V. C. N. BLIGHT, GOVERNMENT PRINTER, SYDNEY, NEW SOUTH WALES—1964
[1s. 4d.]

PASTURES PROTECTION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1964.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are to—

- (a) transfer power to appoint permit officers from the Minister to pastures protection boards;
- (b) require the Crown to contribute half of the cost of insurance under the Workers' Compensation Act in respect of each ranger employed by pastures protection boards;
- (c) specify a period within which changes in occupation of ratable land shall be notified to pastures protection boards;
- (d) exclude the holder of a lease or purchase from the Crown from liability for unpaid pastures protection rates levied before the lease is granted or the purchase is made;
- (e) make further provisions relating to the apportionment between successive occupiers of land of amounts paid for pastures protection rates;
- (f) empower pastures protection boards to levy a special rate to defray expenses incurred in connection with the eradication and control of disease in pigs;
- (g) require owners or occupiers of land and owners of stock to supply information concerning such land or stock to pastures protection boards for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of returns made under the Act;
- (h) increase the maximum rates which may be imposed in relation to stock which travel along or over travelling stock reserves, camping reserves or roads pursuant to a permit or renewed permit and to fix the minimum amount payable for any one journey;
- (i) ensure that permits, renewed permits and travelling statements accurately describe the stock being moved pursuant thereto and to make it an offence for a person to supply false or misleading information in or in connection with any travelling statement or application for a permit or renewed permit;
- (j) provide that a travelling statement shall be sufficient authority for the owner of sheep or large stock to move them between holdings occupied by him within the same pastures protection district and more than twelve miles apart, subject to movement over any travelling stock reserve, camping reserve or road being entirely by motor transport;
- (k) provide that where a renewed permit is required for the movement of stock and they are moved without such a permit being obtained, both the owner of the stock and the person moving them shall be liable for a penalty;
- (l) provide that a consent to move stock at night obtained in the pastures protection district where a journey commences shall be sufficient for movement at night through any other district on the same journey;
- (m) provide that the owner and not the person in charge of stock not travelled the specified daily or average distance shall be liable for payment of agistment fees;

- (n) require a court which convicts a person of the offence of allowing stock to trespass on a travelling stock reserve to order the owner of the trespassing stock to pay agistment fees at the prescribed rate in respect of each day during which the stock so trespassed;
- (o) provide for the release, upon payment of deterrent fees, damage fees and driving charges, of any animal seized or detained by a pastures protection board or authorised person for the purpose of being impounded and to make it an offence to rescue or incite or assist in the rescue of any animal so seized or detained;
- (p) provide that fees paid for permits to keep noxious animals shall be paid to such boards as the Minister may direct and not to the Consolidated Revenue Fund;
- (q) empower a dingo destruction board to enter on land for the purpose of taking measures for the destruction of native dogs thereon, provided that at least seven days previously it has given written notice to the occupier of the land of its intention to enter for that purpose;
- (r) extend the powers of pastures protection boards to require the fencing of a holding adjoining a travelling stock reserve to the case of a holding separated from such reserve only by a road and to impose a penalty for wilful interference with any such fence;
- (s) prohibit the marking of the fleece or skin of a sheep with any substance other than raddle, grease or crayon, a substance registered as a stock medicine under the Stock Foods and Medicines Act, 1940, and prescribed substances;
- (t) make other provisions incidental and ancillary to the foregoing.

PROOF

No. , 1964.

A BILL

To make further provisions with respect to rating under the Pastures Protection Act, 1934, as amended by subsequent Acts; to increase the rates payable under that Act, as so amended, for travelling stock; to make provisions prohibiting the marking of the fleeces and skins of sheep with certain substances; for these and other purposes to amend that Act, as so amended; and for purposes connected therewith.

(Rates.)

- (a) by inserting next after section twenty-five the following new section :—

New sec.
25A.

25A. (1) For the purpose of defraying expenses incurred by it in any year in connection with the eradication and control of disease in pigs, a board may, subject to this Part, make and levy in the next ensuing year a special rate on each occupier of land

Special rate for pigs.

Pastures Protection (Amendment).

land which is ratable land under subsection three of section thirty-one of this Act and is within the district.

