of employment of any person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section was regulated by any award or industrial agreement made or filed under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by 15 subsequent Acts, and applicable to him as a servant of the council or county council concerned and does not conflict with any provisions contained in the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by 20 subsequent Acts, or the regulations made thereunder, such condition shall continue to apply to him until it is regulated by an agreement or determination made under the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, or by an award or industrial agreement so made or filed.

25 Where any dispute arises whether an award or industrial agreement regulating any such condition conflicts with any provisions contained in the said Public Service Act or the regulations thereunder, the said Act or regulations, as the case may be, shall prevail.

30 (8) Any person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section and who was, immediately before the appointed day, a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applied may, by writing under his hand
35 addressed to the State Superannuation Board constituted under the Superannuation Act, 1916, as amended

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 amended by subsequent Acts, and delivered or forwarded by post so as to be received in the office of that Board not later than three months after he became such an employee, elect to become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund constituted under that Act, as so amended.

10 (9) Any person making the election referred to in subsection eight of this section shall be deemed to be an employee within the meaning and for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, and to have become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund on and from the appointed day and shall—

15 (a) on and from the appointed day, cease to be a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applies; and

20 (b) be entitled to exercise whatever rights and to have and enjoy whatever benefits under the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, that he would have been entitled to exercise or have and enjoy if he had resigned from the service of the council or county council
25 concerned on the appointed day.

30 (10) Where a person who was entitled to make the election referred to in subsection eight of this section does not do so in accordance with that subsection, he shall continue to be a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applies and shall be entitled to receive any amount or benefit which he would have been entitled to receive under that Act had he continued in the service of the 35 council or county council concerned.

For

Meat Industry (Amendment).

For the purposes of this paragraph service in the Public Service after the appointed day shall be deemed to be service with the council or county council concerned.

5 (11) A person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section shall not be entitled to claim benefits under this Act as well as under any other Act in respect of the same period of service.

10 (12) The provisions of the Local Government (Superannuation) Act, 1927, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall apply to a person referred to in subsection ten of this section while he continues to be an employee of the Public Service, and
15 for the purposes of such application any reference in that Act, as so amended, to a council shall be construed as a reference to any Department of the Government in which that person is employed after the appointed day.

20 (13) In this section "Area" and "District" have the meanings ascribed thereto by section four and section five hundred and sixty, respectively, of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts.

25 (c) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section 21A the words "a city, municipality or shire" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "an area or a district";
30 (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "such city, municipality or shire" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "such area or the county council of such district";
35 (iii) by inserting in the same subsection after the word "subsection," the words "or by an inspector carrying out any such inspection at any premises specified in a notice under subsection one of section 9B of this Act,";

(iv)

Sec. 21A.
(Bringing or sending meat into Metropolitan Abattoir Area.)

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(iv) by inserting in the same subsection after the word "accordingly." the following new paragraph : —

5

In this subsection "Area" and "District" have the meanings ascribed thereto by section four and section five hundred and sixty, respectively, of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts.

3. The Principal Act is further amended by inserting Further amendment of Act No. 69, 1915. New secs. 14B-14I.
10 next after section 14A the following new sections : —

14B. The Board may from time to time with the concurrence of the Treasurer and the approval of the Governor borrow money for— Purposes for which money may be borrowed.

15

- (a) the purpose of carrying out and performing any of its powers, authorities, duties and functions;
- (b) the renewal of loans;
- (c) the discharge or partial discharge of any indebtedness to the Treasurer or to any bank; or
- (d) any other purpose of this Act.

20

14C. (1) The Board shall establish a reserve for loan repayment fund in respect of each loan or renewal loan raised by the Board. Reserves for repayment.

25

(2) The Board shall during each year transfer to each such fund from the revenue of the Board a sum not less than the sum that the Board in its application for approval of the loan intimated that it proposed to transfer as aforesaid.

30

(3) Where any land or property of any kind which has been provided out of loan moneys is sold before the loan has been wholly repaid, the net proceeds of

of the sale shall be added to the reserve for loan repayment in the appropriate fund or paid directly to the lender.

5 (4) Moneys held as reserve for loan repayment
may be invested in government securities of the Commonwealth of Australia or of the State of New South Wales, or in debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities in any loan of the Board, or in 10 any securities guaranteed by the Government of the said State, or in debentures or securities issued by the Sydney County Council or the Sydney City Council, or in such other securities as the Governor may approve or as may be prescribed, in each case at their current market price. Any interest or profits realised on such 15 investments shall be added to and form part of the reserve for loan repayment fund from which the investments were made. All moneys paid into the reserve fund for loan repayment in respect of any loan or renewal loan may be applied in or towards repayment
20 of any other loan or renewal loan but may not be applied for any other purpose until the loan or renewal loan in respect of which the fund has been established has been repaid.

25 (5) Where the Board decides to cancel debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities of the Board purchased from the reserve for repayment of the loan for which they were issued, then, in addition to the sum otherwise payable to the reserve for loan repayment in respect of 30 that loan, the Board shall, subject to any agreement to which it is a party whereby it undertakes to pay interest at a higher rate to such reserve, pay to such reserve interest at the rate of four and one-half per centum per annum on the face value of the cancelled securities from 35 the date of their cancellation until the maturity of the loan.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(6) If after a loan has been repaid, there remains in the reserve for repayment of that loan any balance, such balance shall form part of the funds of the Board.

5 (7) The reserve for loan repayment shall not be subject to seizure in satisfaction of any debt other than for the loan in respect of which the reserve was created.

10 (8) This section shall not apply to any loan to be repaid by instalments at intervals of one year or less.

14D. (1) For securing repayment of the principal Debentures, and interest on any money borrowed the Board may as ^{etc.} provided by the regulations issue debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities.

15 (2) Every such debenture or bond and every coupon originally annexed to the debenture or bond and whether separated therefrom or not shall be transferable by simple delivery.

20 (3) Inscribed stock shall be transferable in the books of the Board in accordance with the regulations.

25 (4) Debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or prescribed securities issued under this Act shall both as regards the issue and transfer thereof for full consideration or money or money's worth be deemed to be included in the general exemptions from stamp duty under Part III of the Stamp Duties Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, contained in the Second Schedule to that Act. The regulations may provide for the exemption from stamp duty of any other 30 prescribed security.

35 (5) The holder of a coupon originally annexed to a debenture or bond and whether separated therefrom or not shall be entitled to receive payment from the Board of the interest mentioned in the coupon upon the presentation of the same on or after the date when and at the place where the interest is payable.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 (6) The due repayment of the debentures, bonds, stock and the interest thereon and of any loan in respect of which any other prescribed security is issued and the interest thereon shall be a charge upon the income and revenue of the Board from whatever source arising and is hereby guaranteed by the Government. Any liability arising from such guarantee shall be payable out of moneys provided by Parliament. Such charge shall not prejudice or affect the power of the Board to sell or convey any property vested in it free of any such charge.

15 14E. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part any money which the Board is authorised to borrow may be borrowed by a loan raised wholly or in part in such country as the Governor may approve, and may be negotiated and raised in any currency. Raising loan in any country.

20 (2) Any such loan may be raised wholly or in part by the issue of debentures, bonds, stock or other securities in any form and containing any term, condition or provision permitted under the law of the place where such loan is raised and the Board may establish and conduct in such country registries relating to the securities issued in respect of such loan.

25 (3) The Board may in respect of any such loan agree that a sinking fund shall be established and controlled at such place, by such person and in such manner as may be found necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case and, where any such sinking fund is so established, the provisions of section 14C of this Act shall apply with regard to that loan only in respect of the amount, if any, the repayment of which is not provided for by the sinking fund established under the agreement.

30 (4) In connection with the raising of any loan under this section, the Board may enter into such agreements as the Board shall think fit with respect to the form of such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or for the sale of such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or the granting of an option to purchase such debentures.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or for services to be performed by any person in Australia or in any other part of the world in connection with such loan or with the issue, management and redemption of or otherwise with respect to such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, and such agreements may be upon such terms and conditions and may contain such provisions for the giving or receipt of consideration as the Board shall think fit.

10 Copies of any such agreement shall be forwarded to the Minister who shall cause the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible after the loan is raised.

15 (5) The Governor may upon the recommendation of the Board appoint two or more persons to enter into for and on behalf of the Board all such agreements as the Board is by this section authorised to enter into and to sign, execute, or otherwise perfect all such agreements, debentures, bonds, stock or other securities as are by this section provided for and to do all such things as may be necessary or convenient to be done for the purpose of raising any loan under this Act, and may upon the like recommendation revoke or vary any such appointment and make any fresh appointment.

25 The production of a copy of the Gazette containing a notification of any such appointment or revocation as aforesaid shall in favour of a lender or of any holder of a security be conclusive evidence of the appointment or revocation.

30 (6) All debentures, bonds, stock or other securities bearing the signatures of such persons so appointed in that behalf shall be deemed to be securities lawfully issued under seal by the Board and the principal moneys and interest secured thereby shall be a charge upon the income and revenue of the Board from whatsoever source arising, and the due repayment of such principal moneys and interest is hereby guaranteed by the Government, and all agreements and any instruments purporting to be made or issued under the 35 authority

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 authority of this section and bearing the signatures of such persons shall be deemed to have been lawfully made or issued by the Board, and if the same shall purport to have been sealed by such persons to have been lawfully executed by the Board under seal.

A holder of any such debenture, bond, stock or other security shall not be bound to enquire whether the issue of such security was in fact duly authorised.

