- (a) by inserting next after subsection seven of section one hundred and thirty-three the following new subsection :—

Sec. 133.
(Appeal on question of whether land
is ratable.)

(8) (a) A court of petty sessions before which an appeal under this section is heard may make such order as it thinks fit for payment of the costs of or incidental to any such appeal.

(b) Any such order shall operate as an order for the recovery of money under the Small Debts Recovery Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, and be enforceable as such an order under the provisions of that Act, as so amended.

(c) For the purpose of enforcing any such order, the order may be entered in the records of the Small Debts Court exercising jurisdiction at the place where the order was made in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made under the Small Debts Recovery Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts.

- (b) by inserting next after section one hundred and fifty-eight the following new section :—

New sec.
158A.

158A. The council may write off extra charges in respect of rates levied for any year on any land within its area or within such part of its area as the council may determine, or upon any ratable person, if it is of opinion that—

Writing-off
of extra charges.

(a) payment of those extra charges would cause hardship to the persons ratable in respect of that land or to that ratable person, as the case may be; or

(b) the persons ratable in respect of that land, or that ratable person, as the case may be, were or was unable for reasons beyond their or his control to pay those rates when they became due and payable.

(c)

Local Government (Amendment).

New sec.
160D.

- (c) by inserting next after section 160C the following new section :—

Payment of rates by instalments.

160D. The council may, upon application made by any ratable person, agree with that person to accept payment by instalments of rates due and payable by that person to the council, and where that person complies with the terms and conditions of the agreement the council may write off or reduce extra charges in respect of those rates.

(2) The amendment made by paragraph (b) of subsection one of this section shall be deemed to have commenced on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.

Amendment
of Act No.
41, 1919,

Sec. 270G.
(Functions of parking advisory committees.)

- (a) by inserting next after subsection one of section 270G the following new subsection :—

(1A) A parking advisory committee shall consider, and furnish a report and recommendation to the council on, any application for the construction of a parking station referred to it by the council pursuant to subsection one of section 270JA of this Act.

New secs.
270JA and 270JB.

Parking
committee to consider applications to construct parking stations.

- (b) by inserting next after section 270J the following new sections :—

270JA. (1) Before approving an application (whether or not subject to conditions) made under this Act or under any town or country planning scheme within the meaning of Part XIIA of this Act to use any land or building or part of a building or to construct a building which, or part of which, is designed for use as a parking station, the council shall refer the application to the parking advisory committee for a report and recommendation on the application.

Local Government (Amendment).

(2) If the parking advisory committee recommends—

- (a) that the application be approved, the council may approve the application;
- (b) that the application be approved subject to conditions, the council shall not approve the application except subject to those conditions; or
- (c) that the application be refused, the council shall refuse the application, and in a case referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection the council shall forthwith inform the applicant of the recommendation of the parking advisory committee.

270JB. (1) Where—

- (a) the council is dissatisfied with the decision of the parking advisory committee upon its application for an approval under subsection one of section 270J of this Act; or
- (b) a person making an application referred to in subsection one of section 270JA of this Act is dissatisfied with the recommendation of the parking advisory committee on that application,

Liability
of vehicle owner for certain
offences.

270R. (1) Where an offence against any ordinance made under subsection four of section two hundred and seventy-seven of this Act occurs in relation to any vehicle, the person who at the time of the occurrence of the offence is the owner of the vehicle shall, by virtue of this section, be guilty of an offence against the ordinance as if he were the actual offender guilty of the offence, unless the court is satisfied that the vehicle was at the relevant time a stolen vehicle or a vehicle illegally taken or used.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of the actual offender but where a penalty has been imposed on or recovered from any person in relation to any such offence no further penalty shall be imposed on or recovered from any other person in relation thereto.

Local Government (Amendment).

