I. P. K. VIDLER,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 29 August, 1967.*

New South Wales

ANNO SEXTO DECIMO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. , 1967.

An Act to control and regulate certain agreements relating to the sale or bailment of goods, or the provision of services, on credit; and for purposes connected therewith.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Door-to-Door Sales Act, 1967".

Short title and commencement.

(2) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Door-to-Door Sales.

2. (1) In this Act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise indicates or requires— Interpretation.

5 “Credit arrangement” means any hire-purchase agreement, as defined in the Hire-Purchase Act, 1960, as amended by subsequent Acts, and any agreement for the sale of goods under which the whole of the purchase price is not required to be paid at the time of the sale.

10 “Credit purchase agreement” means any agreement for or with respect to the sale of goods, the provision of services, or the bailment of goods, not being an agreement under which the whole of the purchase price, rent, or other consideration is paid by the purchaser in cash or by cheque at or before the time
15 at which the agreement is made, but does not include—

- 20 (a) a hire-purchase agreement, as defined in the Hire-Purchase Act, 1960, as amended by subsequent Acts;
- (b) an agreement under which the purchaser is a body corporate;
- 25 (c) an agreement under which the purchaser is a person whose trade or business is the trade or business of buying and selling goods of the same nature or description as the goods to which the agreement relates;
- (d) an agreement which relates to the disposition of an estate or interest in land;
- 30 (e) an agreement to perform work under a contract of employment, or by virtue of which the contractor would be deemed to be a worker within the meaning of the Workers’ Compensation Act, 1926, as amended by subsequent Acts;
- 35 (f) an agreement the negotiations for which were conducted entirely by mail; or (g)

Door-to-Door Sales.

(g) an agreement under which the vendor and the purchaser are persons who are or were parties to a credit arrangement that is in force or has been in force within two years before the agreement is entered into.

“Goods” includes all chattels personal other than money or livestock and includes any fixtures severable from realty.

“Purchaser” means a person by whom or on whose behalf goods are, under a credit purchase agreement, purchased or taken on bailment or agreed to be purchased or taken on bailment, or to whom services are, under such an agreement, provided and includes a person by whom or on whose behalf an offer is made to purchase goods or to take goods on bailment under such an agreement and a person by whom or on whose behalf an offer is made to enter into such an agreement for the provision of services to the offeror.

“Vendor” means a person by whom or on whose behalf goods are, under a credit purchase agreement, sold or bailed or agreed to be sold or bailed, or by whom or on whose behalf services are, under such an agreement, to be provided and includes a person by whom or on whose behalf an offer is made to sell or bail goods, or to provide services, under such an agreement, a person to whom or to whose agent an offer is made to purchase goods, or to take goods on bailment, under such an agreement and a person to whom or to whose agent an offer is made to enter into such an agreement for the provision of services to the offeror.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, where any offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made, or any negotiations leading to the entering into of a credit purchase agreement or to an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement are conducted, at the place of residence or employment of a purchaser, any credit purchase agreement entered into as a result of that offer or those negotiations and any offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement, being an offer

offer made as a result of those negotiations, shall be deemed to have been entered into or made, as the case may be, at the place of residence or employment of that person.

3. Where a credit purchase agreement is made, or an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made by the purchaser, at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser the agreement or offer shall be unenforceable by the vendor unless—

Credit purchase agreement or offer to be in writing, etc.

- (a) the agreement or offer is in writing;
- 10 (b) a copy of the agreement or offer is given to the purchaser at the time when the agreement or offer is made; and
- 15 (c) a statement and notice appended thereto, in the form of the Schedule to this Act, duly completed by the vendor in accordance with the instructions to the vendor contained in that Schedule is given to the purchaser at the time when the agreement or offer is made.

4. (1) Where a credit purchase agreement is made, or an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made by the purchaser, at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser the agreement or offer may be terminated by the purchaser or his or her spouse giving or causing to be given personally or by post, as provided in this section, to the person named as vendor in the notice appended to the statement given to the purchaser pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) of section three of this Act a notice in or to the effect of the notice set out in the Appendix in the Schedule to this Act.

Power to terminate certain credit purchase agreements and offers.

(2) Notice pursuant to subsection one of this section may be given by delivering it personally to the address shown in the notice appended to the statement referred to in that subsection within a period of five days after the date upon which the statement was given to the purchaser (whether or not the agreement had been entered into at the time that statement was so given) or by properly addressing and posting by prepaid post a letter containing the notice to the vendor at that address within that period.