10 (7) Subject to this section and the law in force in the place where any loan is raised under this section and applicable to such loan and the securities issued in connection therewith the provisions of this Part other than subsection one of section 14D and subsections three and four of section 14G of this Act shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to and in respect of such loan and such securities.

15 14F. (1) Any trustee unless expressly forbidden by Trustees. the instrument (if any) creating the trust, may invest any trust moneys in his hands in stock inscribed by the Board, and the investment shall be deemed to be an investment authorised by the Trustee Act, 1925, or any Act amending or replacing that Act.

20 (2) Any debenture issued or stock inscribed by the Board shall be a lawful investment for any moneys which any company, council or body corporate incorporated by any Act of Parliament of New South Wales is authorised or directed to invest in addition to any other investment expressly provided for the investment of such moneys.

25 (3) No notice of any trust expressed, implied or constructive, shall be received by the Board or by any officer of the Board in relation to any debenture or coupon issued or stock inscribed by the Board.

30 14G. (1) If any debenture or bond issued by the Board is lost or destroyed or defaced before the same has been paid, the Board may, subject to the provisions of this section, issue a new debenture or bond in lieu thereof. Lost debentures.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(2) The new debenture or bond with interest coupon annexed shall bear the same date, number, principal sum, and rate of interest as the lost, destroyed or defaced debenture or bond.

5 (3) When the debenture or bond is lost or destroyed the new debenture or bond shall not be issued unless and until—

10 (a) a judge of the Supreme Court has been satisfied by affidavit of the person entitled to the lost or destroyed debenture or bond, or of some person approved by the judge, that the same has been lost or destroyed before it has been paid off;

15 (b) such advertisement as the judge may direct has been published;

(c) six months have elapsed since the publication of the last of the advertisements; and

20 (d) sufficient security has been given to the Board to indemnify it against any double payment if the missing debenture or bond be at any time thereafter presented for payment.

(4) When the debenture or bond is defaced the new debenture or bond shall not be issued unless and until the defaced debenture or bond is lodged with the Board for cancellation.

(5) The provisions of this section shall, mutatis mutandis, extend to the case of a lost, destroyed, or defaced coupon.

30 (6) In case of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation or defacement of any debenture or bond issued under section 14E of this Act, a duplicate or new debenture or bond may be issued upon proof to the satisfaction of the Board of such loss, theft or destruction, or upon surrender of the mutilated or defaced
35 debenture or bond, as the case may be, and upon the Board

Meat Industry (Amendment).

Board receiving security or indemnity satisfactory to it against double payment if the missing debenture or bond be at any time thereafter presented for payment.

5 14H. (1) A person advancing money to the Board shall not be bound to enquire into the application of the money advanced, or be in any way responsible for the non-application or misapplication thereof. Protection of investments.

10 (2) A notification in the Gazette of the approval of the Governor having been given to a borrowing by the Board shall, in favour of a lender and of any holder of a security given by the Board, be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent to the borrowing have been complied with, and where the approval notified is to 15 the borrowing by the Board in a country outside New South Wales and in a particular currency shall also be conclusive evidence in favour of such persons of the approval of the Governor to the borrowing in the country and in the currency specified in the notification.

20 14I. All debentures, bonds, stock, or other securities which are secured upon the income and revenue of the Board shall rank pari passu without any preference one above another by reason of priority of date or otherwise. Debentures and bonds to rank pari passu.

4. (1) The Principal Act is further amended—

25 (a) by inserting at the end of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (d) of subsection three of section 9A the words "or, if he has not become so entitled before the expiration of the period hereinafter mentioned in this subparagraph, upon the expiration of such 30 period of service in the Public Service under this section as together with his service with the Board before the commencement of this section, being service after he became a contributor to the Metropolitan Meat Industry Board Officers' Endowment Fund, amounts to ten years";

[1s. 8d.]

MEAT INDUSTRY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1964.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to enable responsibility for a meat inspection service provided by the council of a local government area or county district at any abattoir licensed or deemed to be licensed under section 21A of the Meat Industry Act, 1915, as amended by subsequent Acts, to be transferred to the Department of Agriculture upon the application of the council and to provide for the transfer to the Public Service of certain council servants employed in connection with any such meat inspection service ;
- (b) to enlarge the powers of the Metropolitan Meat Industry Board by—
 - (i) empowering the Board to borrow funds on the open market, subject to the concurrence of the Treasurer, approval of the Governor and compliance with certain other conditions ;
 - (ii) including the storage of perishable food in the purposes for which it may use its cold storage works ;
 - (iii) empowering authorised officers of the Board to authorise the slaughter and destruction of animals found on its land or premises to be in such a condition that it would be cruel to keep them alive ;
 - (iv) rendering certain abattoirs now deemed to be licensed by the Board under the said section 21A subject to the Board's licensing powers thereunder ;
 - (v) authorising the Board by by-law to impose a charge where a slaughtering order is cancelled or altered later than eight hours before the day fixed for the slaughtering ;
- (c) to extend the circumstances in which certain meat inspectors transferred from employment with the Metropolitan Meat Industry Board to employment in the Public Service in 1952 may obtain a refund of their contributions to the Metropolitan Meat Industry Board Officers' Endowment Fund ;
- (d) to ensure that section 22G (unlawful branding of meat) of the said Act applies to local government areas and county districts outside the metropolitan abattoir area and in respect of which a proclamation under section 22D of the said Act is in force ;
- (e) to make other provisions of a minor or ancillary character.

No. , 1964

- 5 (ii) any carcase or part of a carcase, and any sausages, saveloys or other smallgoods (to be used as the food of man) brought or sent to the premises specified in the notice in accordance with those provisions;
- 10 (b) the fixing and charging of fees for making inspections referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

15 (2) The day specified in any such notice is, in relation to the premises specified in the notice, referred to in this section as the appointed day.

20 (3) On and from the appointed day, the powers, authorities, duties and functions referred to in subsection one of this section shall cease to be exercised and performed by the council or county council concerned and shall be exercised and performed by the Department of Agriculture.

25 (4) For the purposes of any Act, regulation or ordinance under which any powers, authorities, duties or functions referred to in subsection one of this section are conferred or imposed on a council or county council, a person appointed under section 9A of this Act to be an inspector and carrying out the duties of an inspector at any premises specified in a notice under subsection one of this section shall be deemed to be an inspector appointed under that Act, regulation or ordinance by the council or county council in whose area or district the premises are situated.

35 (5) Where, immediately before the appointed day, the council of an area or the county council of a district employed a servant, who was an

5 an inspector within the meaning of the Cattle
Slaughtering and Diseased Animals and Meat Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, and whose
duties ordinarily were, or included, the carrying out
of any inspections of a kind referred to in paragraph
(a) of subsection one of this section, that servant
shall, on and from that day, cease to be a servant
of that council or county council and become and
be an employee of the Public Service and, except 10 as otherwise provided in this section, shall be subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act,
1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

15 (6) A person who ceases to be a servant of
a council or county council and becomes an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section shall—

20 (a) be paid salary or wages at a rate not less than the rate which was payable to him, as
such a servant immediately before the
appointed day, subject to any adjustment
necessary to give effect to any fluctuations
in the basic wage for adult males from time
to time applicable by virtue of the provisions of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 25 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, until
such salary or wages is or are varied or
altered under the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, or by an award or industrial
30 agreement made or filed under the said
Industrial Arbitration Act;

(b) be entitled to any recreation and sick leave
accrued to him as such a servant but not
taken at the appointed day; and

35 (c) have and enjoy rights and privileges with regard to extended leave not less favourable
than those applicable to him as such a servant immediately before he became
such

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 such an employee and for the purpose of his entitlement under this paragraph his continuous service with the council or county council concerned immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed to be service in the Public Service.

10 (7) Except as provided by this section, where any condition of employment of any person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section was regulated by any award or industrial agreement made or filed under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, and applicable to him as a servant of the council or county council concerned
15 and does not conflict with any provisions contained in the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, or the regulations made thereunder, such condition shall continue to apply to him until it is regulated by an agreement or determination made under the Public Service Act, 1902,
20 as amended by subsequent Acts, or by an award or industrial agreement so made or filed.

25 Where any dispute arises whether an award or industrial agreement regulating any such condition conflicts with any provisions contained in the said Public Service Act or the regulations thereunder, the said Act or regulations, as the case may be, shall prevail.

30 (8) Any person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section and who was, immediately before the appointed day, a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applied may, by writing under his hand
35 addressed to the State Superannuation Board constituted under the Superannuation Act, 1916, as amended

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 amended by subsequent Acts, and delivered or forwarded by post so as to be received in the office of that Board not later than three months after he became such an employee, elect to become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund constituted under that Act, as so amended.

10 (9) Any person making the election referred to in subsection eight of this section shall be deemed to be an employee within the meaning and for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, and to have become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund on and from the appointed day and shall—

15 (a) on and from the appointed day, cease to be a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applies; and

20 (b) be entitled to exercise whatever rights and to have and enjoy whatever benefits under the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, that he would have been entitled to exercise or have and enjoy if he had resigned from the service of the council or county council concerned on the appointed day.

30 (10) Where a person who was entitled to make the election referred to in subsection eight of this section does not do so in accordance with that subsection, he shall continue to be a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applies and shall be entitled to receive any amount or benefit which he would have been entitled to receive under that Act had he continued in the service of the council or county council concerned.

35 For

Meat Industry (Amendment).

For the purposes of this paragraph service in the Public Service after the appointed day shall be deemed to be service with the council or county council concerned.

