ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. , 1966.

An Act to amend the law relating to the registration of company prospectuses and the official management of companies; for this and other purposes to amend the Companies Act, 1961-1965; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Companies (Amendment) Act, 1966".

(2) Short title, commencement and citation.

Companies (Amendment).

(2) In this Act the Companies Act, 1961, as amended by subsequent Acts and by orders of the Governor under section seven of the Companies Act, 1961, as so amended, is referred to as the Principal Act.

5 (3) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

(4) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Companies Act, 1961-1966.

10 2. (1) Where immediately before the commencement of Transition. this Act a company is under official management the company shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, continue under official management—

15 (a) for a period of two years from the day on which it was placed under official management; or

(b) for a period of six months from the commencement of this Act,

20 whichever period last expires, unless the period of official management is sooner terminated or is extended under section 203c of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act.

25 (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section the day on which a company is placed under official management shall be the day on which a meeting of creditors of the company called for the purpose of placing the company under official management and appointing an official manager passed a special resolution under section two hundred and one of the Principal Act as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act determining that the company shall be under the sole management of an official manager.

30 (3) Where before the commencement of this Act a meeting of creditors of a company has been called for the purpose of placing the company under official management and appointing an official manager, and before that commencement a special resolution under section two hundred
35 and one of the Principal Act as in force immediately before that

that commencement determining that the company shall be under the sole management of an official manager has not been passed by the creditors of the company, the meeting shall be deemed not to have been duly called.

5 (4) The purported appointment of a person to a committee of management under Part IX of the Principal Act as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be and shall be deemed always to have been a valid and effective appointment if the appointment would be a valid
10 and effective appointment under Part IX of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act.

(5) All persons appointed under or by virtue of Part IX of the Principal Act and holding office immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been
15 appointed and to hold office under and by virtue of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, if they could have been appointed and could have held office had the Principal Act, as so amended, been in force at the time of the appointment.

20 (6) Any matter or thing done under and in accordance with Part IX of the Principal Act and in force and operative immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been done and to have force and effect under and in accordance with the Principal Act, as amended by 25 this Act, if it could have been done had the Principal Act, as so amended, been in force at the time that matter or thing was done.

(7) Except where otherwise expressly provided the provisions of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, shall 30 apply to and in relation to a company placed under official management before or after the commencement of this Act.

3. The Principal Act is amended—

Amendment of Act No.
71, 1961.

for the purpose of placing the company under official management and appointing an official manager of the company.

5 (2) If default is made in complying with subsection (1) of this section the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: Four hundred dollars. Default penalty: One hundred dollars.

10 (3) The company shall prepare a statement of the affairs of the company in the prescribed form made up to a date not earlier than the date of the passing of the resolution of the directors or the receipt by the company of the request by 15 the judgment creditor under subsection (1) of this section.

20 (4) Subject to subsection (7) of this section, a company shall be deemed not to have prepared a statement of its affairs in accordance with subsection (3) of this section unless each director of the company has furnished to the company a certificate under his hand certifying
25 whether the statement does or does not, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the date to which it is made up.

30 (5) Where a director certifies that the statement does not give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company, he shall also state in the certificate the grounds on which he formed that opinion.

35 (6) A director of a company shall not furnish a certificate concerning a statement of the affairs of a company for the purpose of subsection (4) of this section unless he has made such inquiries as are reasonably necessary to determine whether

(c) a copy of the certificate furnished by each director of the company in accordance with subsection (4) of this section.

5 (11) If default is made in complying with subsection (10) of this section, or with any request made under paragraph (b) of that subsection, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

10 Penalty: Four hundred dollars. Default penalty.

15 (12) Notwithstanding subsection (10) of this section, the company may attach to every notice posted to the creditors under subsection (9) of this section a complete copy of the statement of affairs of the company required to be prepared by the company under subsection (3) of this section and if the company does so attach the complete copy it will not be required to comply with paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (10) of this section.

20 (13) The meeting shall be called for a time and place convenient to the majority in value of the creditors.

25 (14) The chairman of the meeting shall be appointed by a resolution of the creditors of the company present at the meeting who are entitled to vote on a special resolution and the chairman so appointed shall at the meeting determine whether the time and place of the meeting are convenient to the majority in value of the creditors and his decision shall be final; but if the chairman decides that the time and place of the meeting are not convenient to that majority, the meeting shall lapse.

30 (15) Within seven days after the first notice calling the meeting is posted to any creditor, the company shall lodge with the Registrar a copy of that notice and shall attach thereto a certified copy

Companies (Amendment).