(3) In this section—

“Owner” in relation to a vehicle being a motor vehicle includes—

- (a) every person who is the owner or joint owner or part owner of the vehicle and any person who has the use of the vehicle under a hire-purchase agreement but not the lessor under any such agreement;
- (b) the person in whose name the vehicle is registered except where such person has sold or otherwise disposed of the vehicle and has complied with the provisions of the regulations under the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, as amended by subsequent Acts, applicable to him in regard to such sale or disposal;
- (c) in the case of a vehicle to which a trader’s plate is affixed, the person to whom such trader’s plate is in issue.

“Registered” means registered under the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, as amended by subsequent Acts.

“Trader’s plate” means a trader’s plate issued under the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, as amended by subsequent Acts, for use as prescribed by regulation under that Act.

BY AUTHORITY:

V. C. N. BLIGHT, GOVERNMENT PRINTER, SYDNEY, NEW SOUTH WALES—1965

[1s. 6d. (15c)]

No. , 1965.

A BILL

To make further provisions with respect to the powers, authorities, duties and functions of councils; for this and other purposes to amend the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, and the Municipal Council of Sydney Electric Lighting Act, 1896-1935; to validate certain matters; and for purposes connected therewith.

[MR. MORTON;—11 November, 1965.]

Local Government (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Local Govern- Short title.
ment (Amendment) Act, 1965".

(2) The Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2. (1) Part II of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection two of section eleven and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :—

(2) The Governor may proclaim as a city a municipality which either—

(a) has a population of at least fifteen thousand persons and which is an independent centre of population and is not a suburb, whether residential, industrial, commercial or maritime, of any other municipality or centre of population; or

(b) has a population of at least one hundred thousand persons, and which has a distinct character and entity as a centre of population.

(2) The amendment made by subsection one of this section does not affect the status as a city of any city proclaimed before the commencement of this Act.

3. Part IV of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from paragraph (d) of subsection one of section twenty-eight the words "the Town Planning Associations of Australia" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the Australian Planning Institute".

41, 1919,
Part VII—
(Finance.)

(a) by inserting next after subsection seven of section one hundred and thirty-three the following new subsection :—

Sec. 133.
(Appeal on question of whether land
is ratable.)

5 (8) (a) A court of petty sessions before which an appeal under this section is heard may make such order as it thinks fit for payment of the costs of or incidental to any such appeal.

10 (b) Any such order shall operate as an order for the recovery of money under the Small Debts Recovery Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, and be enforceable as such an order under the provisions of that Act, as so amended.

15 (c) For the purpose of enforcing any such order, the order may be entered in the records of the Small Debts Court exercising jurisdiction at the place where the order was made in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made under the Small Debts Recovery Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts.

20 (b) by inserting next after section one hundred and fifty-eight the following new section :—

New sec.
158A.

25 158A. The council may write off extra charges in respect of rates levied for any year on any land within its area or within such part of its area as the council may determine, or upon any ratable person, if it is of opinion that—

Writing-off
of extra charges.

30 (a) payment of those extra charges would cause hardship to the persons ratable in respect of that land or to that ratable person, as the case may be; or

35 (b) the persons ratable in respect of that land, or that ratable person, as the case may be, were or was unable for reasons beyond their or his control to pay those rates when they became due and payable.

(c)

Local Government (Amendment).

(c) by inserting next after section 160C the following new section :—

New sec. 160D.

5 160D. The council may, upon application made by any ratable person, agree with that person to accept payment by instalments of rates due and payable by that person to the council, and where that person complies with the terms and conditions of the agreement the council may write off or reduce extra charges in respect of those rates.

Payment of rates by instalments.

10 (2) The amendment made by paragraph (b) of subsection one of this section shall be deemed to have commenced on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.

5. Part IX of the Principal Act is amended—

Amendment of Act No. 41, 1919, Part IX— (Public Roads.)

15 (a) by inserting next after subsection one of section 270G the following new subsection :—

Sec. 270G. (Functions of parking advisory committees.)

20 (1A) A parking advisory committee shall consider, and furnish a report and recommendation to the council on, any application for the construction of a parking station referred to it by the council pursuant to subsection one of section 270JA of this Act.