5 (11) A person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section shall not be entitled to claim benefits under this Act as well as under any other Act in respect of the same period of service.

10 (12) The provisions of the Local Government (Superannuation) Act, 1927, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall apply to a person referred to in subsection ten of this section while he continues to be an employee of the Public Service, and for the purposes of such application any reference
15 in that Act, as so amended, to a council shall be construed as a reference to any Department of the Government in which that person is employed after the appointed day.

20 (13) In this section "Area" and "District" have the meanings ascribed thereto by section four and section five hundred and sixty, respectively, of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts.

25 (c) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section 21A the words "a city, municipality or shire" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "an area or a district";
30 (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "such city, municipality or shire" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "such area or the county council of such district";
35 (iii) by inserting in the same subsection after the word "subsection," the words "or by an inspector carrying out any such inspection at any premises specified in a notice under subsection one of section 9B of this Act,";
(iv)

Sec. 21A.
(Bringing or sending meat into Metropolitan Abattoir Area.)

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(iv) by inserting in the same subsection after the word "accordingly." the following new paragraph :—

5 In this subsection "Area" and "District" have the meanings ascribed thereto by section four and section five hundred and sixty, respectively, of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts.

3. The Principal Act is further amended by inserting
10 next after section 14A the following new sections :—

Further amendment of Act No. 69, 1915. New secs. 14B-14I.

14B. The Board may from time to time with the concurrence of the Treasurer and the approval of the Governor borrow money for—
15 Purposes for which money may be borrowed.

- (a) the purpose of carrying out and performing any of its powers, authorities, duties and functions;
- (b) the renewal of loans;
- (c) the discharge or partial discharge of any indebtedness to the Treasurer or to any bank; or
- (d) any other purpose of this Act.

20 14C. (1) The Board shall establish a reserve for loan repayment fund in respect of each loan or renewal loan raised by the Board. Reserves for repayment.

25 (2) The Board shall during each year transfer to each such fund from the revenue of the Board a sum not less than the sum that the Board in its application for approval of the loan intimated that it proposed to transfer as aforesaid.

30 (3) Where any land or property of any kind which has been provided out of loan moneys is sold before the loan has been wholly repaid, the net proceeds of

of the sale shall be added to the reserve for loan repayment in the appropriate fund or paid directly to the lender.

5 (4) Moneys held as reserve for loan repayment
may be invested in government securities of the Commonwealth of Australia or of the State of New South Wales, or in debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities in any loan of the Board, or in 10 any securities guaranteed by the Government of the said State, or in debentures or securities issued by the Sydney County Council or the Sydney City Council, or
in such other securities as the Governor may approve or as may be prescribed, in each case at their current market price. Any interest or profits realised on such 15 investments shall be added to and form part of the reserve for loan repayment fund from which the investments were made. All moneys paid into the reserve fund for loan repayment in respect of any loan or renewal loan may be applied in or towards repayment 20 of any other loan or renewal loan but may not be applied for any other purpose until the loan or renewal
loan in respect of which the fund has been established
has been repaid.

25 (5) Where the Board decides to cancel debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities of the Board purchased from the reserve for repayment of the loan for which they were issued, then, in addition to the sum otherwise payable to the reserve for loan repayment in respect of 30 that loan, the Board shall, subject to any agreement to which it is a party whereby it undertakes to pay interest at a higher rate to such reserve, pay to such reserve interest at the rate of four and one-half per centum per annum on the face value of the cancelled securities from 35 the date of their cancellation until the maturity of the loan.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(6) If after a loan has been repaid, there remains in the reserve for repayment of that loan any balance, such balance shall form part of the funds of the Board.

5 (7) The reserve for loan repayment shall not be subject to seizure in satisfaction of any debt other than for the loan in respect of which the reserve was created.

10 (8) This section shall not apply to any loan to be repaid by instalments at intervals of one year or less.

14D. (1) For securing repayment of the principal and interest on any money borrowed the Board may as provided by the regulations issue debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities. ^{Debentures, etc.}

15 (2) Every such debenture or bond and every coupon originally annexed to the debenture or bond and whether separated therefrom or not shall be transferable by simple delivery.

20 (3) Inscribed stock shall be transferable in the books of the Board in accordance with the regulations.

25 (4) Debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or prescribed securities issued under this Act shall both as regards the issue and transfer thereof for full consideration or money or money's worth be deemed to be included in the general exemptions from stamp duty under Part III of the Stamp Duties Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, contained in the Second Schedule to that Act. The regulations may provide for the exemption from stamp duty of any other
30 prescribed security.

35 (5) The holder of a coupon originally annexed to a debenture or bond and whether separated therefrom or not shall be entitled to receive payment from the Board of the interest mentioned in the coupon upon the presentation of the same on or after the date when and at the place where the interest is payable.

(6)

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 (6) The due repayment of the debentures, bonds, stock and the interest thereon and of any loan in respect of which any other prescribed security is issued
and the interest thereon shall be a charge upon the income and revenue of the Board from whatever source arising and is hereby guaranteed by the Government. Any liability arising from such guarantee shall be payable out of moneys provided by Parliament.
Such charge shall not prejudice or affect the power of 10 the Board to sell or convey any property vested in it free
of any such charge.

15 14E. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part any money which the Board is authorised to borrow may be borrowed by a loan raised wholly or in part in such country as the Governor may approve, and may be negotiated and raised in any currency.

20 (2) Any such loan may be raised wholly or in part by the issue of debentures, bonds, stock or other securities in any form and containing any term, condition or provision permitted under the law of the place where such loan is raised and the Board may establish and conduct in such country registries relating to the securities issued in respect of such loan.

25 (3) The Board may in respect of any such loan agree that a sinking fund shall be established and controlled at such place, by such person and in such manner as may be found necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case and, where any such sinking fund is so established, the provisions of section 14C of 30 this Act shall apply with regard to that loan only in respect of the amount, if any, the repayment of which is not provided for by the sinking fund established under the agreement.

35 (4) In connection with the raising of any loan under this section, the Board may enter into such agreements as the Board shall think fit with respect to the form of such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or for the sale of such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or the granting of an option to purchase such
debentures,

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or for services to be performed by any person in Australia or in any other part of the world in connection with such loan or with the issue, management and redemption of or otherwise with respect to such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, and such agreements may be upon such terms and conditions and may contain such provisions for the giving or receipt of consideration as the Board shall think fit.

10 Copies of any such agreement shall be forwarded to the Minister who shall cause the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible after the loan is raised.

15 (5) The Governor may upon the recommendation of the Board appoint two or more persons to enter into for and on behalf of the Board all such agreements as the Board is by this section authorised to enter into and to sign, execute, or otherwise perfect all such agreements, debentures, bonds, stock or other securities as are by this section provided for and to do all such things as may be necessary or convenient to be done for the purpose of raising any loan under this Act, and may upon the like recommendation revoke or vary any such appointment and make any fresh appointment.

25 The production of a copy of the Gazette containing a notification of any such appointment or revocation as aforesaid shall in favour of a lender or of any holder of a security be conclusive evidence of the appointment or revocation.

30 (6) All debentures, bonds, stock or other securities bearing the signatures of such persons so appointed in that behalf shall be deemed to be securities lawfully issued under seal by the Board and the principal moneys and interest secured thereby shall be a charge upon the income and revenue of the Board from whatsoever source arising, and the due repayment of such principal moneys and interest is hereby guaranteed by the Government, and all agreements and any instruments purporting to be made or issued under the authority

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 authority of this section and bearing the signatures of such persons shall be deemed to have been lawfully made or issued by the Board, and if the same shall purport to have been sealed by such persons to have been lawfully executed by the Board under seal.

A holder of any such debenture, bond, stock or other security shall not be bound to enquire whether the issue of such security was in fact duly authorised.

10 (7) Subject to this section and the law in force in the place where any loan is raised under this section and applicable to such loan and the securities issued in connection therewith the provisions of this Part other than subsection one of section 14D and subsections three and four of section 14G of this Act shall apply, mutatis
15 mutandis, to and in respect of such loan and such securities.

14F. (1) Any trustee unless expressly forbidden by 20 the instrument (if any) creating the trust, may invest any trust moneys in his hands in stock inscribed by the Board, and the investment shall be deemed to be an investment authorised by the Trustee Act, 1925, or any Act amending or replacing that Act. Trustees.

25 (2) Any debenture issued or stock inscribed by the Board shall be a lawful investment for any moneys which any company, council or body corporate incorporated by any Act of Parliament of New South Wales is authorised or directed to invest in addition to any other investment expressly provided for the investment of such moneys.

30 (3) No notice of any trust expressed, implied or constructive, shall be received by the Board or by any officer of the Board in relation to any debenture or coupon issued or stock inscribed by the Board.

35 14G. (1) If any debenture or bond issued by the Board is lost or destroyed or defaced before the same has been paid, the Board may, subject to the provisions of this section, issue a new debenture or bond in lieu thereof. Lost debentures.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(2) The new debenture or bond with interest coupon annexed shall bear the same date, number, principal sum, and rate of interest as the lost, destroyed or defaced debenture or bond.

5 (3) When the debenture or bond is lost or destroyed the new debenture or bond shall not be issued unless and until—

10 (a) a judge of the Supreme Court has been satisfied by affidavit of the person entitled to the lost or destroyed debenture or bond, or of some person approved by the judge, that the same has been lost or destroyed before it has been paid off;

15 (b) such advertisement as the judge may direct has been published;

(c) six months have elapsed since the publication of the last of the advertisements; and

20 (d) sufficient security has been given to the Board to indemnify it against any double payment if the missing debenture or bond be at any time thereafter presented for payment.