5 copy of the statement of affairs of the company required to be prepared by the company under subsection (3) of this section and certified copies of the certificates furnished by the directors under subsection (4) of this section.

10 200. for the purpose of placing the company under official management and appointing an official manager of the company.

5 (2) If default is made in complying with subsection (1) of this section the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: Four hundred dollars. Default penalty: One hundred dollars.

10 (3) The company shall prepare a statement of the affairs of the company in the prescribed form made up to a date not earlier than the date of the passing of the resolution of the directors or the receipt by the company of the request by 15 the judgment creditor under subsection (1) of this section.

20 (4) Subject to subsection (7) of this section, a company shall be deemed not to have prepared a statement of its affairs in accordance with subsection (3) of this section unless each director of the company has furnished to the company a certificate under his hand certifying whether the statement does or does not, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, give 25 a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the date to which it is made up.

30 (5) Where a director certifies that the statement does not give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company, he shall also state in the certificate the grounds on which he formed that opinion.

35 (6) A director of a company shall not furnish a certificate concerning a statement of the affairs of a company for the purpose of subsection (4) of this section unless he has made such inquiries as are reasonably necessary to determine whether

A BILL

To amend the law relating to the registration of company prospectuses and the official management of companies; for this and other purposes to amend the Companies Act, 1961-1965; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Companies (Amendment) Act, 1966".
- (2) Short title, commencement and citation.

Companies (Amendment).

(2) In this Act the Companies Act, 1961, as amended by subsequent Acts and by orders of the Governor under section seven of the Companies Act, 1961, as so amended, is referred to as the Principal Act.

5 (3) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

(4) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Companies Act, 1961-1966.

10 2. (1) Where immediately before the commencement of Transition. this Act a company is under official management the company shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, continue under official management—

15 (a) for a period of two years from the day on which it was placed under official management; or

(b) for a period of six months from the commencement of this Act,

20 whichever period last expires, unless the period of official management is sooner terminated or is extended under section 203C of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act.

25 (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section the day on which a company is placed under official management shall be the day on which a meeting of creditors of the company called for the purpose of placing the company under official management and appointing an official manager passed a special resolution under section two hundred and one of the Principal Act as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act determining that the company shall be under the sole management of an official manager.

30 (3) Where before the commencement of this Act a meeting of creditors of a company has been called for the purpose of placing the company under official management and appointing an official manager, and before that commencement a special resolution under section two hundred that commencement determining that the company shall be under the sole management of an official manager has not been passed by the creditors of the company, the meeting shall be deemed not to have been duly called.

5 (4) The purported appointment of a person to a committee of management under Part IX of the Principal Act as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be and shall be deemed always to have been a valid and effective appointment if the appointment would be a valid
10 and effective appointment under Part IX of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act.

(5) All persons appointed under or by virtue of Part IX of the Principal Act and holding office immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been
15 appointed and to hold office under and by virtue of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, if they could have been appointed and could have held office had the Principal Act, as so amended, been in force at the time of the appointment.

20 (6) Any matter or thing done under and in accordance with Part IX of the Principal Act and in force and operative immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been done and to have force and effect under and in accordance with the Principal Act, as amended by

Act No. 21, 1966.

An Act to amend the law relating to the registration of company prospectuses and the official management of companies; for this and other purposes to amend the Companies Act, 1961-1965; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 13th April, 1966.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Companies (Amendment) Act, 1966".

(2) Short title, commencement and citation.

---

(2) In this Act the Companies Act, 1961, as amended by subsequent Acts and by orders of the Governor under section seven of the Companies Act, 1961, as so amended, is referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) This Act, section four excepted, shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

(4) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Companies Act, 1961-1966.

Transition.

2. (1) Where immediately before the commencement of this Act a company is under official management the company shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, continue under official management—

- (a) for a period of two years from the day on which it was placed under official management; or
- (b) for a period of six months from the commencement of this Act,

whichever period last expires, unless the period of official management is sooner terminated or is extended under section 203c of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section the day on which a company is placed under official management shall be the day on which a meeting of creditors of the company called for the purpose of placing the company under official management and appointing an official manager passed a special resolution under section two hundred and one of the Principal Act as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act determining that the company shall be under the sole management of an official manager.

(3) Where before the commencement of this Act a meeting of creditors of a company has been called for the purpose of placing the company under official management and appointing an official manager, and before that commencement a special resolution under section two hundred and one of the Principal Act as in force immediately before that for the purpose of placing the company under official management and appointing an official manager of the company.

(2) If default is made in complying with subsection (1) of this section the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: Four hundred dollars. Default penalty: One hundred dollars.