(b) by inserting next after section 270J the following new sections :—

New secs. 270JA and 270JB.

25 270JA. (1) Before approving an application (whether or not subject to conditions) made under this Act or under any town or country planning scheme within the meaning of Part XIII A of this Act to use any land or building or part of a building or to construct a building which, or part of which, is designed for use as a parking station, the council shall refer the application to the parking advisory committee for a report and recommendation on the application.

30

Parking advisory committee to consider applications to construct parking stations.

(2)

Local Government (Amendment).

(2) If the parking advisory committee recommends—

- (a) that the application be approved, the council may approve the application;
- 5 (b) that the application be approved subject to conditions, the council shall not approve the application except subject to those conditions; or
- 10 (c) that the application be refused, the council shall refuse the application, and in a case referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection the council shall forthwith inform the applicant of the recommendation of the parking advisory committee.

15 270JB. (1) Where—

- (a) the council is dissatisfied with the decision of the parking advisory committee upon its application for an approval under subsection one of section 270J of this Act; or
- 20 (b) a person making an application referred to in subsection one of section 270JA of this Act is dissatisfied with the recommendation of the parking advisory committee on that application,

Appeal where parking advisory committee refuses approval of a parking station.

the council or that person, as the case may be, may, within two months after the decision or recommendation of the parking advisory committee is notified to it or him, appeal to the Minister.

30 (2) If the appellant, upon making the appeal, or the parking advisory committee, within seven days after it is informed by the Minister of the appeal, so requests the Minister in writing, the Minister shall afford them an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed by the Minister for that purpose.

Local Government (Amendment).

(3) The decision of the Minister on an appeal under this section shall be final.

(c) by inserting next after section 270o the following new Division :— New Division
13B.

5 DIVISION 13B.—Free parking areas.

270P. This Division shall apply to all areas, and to the councils of all areas. Application of Division.

10 270Q. areas.

15 270R. (1) Where an offence against any ordinance made under subsection four of section two hundred and seventy-seven of this Act occurs in relation to any vehicle, the person who at the time of the occurrence of the offence is the owner of the vehicle shall, by virtue of this section, be guilty of an offence against the ordinance as if he were the actual offender guilty of the offence, unless the court is satisfied that the vehicle was at the relevant time a stolen vehicle or a vehicle illegally taken or used. Liability of vehicle
owner for certain offences.

25

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of the actual offender but where a penalty has been imposed on or recovered from any person in relation to any such offence no further penalty shall be imposed on or recovered from any other person in relation thereto.

30

Local Government (Amendment).

(3) In this section—

“Owner” in relation to a vehicle being a motor vehicle includes—

- 5 (a) every person who is the owner or joint owner or part owner of the vehicle and any person who has the use of the vehicle under a hire-purchase agreement but not the lessor under any such agreement;
- 10 (b) the person in whose name the vehicle is registered except where such person has sold or otherwise disposed of the vehicle and has complied with the provisions of the regulations under the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, as amended by subsequent Acts, applicable to him in regard to such sale or disposal;
- 15 (c) in the case of a vehicle to which a trader’s plate is affixed, the person to whom such trader’s plate is in issue.

25 “Registered” means registered under the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, as amended by subsequent Acts.

“Trader’s plate” means a trader’s plate issued under the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, as amended by subsequent Acts, for use as prescribed by regulation under that Act.

30 (d) by inserting next after subsection three of section two hundred and seventy-seven the following new subsection :— Sec. 277. (Ordinances.)

35 (4) Ordinances may be made for or with respect to carrying Division 13B of this Part into effect and in particular for or with respect to regulating the use of areas provided under section 270Q of this Act for the accommodation of vehicles.

Local Government (Amendment).

15. The Municipal Council of Sydney Electric Lighting Act, 1896-1935, is amended by inserting at the end of section twenty-seven the following new subsection :—

Amendment
of 60 Vic.
No. 23.