(4) When the debenture or bond is defaced the new debenture or bond shall not be issued unless and until the defaced debenture or bond is lodged with the Board for cancellation.

(5) The provisions of this section shall, mutatis mutandis, extend to the case of a lost, destroyed, or defaced coupon.

30 (6) In case of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation or defacement of any debenture or bond issued under section 14E of this Act, a duplicate or new debenture or bond may be issued upon proof to the satisfaction of the Board of such loss, theft or destruction, or upon surrender of the mutilated or defaced debenture or bond, as the case may be, and upon the Board

35

Meat Industry (Amendment).

Board receiving security or indemnity satisfactory to it against double payment if the missing debenture or bond be at any time thereafter presented for payment.

5 14H. (1) A person advancing money to the Board shall not be bound to enquire into the application of the money advanced, or be in any way responsible for the non-application or misapplication thereof. Protection of investments.

10 (2) A notification in the Gazette of the approval of the Governor having been given to a borrowing by the Board shall, in favour of a lender and of any holder of a security given by the Board, be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent to the borrowing have been complied with, and where the approval notified is to the borrowing by the Board in a country outside New South Wales and in a particular currency shall also be 15 conclusive evidence in favour of such persons of the approval of the Governor to the borrowing in the country and in the currency specified in the notification.

20 14I. All debentures, bonds, stock, or other securities which are secured upon the income and revenue of the Board shall rank pari passu without any preference one above another by reason of priority of date or otherwise. Debentures and bonds to rank pari passu.

4. (1) The Principal Act is further amended—

25 (a) by inserting at the end of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (d) of subsection three of section 9A the words “or, if he has not become so entitled before the expiration of the period hereinafter mentioned in this subparagraph, upon the expiration of such period of service in the Public Service under this section as together with his service with the Board before the commencement of this section, being 30 service after he became a contributor to the Metropolitan Meat Industry Board Officers’ Endowment Fund, amounts to ten years”;

BY AUTHORITY:

V. C. N. BLIGHT, GOVERNMENT PRINTER, SYDNEY, NEW SOUTH WALES—1964

No. , 1964

A BILL

To enable the Department of Agriculture to undertake, in certain circumstances, responsibility for the inspection of meat at certain abattoirs established in local government areas or county districts; to extend the powers of the Metropolitan Meat Industry Board relating to borrowing and in certain other respects; for these and other purposes to amend the Meat Industry Act, 1915, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith.

[MR. ENTICKNAP;—29 October, 1964.]

BE

Meat Industry (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Meat Industry (Amendment) Act, 1964". Short title and citation.

(2) The Meat Industry Act, 1915, as amended by subsequent Acts, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Meat Industry Act, 1915-1964.

2. The Principal Act is amended—

Amendment of Act No. 69, 1915.

(a) by omitting from the definition of "Inspector" in section seven the words "the said section" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "that section or section 9B of this Act"; Sec. 7. (Definitions.)

(b) by inserting next after section 9A the following new section :— New sec. 9B.

9B. (1) The Minister may, at the request of a council or county council within the meaning of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, agree that the Department of Agriculture shall, on and from a day to be specified in a notice in writing informing the council or county council of his agreement to its request, exercise and perform the council's or county council's powers, authorities, duties and functions under the provisions of any Act, regulation or ordinance in relation to— Assumption of council's meat inspection powers, etc., by Department of Agriculture.

(a) the inspection of—

(i) animals slaughtered or intended to be slaughtered at the premises specified in the notice that are within the area or district of the council or county

Slaughtering and Diseased Animals and Meat Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, and whose
duties ordinarily were, or included, the carrying out
of any inspections of a kind referred to in paragraph
(a) of subsection one of this section, that servant
shall, on and from that day, cease to be a servant
of that council or county council and become and
be an employee of the Public Service and, except 10 as otherwise provided in this section, shall be subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act,
1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

15 (6) A person who ceases to be a servant of
a council or county council and becomes an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section shall—

20 (a) be paid salary or wages at a rate not less than the rate which was payable to him, as
such a servant immediately before the
appointed day, subject to any adjustment
necessary to give effect to any fluctuations
in the basic wage for adult males from time
to time applicable by virtue of the provisions of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 25 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, until
such salary or wages is or are varied or
altered under the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, or by an award or industrial
30 agreement made or filed under the said
Industrial Arbitration Act;

forwarded by post so as to be received in the office of that Board not later than three months after he became such an employee, elect to become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund constituted under that Act, as so amended.

10 (9) Any person making the election referred to in subsection eight of this section shall be deemed to be an employee within the meaning and for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, and to have become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund on and from the appointed day and shall—

15 (a) on and from the appointed day, cease to be a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applies; and 20 (b) be entitled to exercise whatever rights and to have and enjoy whatever benefits under the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, that he would have been entitled to exercise or have and enjoy if he had resigned from the 25 service of the council or county council

concerned on the appointed day.

30 (10) Where a person who was entitled to make the election referred to in subsection eight of this section does not do so in accordance with that subsection, he shall continue to be a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applies and shall be entitled to receive any amount or benefit which he would have been entitled to receive under that Act had he continued in the service of the 35 council or county council concerned.

For

Meat Industry (Amendment).

For the purposes of this paragraph service in the Public Service after the appointed day shall be deemed to be service with the council or county council concerned.

5 (11) A person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section shall not be entitled to claim benefits under this Act as well as under any other Act in respect of the same period of service.

10 (12) The provisions of the Local Government (Superannuation) Act, 1927, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall apply to a person referred to in subsection ten of this section while he continues to be an employee of the Public Service, and
15 for the purposes of such application any reference in that Act, as so amended, to a council shall be construed as a reference to any Department of the Government in which that person is employed after the appointed day.

20 (13) In this section "Area" and "District" have the meanings ascribed thereto by section four and section five hundred and sixty, respectively, of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts.

25 (c) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section 21A the words "a city, municipality or shire" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "an area or a district";
30 (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "such city, municipality or shire" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "such area or the county council of such district";
35 (iii) by inserting in the same subsection after the word "subsection," the words "or by an inspector carrying out any such inspection at any premises specified in a notice under subsection one of section 9B of this Act,";
(iv)

Sec. 21A.
(Bringing or sending meat into Metropolitan Abattoir Area.)

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(iv) by inserting in the same subsection after the word "accordingly." the following new paragraph :—

5 In this subsection "Area" and "District" have the meanings ascribed thereto by section four and section five hundred and sixty, respectively, of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts.

3. The Principal Act is further amended by inserting Further amendment of Act No. 69, 1915.

10 next after section 14A the following new sections :—

New secs. 14B-14I.

14B. The Board may from time to time with the concurrence of the Treasurer and the approval of the Governor borrow money for—

Purposes for which money may be borrowed.

- 15 (a) the purpose of carrying out and performing any of its powers, authorities, duties and functions;
- (b) the renewal of loans;
- (c) the discharge or partial discharge of any indebtedness to the Treasurer or to any bank ; or
- (d) any other purpose of this Act.

20 14C. (1) The Board shall establish a reserve for loan repayment fund in respect of each loan or renewal loan raised by the Board. Reserves for repayment.

25 (2) The Board shall during each year transfer to each such fund from the revenue of the Board a sum not less than the sum that the Board in its application for approval of the loan intimated that it proposed to transfer as aforesaid.

30 (3) Where any land or property of any kind which has been provided out of loan moneys is sold before the loan has been wholly repaid, the net proceeds of

of the sale shall be added to the reserve for loan repayment in the appropriate fund or paid directly to the lender.

5 (4) Moneys held as reserve for loan repayment
may be invested in government securities of the Commonwealth of Australia or of the State of New South Wales, or in debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other
prescribed securities in any loan of the Board, or in 10 any securities guaranteed by the Government of the
said State, or in debentures or securities issued by the Sydney County Council or the Sydney City Council, or
in such other securities as the Governor may approve
or as may be prescribed, in each case at their current market price. Any interest or profits realised on such 15 investments shall be added to and form part of the reserve for loan repayment fund from which the investments were made. All moneys paid into the reserve fund for loan repayment in respect of any loan or
renewal loan may be applied in or towards repayment
20 of any other loan or renewal loan but may not be applied for any other purpose until the loan or renewal
loan in respect of which the fund has been established
has been repaid.

25 (5) Where the Board decides to cancel debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities
of the Board purchased from the reserve for repayment of the loan for which they were issued, then, in addition to the sum otherwise payable to the reserve for loan 30 repayment in respect of that loan, the Board shall, subject to any agreement to which it is a party whereby it undertakes to pay interest at a higher rate to such reserve, pay to such reserve interest at the rate of four and one-half per centum per annum on the face value 35 of the cancelled securities from the date of their cancellation until the maturity of the loan.

(6)

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(6) If after a loan has been repaid, there remains in the reserve for repayment of that loan any balance, such balance shall form part of the funds of the Board.

5 (7) The reserve for loan repayment shall not be subject to seizure in satisfaction of any debt other than for the loan in respect of which the reserve was created.

10 (8) This section shall not apply to any loan to be repaid by instalments at intervals of one year or less.

14D. (1) For securing repayment of the principal Debentures, and interest on any money borrowed the Board may as etc. provided by the regulations issue debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities.