Door-to-Door Sales.

5. (1) Where a notice of termination is given pursuant to the provisions of section four of this Act the agreement or, where there is no agreement, the offer to enter into an agreement, referred to in the notice shall be deemed to have been rescinded by mutual consent and there shall also be deemed to have been a total failure of consideration in respect of the agreement or the offer, as the case may be.

Effect of termination of certain credit purchase agreements.

(2) The vendor shall, within seven days after being given the notice, repay to the purchaser all moneys paid under or with respect to the agreement or offer and redeliver any goods or other property given by the purchaser pursuant to the agreement or offer.

(3) Any vendor who is given a notice of termination pursuant to the provisions of section four of this Act and who fails or refuses to repay any moneys or redeliver any goods or other property in accordance with the provisions of subsection two of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and, without prejudice to the right of the purchaser to recover any moneys, goods or other property by action in a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

(4) Where a notice of termination is given pursuant to the provisions of section four of this Act the purchaser shall deliver up forthwith on demand being made by the vendor any goods delivered to him pursuant to the agreement.

(5) A purchaser who fails to deliver up any goods delivered to him pursuant to an agreement in accordance with the provisions of subsection four of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and, without prejudice to the right of the vendor to recover the goods by action in a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

(6) The purchaser shall be liable to pay compensation to the vendor for any loss of or damage to any goods the subject of the agreement or offer while they were in the custody of the purchaser, other than loss or damage arising from the normal use of the goods or loss or damage arising from circumstances beyond the purchaser's control.

Door-to-Door Sales.

6. (1) Nothing in this Act shall render a credit purchase agreement or an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement unenforceable or authorise the termination of any such agreement or offer if it is proved that the agreement or offer was made as the result of an unsolicited request made by the purchaser to the vendor to attend the purchaser's place of residence or employment to enter into negotiations which resulted in the agreement or offer.

Act not to be applicable to agreements or offers initiated at the request of the purchaser.

(2) For the purposes of this section an agreement or offer shall be deemed not to be made as the result of an unsolicited request if it is made following more than one attendance at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser (whether by the same or different persons on behalf of the vendor) and the first of those attendances did not follow an unsolicited request made by the purchaser.

7. Any provision in a credit purchase agreement or offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement or in any other document whereby any right conferred on a purchaser by this Act to terminate such an agreement or offer is excluded or restricted is void.

Avoidance of certain provisions.

8. Any penalty imposed by this Act may be recovered in a summary manner before a stipendiary magistrate or any two justices in petty sessions.

Recovery of penalties.

9. (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act—

Regulations.

- (a) varying or adding to the Schedule to this Act;
- (b) exempting from the provisions of this Act any class of vendors or any class of credit purchase agreements or offers to enter into credit purchase agreements;
- (c) prescribing all matters which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

30

Door-to-Door Sales.

(2) The Schedule as varied or added to pursuant to any such regulations shall be the Schedule to this Act.

(3) The regulations shall—

- (a) be published in the Gazette;
- 5 (b) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified in the regulations; and
- 10 (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after publication thereof if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

(4) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after the regulations have been laid before the
15 House disallowing any regulation or part thereof, the regulation or part thereupon ceases to have effect.

2. (1) In this Act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise indicates or requires— Interpretation.

5 “Credit arrangement” means any hire-purchase agreement, as defined in the Hire-Purchase Act, 1960, as amended by subsequent Acts, and any agreement for the sale of goods under which the whole of the purchase price is not required to be paid at the time of the sale.

10 “Credit purchase agreement” means any agreement for or with respect to the sale of goods, the provision of services, or the bailment of goods, not being an agreement under which the whole of the purchase price, rent, or other consideration is paid by the 15 purchaser in cash or by cheque at or before the time at which the agreement is made, but does not include—

(a) a hire-purchase agreement, as defined in the Hire-Purchase Act, 1960, as amended by subsequent Acts;

20 (b) an agreement under which the purchaser is a body corporate;

(c) an agreement under which the purchaser is a person whose trade or business is the trade or business of buying and selling 25 goods of the same nature or description as the goods to which the agreement relates;

(d) an agreement which relates to the disposition of an estate or interest in land;

DOOR-TO-DOOR SALES BILL, 1967.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to permit a purchaser under an agreement for the sale of goods on credit, or a person to whom services are under an agreement to be provided on credit, or to whom goods are under an agreement to be bailed on credit, and a person making an offer to enter into any such agreement, to rescind the agreement or offer where the agreement is one of a defined class and the agreement or offer is made or is deemed to be made at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser or that person ;
- (b) to make other provisions of an ancillary or consequential nature.

