HEIGHT OF BUILDINGS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1967

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to provide for the reduction from eleven to ten in the number of members of the Height of Buildings Advisory Committee appointed under the Height of Buildings Act, 1912–1965;
- (b) to provide for the appointment to the Committee of a member or servant of the State Planning Authority of New South Wales in lieu of an officer of the Chief Secretary's Department;
- (c) to omit from the Committee the officer of the Department of Local Government;
- (d) to make other provisions of a consequential or ancillary nature.

EXPLANATION

The Bill is intended to amend the provisions of the Building Act, 1947, relating to the height of buildings. It is proposed to increase the maximum height of buildings in certain areas from 100 feet to 120 feet. This increase is necessary in order to meet the requirements of the Government of India, who have advised that the maximum height of buildings in certain areas should be increased to 120 feet. The Bill also provides for the modification of the provisions of the Building Act, 1947, relating to the height of buildings in certain areas. It is proposed to increase the maximum height of buildings in certain areas from 100 feet to 120 feet. This increase is necessary in order to meet the requirements of the Government of India, who have advised that the maximum height of buildings in certain areas should be increased to 120 feet.