15 (2) Every such debenture or bond and every coupon originally annexed to the debenture or bond and whether separated therefrom or not shall be transferable by simple delivery.

20 (3) Inscribed stock shall be transferable in the books of the Board in accordance with the regulations.

25 (4) Debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or prescribed securities issued under this Act shall both as regards the issue and transfer thereof for full consideration or money or money's worth be deemed to be included in the general exemptions from stamp duty under Part III of the Stamp Duties Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, contained in the Second Schedule to that Act. The regulations may provide for the exemption from stamp duty of any other
30 prescribed security.

35 (5) The holder of a coupon originally annexed to a debenture or bond and whether separated therefrom or not shall be entitled to receive payment from the Board of the interest mentioned in the coupon upon the presentation of the same on or after the date when and at the place where the interest is payable.

(6)

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 (6) The due repayment of the debentures,
bonds, stock and the interest thereon and of any loan in respect of which any other prescribed security is issued
and the interest thereon shall be a charge upon the income and revenue of the Board from whatever
source arising and is hereby guaranteed by the Government. Any liability arising from such guarantee shall be payable out of moneys provided by Parliament.
10 Such charge shall not prejudice or affect the power of the Board to sell or convey any property vested in it free
of any such charge.

14E. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part any money which the Board is authorised to borrow may be borrowed by a loan raised wholly or in part in such country as the Governor may approve, and may be negotiated and raised in any currency. Raising loan in any country.

20 (2) Any such loan may be raised wholly or in part by the issue of debentures, bonds, stock or other securities in any form and containing any term, condition or provision permitted under the law of the place where such loan is raised and the Board may establish and conduct in such country registries relating to the securities issued in respect of such loan.

25 (3) The Board may in respect of any such loan agree that a sinking fund shall be established and controlled at such place, by such person and in such manner as may be found necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case and, where any such sinking fund is so established, the provisions of section 14C of this Act shall apply with regard to that loan only in respect of the amount, if any, the repayment of which is not provided for by the sinking fund established under the agreement.

35 (4) In connection with the raising of any loan under this section, the Board may enter into such agreements as the Board shall think fit with respect to the form of such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or for the sale of such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or the granting of an option to purchase such debentures.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or for services to be performed by any person in Australia or in any other part of the world in connection with such loan or with the issue, management and redemption of or otherwise with respect to such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, and such agreements may be upon such terms and conditions and may contain such provisions for the giving or receipt of consideration as the Board shall think fit.

10 Copies of any such agreement shall be forwarded to the Minister who shall cause the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible after the loan is raised.

15 (5) The Governor may upon the recommendation of the Board appoint two or more persons to enter into for and on behalf of the Board all such agreements as the Board is by this section authorised to enter into and to sign, execute, or otherwise perfect all such agreements, debentures, bonds, stock or other securities as are by this section provided for and to do all such things as may be necessary or convenient to be done for the purpose of raising any loan under this Act, and may upon the like recommendation revoke or vary any such appointment and make any fresh appointment.

25 The production of a copy of the Gazette containing a notification of any such appointment or revocation as aforesaid shall in favour of a lender or of any holder of a security be conclusive evidence of the appointment or revocation.

30 (6) All debentures, bonds, stock or other securities bearing the signatures of such persons so appointed in that behalf shall be deemed to be securities lawfully issued under seal by the Board and the principal moneys and interest secured thereby shall be a charge upon the income and revenue of the Board from whatsoever source arising, and the due repayment of such principal moneys and interest is hereby guaranteed by the Government, and all agreements and any instruments purporting to be made or issued under the authority

Meat Industry (Amendment).

5 authority of this section and bearing the signatures of such persons shall be deemed to have been lawfully made or issued by the Board, and if the same shall purport to have been sealed by such persons to have been lawfully executed by the Board under seal.

A holder of any such debenture, bond, stock or other security shall not be bound to enquire whether the issue of such security was in fact duly authorised.

10 (7) Subject to this section and the law in force in the place where any loan is raised under this section and applicable to such loan and the securities issued in connection therewith the provisions of this Part other than subsection one of section 14D and subsections three and four of section 14G of this Act shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to and in respect of such loan and such securities.

15 14F. (1) Any trustee unless expressly forbidden by Trustees. the instrument (if any) creating the trust, may invest any trust moneys in his hands in stock inscribed by the Board, and the investment shall be deemed to be an investment authorised by the Trustee Act, 1925, or any Act amending or replacing that Act.

20 (2) Any debenture issued or stock inscribed by the Board shall be a lawful investment for any moneys which any company, council or body corporate incorporated by any Act of Parliament of New South Wales is authorised or directed to invest in addition to any other investment expressly provided for the investment of such moneys.

25 (3) No notice of any trust expressed, implied or constructive, shall be received by the Board or by any officer of the Board in relation to any debenture or coupon issued or stock inscribed by the Board.

30 14G. (1) If any debenture or bond issued by the Board is lost or destroyed or defaced before the same has been paid, the Board may, subject to the provisions of this section, issue a new debenture or bond in lieu thereof. Lost debentures.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(2) The new debenture or bond with interest coupon annexed shall bear the same date, number, principal sum, and rate of interest as the lost, destroyed or defaced debenture or bond.

5 (3) When the debenture or bond is lost or destroyed the new debenture or bond shall not be issued unless and until—

10 (a) a judge of the Supreme Court has been satisfied by affidavit of the person entitled to the lost or destroyed debenture or bond, or of some person approved by the judge, that the same has been lost or destroyed before it has been paid off;

15 (b) such advertisement as the judge may direct has been published;

(c) six months have elapsed since the publication of the last of the advertisements; and

20 (d) sufficient security has been given to the Board to indemnify it against any double payment if the missing debenture or bond be at any time thereafter presented for payment.

25 (4) When the debenture or bond is defaced the new debenture or bond shall not be issued unless and until the defaced debenture or bond is lodged with the Board for cancellation.

(5) The provisions of this section shall, mutatis mutandis, extend to the case of a lost, destroyed, or defaced coupon.

30 (6) In case of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation or defacement of any debenture or bond issued under section 14^E of this Act, a duplicate or new debenture or bond may be issued upon proof to the satisfaction of the Board of such loss, theft or destruction, or upon surrender of the mutilated or defaced
35 debenture or bond, as the case may be, and upon the Board

Meat Industry (Amendment).

Board receiving security or indemnity satisfactory to it against double payment if the missing debenture or bond be at any time thereafter presented for payment.

5 14H. (1) A person advancing money to the Board shall not be bound to enquire into the application of the money advanced, or be in any way responsible for the non-application or misapplication thereof. Protection of investments.

10 (2) A notification in the Gazette of the approval of the Governor having been given to a borrowing by the Board shall, in favour of a lender and of any holder of a security given by the Board, be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent to the borrowing have been complied with, and where the approval notified is to 15 the borrowing by the Board in a country outside New South Wales and in a particular currency shall also be conclusive evidence in favour of such persons of the approval of the Governor to the borrowing in the country and in the currency specified in the notification.

20 14I. All debentures, bonds, stock, or other securities which are secured upon the income and revenue of the Board shall rank pari passu without any preference one above another by reason of priority of date or otherwise. Debentures and bonds to rank pari passu.

4. (1) The Principal Act is further amended—

25 (a) by inserting at the end of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (d) of subsection three of section 9A the words “or, if he has not become so entitled before the expiration of the period hereinafter mentioned in this subparagraph, upon the expiration of such period of service in the Public Service under this section as together with his service with the Board before the commencement of this section, being 30 service after he became a contributor to the Metropolitan Meat Industry Board Officers’ Endowment Fund, amounts to ten years”;

county council and are licensed or deemed to be licensed under section 21A of this Act; and

- (ii) any carcase or part of a carcase, and any sausages, saveloys or other smallgoods (to be used as the food of man) brought or sent to the premises specified in the notice in accordance with those provisions;
- (b) the fixing and charging of fees for making inspections referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(2) The day specified in any such notice is, in relation to the premises specified in the notice, referred to in this section as the appointed day.

(3) On and from the appointed day, the powers, authorities, duties and functions referred to in subsection one of this section shall cease to be exercised and performed by the council or county council concerned and shall be exercised and performed by the Department of Agriculture.

(4) For the purposes of any Act, regulation or ordinance under which any powers, authorities, duties or functions referred to in subsection one of this section are conferred or imposed on a council or county council, a person appointed under section 9A of this Act to be an inspector and carrying out the duties of an inspector at any premises specified in a notice under subsection one of this section shall be deemed to be an inspector appointed under that Act, regulation or ordinance by the council or county council in whose area or district the premises are situated.

(5) Where, immediately before the appointed day, the council of an area or the county council of a district employed a servant, who was an

an inspector within the meaning of the Cattle Slaughtering and Diseased Animals and Meat Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, and whose duties ordinarily were, or included, the carrying out of any inspections of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section, that servant shall, on and from that day, cease to be a servant of that council or county council and become and be an employee of the Public Service and, except as otherwise provided in this section, shall be subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

(6) A person who ceases to be a servant of a council or county council and becomes an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section shall—

- (a) be paid salary or wages at a rate not less than the rate which was payable to him, as such a servant immediately before the appointed day, subject to any adjustment necessary to give effect to any fluctuations in the basic wage for adult males from time to time applicable by virtue of the provisions of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, until such salary or wages is or are varied or altered under the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, or by an award or industrial agreement made or filed under the said Industrial Arbitration Act;
- (b) be entitled to any recreation and sick leave accrued to him as such a servant but not taken at the appointed day; and
- (c) have and enjoy rights and privileges with regard to extended leave not less favourable than those applicable to him as such a servant immediately before he became such

such an employee and for the purpose of his entitlement under this paragraph his continuous service with the council or county council concerned immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed to be service in the Public Service.