DOOR TO DOOR SALES BILL, 1982

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Bill is intended to provide a framework for the regulation of door-to-door sales. It defines door-to-door sales as the sale of goods or services to a person who is not in the course of a business. The Bill also provides for the registration of door-to-door salesmen and the imposition of conditions on their sales. The Bill is intended to protect consumers from the abuses of door-to-door sales.

The Bill is intended to provide a framework for the regulation of door-to-door sales.

No. , 1967.

A BILL

To control and regulate certain agreements relating to the sale or bailment of goods, or the provision of services, on credit; and for purposes connected therewith.

[MR. MADDISON—15 August, 1967.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Door-to-Door Sales Act, 1967".

Short title
and commencement.

(2) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Door-to-Door Sales.

5 (g) an agreement under which the vendor and the purchaser are persons who are or were parties to a credit arrangement that is in force or has been in force within two years before the agreement is entered into.

“Goods” includes all chattels personal other than money or livestock and includes any fixtures severable from realty.

10 “Purchaser” means a person by whom or on whose behalf goods are, under a credit purchase agreement, purchased or taken on bailment or agreed to be purchased or taken on bailment, or to whom services are, under such an agreement, provided and includes a person by whom or on whose behalf
15 an offer is made to purchase goods or to take goods on bailment under such an agreement and a person by whom or on whose behalf an offer is made to enter into such an agreement for the provision of services to the offeror.

20 “Vendor” means a person by whom or on whose behalf goods are, under a credit purchase agreement, sold or bailed or agreed to be sold or bailed, or by whom or on whose behalf services are, under such an agreement, to be provided and includes a person
25 by whom or on whose behalf an offer is made to sell or bail goods, or to provide services, under such an agreement, a person to whom or to whose agent an offer is made to purchase goods, or to take goods on bailment, under such an agreement
30 and a person to whom or to whose agent an offer is made to enter into such an agreement for the provision of services to the offeror.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, where any offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made, or any 35 negotiations leading to the entering into of a credit purchase agreement or to an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement are conducted, at the place of residence or employment of a purchaser, any credit purchase agreement entered into as a result of that offer or those negotiations and any 40 offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement, being an offer

Door-to-Door Sales.

offer made as a result of those negotiations, shall be deemed to have been entered into or made, as the case may be, at the place of residence or employment of that person.

3. Where a credit purchase agreement is made, or an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made by the purchaser, at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser the agreement or offer shall be unenforceable by the vendor unless—

Credit purchase agreement or offer to be in writing, etc.

- (a) the agreement or offer is in writing;
- 10 (b) a copy of the agreement or offer is given to the purchaser at the time when the agreement or offer is made; and
- 15 (c) a statement and notice appended thereto, in the form of the Schedule to this Act, duly completed by the vendor in accordance with the instructions to the vendor contained in that Schedule is given to the purchaser at the time when the agreement or offer is made.

4. (1) Where a credit purchase agreement is made, or an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made by the purchaser, at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser the agreement or offer may be terminated by the purchaser or his or her spouse giving or causing to be given personally or by post, as provided in this section, to the person named as vendor in the notice appended to the statement given to the purchaser pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) of section three of this Act a notice in or to the effect of the notice set out in the Appendix in the Schedule to this Act.

Power to terminate certain credit purchase agreements and offers.

(2) Notice pursuant to subsection one of this section may be given by delivering it personally to the address shown in the notice appended to the statement referred to in that subsection within a period of five days after the date upon which the statement was given to the purchaser (whether or not the agreement had been entered into at the time that statement was so given) or by properly addressing and posting by prepaid post a letter containing the notice to the vendor at that address within that period.

Door-to-Door Sales.

5 (1) Where a notice of termination is given pursuant to the provisions of section four of this Act the agreement or, where there is no agreement, the offer to enter into an agreement, referred to in the notice shall be deemed to have been rescinded by mutual consent and there shall also be deemed to have been a total failure of consideration in respect of the agreement or the offer, as the case may be.

Effect of termination of certain credit purchase agreements.

10 (2) The vendor shall, within seven days after being given the notice, repay to the purchaser all moneys paid under or with respect to the agreement or offer and redeliver any goods or other property given by the purchaser pursuant to the agreement or offer.