Sec. 27.

(Obligation to supply electricity.)

5 (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection one of this section, the council may, with the approval in writing of the Minister, supply electricity to any person in any part of its area upon terms or at rates different from those upon which it supplies electricity in similar 10 circumstances to other persons within that part of its area.

16. (1) The rate of twopence in the pound on the unimproved capital value of all urban farm lands within the Municipality of Holroyd, made and levied by the council of that municipality for the year one thousand nine hundred
15 and sixty-four, and any decision given by the council of that municipality with regard to whether any land within that municipality was urban farm lands, shall be, and be deemed always to have been, as valid and effectual as if the proclamation published in the Gazette Number 26 of the sixth day of 20 March, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four, extending the provisions of subsection two of section one hundred and eighteen of the Principal Act to that municipality had been made immediately before the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four.

[1s. 6d. (15c)]

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1965.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

THE objects of this Bill are—

- (a) to vary the conditions upon which the Governor may proclaim a municipality as a city ;
- (b) to authorise the payment of travelling expenses of members of councils attending conferences of the Australian Planning Institute instead of the Town Planning Associations of Australia ;
- (c) to enable a court of petty sessions to make an order for payment of costs where an appeal on the question of whether land is ratable is made to that court in those areas in which the Valuation of Land Act, 1916, as amended, does not apply ;
- (d) to enable the council to agree with a ratable person to accept payment of rates by instalments and, where the terms of the agreement are complied with, to write off or reduce extra charges on those rates ;
- (e) to enable a council to write off extra charges in respect of overdue rates, in certain circumstances ;
- (f) to provide that, in those areas in which a parking advisory committee has been constituted, a parking station shall not be erected by any person without the approval of that committee ;
- (g) to enable councils to regulate the use of free parking areas provided by the council ;
- (h) to provide that the Cumberland, Newcastle and Wollongong Board of Appeal, the Country Board of Appeal, and the Board of Subdivision Appeals may award costs against an appellant or objector in an amount sufficient to repay to councils the amount payable by the council by way of fees or allowances for members of the Boards ;
- (i) to give councils power, in exceptional circumstances, to approve of the opening in a subdivision of a pathway which does not lead to a public place ;
- (j) to dispense with the necessity for placing permanent survey marks in lanes or pathways, or in roads which are being widened ;
- (k) to enable councils to make advances to sporting clubs which are not conducted for private profit, for the purpose of constructing or improving greens, courts or courses, or other sporting facilities, and associated buildings ;
- (l) to enable councils to control boating in waters adjoining public baths or a public reserve where bathing is permitted ;
- (m) to provide that councils supplying electricity may, with the approval of the Minister, enter into agreements for the supply of electricity under different terms and at a rate different to those generally applicable ;

- (n) to increase from one hundred pounds to five hundred pounds the amount which a council may expend for purposes not authorised, but not expressly prohibited by law ;
- (o) to enable councils to expend funds on the eradication of fruit fly ;
- (p) to extend the existing provisions of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended, under which councils may enter into arrangements for a qualified medical practitioner and a qualified nurse to become resident in an area, so that similar arrangements may be made in the case of a legally qualified dentist ;
- (q) to remove the necessity for obtaining the Governor's approval where a council, in providing land for housing purposes, proposes to transfer the land and secure repayment of the purchase money by way of mortgage ;
- (r) to provide for the publication in a prescribed form, in a newspaper, of a notice of resumption by the council ;
- (s) to amend the provisions of section 564D of the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended, relating to Government guarantees of certain loans raised by county councils;
- (t) to reduce from seven to five years the period in respect of which rates must be outstanding before a council may arrange for the sale of the land for overdue rates ;
- (u) to require that where the council has resolved to sell for overdue rates and all outstanding rates have been paid or an arrangement satisfactory to the council for payment thereof has been made, the council shall not proceed with the sale ;
- (v) to amend the Municipal Council of Sydney Electric Lighting Act, 1896-1935, in a manner similar to that referred to in paragraph (m) above;
- (w) to validate certain urban farm rating in the Municipality of Holroyd, for the year one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four;
- (x) to make other amendments of a minor or ancillary nature.