(7) Except as provided by this section, where any condition of employment of any person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section was regulated by any award or industrial agreement made or filed under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, and applicable to him as a servant of the council or county council concerned and does not conflict with any provisions contained in the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, or the regulations made thereunder, such condition shall continue to apply to him until it is regulated by an agreement or determination made under the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, or by an award or industrial agreement so made or filed.

Where any dispute arises whether an award or industrial agreement regulating any such condition conflicts with any provisions contained in the said Public Service Act or the regulations thereunder, the said Act or regulations, as the case may be, shall prevail.

(8) Any person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section and who was, immediately before the appointed day, a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applied may, by writing under his hand addressed to the State Superannuation Board constituted under the Superannuation Act, 1916, as amended

amended by subsequent Acts, and delivered or forwarded by post so as to be received in the office of that Board not later than three months after he became such an employee, elect to become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund constituted under that Act, as so amended.

(9) Any person making the election referred to in subsection eight of this section shall be deemed to be an employee within the meaning and for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, and to have become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund on and from the appointed day and shall—

- (a) on and from the appointed day, cease to be a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applies; and
- (b) be entitled to exercise whatever rights and to have and enjoy whatever benefits under the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, that he would have been entitled to exercise or have and enjoy if he had resigned from the service of the council or county council concerned on the appointed day.

(10) Where a person who was entitled to make the election referred to in subsection eight of this section does not do so in accordance with that subsection, he shall continue to be a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applies and shall be entitled to receive any amount or benefit which he would have been entitled to receive under that Act had he continued in the service of the council or county council concerned.

For

Meat Industry (Amendment).

For the purposes of this paragraph service in the Public Service after the appointed day shall be deemed to be service with the council or county council concerned.

(11) A person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section shall not be entitled to claim benefits under this Act as well as under any other Act in respect of the same period of service.

(12) The provisions of the Local Government (Superannuation) Act, 1927, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall apply to a person referred to in subsection ten of this section while he continues to be an employee of the Public Service, and for the purposes of such application any reference in that Act, as so amended, to a council shall be construed as a reference to any Department of the Government in which that person is employed after the appointed day.

(13) In this section "Area" and "District" have the meanings ascribed thereto by section four and section five hundred and sixty, respectively, of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts.

- (c) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section 21A the words "a city, municipality or shire" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "an area or a district";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "such city, municipality or shire" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "such area or the county council of such district"; of the sale shall be added to the reserve for loan repayment in the appropriate fund or paid directly to the lender.
- (iii) by inserting in the same subsection after the word "subsection," the words "or by an inspector carrying out any such inspection at any premises specified in a notice under subsection one of section 9B of this Act,";

(4) Moneys held as reserve for loan repayment may be invested in government securities of the Commonwealth of Australia or of the State of New South Wales, or in debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities in any loan of the Board, or in any securities guaranteed by the Government of the said State, or in debentures or securities issued by the Sydney County Council or the Sydney City Council, or in such other securities as the Governor may approve or as may be prescribed, in each case at their current market price. Any interest or profits realised on such investments shall be added to and form part of the reserve for loan repayment fund from which the investments were made. All moneys paid into the reserve fund for loan repayment in respect of any loan or renewal loan may be applied in or towards repayment of any other loan or renewal loan but may not be applied for any other purpose until the loan or renewal loan in respect of which the fund has been established has been repaid.

(5) Where the Board decides to cancel debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities of the Board purchased from the reserve for repayment of the loan for which they were issued, then, in addition to the sum otherwise payable to the reserve for loan repayment in respect of that loan, the Board shall, subject to any agreement to which it is a party whereby it undertakes to pay interest at a higher rate to such reserve, pay to such reserve interest at the rate of four and one-half per centum per annum on the face value of the cancelled securities from the date of their cancellation until the maturity of the loan.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(6) If after a loan has been repaid, there remains in the reserve for repayment of that loan any balance, such balance shall form part of the funds of the Board.

(7) The reserve for loan repayment shall not be subject to seizure in satisfaction of any debt other than for the loan in respect of which the reserve was created.

(8) This section shall not apply to any loan to be repaid by instalments at intervals of one year or less.

Debentures,
etc.

14D. (1) For securing repayment of the principal and interest on any money borrowed the Board may as provided by the regulations issue debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities.

(2) Every such debenture or bond and every coupon originally annexed to the debenture or bond and whether separated therefrom or not shall be transferable by simple delivery.

(3) Inscribed stock shall be transferable in the books of the Board in accordance with the regulations.

(4) Debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or prescribed securities issued under this Act shall both as regards the issue and transfer thereof for full consideration or money or money's worth be deemed to be included in the general exemptions from stamp duty under Part III of the Stamp Duties Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, contained in the Second Schedule to that Act. The regulations may provide for the exemption from stamp duty of any other prescribed security.

(5) The holder of a coupon originally annexed to a debenture or bond and whether separated therefrom or not shall be entitled to receive payment from the Board of the interest mentioned in the coupon upon the presentation of the same on or after the date when and at the place where the interest is payable.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(6) The due repayment of the debentures, bonds, stock and the interest thereon and of any loan in respect of which any other prescribed security is issued and the interest thereon shall be a charge upon the income and revenue of the Board from whatever source arising and is hereby guaranteed by the Government. Any liability arising from such guarantee shall be payable out of moneys provided by Parliament. Such charge shall not prejudice or affect the power of the Board to sell or convey any property vested in it free of any such charge.

14E. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part any money which the Board is authorised to borrow may be borrowed by a loan raised wholly or in part in such country as the Governor may approve, and may be negotiated and raised in any currency. Raising loan
in any country.

(2) Any such loan may be raised wholly or in part by the issue of debentures, bonds, stock or other securities in any form and containing any term, condition or provision permitted under the law of the place where such loan is raised and the Board may establish and conduct in such country registries relating to the securities issued in respect of such loan.

(3) The Board may in respect of any such loan agree that a sinking fund shall be established and controlled at such place, by such person and in such manner as may be found necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case and, where any such sinking fund is so established, the provisions of section 14c of this Act shall apply with regard to that loan only in respect of the amount, if any, the repayment of which is not provided for by the sinking fund established under the agreement.

(4) In connection with the raising of any loan under this section, the Board may enter into such agreements as the Board shall think fit with respect to the form of such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or for the sale of such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or the granting of an option to purchase such debentures.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or for services to be performed by any person in Australia or in any other part of the world in connection with such loan or with the issue, management and redemption of or otherwise with respect to such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, and such agreements may be upon such terms and conditions and may contain such provisions for the giving or receipt of consideration as the Board shall think fit.

Copies of any such agreement shall be forwarded to the Minister who shall cause the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible after the loan is raised.

(5) The Governor may upon the recommendation of the Board appoint two or more persons to enter into for and on behalf of the Board all such agreements as the Board is by this section authorised to enter into and to sign, execute, or otherwise perfect all such agreements, debentures, bonds, stock or other securities as are by this section provided for and to do all such things as may be necessary or convenient to be done for the purpose of raising any loan under this Act, and may upon the like recommendation revoke or vary any such appointment and make any fresh appointment.

The production of a copy of the Gazette containing a notification of any such appointment or revocation as aforesaid shall in favour of a lender or of any holder of a security be conclusive evidence of the appointment or revocation.

(6) All debentures, bonds, stock or other securities bearing the signatures of such persons so appointed in that behalf shall be deemed to be securities lawfully issued under seal by the Board and the principal moneys and interest secured thereby shall be a charge upon the income and revenue of the Board from whatsoever source arising, and the due repayment of such principal moneys and interest is hereby guaranteed by the Government, and all agreements and any instruments purporting to be made or issued under the authority

authority of this section and bearing the signatures of such persons shall be deemed to have been lawfully made or issued by the Board, and if the same shall purport to have been sealed by such persons to have been lawfully executed by the Board under seal.

A holder of any such debenture, bond, stock or other security shall not be bound to enquire whether the issue of such security was in fact duly authorised.

(7) Subject to this section and the law in force in the place where any loan is raised under this section and applicable to such loan and the securities issued in connection therewith the provisions of this Part other than subsection one of section 14D and subsections three and four of section 14G of this Act shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to and in respect of such loan and such securities.

14F. (1) Any trustee unless expressly forbidden by the instrument (if any) creating the trust, may invest any trust moneys in his hands in stock inscribed by the Board, and the investment shall be deemed to be an investment authorised by the Trustee Act, 1925, or any Act amending or replacing that Act. Trustees.

(2) Any debenture issued or stock inscribed by the Board shall be a lawful investment for any moneys which any company, council or body corporate incorporated by any Act of Parliament of New South Wales is authorised or directed to invest in addition to any other investment expressly provided for the investment of such moneys.

(3) No notice of any trust expressed, implied or constructive, shall be received by the Board or by any officer of the Board in relation to any debenture or coupon issued or stock inscribed by the Board.

14G. (1) If any debenture or bond issued by the Board is lost or destroyed or defaced before the same has been paid, the Board may, subject to the provisions of this section, issue a new debenture or bond in lieu thereof. Lost debentures.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(2) The new debenture or bond with interest coupon annexed shall bear the same date, number, principal sum, and rate of interest as the lost, destroyed or defaced debenture or bond.