15 (3) Any vendor who is given a notice of termination pursuant to the provisions of section four of this Act and who fails or refuses to repay any moneys or redeliver any goods or other property in accordance with the provisions of subsection two of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and, without prejudice to the right of the purchaser to recover any moneys, goods or other property by action 20 in a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

(4) Where a notice of termination is given pursuant to the provisions of section four of this Act the purchaser shall deliver up forthwith on demand being made by the vendor 25 any goods delivered to him pursuant to the agreement.

(5) A purchaser who fails to deliver up any goods delivered to him pursuant to an agreement in accordance with the provisions of subsection four of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and, without prejudice 30 to the right of the vendor to recover the goods by action in a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

(6) The purchaser shall be liable to pay compensation to the vendor for any loss of or damage to any goods the 35 subject of the agreement or offer while they were in the custody of the purchaser, other than loss or damage arising from the normal use of the goods or loss or damage arising from circumstances beyond the purchaser's control.

Door-to-Door Sales.

6. (1) Nothing in this Act shall render a credit purchase agreement or an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement unenforceable or authorise the termination of any such agreement or offer if it is proved that the agreement or offer was made as the result of an unsolicited request made by the purchaser to the vendor to attend the purchaser's place of residence or employment to enter into negotiations which resulted in the agreement or offer.

Act not to be applicable to agreements or offers initiated at the request of the purchaser.

(2) For the purposes of this section an agreement or offer shall be deemed not to be made as the result of an unsolicited request if it is made following more than one attendance at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser (whether by the same or different persons on behalf of the vendor) and the first of those attendances did not follow an unsolicited request made by the purchaser.

7. Any provision in a credit purchase agreement or offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement or in any other document whereby any right conferred on a purchaser by this Act to terminate such an agreement or offer is excluded or restricted is void.

Avoidance of certain provisions.

8. Any penalty imposed by this Act may be recovered in a summary manner before a stipendiary magistrate or any two justices in petty sessions.

Recovery of penalties.

9. (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act—

Regulations.

- (a) varying or adding to the Schedule to this Act;
- (b) exempting from the provisions of this Act any class of vendors or any class of credit purchase agreements or offers to enter into credit purchase agreements;
- (c) prescribing all matters which are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

Door-to-Door Sales.

(2) The Schedule as varied or added to pursuant to any such regulations shall be the Schedule to this Act.

(3) The regulations shall—

- (a) be published in the Gazette;
- 5 (b) take effect from the date of publication or from a later date to be specified in the regulations; and
- (c) be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen sitting days after publication thereof if Parliament is in session, and if not, then within 10 fourteen sitting days after the commencement of the next session.

(4) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within fifteen sitting days after the regulations have been laid before the
15 House disallowing any regulation or part thereof, the regulation or part thereupon ceases to have effect.

ANNO SEXTO DECIMO

ELIZABETHÆ II REGINÆ

Act No. 36, 1967.

An Act to control and regulate certain agreements relating to the sale or bailment of goods, or the provision of services, on credit; and for purposes connected therewith. [Assented to, 19th September, 1967.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Door-to-Door Sales Act, 1967".

Short title and commencement.

(2) This Act shall commence upon a day to be appointed by the Governor and notified by proclamation published in the Gazette.

Door-to-Door Sales.

Interpretation.

2. (1) In this Act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise indicates or requires—

“Credit arrangement” means any hire-purchase agreement, as defined in the Hire-Purchase Act, 1960, as amended by subsequent Acts, and any agreement for the sale of goods under which the whole of the purchase price is not required to be paid at the time of the sale.

“Credit purchase agreement” means any agreement for or with respect to the sale of goods, the provision of services, or the bailment of goods, not being an agreement under which the whole of the purchase price, rent, or other consideration is paid by the purchaser in cash or by cheque at or before the time at which the agreement is made, but does not include—

- (a) a hire-purchase agreement, as defined in the Hire-Purchase Act, 1960, as amended by subsequent Acts;
- (b) an agreement under which the purchaser is a body corporate;
- (c) an agreement under which the purchaser is a person whose trade or business is the trade or business of buying and selling goods of the same nature or description as the goods to which the agreement relates;
- (d) an agreement which relates to the disposition of an estate or interest in land;
- (e) an agreement to perform work under a contract of employment, or by virtue of which the contractor would be deemed to be a worker within the meaning of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, as amended by subsequent Acts;
- (f) an agreement the negotiations for which were conducted entirely by mail; or
- (g)

Door-to-Door Sales.

- (g) an agreement under which the vendor and the purchaser are persons who are or were parties to a credit arrangement that is in force or has been in force within two years before the agreement is entered into.