(3) The company shall prepare a statement of the affairs of the company in the prescribed form made up to a date not earlier than the date of the passing of the resolution of the directors or the receipt by the company of the request by the judgment creditor under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) Subject to subsection (7) of this section, a company shall be deemed not to have prepared a statement of its affairs in accordance with subsection (3) of this section unless each director of the company has furnished to the company a certificate under his hand certifying whether the statement does or does not, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the date to which it is made up.

(5) Where a director certifies that the statement does not give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company, he shall also state in the certificate the grounds on which he formed that opinion.

(6) A director of a company shall not furnish a certificate concerning a statement of the affairs of a company for the purpose of subsection (4) of this section unless he has made such inquiries as are reasonably necessary to determine whether

the statement does or does not give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the date to which it is made up.

(7) Where the Registrar is satisfied that it is impracticable for a company to obtain the certificate of a director of the company, the Registrar may dispense with the obtaining of the certificate from that director.

(8) A company that and every director who fails to comply or to take all reasonable steps to secure compliance with any provision of subsection (3), (5) or (6) of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: Four hundred dollars. Default penalty: One hundred dollars.

(9) Notice of the meeting shall be given to the creditors of the company by means of a notice in the prescribed form—

- (a) posted to each of the creditors; and
- (b) published at least once in a daily newspaper circulating generally throughout the State, not less than ten days nor more than twenty-one days before the day fixed for the holding of the meeting.

(10) The company shall attach to every notice posted to the creditors under subsection (9) of this section—

- (a) a summary of the affairs of the company in accordance with the prescribed form;
- (b) a notice that the statement required to be prepared by the company under subsection (3) of this section is available at the registered office of the company and that a copy of the statement will be posted by return mail to any creditor who requests it or will be handed to any creditor who calls at the office and requests it; and

- (c) a copy of the certificate furnished by each director of the company in accordance with subsection (4) of this section.

(11) If default is made in complying with subsection (10) of this section, or with any request made under paragraph (b) of that subsection, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: Four hundred dollars. Default penalty.

(12) Notwithstanding subsection (10) of this section, the company may attach to every notice posted to the creditors under subsection (9) of this section a complete copy of the statement of affairs of the company required to be prepared by the company under subsection (3) of this section and if the company does so attach the complete copy it will not be required to comply with paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (10) of this section.

(13) The meeting shall be called for a time and place convenient to the majority in value of the creditors.

(14) The chairman of the meeting shall be appointed by a resolution of the creditors of the company present at the meeting who are entitled to vote on a special resolution and the chairman so appointed shall at the meeting determine whether the time and place of the meeting are convenient to the majority in value of the creditors and his decision shall be final; but if the chairman decides that the time and place of the meeting are not convenient to that majority, the meeting shall lapse.

(15) Within seven days after the first notice calling the meeting is posted to any creditor, the company shall lodge with the Registrar a copy of that notice and shall attach thereto a certified copy

(2) In this Act the Companies Act, 1961, as amended by subsequent Acts and by orders of the Governor under section seven of the Companies Act, 1961, as so amended, is referred to as the Principal Act.

(3) This Act, section four excepted, shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

(4) The Principal Act, as amended by this Act, may be cited as the Companies Act, 1961-1966.

Transition. 2. (1) Where immediately before the commencement of this Act a company is under official management the company shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, continue under official management—

(a) for a period of two years from the day on which it was placed under official management; or

(b) for a period of six months from the commencement of this Act, whichever period last expires, unless the period of official management is sooner terminated or is extended under section 203c of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section the day on which a company is placed under official management shall be the day on which a meeting of creditors of the company called for the purpose of placing the company under official management and appointing an official manager passed a special resolution under section two hundred and one of the Principal Act as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act determining that the company shall be under the sole management of an official manager.

(3) Where before the commencement of this Act a meeting of creditors of a company has been called for the purpose of placing the company under official management and appointing an official manager, and before that commencement a special resolution under section two hundred and one of the Principal Act as in force immediately before that

that commencement determining that the company shall be under the sole management of an official manager has not been passed by the creditors of the company, the meeting shall be deemed not to have been duly called.

(4) The purported appointment of a person to a committee of management under Part IX of the Principal Act as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be and shall be deemed always to have been a valid and effective appointment if the appointment would be a valid and effective appointment under Part IX of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act.

(5) All persons appointed under or by virtue of Part IX of the Principal Act and holding office immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been appointed and to hold office under and by virtue of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, if they could have been appointed and could have held office had the Principal Act, as so amended, been in force at the time of the appointment.