(3) When the debenture or bond is lost or destroyed the new debenture or bond shall not be issued unless and until—

- (a) a judge of the Supreme Court has been satisfied by affidavit of the person entitled to the lost or destroyed debenture or bond, or of some person approved by the judge, that the same has been lost or destroyed before it has been paid off;
- (b) such advertisement as the judge may direct has been published;
- (c) six months have elapsed since the publication of the last of the advertisements; and
- (d) sufficient security has been given to the Board to indemnify it against any double payment if the missing debenture or bond be at any time thereafter presented for payment.

(4) When the debenture or bond is defaced the new debenture or bond shall not be issued unless and until the defaced debenture or bond is lodged with the Board for cancellation.

(5) The provisions of this section shall, mutatis mutandis, extend to the case of a lost, destroyed, or defaced coupon.

(6) In case of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation or defacement of any debenture or bond issued under section 14E of this Act, a duplicate or new debenture or bond may be issued upon proof to the satisfaction of the Board of such loss, theft or destruction, or upon surrender of the mutilated or defaced debenture or bond, as the case may be, and upon the Board

Meat Industry (Amendment).

Board receiving security or indemnity satisfactory to it against double payment if the missing debenture or bond be at any time thereafter presented for payment.

14H. (1) A person advancing money to the Board shall not be bound to enquire into the application of the money advanced, or be in any way responsible for the non-application or misapplication thereof.

Protection
of investments.

(2) A notification in the Gazette of the approval of the Governor having been given to a borrowing by the Board shall, in favour of a lender and of any holder of a security given by the Board, be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent to the borrowing have been complied with, and where the approval notified is to the borrowing by the Board in a country outside New South Wales and in a particular currency shall also be conclusive evidence in favour of such persons of the approval of the Governor to the borrowing in the country and in the currency specified in the notification.

14I. All debentures, bonds, stock, or other securities which are secured upon the income and revenue of the Board shall rank pari passu without any preference one above another by reason of priority of date or otherwise.

V. C. N. BLIGHT, GOVERNMENT PRINTER, SYDNEY, NEW SOUTH WALES—1964

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

ALLAN PICKERING,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

Legislative Assembly Chamber, Sydney, 18 November, 1964.

New South Wales

ANNO TERTIO DECIMO

Act No. 43, 1964.

An Act to enable the Department of Agriculture to undertake, in certain circumstances, responsibility for the inspection of meat at certain abattoirs established in local government areas or county districts; to extend the powers of the Metropolitan Meat Industry Board relating to borrowing and in certain other respects; for these and other purposes to amend the Meat Industry Act, 1915, and certain other Acts; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 27th November, 1964.]

BE

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

HOWARD T. FOWLES,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Short title and citation. 1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Meat Industry (Amendment) Act, 1964".

(2) The Meat Industry Act, 1915, as amended by subsequent Acts, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Meat Industry Act, 1915-1964.

Amendment of Act No. 69, 1915. 2. The Principal Act is amended—

Sec. 7. (Definitions.) (a) by omitting from the definition of "Inspector" in section seven the words "the said section" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "that section or section 9B of this Act";

New sec. 9B. (b) by inserting next after section 9A the following new section :—

Assumption of council's meat inspection powers, etc., by Department of Agriculture. 9B. (1) The Minister may, at the request of a council or county council within the meaning of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, agree that the Department of Agriculture shall, on and from a day to be specified in a notice in writing informing the council or county council of his agreement to its request, exercise and perform the council's or county council's powers, authorities, duties and functions under the provisions of any Act, regulation or ordinance in relation to—

(a) the inspection of—

(i) animals slaughtered or intended to be slaughtered at the premises specified in the notice that are within the area or district of the council or county

Meat Industry (Amendment).

county council and are licensed or deemed to be licensed under section 21A of this Act; and

(ii) any carcase or part of a carcase, and any sausages, saveloys or other smallgoods (to be used as the food of man) brought or sent to the premises specified in the notice in accordance with those provisions;

(b) the fixing and charging of fees for making inspections referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(2) The day specified in any such notice is, in relation to the premises specified in the notice, referred to in this section as the appointed day.

(3) On and from the appointed day, the powers, authorities, duties and functions referred to in subsection one of this section shall cease to be exercised and performed by the council or county council concerned and shall be exercised and performed by the Department of Agriculture.

(4) For the purposes of any Act, regulation or ordinance under which any powers, authorities, duties or functions referred to in subsection one of this section are conferred or imposed on a council or county council, a person appointed under section 9A of this Act to be an inspector and carrying out the duties of an inspector at any premises specified in a notice under subsection one of this section shall be deemed to be an inspector appointed under that Act, regulation or ordinance by the council or county council in whose area or district the premises are situated.

(5) Where, immediately before the appointed day, the council of an area or the county council of a district employed a servant, who was an

an inspector within the meaning of the Cattle Slaughtering and Diseased Animals and Meat Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, and whose duties ordinarily were, or included, the carrying out of any inspections of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection one of this section, that servant shall, on and from that day, cease to be a servant of that council or county council and become and be an employee of the Public Service and, except as otherwise provided in this section, shall be subject to the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts.

(6) A person who ceases to be a servant of a council or county council and becomes an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section shall—

- (a) be paid salary or wages at a rate not less than the rate which was payable to him, as such a servant immediately before the appointed day, subject to any adjustment necessary to give effect to any fluctuations in the basic wage for adult males from time to time applicable by virtue of the provisions of the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, until such salary or wages is or are varied or altered under the provisions of the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, or by an award or industrial agreement made or filed under the said Industrial Arbitration Act;
- (b) be entitled to any recreation and sick leave accrued to him as such a servant but not taken at the appointed day; and
- (c) have and enjoy rights and privileges with regard to extended leave not less favourable than those applicable to him as such a servant immediately before he became such

such an employee and for the purpose of his entitlement under this paragraph his continuous service with the council or county council concerned immediately before the appointed day shall be deemed to be service in the Public Service.

(7) Except as provided by this section, where any condition of employment of any person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section was regulated by any award or industrial agreement made or filed under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1940, as amended by subsequent Acts, and applicable to him as a servant of the council or county council concerned and does not conflict with any provisions contained in the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, or the regulations made thereunder, such condition shall continue to apply to him until it is regulated by an agreement or determination made under the Public Service Act, 1902, as amended by subsequent Acts, or by an award or industrial agreement so made or filed.

Where any dispute arises whether an award or industrial agreement regulating any such condition conflicts with any provisions contained in the said Public Service Act or the regulations thereunder, the said Act or regulations, as the case may be, shall prevail.

(8) Any person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section and who was, immediately before the appointed day, a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applied may, by writing under his hand addressed to the State Superannuation Board constituted under the Superannuation Act, 1916, as amended

amended by subsequent Acts, and delivered or forwarded by post so as to be received in the office of that Board not later than three months after he became such an employee, elect to become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund constituted under that Act, as so amended.

(9) Any person making the election referred to in subsection eight of this section shall be deemed to be an employee within the meaning and for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1916, as amended by subsequent Acts, and to have become a contributor to the State Superannuation Fund on and from the appointed day and shall—

(a) on and from the appointed day, cease to be a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applies; and

(b) be entitled to exercise whatever rights and to have and enjoy whatever benefits under the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, that he would have been entitled to exercise or have and enjoy if he had resigned from the service of the council or county council concerned on the appointed day.

(10) Where a person who was entitled to make the election referred to in subsection eight of this section does not do so in accordance with that subsection, he shall continue to be a person to whom the Local Government and Other Authorities (Superannuation) Act, 1927-1959, applies and shall be entitled to receive any amount or benefit which he would have been entitled to receive under that Act had he continued in the service of the council or county council concerned.

For

Meat Industry (Amendment).

For the purposes of this paragraph service in the Public Service after the appointed day shall be deemed to be service with the council or county council concerned.

(11) A person who has become an employee of the Public Service by virtue of this section shall not be entitled to claim benefits under this Act as well as under any other Act in respect of the same period of service.

(12) The provisions of the Local Government (Superannuation) Act, 1927, as amended by subsequent Acts, shall apply to a person referred to in subsection ten of this section while he continues to be an employee of the Public Service, and for the purposes of such application any reference in that Act, as so amended, to a council shall be construed as a reference to any Department of the Government in which that person is employed after the appointed day.

(13) In this section "Area" and "District" have the meanings ascribed thereto by section four and section five hundred and sixty, respectively, of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts.

- (c) (i) by omitting from subsection one of section 21A the words "a city, municipality or shire" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "an area or a district";
- (ii) by omitting from the same subsection the words "such city, municipality or shire" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "such area or the county council of such district";
- (iii) by inserting in the same subsection after the word "subsection," the words "or by an inspector carrying out any such inspection at any premises specified in a notice under subsection one of section 9B of this Act,";
- (iv)
- Sec. 21A. (Bringing or sending meat into Metropolitan Abattoir Area.)

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(iv) by inserting in the same subsection after the word "accordingly." the following new paragraph :—

In this subsection "Area" and "District" have the meanings ascribed thereto by section four and section five hundred and sixty, respectively, of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts.

Further amendment of Act No. 69, 1915.
New secs. 14B-14I.

Purposes for which money may be borrowed.

3. The Principal Act is further amended by inserting next after section 14A the following new sections :—

14B. The Board may from time to time with the concurrence of the Treasurer and the approval of the Governor borrow money for—

- (a) the purpose of carrying out and performing any of its powers, authorities, duties and functions;
- (b) the renewal of loans;
- (c) the discharge or partial discharge of any indebtedness to the Treasurer or to any bank; or
- (d) any other purpose of this Act.