PROOF

No. , 1965.

A BILL

To make further provisions with respect to the powers, authorities, duties and functions of councils; for this and other purposes to amend the Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, and the Municipal Council of Sydney Electric Lighting Act, 1896-1935; to validate certain matters; and for purposes connected therewith.

[MR. MORTON;—11 November, 1965.]

Local Government (Amendment).

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Local Government (Amendment) Act, 1965". Short title.

(2) The Local Government Act, 1919, as amended by subsequent Acts, is in this Act referred to as the Principal Act.

2. (1) Part II of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection two of section eleven and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsection :— Amendment of Act No. 41, 1919, Part II— (Constitution of Cities, Municipalities, and Shires.)

(2) The Governor may proclaim as a city a municipality which either— Sec. 11. (Proclamation of cities.)

(a) has a population of at least fifteen thousand persons and which is an independent centre of population and is not a suburb, whether residential, industrial, commercial or maritime, of any other municipality or centre of population; or

(b) has a population of at least one hundred thousand persons, and which has a distinct character and entity as a centre of population.

(2) The amendment made by subsection one of this section does not affect the status as a city of any city proclaimed before the commencement of this Act.

3. Part IV of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from paragraph (d) of subsection one of section twenty-eight the words "the Town Planning Associations of Australia" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "the Australian Planning Institute". Amendment of Act No. 41, 1919, Part IV— (The Councils of Cities, Municipalities, and Shires.) Sec. 28.

4. (Travelling expenses.)

Local Government (Amendment).

4. (1) Part VII of the Principal Act is amended—

Amendment
of Act No.
41, 1919,
Part VII—
(Finance.)

(a) by inserting next after subsection seven of section one hundred and thirty-three the following new subsection :—

Sec. 133.
(Appeal on question of whether land
is ratable.)

5 (8) (a) A court of petty sessions before which an appeal under this section is heard may make such order as it thinks fit for payment of the costs of or incidental to any such appeal.

10 (b) Any such order shall operate as an order for the recovery of money under the Small Debts Recovery Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts, and be enforceable as such an order under the provisions of that Act, as so amended.

15 (c) For the purpose of enforcing any such order, the order may be entered in the records of the Small Debts Court exercising jurisdiction at the place where the order was made in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made under the Small Debts Recovery Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Acts.

20 (b) by inserting next after section one hundred and fifty-eight the following new section :—

New sec.
158A.

25 158A. The council may write off extra charges in respect of rates levied for any year on any land within its area or within such part of its area as the council may determine, or upon any ratable person, if it is of opinion that—

Writing-off
of extra charges.

30 (a) payment of those extra charges would cause hardship to the persons ratable in respect of that land or to that ratable person, as the case may be ; or

35 (b) the persons ratable in respect of that land, or that ratable person, as the case may be, were or was unable for reasons beyond their or his control to pay those rates when they became due and payable.

(c)

Local Government (Amendment).

(c) by inserting next after section 160c the following new section :—

New sec. 160D.

5 160D. The council may, upon application made by any ratable person, agree with that person to accept payment by instalments of rates due and payable by that person to the council, and where that person complies with the terms and conditions of the agreement the council may write off or reduce extra charges in respect of those rates.

Payment of rates by instalments.

10 (2) The amendment made by paragraph (b) of subsection one of this section shall be deemed to have commenced on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.

5. Part IX of the Principal Act is amended—

Amendment of Act No. 41, 1919, Part IX— (Public Roads.)

15 (a) by inserting next after subsection one of section 270G the following new subsection :—

Sec. 270G. (Functions of parking advisory committees.)

20 (1A) A parking advisory committee shall consider, and furnish a report and recommendation to the council on, any application for the construction of a parking station referred to it by the council pursuant to subsection one of section 270JA of this Act.