“Goods” includes all chattels personal other than money or livestock and includes any fixtures severable from realty.

“Purchaser” means a person by whom or on whose behalf goods are, under a credit purchase agreement, purchased or taken on bailment or agreed to be purchased or taken on bailment, or to whom services are, under such an agreement, provided and includes a person by whom or on whose behalf an offer is made to purchase goods or to take goods on bailment under such an agreement and a person by whom or on whose behalf an offer is made to enter into such an agreement for the provision of services to the offeror.

“Vendor” means a person by whom or on whose behalf goods are, under a credit purchase agreement, sold or bailed or agreed to be sold or bailed, or by whom or on whose behalf services are, under such an agreement, to be provided and includes a person by whom or on whose behalf an offer is made to sell or bail goods, or to provide services, under such an agreement, a person to whom or to whose agent an offer is made to purchase goods, or to take goods on bailment, under such an agreement and a person to whom or to whose agent an offer is made to enter into such an agreement for the provision of services to the offeror.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, where any offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made, or any negotiations leading to the entering into of a credit purchase agreement or to an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement are conducted, at the place of residence or employment of a purchaser, any credit purchase agreement entered into as a result of that offer or those negotiations and any offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement, being an offer

offer made as a result of those negotiations, shall be deemed to have been entered into or made, as the case may be, at the place of residence or employment of that person.

Credit purchase agreement or offer to be in writing, etc.

3. Where a credit purchase agreement is made, or an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made by the purchaser, at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser the agreement or offer shall be unenforceable by the vendor unless—

- (a) the agreement or offer is in writing;
- (b) a copy of the agreement or offer is given to the purchaser at the time when the agreement or offer is made; and
- (c) a statement and notice appended thereto, in the form of the Schedule to this Act, duly completed by the vendor in accordance with the instructions to the vendor contained in that Schedule is given to the purchaser at the time when the agreement or offer is made.

Power to terminate certain credit purchase agreements and offers.

4. (1) Where a credit purchase agreement is made, or an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made by the purchaser, at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser the agreement or offer may be terminated by the purchaser or his or her spouse giving or causing to be given personally or by post, as provided in this section, to the person named as vendor in the notice appended to the statement given to the purchaser pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) of section three of this Act a notice in or to the effect of the notice set out in the Appendix in the Schedule to this Act.

(2) Notice pursuant to subsection one of this section may be given by delivering it personally to the address shown in the notice appended to the statement referred to in that subsection within a period of five days after the date upon which the statement was given to the purchaser (whether or not the agreement had been entered into at the time that statement was so given) or by properly addressing and posting by prepaid post a letter containing the notice to the vendor at that address within that period.

Door-to-Door Sales.

5. (1) Where a notice of termination is given pursuant to the provisions of section four of this Act the agreement or, where there is no agreement, the offer to enter into an agreement, referred to in the notice shall be deemed to have been rescinded by mutual consent and there shall also be deemed to have been a total failure of consideration in respect of the agreement or the offer, as the case may be.

Effect of termination of certain credit purchase agreements.

(2) The vendor shall, within seven days after being given the notice, repay to the purchaser all moneys paid under or with respect to the agreement or offer and redeliver any goods or other property given by the purchaser pursuant to the agreement or offer.

(3) Any vendor who is given a notice of termination pursuant to the provisions of section four of this Act and who fails or refuses to repay any moneys or redeliver any goods or other property in accordance with the provisions of subsection two of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and, without prejudice to the right of the purchaser to recover any moneys, goods or other property by action in a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

(4) Where a notice of termination is given pursuant to the provisions of section four of this Act the purchaser shall deliver up forthwith on demand being made by the vendor any goods delivered to him pursuant to the agreement.

(5) A purchaser who fails to deliver up any goods delivered to him pursuant to an agreement in accordance with the provisions of subsection four of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and, without prejudice to the right of the vendor to recover the goods by action in a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

(6) The purchaser shall be liable to pay compensation to the vendor for any loss of or damage to any goods the subject of the agreement or offer while they were in the custody of the purchaser, other than loss or damage arising from the normal use of the goods or loss or damage arising from circumstances beyond the purchaser's control.

Door-to-Door Sales.

Act not to be applicable to agreements or offers initiated at the request of the purchaser.

6. (1) Nothing in this Act shall render a credit purchase agreement or an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement unenforceable or authorise the termination of any such agreement or offer if it is proved that the agreement or offer was made as the result of an unsolicited request made by the purchaser to the vendor to attend the purchaser's place of residence or employment to enter into negotiations which resulted in the agreement or offer.