Reserves for repayment.

14C. (1) The Board shall establish a reserve for loan repayment fund in respect of each loan or renewal loan raised by the Board.

(2) The Board shall during each year transfer to each such fund from the revenue of the Board a sum not less than the sum that the Board in its application for approval of the loan intimated that it proposed to transfer as aforesaid.

(3) Where any land or property of any kind which has been provided out of loan moneys is sold before the loan has been wholly repaid, the net proceeds of

of the sale shall be added to the reserve for loan repayment in the appropriate fund or paid directly to the lender.

(4) Moneys held as reserve for loan repayment may be invested in government securities of the Commonwealth of Australia or of the State of New South Wales, or in debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities in any loan of the Board, or in any securities guaranteed by the Government of the said State, or in debentures or securities issued by the Sydney County Council or the Sydney City Council, or in such other securities as the Governor may approve or as may be prescribed, in each case at their current market price. Any interest or profits realised on such investments shall be added to and form part of the reserve for loan repayment fund from which the investments were made. All moneys paid into the reserve fund for loan repayment in respect of any loan or renewal loan may be applied in or towards repayment of any other loan or renewal loan but may not be applied for any other purpose until the loan or renewal loan in respect of which the fund has been established has been repaid.

(5) Where the Board decides to cancel debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities of the Board purchased from the reserve for repayment of the loan for which they were issued, then, in addition to the sum otherwise payable to the reserve for loan repayment in respect of that loan, the Board shall, subject to any agreement to which it is a party whereby it undertakes to pay interest at a higher rate to such reserve, pay to such reserve interest at the rate of four and one-half per centum per annum on the face value of the cancelled securities from the date of their cancellation until the maturity of the loan.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(6) If after a loan has been repaid, there remains in the reserve for repayment of that loan any balance, such balance shall form part of the funds of the Board.

(7) The reserve for loan repayment shall not be subject to seizure in satisfaction of any debt other than for the loan in respect of which the reserve was created.

(8) This section shall not apply to any loan to be repaid by instalments at intervals of one year or less.

Debentures,
etc.

14D. (1) For securing repayment of the principal and interest on any money borrowed the Board may as provided by the regulations issue debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or other prescribed securities.

(2) Every such debenture or bond and every coupon originally annexed to the debenture or bond and whether separated therefrom or not shall be transferable by simple delivery.

(3) Inscribed stock shall be transferable in the books of the Board in accordance with the regulations.

(4) Debentures, bonds, inscribed stock or prescribed securities issued under this Act shall both as regards the issue and transfer thereof for full consideration or money or money's worth be deemed to be included in the general exemptions from stamp duty under Part III of the Stamp Duties Act, 1920, as amended by subsequent Acts, contained in the Second Schedule to that Act. The regulations may provide for the exemption from stamp duty of any other prescribed security.

(5) The holder of a coupon originally annexed to a debenture or bond and whether separated therefrom or not shall be entitled to receive payment from the Board of the interest mentioned in the coupon upon the presentation of the same on or after the date when and at the place where the interest is payable.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(6) The due repayment of the debentures, bonds, stock and the interest thereon and of any loan in respect of which any other prescribed security is issued and the interest thereon shall be a charge upon the income and revenue of the Board from whatever source arising and is hereby guaranteed by the Government. Any liability arising from such guarantee shall be payable out of moneys provided by Parliament. Such charge shall not prejudice or affect the power of the Board to sell or convey any property vested in it free of any such charge.

14E. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part any money which the Board is authorised to borrow may be borrowed by a loan raised wholly or in part in such country as the Governor may approve, and may be negotiated and raised in any currency. ^{Raising loan in any country.}

(2) Any such loan may be raised wholly or in part by the issue of debentures, bonds, stock or other securities in any form and containing any term, condition or provision permitted under the law of the place where such loan is raised and the Board may establish and conduct in such country registries relating to the securities issued in respect of such loan.

(3) The Board may in respect of any such loan agree that a sinking fund shall be established and controlled at such place, by such person and in such manner as may be found necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case and, where any such sinking fund is so established, the provisions of section 14c of this Act shall apply with regard to that loan only in respect of the amount, if any, the repayment of which is not provided for by the sinking fund established under the agreement.

(4) In connection with the raising of any loan under this section, the Board may enter into such agreements as the Board shall think fit with respect to the form of such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or for the sale of such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or the granting of an option to purchase such debentures.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, or for services to be performed by any person in Australia or in any other part of the world in connection with such loan or with the issue, management and redemption of or otherwise with respect to such debentures, bonds, stock or other securities, and such agreements may be upon such terms and conditions and may contain such provisions for the giving or receipt of consideration as the Board shall think fit.

Copies of any such agreement shall be forwarded to the Minister who shall cause the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible after the loan is raised.

(5) The Governor may upon the recommendation of the Board appoint two or more persons to enter into for and on behalf of the Board all such agreements as the Board is by this section authorised to enter into and to sign, execute, or otherwise perfect all such agreements, debentures, bonds, stock or other securities as are by this section provided for and to do all such things as may be necessary or convenient to be done for the purpose of raising any loan under this Act, and may upon the like recommendation revoke or vary any such appointment and make any fresh appointment.

The production of a copy of the Gazette containing a notification of any such appointment or revocation as aforesaid shall in favour of a lender or of any holder of a security be conclusive evidence of the appointment or revocation.

(6) All debentures, bonds, stock or other securities bearing the signatures of such persons so appointed in that behalf shall be deemed to be securities lawfully issued under seal by the Board and the principal moneys and interest secured thereby shall be a charge upon the income and revenue of the Board from whatsoever source arising, and the due repayment of such principal moneys and interest is hereby guaranteed by the Government, and all agreements and any instruments purporting to be made or issued under the authority

authority of this section and bearing the signatures of such persons shall be deemed to have been lawfully made or issued by the Board, and if the same shall purport to have been sealed by such persons to have been lawfully executed by the Board under seal.

A holder of any such debenture, bond, stock or other security shall not be bound to enquire whether the issue of such security was in fact duly authorised.

(7) Subject to this section and the law in force in the place where any loan is raised under this section and applicable to such loan and the securities issued in connection therewith the provisions of this Part other than subsection one of section 14D and subsections three and four of section 14G of this Act shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to and in respect of such loan and such securities.

14F. (1) Any trustee unless expressly forbidden by ^{Trustees.} the instrument (if any) creating the trust, may invest any trust moneys in his hands in stock inscribed by the Board, and the investment shall be deemed to be an investment authorised by the Trustee Act, 1925, or any Act amending or replacing that Act.

(2) Any debenture issued or stock inscribed by the Board shall be a lawful investment for any moneys which any company, council or body corporate incorporated by any Act of Parliament of New South Wales is authorised or directed to invest in addition to any other investment expressly provided for the investment of such moneys.

(3) No notice of any trust expressed, implied or constructive, shall be received by the Board or by any officer of the Board in relation to any debenture or coupon issued or stock inscribed by the Board.

14G. (1) If any debenture or bond issued by the Board is lost or destroyed or defaced before the same has ^{Lost} been paid, the Board may, subject to the provisions of ^{debentures.} this section, issue a new debenture or bond in lieu thereof.

Meat Industry (Amendment).

(2) The new debenture or bond with interest coupon annexed shall bear the same date, number, principal sum, and rate of interest as the lost, destroyed or defaced debenture or bond.

(3) When the debenture or bond is lost or destroyed the new debenture or bond shall not be issued unless and until—

- (a) a judge of the Supreme Court has been satisfied by affidavit of the person entitled to the lost or destroyed debenture or bond, or of some person approved by the judge, that the same has been lost or destroyed before it has been paid off;
- (b) such advertisement as the judge may direct has been published;
- (c) six months have elapsed since the publication of the last of the advertisements; and
- (d) sufficient security has been given to the Board to indemnify it against any double payment if the missing debenture or bond be at any time thereafter presented for payment.

(4) When the debenture or bond is defaced the new debenture or bond shall not be issued unless and until the defaced debenture or bond is lodged with the Board for cancellation.

(5) The provisions of this section shall, mutatis mutandis, extend to the case of a lost, destroyed, or defaced coupon.

(6) In case of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation or defacement of any debenture or bond issued under section 14E of this Act, a duplicate or new debenture or bond may be issued upon proof to the satisfaction of the Board of such loss, theft or destruction, or upon surrender of the mutilated or defaced debenture or bond, as the case may be, and upon the Board

Meat Industry (Amendment).

Board receiving security or indemnity satisfactory to it against double payment if the missing debenture or bond be at any time thereafter presented for payment.

14H. (1) A person advancing money to the Board shall not be bound to enquire into the application of the money advanced, or be in any way responsible for the non-application or misapplication thereof.

Protection
of investments.

(2) A notification in the Gazette of the approval of the Governor having been given to a borrowing by the Board shall, in favour of a lender and of any holder of a security given by the Board, be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent to the borrowing have been complied with, and where the approval notified is to the borrowing by the Board in a country outside New South Wales and in a particular currency shall also be conclusive evidence in favour of such persons of the approval of the Governor to the borrowing in the country and in the currency specified in the notification.

14I. All debentures, bonds, stock, or other securities which are secured upon the income and revenue of the Board shall rank pari passu without any preference one above another by reason of priority of date or otherwise.

Debentures
and bonds to