(6) Any matter or thing done under and in accordance with Part IX of the Principal Act and in force and operative immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been done and to have force and effect under and in accordance with the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, if it could have been done had the Principal Act, as so amended, been in force at the time that matter or thing was done.

(7) Except where otherwise expressly provided the provisions of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, shall apply to and in relation to a company placed under official management before or after the commencement of this Act.

3. The Principal Act is amended—

(2) If default is made in complying with subsection (1) of this section the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: Four hundred dollars. Default penalty: One hundred dollars.

(3) The company shall prepare a statement of the affairs of the company in the prescribed form made up to a date not earlier than the date of the passing of the resolution of the directors or the receipt by the company of the request by the judgment creditor under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) Subject to subsection (7) of this section, a company shall be deemed not to have prepared a statement of its affairs in accordance with subsection (3) of this section unless each director of the company has furnished to the company a certificate under his hand certifying whether the statement does or does not, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the date to which it is made up.

(5) Where a director certifies that the statement does not give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company, he shall also state in the certificate the grounds on which he formed that opinion.

(6) A director of a company shall not furnish a certificate concerning a statement of the affairs of a company for the purpose of subsection (4) of this section unless he has made such inquiries as are reasonably necessary to determine whether

the statement does or does not give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the date to which it is made up.

(7) Where the Registrar is satisfied that it is impracticable for a company to obtain the certificate of a director of the company, the Registrar may dispense with the obtaining of the certificate from that director.

(8) A company that and every director who fails to comply or to take all reasonable steps to secure compliance with any provision of subsection (3), (5) or (6) of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: Four hundred dollars. Default penalty: One hundred dollars.

(9) Notice of the meeting shall be given to the creditors of the company by means of a notice in the prescribed form—

- (a) posted to each of the creditors; and
  - (b) published at least once in a daily newspaper circulating generally throughout the State,
- not less than ten days nor more than twenty-one days before the day fixed for the holding of the meeting.

(10) The company shall attach to every notice posted to the creditors under subsection (9) of this section—

- (a) a summary of the affairs of the company in accordance with the prescribed form;
- (b) a notice that the statement required to be prepared by the company under subsection (3) of this section is available at the registered office of the company and that a copy of the statement will be posted by return mail to any creditor who requests it or will be handed to any creditor who calls at the office and requests it; and

months after the expiration of the period so specified, the official manager of a company shall—

- (a) prepare a statement showing the assets and liabilities of the company as at the last day of the period and a report containing such other information as he thinks necessary to enable the creditors and members of the company to assess the financial position of the company as at the last day of the period; and
- (b) call a meeting of the creditors and members of the company to consider the statement and report so prepared.

(2) Where under subsection (1) of this section the Registrar has required or permitted the preparation of a statement and report at the end of a period of less than six months the next period of six months shall commence at the expiration of that lesser period.

(3) With each statement referred to in subsection (1) of this section the official manager shall furnish a statement signed by him and, where the company is required under this Act to appoint a person to be its auditor, by that auditor, stating whether or not in his or their opinion, as the case requires, the statement is drawn up so as to give a true and fair view of the affairs of the company.

(4) Notice of a meeting called under subsection (1) of this section shall be given to the creditors and the members of the company by advertisement published at least once in a daily newspaper circulating generally throughout the State and the advertisement shall specify the time (being a time not less than fourteen days after the date of publication of the advertisement) place and object of the meeting, and the address at which and the hours between which the statements and report referred to in this section may be inspected.

(5) Copies of the statements and report referred to in this section shall be kept by the official manager of the company and shall be open to the inspection of any creditor or member of the company at the registered office of the company.

(6) The official manager shall—

- (a) give written notice that the statement has been prepared to every creditor and member of the company when next forwarding any report, notice of meeting, notice of call or dividend relating to the company; and
- (b) in the notice inform creditors and members of the company at what address and between what hours the statement may be inspected.

(7) Within seven days after a meeting is held under subsection (1) of this section the official manager shall lodge with the Registrar a notice in the prescribed form of the holding of the meeting and of its date with copies of the statements and report referred to in this section.

(8) Where the statement referred to in subsection (1) of this section is not accompanied by a statement signed by a registered company auditor, the Registrar may cause the statement referred to in subsection (1) of this section to be audited by a registered company auditor appointed by the Registrar and, for the purposes of the audit, the official manager shall furnish that auditor with such books, vouchers and information as the auditor may require.

(9) The costs of an audit under subsection (8) of this section shall be fixed by the Board and shall be part of the costs of the official management.

(10) An official manager who fails to comply with any provision of this section and any auditor of a company who fails to supply to the official manager at his request the statement that