(2) In addition to any specific provisions relating to any such special rate, the provisions of this Part (subsections two, three and four of section twenty-seven, section thirty, subsections one and two of section thirty-one and section thirty-two excepted) shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the making, levying, notification, collection, payment, recovery and apportionment of such special rate, and for those purposes, "stock", in this Part, includes pigs.

New sec.
28A.

- (b) by inserting next after section twenty-eight the following new section : —

Notification of changes in occupancy of ratable land.

28A. A person shall, within one month of his ceasing to be or becoming the occupier of ratable land, give the prescribed notice to the board.

Sec. 29.
(Liability of person becoming occupier.)

- (c) (i) by inserting next after subsection one of section twenty-nine the following new subsection : —

(1A) The provisions of subsection one of this section shall not affect or extend to any person who is the occupier of land the subject of a lease or purchase from the Crown, where the lease is granted or purchase is made after the rate is levied, whether the land has been previously held under a lease or purchase from the Crown or not.

- (ii) by omitting subsection five of the same section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection : —

(5) If the occupier of any land pays to the board any rate which accrued during the occupancy of the land by some other person, he may recover from that other person such proportion of the rate as accrued whilst that other person was in occupation of the land.

Pastures Protection (Amendment).

- (d) by inserting next after subsection two of section thirty-one the following new subsection : — Sec. 31.
(Ratable land.)

(3) In respect of any year in which a board makes a special rate pursuant to section 25A of this Act, the occupier of land within a district—

- (a) on which land there were kept on the thirty-first day of December preceding the year for which the special rate is made, four pigs or more; or
- (b) in respect of which land the number determined by the board pursuant to subsection two of section 32A of this Act or by a local land board on appeal is four or more, shall, subject to subsection two of section 25A of this Act, be ratable and the land shall be ratable land for the purposes of section fifteen of this Act and this Part, but shall not, by reason only of this subsection, be ratable land for the purposes of any other Act.

- (e) by inserting next after section thirty-two the following new section : — New sec.
32A.

32A. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a special rate made pursuant to section 25A of this Act shall be calculated in accordance with the number of pigs shown in the return furnished in pursuance of the provisions of section thirty-nine of this Act as being owned by the occupier and on the land on the thirty-first day of December immediately preceding the year for which the rate is made, including pigs so owned which were travelling to or from the said land and pigs which have been removed from that land on agistment. Amount of special rate for pigs.

Where, however, the one occupier is ratable in respect of more than one holding, any travelling pigs or pigs on agistment shall be taken into account in respect of one of such holdings only.

Pastures Protection (Amendment).

(2) Where a board is aware that an occupier of land within the district has kept pigs on the land during any part of the year immediately preceding the year for which a special rate is made pursuant to section 25A of this Act and—

- (a) the number of pigs shown in the return referred to in subsection one of this section is less than the number, as determined by the board, of pigs which could reasonably have been kept on the land on the thirty-first day of December immediately preceding the year for which the special rate is made; or

- (b) the return is not furnished to the secretary of the board by the prescribed date, the special rate shall be calculated in accordance with the number, as determined by the board, of pigs which could reasonably have been kept on the land on the said thirty-first day of December.

(3) In making any such determination, the board shall have regard to the nature of the holding, the improvements and equipment thereon used or usable for pig-keeping, the manner in which the holding has been worked and any other relevant information in the board's possession.

(4) Where the occupier of any land is dissatisfied with any determination of the board made pursuant to subsection two of this section, he may, within thirty days after service of the rate notice, appeal in the same manner as is provided in section thirty-three of this Act in the case of appeals against the board's determination of carrying capacity.

The provisions of the said section thirty-three shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to any appeal pursuant to this subsection and a reference in that section to carrying capacity shall be construed as a reference to the number of pigs which could reasonably reasonably have been kept on that land on the relevant date, having regard to the matters referred to in subsection three of this section.

(5) Where the rate calculated in accordance with the provisions of this section is less than two shillings, the rate which shall be levied shall be two shillings.

- (f) (i) by inserting next after subsection one of section thirty-nine the following new subsection : — Sec. 39.
(Returns
of land
and stock.)

(1A) Any return purporting to be a return under subsection one of this section and to be made or signed by or on behalf of any person shall be deemed to be a return under that subsection duly made and signed by that person until the contrary is proved.