(b) by inserting next after section 270J the following new sections :—

New secs. 270JA and 270JB.

25 270JA. (1) Before approving an application (whether or not subject to conditions) made under this Act or under any town or country planning scheme within the meaning of Part XIIA of this Act to use any land or building or part of a building or to construct a building which, or part of which, is designed for use as a parking station, the council shall refer the application to the parking advisory committee for a report and recommendation on the application.

Parking advisory committee to consider applications to construct parking stations.

Local Government (Amendment).

(2) If the parking advisory committee recommends—

- (a) that the application be approved, the council may approve the application;
- 5 (b) that the application be approved subject to conditions, the council shall not approve the application except subject to those conditions; or
- 10 (c) that the application be refused, the council shall refuse the application.

and in a case referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection the council shall forthwith inform the applicant of the recommendation of the parking advisory committee.

15 270JB. (1) Where—

- (a) the council is dissatisfied with the decision of the parking advisory committee upon its application for an approval under subsection one of section 270J of this Act; or
- 20 (b) a person making an application referred to in subsection one of section 270JA of this Act is dissatisfied with the recommendation of the parking advisory committee on that application,

Appeal where parking advisory committee refuses approval of a parking station.

the council or that person, as the case may be, may, within two months after the decision or recommendation of the parking advisory committee is notified to it or him, appeal to the Minister.

30 (2) If the appellant, upon making the appeal, or the parking advisory committee, within seven days after it is informed by the Minister of the appeal, so requests the Minister in writing, the Minister shall afford them an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed by the Minister for that purpose.

Local Government (Amendment).

(3) The decision of the Minister on an appeal under this section shall be final.

(c) by inserting next after section 270o the following new Division : —

New Division
13B.

5 DIVISION 13B.—Free parking areas.

270P. This Division shall apply to all areas, and to the councils of all areas.

Application of Division.

10 270Q. The council may on any land acquired by or vested in or under the care, control and management of the council, other than a public road or a public reserve, or on land held by the council on trust for any purpose, provide areas for the accommodation of vehicles without payment of a fee or charge.

15 270R. (1) Where an offence against any ordinance made under subsection four of section two hundred and seventy-seven of this Act occurs in relation to any vehicle, the person who at the time of the occurrence of the offence is the owner of the vehicle shall, by virtue of this section, be guilty of an offence against the ordinance as if he were the actual offender guilty of the offence, unless the court is satisfied that the vehicle was at the relevant time a stolen vehicle or a vehicle
25 illegally taken or used.

Liability
of vehicle owner for certain
offences.

30 (2) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of the actual offender but where a penalty has been imposed on or recovered from any person in relation to any such offence no further penalty shall be imposed on or recovered from any other person in relation thereto.

(3)

Local Government (Amendment).

(3) In this section—

“Owner” in relation to a vehicle being a motor vehicle includes—

- 5 (a) every person who is the owner or joint owner or part owner of the vehicle and any person who has the use of the vehicle under a hire-purchase agreement but not the lessor under any such agreement;
- 10 (b) the person in whose name the vehicle is registered except where such person has sold or otherwise disposed of the vehicle and has complied with the provisions of the regulations under the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, as amended by subsequent Acts, applicable to him in regard to such sale or disposal;
- 15 (c) in the case of a vehicle to which a trader’s plate is affixed, the person to whom such trader’s plate is in issue.
- 20

25 “Registered” means registered under the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, as amended by subsequent Acts.

“Trader’s plate” means a trader’s plate issued under the Motor Traffic Act, 1909, as amended by subsequent Acts, for use as prescribed by regulation under that Act.

- 30 (d) by inserting next after subsection three of section two hundred and seventy-seven the following new subsection : — Sec. 277.
(Ordinances.)

35 (4) Ordinances may be made for or with respect to carrying Division 13B of this Part into effect and in particular for or with respect to regulating the use of areas provided under section 270Q of this Act for the accommodation of vehicles.