(2) For the purposes of this section an agreement or offer shall be deemed not to be made as the result of an unsolicited request if it is made following more than one attendance at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser (whether by the same or different persons on behalf of the vendor) and the first of those attendances did not follow an unsolicited request made by the purchaser.

Interpretation.

2. (1) In this Act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise indicates or requires—

“Credit arrangement” means any hire-purchase agreement, as defined in the Hire-Purchase Act, 1960, as amended by subsequent Acts, and any agreement for the sale of goods under which the whole of the purchase price is not required to be paid at the time of the sale.

“Credit purchase agreement” means any agreement for or with respect to the sale of goods, the provision of services, or the bailment of goods, not being an agreement under which the whole of the purchase price, rent, or other consideration is paid by the purchaser in cash or by cheque at or before the time at which the agreement is made, but does not include—

- (a) a hire-purchase agreement, as defined in the Hire-Purchase Act, 1960, as amended by subsequent Acts;
- (b) an agreement under which the purchaser is a body corporate;
- (c) an agreement under which the purchaser is a person whose trade or business is the trade or business of buying and selling goods of the same nature or description as the goods to which the agreement relates;
- (d) an agreement which relates to the disposition of an estate or interest in land;
- (e) an agreement to perform work under a contract of employment, or by virtue of which the contractor would be deemed to be a worker within the meaning of the Workers' Compensation Act, 1926, as amended by subsequent Acts;
- (f) an agreement the negotiations for which were conducted entirely by mail; or
- (g)

Door-to-Door Sales.

- (g) an agreement under which the vendor and the purchaser are persons who are or were parties to a credit arrangement that is in force or has been in force within two years before the agreement is entered into.

“Goods” includes all chattels personal other than money or livestock and includes any fixtures severable from realty.

“Purchaser” means a person by whom or on whose behalf goods are, under a credit purchase agreement, purchased or taken on bailment or agreed to be purchased or taken on bailment, or to whom services are, under such an agreement, provided and includes a person by whom or on whose behalf an offer is made to purchase goods or to take goods on bailment under such an agreement and a person by whom or on whose behalf an offer is made to enter into such an agreement for the provision of services to the offeror.

“Vendor” means a person by whom or on whose behalf goods are, under a credit purchase agreement, sold or bailed or agreed to be sold or bailed, or by whom or on whose behalf services are, under such an agreement, to be provided and includes a person by whom or on whose behalf an offer is made to sell or bail goods, or to provide services, under such an agreement, a person to whom or to whose agent an offer is made to purchase goods, or to take goods on bailment, under such an agreement and a person to whom or to whose agent an offer is made to enter into such an agreement for the provision of services to the offeror.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, where any offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made, or any negotiations leading to the entering into of a credit purchase agreement or to an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement are conducted, at the place of residence or employment of a purchaser, any credit purchase agreement entered into as a result of that offer or those negotiations and any offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement, being an offer

Door-to-Door Sales.

offer made as a result of those negotiations, shall be deemed to have been entered into or made, as the case may be, at the place of residence or employment of that person.

Credit purchase agreement or offer to be in writing, etc.

3. Where a credit purchase agreement is made, or an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made by the purchaser, at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser the agreement or offer shall be unenforceable by the vendor unless—

- (a) the agreement or offer is in writing;
- (b) a copy of the agreement or offer is given to the purchaser at the time when the agreement or offer is made; and
- (c) a statement and notice appended thereto, in the form of the Schedule to this Act, duly completed by the vendor in accordance with the instructions to the vendor contained in that Schedule is given to the purchaser at the time when the agreement or offer is made.

Power to terminate certain credit purchase agreements and offers.

4. (1) Where a credit purchase agreement is made, or an offer to enter into a credit purchase agreement is made by the purchaser, at the place of residence or employment of the purchaser the agreement or offer may be terminated by the purchaser or his or her spouse giving or causing to be given personally or by post, as provided in this section, to the person named as vendor in the notice appended to the statement given to the purchaser pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) of section three of this Act a notice in or to the effect of the notice set out in the Appendix in the Schedule to this Act.

(2) Notice pursuant to subsection one of this section may be given by delivering it personally to the address shown in the notice appended to the statement referred to in that subsection within a period of five days after the date upon which the statement was given to the purchaser (whether or not the agreement had been entered into at the time that statement was so given) or by properly addressing and posting by prepaid post a letter containing the notice to the vendor at that address within that period.
